The bankrupt stock of T. Dolan & Co. amounts to fifteen thousand dollars, every department up to the standard and has to be sold at a great sacrifice for the benefit of his creditors. Just walk in for two seconds and see what you can get for a few dollars. The staff are all jolly good fellows.

The Event of Civic Holiday.

One of the old time picnic and excursions will be held on civic holiday under the triple management of the C.M.B.A., E.B.A. and C.O.F. societies. The destination of this excursion is Hastings, where there is one of the most suitable and popular groves in Ontario. Every possible kind of amusement will be presented by the committee. So if you want to have a real old reliable day's solid sport, make arrangements to take in this monster excursion.

For the Hot Weather

There is not much encouragement held out to a great many merchants to advertise during the months of July and August. It's so awfully hot, and so many people are out of town, and the farmers are so busy, that it almost makes one feel like joining the happy throng and going to the back lakes. But business is business, and J. J. Sheehy wishes to inform the public that he has just received a special lot of goods suitable for the hot weather, such as silk mitts, chailies, and heavy ranges of light materials for dresses. Prints are now going at cost price and there is a general clearance in all departments.

Another Residential Relic Gone.

An alarm of fire sounded last night a few minutes before eleven o'clock and quick to the call of duty the firemen responded. They were soon on the scene where the disaster was enacted. It proved to be an old one story frame house on the corner of Aylmer and Perry streets in the southern portion of the town. The ancient establishment which was situated in a potatoe field and has been unoccupied for the last two or three years, was, owing to its inflammable material soon enveloped in a blaze. The firemen plied one stream for about fifteen minutes and succeeded in extinguishing the fire before the house was burned to the ground. The building belonged to Mr. Robt. Duncan, carter and his loss is trifling.

Depositing Sawdust in the River.

County magistrate Edmison heard a case yesterday in which Inspector Gilchrist charged Cornelius Young, proprietor of the Young's Point sawmill with depositing sawdust in the water. Mr. W. H. Moore appeared for the defendant. The evidence of several witnesses was taken. Mr. Young and his brother, the foreman of the mill swore that they had done all the inspector had told them in the way of preventing sawdust from entering the water. They claimed if there was any sawdust deposited it was what blew in and could not be stopped. The magistrate enlarged the case for three weeks in order that Mr. Young might see if he could not do something more to guard against the sawdust entering the water. At the end of three weeks Mr. Gilchrist will make an examination to see if sufficient and satisfactory means have been taken to guard against the cause of complaint.

A Lively Morning Runaway.

A rather lively runaway fraught with many escapes and much damage to vehicles occurred about eight o'clock this morning. Mr. W. H. Moore, accompanied by Miss Moore, was at the G. T. R. station seeing some friends off, when a train shunting frightened the horse, which started off at full gallop. Miss Moore, who was in the phaeton at the time, succeeded in saving herself by jumping out. The buggy collided with the Canadian Express Company's wagon, which was standing at the station, and both conveyances were overturned. The horse and vehicle, after being freed, next collided with Mr. T. Hurley's two-wheeled cart, which was also at the station. The wheel of the cart was smashed and Mr. Hurley thrown out. He received a bad shaking up but happily sustained no other injury than a bruise on the arm. The next collison was in front of the Queen's hotel when Dr. Fife's horse was tied to a post. The runaway animal steered a straight course between Dr. Fife's buggy and the tree, but the latter was severely barked and bruised. Up Aylmer the horse turned and then down Hunter to Chambers, where it was captured in front of Dr. Stephenson's office. Mr. Moore's phaeton was badly damaged. The shaft being broken as well as the front wheel; the dash and seat were also twisted. It is fortunate that no serious disaster occurred from the lively morning episode.

A Popular Excursion.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Seeing an advertisement in your paper of a free gift excursion to Victoria Park on Saturday, I thought that I would take it in. You may judge that I was well pleased when I danced all the way down and back from the locks, to a good orchestra under the leadership of Prof. Butcher. Arriving at the Park, prizes were distributed to the passengers that came on the Golden Eye, my gift being a splendid table lamp. On my arrival home I found that I had enjoyed a splendid sail on the most beautiful river in Canada, and lots of dancing to first class music, and was presented with a dollar lamp—all for the small sum of 25c., an adult's ticket.

Yours truly,
F. G. TURNETT.

For the Good of Others

Rev. Mr. Williams Heartily Endorses Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We are pleased to present this from Rev. A. A. Williams, of the Sillsbee street Christian Church, Lynn, Mass.:

"I see no reason why a clergyman, more than a layman, who knows whereof he speaks, should hesitate to approve an

and worth, from which he or his family have been signally benefited, and whose commendation may serve to extend those benefits to others by increasing their confidence. My wife has for many years been a sufferer from severe

Nervous Headache

for which she found little help. She has tried many things that promised well but performed little. Last fall a friend gave her a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It seems surprising what simply one bottle could and did do for her. The attacks of headache decreased in number and were less violent in their intensity, while her general health has been improved. Her appetite has also been better. From our experience with

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I have no hesitation in endorsing its merits."

Musicians Meet

The Semi-Annual Meeting of the Band Held Last Night—Officers Elected and Reports Received—Other Matters Discussed.

The semi-annual meeting of the 57th Battalion and Peterborough Fire Brigade Band was held in the band hall last evening. All the members of the band and officers were present. President John Fraser occupied the chair and called the meeting to order. The semi-annual meeting is, as a rule, held on July 1st, but the band being away in Kingston this year, the meeting was delayed. Mr. E. McCabe, Secretary, and Mr. H. Jones, Treasurer, made their half-yearly reports the latter showing a small balance on hand. The election of officers resulted as follows:

PRESIDENT (re-elected)—John Fraser.
SECRETARY.—W. H. Calder.
TREASURER (re-elected)—H. Jones.
BANDMASTER AND MANAGER (re-elected)—F. W. Miller.

Mr. Whaley, of Whaley, Royce & Co., Toronto, was present and waited upon the band with some of the Company's new Imperial brass instruments. They were examined and tried by the members of the band, who who will report in regard to the matter later on.

It was agreed that the band should accompany Canton Peterborough No. 10, I.O.O.F., on their visit to Brantford to attend the Grand Encampment and Cantonment which opens in that city on Tuesday next.

Bandmaster F. W. Miller then adressed a few words to the members of the band. He thanked them heartly for the way they had turned out to practice and the splendid improvement they had made during the last half year. There was plenty of good ability in the band which was being developed. He expressed regret at the failure of the concert given in the interest of the new instrument fund, the returns and attendance being much smaller than was expected. Then citizens also were not contributing by any means liberally to the fund. The band had always rendered its services free when called upon, and had played to hundreds in the weekly band concerts, and the way in which they were treated by the citizens in return for this seemed hardly just or fair. Several other members spoke expressing regret that their appeal made to the citizens to purchase new instruments was being met with little or no success. The meeting then adjourned.

Another meeting will be held on Tuesday night next, when the returns of the concert and donations to the band fund will be submitted.

A Successful Lecture-Concert.

Warm Weather Makes a Small Attendance—A Brief But Excellent Programme—An Exceedingly Eloquent and Entertaining Lecture—A Brilliant Word Picture of Rome—Well Deserved Expressions of Appreciation.

There was a rather limited attendance at the lecture-concert last night in the opera house under the auspices of the Catholic Association, due, no doubt, to the hot weather, and somewhat to insufficient advertising. However, those who failed to be present missed one of the finest intellectual treats ever presented in town. The lecture on "Scenes in Rome" by Rev. Father Teefy, President of St. Michael's College, of Toronto, was preceded by a short but excellent musical programme, which consisted of selections by Butcher's Orchestra, a flute solo excellently performed by Mr. Butcher. Miss Louie Butcher, accompanist, and a violin solo, played with great taste and correctness by Miss Louise Yeborne, to the excellent accompaniment of Mr. Hoover. Then followed the treat of the evening. Mr. Mayor Kendry occupied the chair, and on the platform, besides the lecturer of the evening, were Rev. Father Rickius, Rector of St. Peter's Cathedral, Rev. Father Jephcott, Pickering, Rev Father Scollard, Rev. Father Walsh, Mr. Thomas Cahill and Mr. C. J. Leonard.

Mr. Kendry expressed his regret at the small attendance, which, he thought, was due to the warm weather, but he had been told that enough tickets had been sold to make it a financial success. He said that a letter of regret had been received from Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., who was unable to accept an invitation to be present owing to a pressing business engagement in Toronto.

Mr. Kendry, chairman, in a few eulogistic words, introduced Rev. Father Teefy, who was received with warm applause. The reverend lecturer is a gentleman of fine physical presence, on the sunny side of middle life, with a bright, keen eye, and a face of marked intellectual strength. He speaks with a voice robust but melodious, in accents that denote the cultured elocutionist and a mastery of the arts of oratory. His flow of language is easy. Every word is well chosen, and the effect is exceedingly pleasing and win him the well deserved credit of being one of the most successful of our own native Canadian lecturers. In a lecture of the nature of Rev. Father Teefy's a report, in the usual acceptance of the word, is impossible—one might as well expect to gather an adequate idea of Macbeth or Hamlet from a condensed synopsis. After referring in general terms to the fame of the Eternal City, which was familiar to all classes, the lecturer entered upon his subject "Scenes in Rome" which he with a party of friends had visited in 1887. He dealt with her ancient and historical institutions, the magnificence of her public buildings, her magnificent churches, the crowning glory, the glory of sacred Rome. Reference was made in turn to the Janiculum hill where stood a church upon the site where St. Peter suffered martyrdom to the Quirinal Palace, "stolen from the Pope," the Basilica of St. Paulo, erected on the spot where where the great apostle of the Gentiles, suffered death for the faith,—the third church which had been erected on this site. The lecturer led his hearers through that subterranean wonder, the catacombs of Rome, once the home of the early Christians on whose walls were the first samples of christian art, the vast substratum of the Eternal City honey-combed with the hallowed graves of Christian saints, martyrs and popes. There were 350 miles of these wonderful galleries. Here the speaker in eloquent terms described the chief features of these underground wonders, giving many graphic illustrations of the Christian symbolisms that adorned their walls. After a visit to the various churches, the forum, the stall where Virginius smothered his daughter to save her from patrician lust, the column on which the head of Cicero was nailed, the speaker took his rapt auditors to the Coliseum, which was graphically described, as well as the barbarous scenes that soaked the sands of its arena in blood, where Ignatius, the first of a long line of Christian martyrs, yielded up his life. After describing several others of the magnificent churches that make the soil of Rome sacred, the speaker reached the greatest of them all—St. Peter's church at Rome. In a word picture of wondrous beauty and eloquence, the speaker unfolded almost visibly to the eye of the auditor the magnificent architectural beauties of this greatest of Christian churches, and took them through the great treasure house of art, the Vatican, and concluded with a beautiful and touching account of an interview with the Holy Father, whose benignity, strength of character and sanctity of life were extolled in eloquent periods. During the course of his lecture the speaker digressed to give recitations from the poets illustrative of the subject, and the perfection and force of his elocution provoked repeated applause. Rev. Father Teefy's lecture was indeed a great treat, only to be appreciated by hearing. It fully deserved the term "literary mosaic," which Mr. C. J. Leonard applied to it, in seconding the vote of thanks to the lecturer moved in expressive and laudatory terms by Mr. T. Cahill, which was carried enthusiastically by a standing vote. A vote of thanks moved by Mr. W. H. Hopkins, and seconded by Mr. John McGrath, was tendered the chairman for his services during the evening. The lecture and the entertainment was a splendid success, and when in the future Rev. Father Teefy is announced to lecture in Peterborough, the fame of his triumph of last night, will it can be predicted, fill the house. Though the attendance was small it is understood that enough tickets were sold to make the entertainment of the Association a financial success.

Playing Cards in Church.

An extraordinary scene in a Hartford church last Sunday was an exhibition with cards, roulette, and faro paraphernalia by a reformed gambler, as a warning to the young. After a hymn had been sung by the congregation the convert was introduced. He displayed his old tools of trade on a stand near the preacher's desk, and then addressed his audience. He prefaced his remarks by saying that for twenty-five years he had been a professional gambler, and only saw the error of his ways after he had served a termed of imprisonment, to which he was unjustly sentenced for engaging in a "bunco" game. Then he dealt some faro hands and showed how the cards could be manipulated at will out of the dealer's box. Next he produced a pack of innocent-looking cards, and gave out poker hands to the members of the congregation, explaining that the back of each card told the professional gambler what it was. Illustrations with the roulette wheel followed, and the skillful reformed gambler showed how he could twirl the wheel so as to place the ball in a red or black pocket, as he chose. "Professional gambling," he said, "is not even a game of chance. It is nothing less than systematic robbery."

Scotland a Land of Thieves.

Presbyterian Scotland has had another black eye. There have recently been repetitions and reiterations of the assertions that Scotland has claims to first place for drunkenness and illegitimacy, and now comes Signor Bodio, the director general of statistics for the kingdom of Italy, with carefully compiled statistics which indicate that Scotland has more thieves than any other country—not, perhaps, necessarily that Scotchmen are "the biggest thieves in civilization," as one Edinburgh paper comments mournfully. Signor Bodio's figures show the trials for theft per 100,000 inhabitants per year in Scotland to be 289, heading the list. Germany follows with 262; England with 228; Italy, 221; Belgium, 143; France, 121; Ireland, 101; Hungary, 82; and Spain, 74. The figures are not for very recent years and may only indicate after all that Scotland catches her thieves and brings them to judgment, which other countries fail to do.—New York Sun.

Worse Than the Charge at Balaklava.

In the fight before Vicksburg the command of General McGinnis was drawn up behind intrenchments in a hollow at the foot of a hill occupied by 20,000 confederates. Grant rode up to McGinnis and said: "Will your men go up that hill?" They will go through h—l, if necessary," was the prompt reply. "All right," said Grant; "They will have a chance to do it after a while." The remark was made in a matter-of-fact way and in a few minutes the order came to advance. It was a worse assault in point of mortality than that of the guns of Balaklava, for four-fifths of the advancing union column went down in killed or wounded, and after it was over Generals Hovey and McGinnis and Colonel Spicely "cried like children" at the loss of their men. But the sacrifice saved thousands of other union lives and drew the enemy in a trap, putting the city at Grant's mercy.—New York World.

Cholera's Ravages.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 19.—Eighteen deaths from cholera occurred on board a Volga steamer between Astrakhan and Kasan.

During the last three days 17 persons have died from the disease on the Trans-Caucasus Railway.

An official report was issued to-day giving the number of cases of cholera reported and of the deaths which resulted from the disease on the 15th and 16th inst. as 1046 cases and 660 deaths.

Cholera in France.

PARIS, July 19.—Ten deaths from cholera were reported yesterday at Aubervilliers and one death at St. Ouine. Both of these villages are about five miles from Paris.

Etna still Active.

CATANIA, July 19.—The eruption of Mount Etna continues. Throughout the night violent rumblings were heard, accompanied by an increased discharge from the different craters. Stones and ashes were projected to a height of fully 1200 feet. This morning the noises had moderated.

Three Things to Remember.

Hood's Sarsaparilla has the most MERIT.
Hood's Sarsaparilla has won unequalled SUCCESS
Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes the greatest CURES.
Is it not medicine for you?

Constipation is caused by loss of the peristaltic action of the bowels. Hood's Pills restore this action and invigorate the liver.

If you once try Carter's Little Liver Pills for sick headache, biliousness or constipation, you will never be without them. They are purely vegetable, small and easy to take. Don't forget this. dw Useful Basket.

Boiling lard smokes in the center when it is sufficiently heated for use.

A little water in butter, when used for frying, will prevent it from burning.

Grease spots in cloth may be taken out by applying a solution of salt in alcohol.

A glass of pure cream or a glass of fresh milk, with a salt cracker or a crust of fresh bread, is a good lunch between meals for a hungry convalescent.

Liniments and ointments should always be applied to the patient with the hand; if applied with cotton or a cloth, the good effect obtained from the friction would be lost.

Tea should never be boiled. It should be made in a china or porcelain teapot, for the chemicals in it will act upon tin, not only causing the beverage to lose its flavor, but making it injurious to the system.

Coughs and sore throats may be much alleviated by glycerine and lemon juice diluted with water, taken at night. Hot flaxseed tea with lemon juice, sweetened with rock-candy, is excellent also.

Pans and kettles will last much longer if they are placed before the fire a few minutes to get dry inside. If put away in a damp condition they soon become rusty, and in a short time are quite unfit for use.

To tighten caneseat chairs turn up the chair bottom and wash the canework thoroughly with soapy water and a soft cloth. Let it dry in the sun and it will be as firm as when new, providing the cane has not been broken.

A remedy for roaches can be obtained by mixing gum camphor and powdered borax in equal parts and scattering it around freely, but in small quantities, which must be swept up, unless replaced, until all have disappeared.

Any one who is not troubled with moths among their clothes sometimes must be very lucky, and just now is the worst time for the little pests, because furs and winter garments have had to be laid by, at any rate for a few months. If you are worried how to prevent ravages, try a piece of rock sulphur laid inside everything.

There is nothing more useful about a kitchen than sal-soda. It will, dissolved in a little water, remove grease from anything, and there is nothing like it for cleaning an iron sink. It is also the very best thing for cleansing hair-brushes, which, by the way, should be cleaned much more frequently than they are.

The Great Female Medicine.

The functional irregularities peculiar to the weaker sex, are invariably corrected without pain or inconvenience, by the use of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. They are the safest and surest medicine for all the diseases incidental to females of all ages, and the more especially so in this climate. Ladies who wish to enjoy health, should always have these Pills. No one who ever uses them once will allow herself to be without them. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all medicine dealers.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give hosewho call for it, a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and a dollar. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption. dw

A Suitable Gift.

A tube of Dyer's Jelly of Cucumber and Roses for making the skin soft and smooth will be acceptable to any lady. Druggists keep it. W. A. Dyer & Co., Montreal.

A BURN OR CUT will heal quickly and leave less scar if Victoria Carbolic Salve is applied at once. dw

"August Flower"

Mrs. Sarah M. Black of Seneca, Mo., during the past two years has been affected with Neuralgia of the Head, Stomach and Womb, and writes: "My food did not seem to strengthen me at all and my appetite was very variable. My face was yellow, my head dull, and I had such pains in my left side. In the morning when I got up I would have a flow of mucus in the mouth, and a bad, bitter taste. Sometimes my breath became short, and I had such queer, tumbling, palpitating sensations around the heart. I ached all day under the shoulder blades, in the left side, and down the back of my limbs. It seemed to be worse in the wet, cold weather of Winter and Spring; and whenever the spells came on, my feet and hands would turn cold, and I could get no sleep at all. I tried everywhere, and got no relief before using August Flower Then the change came. It has done me a wonderful deal of good during the time I have taken it and is working a complete cure."

STRUNG UP TWICE BY LYNCHERS.

A Californian Tells of the Sensation of Hanging as He Felt It.

FRESNO, Cal., July 19.—It is not often that a man lives to tell of the sensations of hanging, yet this is what has befallen "Mike" Blume, who was lynched near here as the suspected murderer of A. G. Haskins. Haskins "bounced" Blume and a companion from his picnic grounds for bringing in liquor. They swore revenge. A fortnight afterward Haskins was killed as he was crossing a flume at night. Blume was arrested and put in jail at Sanger. Although the constable knew there were threats of lynching he established no guard. The examination brought out strong evidence against Blume, but it was all circumstantial. On Friday night masked men obtained access to Blume's cell with a key, took him to the scene of Haskins' murder, tied a rope around his neck and flung it over the flume, and then told him he could have his last word. Blume's story of what happened is as follows:

"The men pulled me up. I felt the jerk and thought my neck was broken. I knew nothing more until I found myself lying on the ground. When I was myself again the men asked me if I would tell who were with me in the plot. I said I had no accomplices. I was again pulled up and lost consciousness again. The next I knew I was in the Sanger jail. The door was locked and I was alone. This morning I was put into a wagon and brought here to Fresno. I know who tried to kill me, and when the right time comes I will give their names."

He describes the sensation of hanging as extremely unpleasant. He said he felt a crack in his neck and new nothing more. The next thing he knew he was lying on the ground. The second hanging was the same as the first, except that he was so long in coming to his senses that he was back again in Sanger Jail when he regained consciousness. If a confession was what the lynchers wanted they were disappointed, for Blume stoutly maintained his innocence. He is in a bad condition. The place where the rope went around his wrist is cut to the bone and his hand is paralyzed. His windpipe is ruptured by the tightening of the rope on his neck, turning it black and blue. His neck was twisted and strained so that he is unable to straighten it. It is bent backward over his right shoulder.

Hotel Guests Disturbed by a Lunatic.

ASBURY PARK, N.J., July 19.—George C. Parker of Jersey City came to Ocean Grove last night and registered at the National Hotel. A few hours after retiring the guests of the house were startled by shrieks and piercing cries. They were traced to Parker's room, and he was found gesticulating wildly and talking incoherently about religion. It required two officers to place him in the lock-up. This morning his condition was no better, but he rambled on politics. This afternoon he was sent home. Parker was recently liberated from the Morristown Asylum, where he was placed by his family. Some time ago he deeded his property to his wife, who refused to deed it back to him. This preyed on his mind until he became insane.

Hanged Himself.

HAMILTON, July 19.—George Childs, aged 65, for years employed at the G.T.R. shops, left for Whitney, Indiana, a month ago to live with relatives. His body was brought here yesterday, the old man having hanged himself a day or two ago.

Kept Her Marriage Secret.

CINCINNATI, July 19.—A divorce granted Mrs. James Curry yesterday revealed a curious story. For six years she has been a popular teacher in the public schools here, and was known as Miss Mary Muehlhoner. The testimoney showed that three years ago she married at Cynthiania, Ky., James Curry. They returned to this city the same day. Mrs. Curry gave her husband $300 to return to Cynthiania to put into his business. He left next morning and, selling out, left for parts unknown. She kept the secret until the law gave her a divorce on the ground of abandonment.

Whether Pasteur and Koch's peculiar modes of treatment will ultimately prevail or not, their theory of blood-contamination is the correct one, though not original. It was on this theory that Dr. J. C. Ayer of Lowell, Mass. nearly fifty years ago, formulated Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

A Child Saved.

My little boy was taken very bad with diarrhœa, he was very delicate and got so low we had no hope of his life, but a lady friend recommended Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and although he could only bear a few drops at a time he got well. It saved my child.

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, ONT., January 15, 1892.
W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.
DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.
Yours faithfully,
H. F. ATWELL.

WIT UNDER DIFFICULTY.

Some Remarkable Historical Instances of Bright Retorts.

One of the smartest of the celebrated Bishop Bloomfield's bon mots was also made during his last illness. He had inquired what had been the subjects of his two archdeacon's charges, and was told that one was on the art of making sermons and the other on churchyards. "Oh, I see," said the dying bishop, "composition and decomposition!" Among the peculiarities of Selwyn which attracted attention were his his love of children, and his morbid taste to see death or the dead. Not an execution escaped him, and he is said to have made a journey to Paris to see Damiens broken on the wheel. The last propensity was the subject of many a joke among his intimates, of which the first Lord Holland's was the best.

When on his deathbed he was told that Selwyn had called to inquire after him. "The next time Mr. Selwyn calls," said he, "show him up, for if I am alive I shall be delighted to see him, and if I am dead he will be glad to see me." Equally as grimly cynical was the reply of William Taylor (or "Willie Harrow," as he was commonly called). Being visited in his last extremity by a clergyman, he was asked if he was prepared for another world. "'Deed, sir," said Willie, "I dinna ken if I need trouble mysel' aboot it; for if the folk there are like the folk here they'll pay unco' little attention to a puir body like me.

The field of battle has produced many an example of grim humor, and a capital story is told how, when Sir William Scrope was about to charge with his troop at the famous conflict of Edgehill, at the opening ball of the Parliamentary campaign against Charles I., he said to his young scapegrace of a son, "Jack, if I should be killed, lad, you will have enough to spend," to which the rogue answered, "And egad, father, if I should be killed you will have enough to pay." "Why are you so melancholy?" asked the Duke of Marlborough of a soldier after the battle of Blenheim. "I am thinking," replied the man, "how much blood I have shed for sixpence." Another retort of one of the rank and file conveyed a well-merited rebuke. A soldier had his two hands carried off at the wrists by a shot. His colonel offered him a crown. "Colonel," replied the man reproachfully, "it was not my gloves but my hands that I lost."

"Once," writes Mr. Lawrence Oliphant, "I was in a Cornish mine, some hundreds of feet down in the bowels of the earth. Crawling down a ladder and feeling that the temperature was every moment getting warmer, I said to a miner who was accompanying me: 'It is getting very hot down here. How far do you think it is to the infernal regions?' 'I don't know exactly,' he replied, 'but if you let go you will be there in two minutes.'"

Sheridan, too, when dying, on being requested to undergo an operation, humorously replied that he had already submitted to two, which were enough for one man's lifetime. Being asked what they were, he answered, "Having my hair cut and sitting for my picture." There is a sly insinuation in the following, which no doubt was duly appreciated by the person to whom it was addressed.

Even duelling, too, has discovered men who will jest to the very last, and as an example of grim humor under singularly uncomfortable circumstances the following would be exceedingly hard to beat. M. de Malsaignes was a determined duellist. Having quarrelled with a brother officer they agreed to fight out the dispute in the very room where it took place, when M. de Malsaignes' adversary managed to run him through the body and nail him against the door. "This is all very well," said the transfixed duellist, "but, pray, how are you to get out?" Dr. Mead and Dr. Woodward fought under the gates of Gresham College. Woodward's foot slipped, and he was at the mercy of his opponent. "Take your life!" exclaimed Dr. Mead. "Anything but your physic," retorted the prostrate man.—London Standard.

HAMILTON, April 20th, 1892.
I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp and they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes. Hearing of Anti Dandruff I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years. When half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Anti-Dandruff has no equal.

AN EERIE CREMATION.

WEIRD SCENES AT THE CREMATION OF COLLINS' BODY.

His Former Companions Sang as the Body Turned to Ashes—The Authorities Threaten to Sue the Whitechapel Club for Lighting Their Fire Near a Dynamite Factory.

CHICAGO, July 20.—A large urn of classic mould monopolized interest in the Whitechapel Club yesterday. It contained ashes of M. A. Collins, the suicide, whose body was burned by the club Sunday morning. The cremation has left so strong an impression that it is proposed to burn and then urn fellow-members as fast as nature fore closes.

Among those who witnessed the burning of Collins were Dr. John E. Harper, Dr. Hugh Blake Williams, Dr. John E. Spray and R. T. Holloway, a sculptor. The physicians assisted in selecting Collins ashes from the base residue.

Dawn was breaking when the service at Millers closed and the fragments and dust remaining from the cremation were raked from the base of the pyre. The body then had been among the fire and cinders for five hours and ten minutes. It was placed on the pyre at 10.30, and in less than five minutes after that the flames had snatched off the sheet as if it were gun cotton and left the rigid corpse sharp and black against a lurid background. The wind was off shore, blowing the flames and smoke towards the lake. It left the process of destruction plainly visible, while apparently not interfering with the effect of the heat on the body.

For a few minutes the imperfect combustion of gases or the draft or some other unexplained cause seemed to protect the corpse from the flames that began at a distance from the body, as they do sometimes from a match which one lights at the top of a lamp-chimney. Then, with a flash, the fire ran along the flesh, and in a few seconds the corpse was burning like walnut. The legs first sank, with a flurry of coals. Then the frame of the trunk disappeared, leaving the skull resting on the pillow of a big warm log.

The mourners had just begun their closing march, and the refrain, "Hurrah for the next who dies!" was floating over the beach when the skull rolled down into the bed of coals on which the other fragments rested. The weight of the mass carried to the club rooms was less than seven pounds.

All who saw the cremation were struck with the singular nobility of it. There was no perceptible odor and the picture of the body, motionless and stately amid the flames, seemed to them grand beyond description.

The indications are that the Whitechapel Club will be involved in trouble over the affair. The city of Chicago has no jurisdiction in the matter, but the Lake County (Indiana) authorities are indignant. Their anger is not caused by the cremation, but at what they believe was a narrow escape of the town of Millers from destruction. That part of Indiana in which the cremation occurred is a desert. Millers contains probably 100 inhabitants, and between the town and the lake shore are several dynamite and powder factories. They are located in stretches of waste sand, apparently away from all danger of fire.

The Whitechapelers built their pyre on the shore in rear of a dynamite factory in blissful ignorance of the surroundings. When they left the train at Millers several countrymen, who smelled a prize fight, followed the party. The elevation of the corpse frightened these louts, but when a torch was applied to the pyre they ran panic-stricken through the sand, shouting "Powder factory!" One or two returned and informed the men of the danger, but they paid no attention to it.

Now the Indiana officials will bring a charge of trespass and endangering life and property against the club.

THE PREACHER PAID THE COST.

He Was Accused of Language Unbecoming a Minister and a Gentleman.

WINDSOR, Ont., July 20.—The case of Rev. J. L. Ryckman and Mrs. Nall, in which the latter accused her pastor of using language to her unbecoming a minister of the gospel and a gentleman, was in the police court yesterday and the colored population was well represented.

Magistrate Bartlet said he thought the matter should be settled before coming to trial, and it was finally decided that the preacher pay the costs and the plaintiff withdraw the charges, which was done.

THE GRAND MASTER DEAD.

Chief Officer of Manitoba's Grand Lodge Passes Away at Portage la Prairie.

WINNIPEG, July 20.—J. W. H. Wilson, Grand Master of Grand Lodge of Manitoba, died yesterday at Portage la Prairie.

Newfoundlanders Sorely Tried.

ST. JOHN'S, N.F., July 20.—Forest fires are again raging in and around the country. At Bay Bulls a large fire is in progress, and another between here and Topsail is assuming serious proportions.

Beyond that the whole country side along the railway line is in flames. Manuels, Holyrood, Kelligrews and Salmon Cove are threatened, and five houses were burned today at Whitbourne and 14 at Blaketown.

The trains were delayed several hours and had to come through burning woods at top speed with all apertures closed.

There has been practically no rain the past month and most intense dryness prevails. It is supposed that locomotive sparks set fire to the woods.

Signal Hill, a large mountain at the entrance of the city, was ablaze last night, but the flames were extinguished after some trouble. The proximity of the fires is causing somewhat of a panic here.

Members of Grand Council appointed: J. S. Dewar, G. D. Adams, James Greenfield, H. Griffiths, J. A. Angell.

It was resolved that the Great Priory of Canada be represented at the Triennial Conclave of the Grand Encampment of the United States at Denver in August, the representatives to be subsequently appointed by the grand master.

A motion that the next annual assembly be held at Hamilton in October of 1893 was lost. Great Priory will therefore meet next year at the same time and place as Grand Lodge.

Toronto was represented at the convention by Messrs. Malone, J. R. Robertson, R. L. Paterson, Sheppard, Manley, Ryerson, Collins, Bennett, Roaf, Douglass, Nixon, Morrison, Mansell, Glanville, Sargent and Allan.

The uniform question as introduced by Bro. Adams was referred to a committee to report on next year.

The new ritual as submitted was approved.

There promises to be a large meeting of Grand Lodge to-morrow. Everything points to Hon. J. M. Gibson for Grand Master. He has just returned from British Columbia.

W. R. White of Pembroke is the coming Deputy Grand, while Dr. Ryerson of Toronto makes a great bid for Grand Senior Warden.

OFFENSIVE ECZEMA

Suffered Terribly. Doctors and Medicines Useless. Cured in Four Weeks by Cuticura.

I have a boy, fifteen years old, born in Highhill, portrait enclosed, who had the eczema so offensive that I could not stay in the room with him. The poor boy suffered terribly. His feet were terribly sore, he could not wear any shoes, and had therefore to stay at home from school. When he put on a pair of dry stockings in the morning, they would in one hour be saturated with moisture and very offensive even in the coldest weather. The disease began to spread over his body, especially his hands and fingers. The thumbs on both his hands became stiff and as useless as two withered sticks of wood. It would be useless for me to try to tell the suffering this boy endured. I took him to two different doctors, both gave him lots of medicine, but all to no use. He grew worse. I therefore despaired of ever having him cured. One day I saw the great benefits promised to those who would use CUTICURA REMEDIES. I went right away to the drug store and bought them. I must confess I had but little faith in them. However I used them according to directions, and to-day I say truthfully to all the world, if you wish to publish it, that my son is entirely cured, thank God and thank the discoverers of CUTICURA REMEDIES. They cured him in four weeks as sound as a gold dollar.

FOR SALE.

The House at present occupied by J. Z. ROGERS, Ashburnham.

They Say They Are; But, Are They?

THIS is the time of year when lots of Clothing Stores are offering goods 50 to 60 per cent. below cost, and at much less than goods can be bought at other stores, retailing below wholesale prices, closing out the stock of some defunct or deceased firm, running alleged bargain tables and sacrificing goods below cost, just for fun, are among the many pleasantries to which clothiers treat the reading public.

A few days ago one of those shrewd, bright and flippant buyers entered our store. It was evident that curosity, and not the desire to purchase, had brought him. He looked at Suits and he looked at Overcoats. He criticised and condemned, but finally the salesman showed him a suit that attracted his attention. He objected to the price, whereupon the salesman informed him that we are at present selling goods below cost. Quick as a flash came the response, "You say you are, but are you? Everybody else is spinning the same old yarn." Well, we sold that man the suit. We convinced him that we are actually selling below cost. We showed him the old price in black figures, and the new one in red figures. The difference between the two told the tale. All we ask is to be put to the test. We are confident that we are underselling every one in the clothing trade.

SUPPOSED TO BE MURDER

NORTH ONTARIO HAS A LARGE-SIZE SENSATION.

The Twelve Year-Old Suicide Case Which Created Excitement Last May Now Believed to Have Been a Murder—An Inquest and Verdict Against Unknown Parties.

ORILLIA, Ont., July 21.—Joseph Badgerow, a 12-year-old boy, was found hanging in his father's stable at Rathbun on May 15. The boy was buried two days later. Rumors of foul play were in circulation at the time, but no action was taken until yesterday, when an inquest was held on an order from the Attorney-General.

A number of witnesses were examined. County Attorney Farewell of Whitby, and the evidence proved that it was barely possible for a boy 5 ft. 1 in. in height to hang himself in a stable 6 ft. 1 in. high, with a chain 4½ feet long, and that the body lacked all appearances of death from strangulation.

The post mortem on the exhumed body failed to show the cause of death, the body being badly decomposed.

The jury brought in a verdict that the deceased came to his death by violence at the hands of a person or persons unknown.

Fuller developments are looked for shortly.

KILLED FOR HIS WAGES.

A Bricklayer Supposed to Have Been Murdered at Niagara Falls, N.Y.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 21.—There is suspicion of foul play connected with the death of the man whose body was found in the Hydraulic Canal at Niagara Falls, N.Y., yesterday. The man has been identified. He is Frank Fimple, a German aged 37 years, and is unmarried. He was born and brought up at St. Catharines, Ont., where he has made his home mostly. He came here looking for work, and was given employment by McDonough Bros. as a bricklayer in the new Niagara Falls Paper Company's building. He was paid off Saturday night and has been missing since Sunday. Only 10 cents in change were found in Fimple's pockets when Coroner Walsh made his investigation.

Coroner Walsh notified his friends in St. Catharines. A sister in Hamilton was also informed of his death.

THE MASONIC GRAND LODGE.

John Ross Robertson Resigns the Grand Mastership of the Order.

LONDON, Ont., July 21.—Grand Lodge was opened in the Opera House at 2 p.m. yesterday by M. W. Bro. J. Ross Robertson, Grand Master. P.G. Masters Walkem, Murray, Spry, Robertson and Moffatt are present, also Deputy Grand Gibson, Senior Warden Sutherland and Junior Warden Mingay Addresses of welcome were received from the Mayor and corporation, and from the Masons of London.

Grand Master Robertson made a most eloquent and able address, practically retiring from the chair, and commemorating his term of office by a further munificent gift of money to the Toronto Sick Children's Hospital.

Several amendments to the constitution were passed.

Bro. Malcolm Gibbs' usual temperance amendment was badly beaten.

The sum of $500 was voted the St. John's sufferers.

The election of officers, which takes place this morning, is creating more than the usual interest.

Templar Appointments.

O. Pike, Stanstead, Grand Almoner; Benjamin Allen, Toronto, First Standard-Bearer; J. Mitchell, Montreal, Second Standard-Bearer; Gavin Stewart, Woodstock, G.M.S. Banner Bearer; E. F. Clements, Nova Scotia, Grand Captain of the Guard; James Haddock, Winnipeg, Grand Sword Bearer; Angus McKeown, British Columbia, Grand Organist; F. M. Morson, Toronto, Grand Pursuivant; M. TORONTO GRAIN MARKETS.

Business Transacted and Prices of Grain in the Queen City.

TORONTO, July 21.—Receipts of grain on the street yesterday were represented by 100 bushels of fall wheat at 80c, and 200 bushels of oats at 35c to 35 1-2c. Hay was in moderate supply, 20 loads selling at $8 to $9 for new and $11 to $12 for old. Two loads of straw sold at $8 and $10 50 each.

On 'change business was very quiet, the only offering being two cars by sample at 85c and 65c, with $45c bid for the latter.

Blake to Get Gladstone's Portrait.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 21.—A letter from London says that the Hon. Edward Blake, M.P. for South Longford, will be entertained at dinner at the National Liberal Club, when a distinguished Canadian will make a formal presentation to him of a portrait of Gladstone, painted by J. C. Forbes of Toronto on behalf of the Liberal party of Canada.

Manitoba's Harvest.

WINNIPEG, July 21.—The weather throughout Manitoba is very warm, with occasional showers—just right weather for growing crops, which are coming up rapidly. The farmers of the country are jubilant over the prospects. It is safe to say that nothing can now prevent a bountiful harvest.

A MASON'S HIDDEN HOARD.

Supposed to Have Died Poor, He Left a Trunkful of Money.

MIDDLETOWN, July 21.—Thomas Webb, an English stonemason, employed along the line of the New York, Susquehanna and Western Railroad, was supposed to be a poor man. He died July 4, and just before his death sent $280 to a firm at Franklin Furnace, asking that he be given a decent burial when he should die.

An examination of his effects has just been made, which resulted in bringing to light $3200 in cash and checks found in his trunk. He had thrown into the trunk a number of sealed envelopes containing money received from his employers, which he had not opened. His remains were buried in North Church Cemetery and a monument will be erected to mark the place. All the money left will be forwarded to his only sister, living in England, who is believed to be the only heir.

WOULD LOOK SO NICE DEAD.

A Buffalo Child's Excuse for Poisoning Another of Her Playmates.

BUFFALO, N.Y., July 20.—Out at Father Baker's institution at Limestone Hill there is a girl of 14 years, Ella Holdridge, whose morbid passion for seeing death and funerals has led her to kill one of her playmates and cause the serious illness of three others by poison.

The Holdridges have lived in Tonawanda for years. While in all other respects Ella has been like other children, her parents and the neighbors have always noticed that a funeral or announcement of a death seemed to set her wild.

She grew to be a very familiar figure at the burying-ground, for almost as certain as there was a funeral the child was near the open grave.

Tonawanda is 10 miles from Buffalo, but it might just as well be at the bottom of Lake Erie so far as the publicity of news is concerned, and thus it is that Ella's crime did not become known for more than a week.

Her plan was to administer rat poison, which she made as agreeable to take as possible by mixing it with cocoa. When the children refused to take it willingly she threw them on their backs and forced it down their throats, leaving them to die if they would, but watching them suffering from a distance and gloating over it.

The Holdridge child was sent for and questioned. At first she denied having given any of the children anything to eat or drink, but when told that she had been seen making the cocoa and that it was known she had poisoned them she very naively and with wide-open eyes said:

"Dear me, is that so?"

As far as can be learned this child Borgia's work began in earnest July 7. On that day Ella had been playing with Louisa, the 17-year-old daughter of Herman Stermer. Shortly after she left Louisa was taken violently ill. The weather was hot, just the kind in which children's complaints flourish, and the physician called prescribed for summer complaint. None of his remedies eased her sufferings, and after two days of intense agony the little one died.

She was buried on the 11th, and one of the conspicuous figures at the Stermer home during the days intervening between death and the funeral and at the open graveside was little Ella Holdridge, solemn and quiet, but her eyes flashing with excitement, her cheeks burning and her face full of mystery.

The doctor had given a certificate of death from summer complaint, and no thought of murder or poison entered the mind of any one until last Wednesday, when Mrs. Eggleston came to Buffalo on a shopping expedition, leaving her two young daughters at home. She had been gone only a few minutes when the Holdridge girl went to the house. The children were playing around the doorstep.

Ella took them inside and told them she would make them something nice. She locked the door and made a pot of cocoa, into which she threw a generous handful of rat poison.

One of the children didn't like the taste. She was pushed onto a sofa. The liquid was poured down her throat. Then Ella told them both they would be all right soon, directing them not to tell anyone.

That night both children were taken violently ill and Dr. Edmonds was called. He at once suspected poison. Questioning the little patients closely he learned enough to put him on the track of the child poisoner.

Ever since then Dr. Edmonds has been attending the children and may save their lives, although the hot weather tells against them.

While he was working over the Eggleston children it was discovered that the 5 year old son of Mr. Garlock had been poisoned.

A panic seized the neighborhood. Every child was catechised to learn if it had eaten or drunk anything given them by Ella Holdridge.

By hard work the physicians who attended the Garlock boy saved his life, although he is yet very ill. In the meantime Dr. Harris, who attended the girl who died, and Dr. Edmonds had compared notes, and Justice of the Peace Rodgers and Coroner Hardleben were notified and began an investigation.

Then she made a full confession. She told how she had made the cocoa with the poison in it, and how she had forced it down the throats of the little Eggleston children because she wanted to go to a funeral and thought they would look so nice dead.

When the death of little Louisa Stermer was brought up, she frankly said:

"Yes, she's dead. Poor Louisa! But she looked awful pretty and her funeral was awful nice."

Ella had given her the poison in a drink of water, she said. She told her tale in the most matter-of-fact way, without seeming to realize the enormity of her act.

At the conclusion of the confession Justice Rogers sent her to Father Baker's for safekeeping until the coroner's investigation is finished.

It has been learned that after she had given the poison to the little Stermer girl Ella went home, and her mother, noticing that she seemed to be laboring under suppressed excitement, asked her what the trouble was.

"I don't know," she replied, "but I guess little Louisa is goin' to die, 'cause she's pretty sick. The doctor is there."

From then until the child died Ella made frequent trips to the Stermer house, tiptoed her way to a window and peeked in. Every time she ran back to her mother and cried almost joyously.

"I guess she's most dead now."

Finally little Louisa died. The first intimation Mrs. Holdridge had of it was when Ella ran into the house clapping her hands and dancing up and down, saying gleefully:

"I guess she's dead now, 'cause they're all in there crying and there's a man there with a box. She's dead, she's dead; I know it."

And she danced off out into the street.

Mrs. Holdridge is almost prostrated with grief.

"I questioned Ella," she said, "but all I can get from her is that she thought they would look nice dead and she wanted to go to the funeral."

She seemed always to have a perfect mania for deaths and funerals. Every time anyone died she learned of it in some way and would dance up and down with joy, clapping her hands and saying, "He's dead! He's dead!"

"Then if she could she would slip away and go to the cemetery to the funeral. Several times when she has returned home after an absence and I questioned her, she would tell me enough to lead me to believe she had been following a funeral.

The girl was seen in the institution today and questioned, but could give no explanation of her poisoning, other than that "they looked nice dead." When asked how she knew the poison would kill the children, she said:

"If it killed rats and mice it would kill children."

Her mind seems perfectly free from evil and she said, very quietly and earnestly:

"Little Louisa looked very pretty dead."

She says she got the poison "in the house."

Mrs. James Knight Frustrated in Her Attempt by the Police.

HALIFAX, N.S., July 21.—James Knight, proprietor of a saloon in Creighton-street, separated from his wife some time ago and has since been living with another woman.

Yesterday, while Knight was out of town, Mrs. Knight and an adult daughter, provided with a clothes line and an ax, entered the saloon and assaulted the other woman.

They succeeded in getting a noose around her neck and dragged her into the street. As they were putting the rope over a sign the police interfered.

The Town's Bank Account.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—A very pertinent municipal matter of much interest to ratepayers was referred to, in a communication that appeared in the Daily Review of Tuesday, which pointed out that the town was paying six per cent. interest to the bank (the Ontario) with which it deals, while money for the town's accommodation could be obtained elsewhere for five per cent. or less, if the account was put up, as it certainly should be, to competition. As the amount required from the bank during the year averages, at least, $20 000, running, I believe, in some seasons of the year, to nearly double that sum, it is of considerable importance whether six or five per cent. is paid on overdrafts. It has been told on the street, that, at a late meeting of the Finance Committee, at which the Bank Manager where the account is kept was present, when this subject came up, he influenced the committee not to put the account up to competition, but to leave it with him.

There is another matter in this connection that deserves the council's attention, namely, the anomalous position of the town treasurer who is manager of the bank where the town's account is kept, and where over $60,000 of town taxes are paid in yearly. Most decidedly and emphatically, this is altogether wrong and most unbusiness-like, and it is to be hoped that when councillors come to reflect on the impropriety of uniting banker and treasurer in one person they will not delay to separate them. Ratepayers will not submit to a careless conduct of their affairs for very long.

Your obedient servant,
ANOTHER RATEPAYER.

A Reciprocity Movement.

A joint movement is on foot in Minnesota and North Dakota to bring about reciprocity between the Northwestern States and Manitoba. At a meeting of the St. Paul Chamber of Commerce last week a letter was read from the Grand Forks Chamber urging organized effort. The letter says:—"If reciprocity has been such a marvelous success in such a brief period of time with southern countries, we in the northern part of the United States should enjoy the same privileges with our Canadian neighbors. It is the policy of the present Administration at Ottawa to limit trade as much as possible between Manitoba and our Northwest, in order to hold that lucrative trade for the benefit of Eastern Canada. St. Paul Chamber of Commerce was asked if it would send delegates to a convention to be held at Grand Forks about Aug. 23 A request will be made from the Dakotas, Minnesota, Manitoba and the Canadian Northwest. The proposition is regarded with considerable favour in Dakota and Minnesota, but how it is possible to secure reciprocity between certain portions of the States and Canada and exclude the rest our advices do not say.

A Party Convention.

The Globe last week has an excellent article on party conventions. It suggests the holding of a great Liberal convention at an early day in which every voter, through his representative, may have a voice in formulating the party's platform. It at the same time urges that a proper system be adopted for raising a fund for legitimate expenses in elections. As such matters are now managed the expense falls upon only a few of the more active workers, seriously handicapping them in their private affairs and weakening the party. During the last general election the Liberal managers had not sufficient funds at their disposal to pay for the necessary campaign literature. This state of affairs might be obviated by a subscription being raised every year through the county associations for the maintenance of properly equipped provincial and federal organizations, and the expense being thus distributed among the great mass of Liberals it would hardly be felt by any single member of the party. We trust that the convention will be called and the Globe's suggestions carried out.—Sentinel Review.

Seven Years' Suffering.

THUNDER IT DOWN THE AGES!

GOUGH BROS. HOLD THEIR ANNUAL MID-SUMMER SALE IN PETERBOROUGH.

It is customary with us, after the 15th of July, to organize in our different stores a big sale of our entire stock. This we do—first, because we believe it does not pay to carry goods over until another season, and secondly, in order to make room for our big fall purchases of which require every inch of room we can command, therefore, during the month of July the following extraordinary inducements will be offered:—

IN OUR MEN'S CLOTHING DEPARTMENT

we will take 20 per cent. off our regular prices.

IN OUR CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

we will take 15 per cent. off, and in our

we will take 20 per cent. off.

Remember, all our goods are marked in plain figures, and it is a well-established fact that our prices are the lowest, consequently when we advertise a

it means a reduction, for the goods are sold at the regular prices and the discount taken off after the sale is made.

We have just closed a remarkably successful season, our sales going away beyond our most sanguine expectations. Thanks to you, good people of Peterborough town and county; and although we are certain we have given general satisfaction, we are not egotistical enough to believe we have pleased everybody. When our Saviour was on earth he did not please everybody. Can we expect to? Nor do we claim to be infallible. We are liable to err in our judgment as well as others, but we do claim to do our business in an honourable way, because we believe it pays; and for this reason if there are any of our patrons who have cause for complaint, let him come to us and we will make it right now, either by refunding the money or replacing the goods.

THIS FALL WE WILL ASTOUND ASTONISHMENT IN OUR

OVERCOAT DEPARTMENT.

Not only in our prices but by showing twenty times more goods and ten times nicer goods than were ever seen before in Peterborough. But more about this hereafter. What we want now is to make room for this great stock for fall, and if low prices will do it, you will get them now, for we are bound to clear out the balance of our Spring and Summer Goods regardless of cost Don't miss this great opportunity; it will pay you to buy now for next year, and other merchants would do well to take advantage of this great sale, also, for we will sell them cheaper than any man in Canada can make them for.

ASSOCIATED STORES—BELLEVILLE, TORONTO, BRANTFORD, ORILLIA, KINGSTON.

Our Egg Trade.

In 1888 Canada exported 12,841,610 dozen eggs, while in 1891 we imported 602,553 dozen. Prince Edward Island only imported two dozen, which were valued at one dollar, and the Northwest Territories fifteen dozen, valued at five dollars, which shows that the imports were not for consumption but for the purpose of obtaining some fancy stock. British Columbia imported 196,879 dozen, and Manitoba 63,935 dozen, while Quebec imported 219,583 dozen, no doubt early in the spring, before the Canadian hens had got down to business. The recent imposition of a duty of five cents per dozen is not desired by the Canadian farmer, nor will it help him any. A few produce merchants may be enabled thereby to get a better price for "pickled" eggs, but the Canadian consumer will be deprived of many fresh eggs that he now enjoys after the long winter months, or else will have to pay a pretty fine price for them.

THE FORCE OF HABIT.

WE have read of an old lady who for many years regularly pawned her silver teapot every Monday morning and took it out again every Saturday night. She had lost sufficient by paying interest to the pawn-brokers to buy several new pots, but it seems she could never get even with her creditors without sacrificing the tea-brewer at the beginning of the week. That was simply from the force of habit. The policy-holder is apt to get into the same habit when the premium on his policy is to be paid. Is there a dividend? Yes; then he must use that in payment of the premium. Many policy-holders having become used to paying full premiums in cash do so to the end, and the result is a wonderful accumulation, showing an investment rarely equalled in the history of finance. Some policy-holders will be persistent for a few years in their cash payments and then begin to use the dividends to pay the premiums. Having once begun they rarely stop the practice, and year after year they find it impossible to pay the premiums in any other way. They simply cease to save and lose the advantages which the Canada Life offers every investor in its policies.

The cottages on the Stony Lake islands are filling up fast, and many tents are also to be seen; the lake seems to be even more popular than ever this season.

We could call attention of the superintendent of the Trent Valley Canal to the canoe slide at Young's Point which is broken down at the lower end, it has been of great service to those passing up or down and Mr. Rogers attention to it will be appreciated.

Numerous complaints are being made of parties (women and young girls) destroying plants and flowers on the graves in the Smithtown and Hillside cemeteries, by taking off slips or cuttings from such plants as take their fancy, or picking the flowers for corsage bouquets. If the practice is continued the names will be handed to the papers for publication or to Constable Doidge to take action on.

Life Insurance.

The enormously increased business done in life insurance is brought into vivid light by an article from the pen of Mr. David N. Holway in the Arena. At the beginning of 1891 the amount of outstanding policies was, in the United Kingdom, Canada and Australia, $3,077 000 000; on the continent of Europe, $4 715,000 000; in the United States, $4,101 000,000—a total of $9,891,000,000. At the beginning of 1892 the total insurance in force throughout the world had reached $10,680,000,000, an increase of $787,000,000 within a year. During ten years the total amount has increased by 75 per cent.

NATIONAL PILLS are sugar-coated, mild but thorough, and are the best Stomach and Liver Pill in use. dw

Cherry Canning.

There is probably no fruit which submits so well to the canning and preserving processes as the cherry, which does not lose its delicious flavor by cooking. The strawberry, of course, is best raw, and is in its greatest perfection when freshly picked and eaten at once. Still there are many ways in which it can be cooked and preserved, and if the result gives us something different from the fresh fruit in flavor, it is yet very delicious. If you have never tried sun-preserving of strawberries and cherries, it will pay you to experiment with it this year; and if properly done you will find it one of the most delicious ways of putting up these fruits. It preserves them quite as effectually as cooking over the fire, and much more delicately, for it gives none of the rankness which is apt to follow cooking in a heavy syrup. The manner of preserving in the sun is as follows:

Stone the cherries and put them on platters or in flat dishes. To each pint of cherries put a scant pint of granulated sugar. Mix them well by putting in first the pint of cherries and then sprinkling the sugar over. Let them stand over night, and by morning the sugar will have extracted much of the juice. If they seem not to be very juicy in the morning, set each platter in the oven, for a few minutes only, or on a warm place about the stove until the juice has come out freely. Then set the platters in the sun—in the hottest place you can find—and put either glass or some sort of very thin netting over them. In from a day and a half to two days the syrup will thicken and the fruit will become semi-transparent. Put cold into jars and close them, and the cherries are ready for winter use. No heating is necessary; but it is a little better to put into self-sealing jars than into open ones, merely to keep the fruit from drying. Sun-preserved strawberries are done in exactly the same manner, and it is by far the best way to preserve the flavor of the berry.

For canning cherries the best way is to sweeten them but slightly, cook for a few minutes, and then put them in air-tight jars. They are very easily kept, and the flavor is retained better if only a little sugar is put in. When the cans are opened in the winter they can be sweetened to taste.

Those unhappy persons who suffer from nervousness and dyspepsia should use Carter's Little Nerve Pills, which are made expressly for sleeplessness, nervous, dyspeptic sufferers. Price 25 cents. dw

THE BRAIN.—The most immediate effect of alcohol is on the nervous centres and the brain which are intimately connected. The brain of inebriates is found after death to be hardened—literally hardened—by the alcohol, which has driven out of it the water it contained in its healthy state. ld

Mothers and Others.

All who have the care of children should know that Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry may be confidently depended on to cure all summer complaints, diarrhœa, dysentery, cramps, colic, cholera infantum, cholera morbus, canker, etc., in children or adults. dw

If you once try Carter's Little Liver Pills for sick headache, biliousness or constipation, you will never be without them. They are purely vegetable, small and easy to take. Don't forget this. dw

A Sudden Death

The friends of Mr. Charles Barnham and of the family will learn with regret of his sudden death at the family residence, Ashburnham, this morning. The cause of death was heart failure. The deceased whose geniality won him many friends was the youngest son of the late Rev. Mark Burnham, and was in the forty-third year of his age. Funeral on Saturday at 3 p. m.

A Parson's Piscatorial Party.

A party consisting of Rev. S. J. Shorey, Napanee, Rev. Walter Roger, London, and Rev. A. McWilliams, town, under the guardian angelship of Mr. Mr. J. D. Collins and Mr. T. Fitzgerald, had two very successful days of bass fishing, Rev. Mr. McWilliams hauling in a 4-pounder. The party returned home this morning, except Mr. Roger and Mr. Fitzgerald, who are tempting the trout from their pools near Havings.

For Canadian Visitors.

The EXAMINER has received a communication from Mr. R. T. Hunter, president of the Maple Leaf Club, Denver, Colorado, stating that former Canadian residents of Denver have formed a club to help entertain all Canadian visitors to the Knights Templar's Conclave held in that city from Aug. 8th to 13th. The Maple Leaf Club have secured headquarters at Rooms No. 5,8,9, Boston Building, which is right in the heart of the city, so that all visitors can have their mail addressed there. A full bureau of information is attached to the rooms. Fully 100,000 visitors are expected from Canada, and the club intends giving the Dominion delegates a grand reception.

Re-establishing Business.

Messrs. Coughlin Bros., who removed their monumental marble business to Toronto a short time ago, are re-establishing the business in the old stand, 209 Hunter street. Workmen were this morning engaged in putting the building in thorough repair, and about the end of the month they will open with a fine new stock of monumental marble, headstones, etc. It is hardly the thing to wish success to an establishment that thrives on the death of our citizens, but as men must die it is to be hoped that Messrs. Coughlin Bros. will do a liberal share of the business to be done in this line. Their removal to town represents a substantial addition to the live business men of the town.

A Great Trip.

The trip with the Oddfellows to Glenora and Picton is an entirely new excursion route, and is the only new route offered to the citizens on the Civic Holiday. The Lake of the Mountain is in itself a great attraction—the beautiful lake on the high mountain, without inlet, and the romantic glen and picnic ground—and the pretty town of Picton may be visited. To reach these a sail down the beautiful Bay of Quinte will be enjoyed, and from Picton a drive may be taken to the natural wonder known as the Sand Banks on Lake Ontario, where mountains of sand have been blown out of the lake and covers acres of ground. With the special train and fast steamer the whole trip will be covered with comfort in a day, and home reached at a good hour; or the tickets will be good for regular boat and trains next day. Fare for round trip from Peterborough, $1 50; children, half price. 1d Resolution of Condolence.

At the last meeting of St. Peter's Branch, No. 21, Emerald Beneficial Association, the following resolution of condolence was adopted:

It having pleased God in His infinite wisdom to call to Himself Mr. Jeremiah Daly, father of our esteemed brothers, Jeremiah and John Daly, be it resolved that we, the members of St. Peter's Branch, No. 21, E. B. A., do tender our sincere sympathy and condolence to Bros. Jeremiah and John Daly, and the other members of the family, in the bereavement. Resolved that a copy of this resolution be inserted in the records of the Branch, and that a copy of the same be forwarded to Bros. Jeremiah and John Daly and also to the press.

Will it Ever Come Off?

The Belleville Ontario remarks:—"It certainly would be a fine match of lacrosse between the Kingston and the Peterborough clubs if they could be brought together in Belleville. There has been some tall talking on both sides, but the public would like to see them quit talking and settle the question of their comparative merits by meeting on the field. It looks like a case of one being afraid and the other doesn't. Although Belleville has not the best team in Ontario they are not afraid of their colors, and meet their antagonists in the field instead of trying to annihilate them at a distance by boasting through the newspaper." It was Kingston that created all the newspaper controversy about the respective merits of the Peterborough and Kingston lacrosse teams. Peterborough expected to meet Kingston at Belleville the day after the home team played the return match with the Quintes, and had everything arranged for a game, but Kingston flunked on the pretext of having too many engagements.

Peterborough Horses for the Northwest.

Mr. Thomas Matchett, of Balgonie, N.W. T., owns the possession of a first class horse, the thoroughbred Percheron stallion, "Duke of Perch," to an advertisement printed in the EXAMINER by Messrs. Bennett and Sullivan, of Otonabee. This fine animal is a pure bred Norman Percheron, with a splendid strain of blood. He is now eight years old, and has had a very successful experience both on the stock farm and in the prize ring. He is sire to thousands of colts of first class quality, and the "Duke" has taken twenty-seven first prizes at the Canadian exhibitions where he has competed, including the silver medal and diploma at the Toronto Industrial Exhibition in 1887. Mr. Matchett who started for Balgonie with the Duke of Perch yesterday morning, a former resident of Peterborough, knew where to find good horse flesh and he also took with him fifteen superior draft mares—three years old, one of the finest lot of mares ever shipped from the town. They were purchased chiefly in Otonabee and Douro, by Mr. Matchett and Mr. J. A. Bennett. Mr. Matchett has a large stock ranche at Balgonie, to which his new purchases will form a most important addition.

Three to Nothing.

This was the Score in the Lacrosse Match Last Night Between the Junior Peterborough's and Senior Shamrocks.

About 200 spectators assembled on the P. A. A. A. grounds last evening to see the Peterborough Juniors and Senior Shamrocks cross sticks in a friendly game of lacrosse. The teams were as follows:—

Shamrocks.		Peterborough.
J Woodard	goal	J McCabe
F Adams	point	J Mein
P Boland	cover point	H Hughes
Jas McDonough	1st defence	W Belknap
H Carrol	2nd "	G Heaps
T McMahon	3rd "	W Borland
Metcalf	centre	E Wasson
M McDonough	1st home	E Whitehair
W Hogan	2nd "	D Brown
T McNamara	outside	R Glover
W McNamara	inside	F Long

On the face off Galley drew the ball and threw it on the Shamrock's goal but was returned by Boland. J. Mein got the ball for the Peterborough's and threw well up the field. The ball was kept travelling up and down the field until Galley got it and making a pretty shot scored the first game for the Peterborough's. Time 23 minutes.

The second game was the shortest played, taking one minute. On the face Wasson drew the ball and passed to Borland who scored, making the second game for Peterborough.

The third game on the face off there was a scrimmage, but Wasson sent the ball to the Shamrocks goal where it was kept almost continually the rest of the game. The Shamrocks appeared to be winded. After about 10 minutes play Wasson threw the ball between the flags and scored.

NOTES.

The Shamrock's are a heavy team. Adams, a senior man, played their best game for them.

There was no rough playing, the game being a friendly one throughout.

The Juniors expect to play the Orillia Juniors here on the 28th.

There should have been some one on the gate as there was a large number who would have willingly paid the 10c admission as was advertised.

Another Fatal Railway Smash.

A Collision on the Bay of Quinte Railway Kills Three Persons Outright and Fatally Injures Several Others.

(Special to the Examiner)

TAMWORTH, Ont, July 21.—A fatal collision occurred about four miles west of Tamworth, at seven o'clock this morning, on the Bay of Quinte Railway. The regular passenger train was coming from Tweed on time, when she was met by a special from Erinsville, consisting of the engine and tender, both going at full speed. A terrible crash followed, and engine and cars were piled in an indescribable mass. Willing hands were soon on the spot and the work of removing the dead and injured commenced. The dead so far are Wm. Christie, engineer on the passenger train, Will Hardy, fireman on the special, and an unknown child. The injured are:—Kerby, engineer on the special, who is fatally hurt; Thomas Watson, fireman on the passenger train, who is badly hurt; W. F. Wilkinson, conductor on the special, slightly hurt; Brown, brakeman on the special, slightly hurt; the brakeman on the passenger was badly hurt. Miss Carrel, a passenger, probably fatally injured. An unknown lady, jaw broken and otherwise injured, and several others who are slightly hurt.

A Distinguished Deserontonian

Pays Peterborough a Visit:—E. W. Rathbun, Head of the Rathbun Company and Party En Route for the North.

Last night Mr. E. W. Rathbun, head of the great lumber manufacturing firm of Rathbun Company, Deseronto, and President of the Bay of Quinte Railway, arrived in town in his private car, which serves for an hotel as well as travelling equipage. He was accompanied by Mrs. Rathbun and his son and by Mr. W. J. Hiedsagh, a member of the Oswego firm of E. W. Rathbun & Co. Mr. Rathbun's private Secretary, Mr. P. K. Henderson is also a member of the party. His present trip is a combination of business and pleasure, the first being to inspect the various agencies of the Company on his route, and to make himself personally familiar with their condition, this being his first visit to this section of the country. On his way up he called at and looked over the agencies at Belleville and Campbellford, and reached town last evening, and paid similar attention to the agency here, which, of course, under its present efficient management was found in excellent condition. During his presence in Peterborough Mr. Rathbun drove over the town, viewing its principal points of interest and calling upon the local managers of the Edison Works, in which he is interested. Mr. Rathbun was very favourably impressed with the town, as soon a shrewd observer is bound to be. He admired its well built streets and compact appearance. He evidently intended it as a compliment to the enterprise and thrift of the town when he said that it reminded him in its evidences of enterprise, thrift and go-aheadativeness, of an American city more than any other place in Canada. Mr. Rathbun is business and push from the crown of his head to the soles of his feet, and when he admires a town for its thrift and enterprise it means something.

This morning Mr. Rathbun and party went up to Lakefield, where they will embark on the Strickland steam yacht Undine for a tour of the lakes. At Lakefield he was joined by Mr. Thomas Callahan, superintendant of timber limit operations. While on the voyage up the lakes the drives of the company will be looked after as well as the other interests connected therewith. The party will make for Lindsay, where the company has mills; these will receive attention and then the party will proceed to Gravenhurst, where there are other mills in operation, employing about 50 hands. At Gravenhurst the business aspect of the combination will cease and the pleasure department will be organized. A few days will be spent in pleasure-seeking among the Muskoka Lakes, where enough time will be spent to consume the twelve days devoted to the present journey. The private car will return from Lakefield and be forwarded to Lindsay where it will meet the party on their return from Muskoka.

Paddle Your Own Canoe.

The Annual Meeting of the Ontario Canoe Club—Officers Elected.

Although somewhat late in the canoeing season, and after two ineffectual attempts on previous occasions to call the annual meeting, the members of the Otonabee Canoe Club held a rousing meeting at Mr. A. Clegg's furniture store last evening. There was a good attendance. Commodore H. W. Stock presided.

The reports of the secretary and treasurer were submitted provisionally.

After routine business, the election of officers for the ensuing season was proceeded with and resulted as follows:

COMMODORE—H. W. Stock (re-elected)
VICE COMMODORE—Thomas Barry.
SECRETARY—J. H. Cranal.
ASST SECRETARY—Albert Turner.
TREASURER—A. Clegg (re-elected).
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE—Messrs. Albert Turner, O. Sherrit, F. Dixon, W. Thompson and J. H Smith.

The secretary was instructed to collect the annual fees and route for the boat racks from the members. All the club is desirous of doing is merely to pay expenses. The secretary will report to the executive committee at a meeting to be held next Wednesday night. The matter of getting up a great canoe regatta this summer was discussed, but no definite action was taken. The matter will come up again at a future meeting when no doubt something will be done towards holding a great aquatic event in the canoe line.

Progress.

It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

BERLIN, July 20.—Agnes Walnitz, the Anarchist agitator, who was recently sentenced to 10 months' imprisonment for lese-majeste, has refused to eat anything for six days, being determined to starve herself.

The authorities have consequently ordered that she be fed by force. Two warders hold her and force her mouth open while another introduces food into her stomach through a tube.

There were 126 prizes given in addition to the trophy, and the Canadians secured four of these. Staff-Sergt. Ogg, Guelph Field Battery, made the best shooting for Canada, scoring 29 points and thus securing 58th place. Sergt. Marris, 13th Battalion, was 61st, with the same number of marks; Capt. Smith, St. John Rifles, was 117th with 28th, and Lieut. Wilson, 33rd attalion, was 118th with 28. The wind was very light.

While crossing the Solent the cruiser Melampus, which is under the command of the Duke of York, was specially pointed out to Her Majesty. The Melampus was dressed rainbow fashion in honor of the Queen.

Prince Henry of Battenburg and his wife, Princess Beatrice, have gone to the Continent.

Drowned in the Red River.

WINNIPEG, July 20.—Willie Huffman, son of a prominent Winnipeger, was drowned in Red River this afternoon.

He Was Humility Itself.

A short, pleasant-faced, quaint-looking personage has vanished from the Tory benches. There was, however, nothing noisy or turbulent about Mr. Baumann. He never raised his voice in anger, never spoiled for a fight, never was anything but mild, and suave and "humble." Yet this inoffensive looking legislator possessed a ready wit, could drop sentences that seemed to cut like a knife, and was able, figuratively, to scalp an opponent with the ease of a practised red Indian. His pet aversion was the London County Council, and some of his criticisms on the doings of that body were productive of very lively scenes.

The Great Female Medicine

The functional irregularities peculiar to the weaker sex, are invariably corrected without pain or inconvenience, by the use of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. They are the safest and surest medicine for all the diseases incidental to females of all ages, and the more especially so in this climate. Ladies who wish to enjoy health, should always have these Pills. No one who ever uses them once will allow herself to be without them. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all medicine dealers.

STRUNG UP TWICE BY LYNCHERS.

A Californian Tells of the Sensation of Hanging as He Felt it.

FRESNO, Cal., July 19.—It is not often that a man lives to tell of the sensations of hanging, yet this is what has befallen "Mike" Blume, who was lynched near here as the suspected murderer of A.G. Haskins. Haskins "bounced" Blume and a companion from his picnic grounds for bringing in liquor. They swore revenge. A fortnight afterward Haskins was killed as he was crossing a flume at night. Blume was arrested and put in jail at Sanger. Although the constable knew there were threats of lynching he established no guard. The examination brought out strong evidence against Blume, but it was all circumstantial. On Friday night masked men obtained access to Blume's cell with a key, took him to the scene of Haskins' murder, tied a rope around his neck and flung it over the flume, and then told him he could have his last word. Blume's story of what happened is as follows:

"The men pulled me up. I felt the jerk and thought my neck was broken. I knew nothing more until I found myself lying on the ground. When I was myself again the men asked me if I would tell who were with me in the plot. I said I had no accomplices. I was again pulled up and lost consciousness again. The next I knew I was in the Sanger jail. The door was locked and I was alone. This morning I was put into a wagon and brought here to Fresno. I know who tried to kill me, and when the right time comes I will give their names."

He describes the sensation of hanging as extremely unpleasant. He said he felt a crack in his neck and new nothing more. The next thing he knew he was lyingon the ground. The second hanging was the same as the first, except that he was so long in coming to his senses that he was back again in Sanger Jail when he regained consciousness. If a confession was what the lynchers wanted they were disappointed, for Blume stoutly maintained his innocence. He is in a bad condition. The place where the rope went around his wrist is cut to the bone and his hand is paralyzed. His windpipe is ruptured by the tightening of the rope on his neck, turning it black and blue. His neck was twisted and strained so that he is unable to straighten it. It is bent backward over his right shoulder.

Hotel Guests Disturbed by a Lunatic.

ASBURY PARK, N.J., July 19.—George C. Parker of Jersey City came to Ocean Grove last night and registered at the National Hotel. A few hours after retiring the guests of the house were startled by shrieks and piercing cries. They were traced to Parker's room, and he was found gesticulating wildly and talking incoherently about religion. It required two officers to place him in the lock-up. This morning his condition was no better, but he rambled on politics. This afternoon he was sent home. Parker was recently liberated from the Morristown Asylum, where he was placed by his family. Some time ago he deeded his property to his wife, who refused to deed it back to him. This preyed on his mind until he became insane.

Hanged Himself.

HAMILTON, July 19.—George Childs, aged 65, for years employed at the G.T.R. shops, left for Whitney, Indiana, a month ago to live with relatives. His body was brought here yesterday, the old man having hanged himself a day or two ago.

Kept Her Marriage Secret.

CINCINNATI, July 19.—A divorce granted Mrs. James Curry yesterday revealed a curious story. For six years she has been a popular teacher in the public schools here, and was known as Miss Mary Muehlhoner. The testimoney showed that three years ago she married at Cynthiania, Ky., James Curry. They returned to this city the same day. Mrs. Curry gave her husband $300 to return to Cynthiania to put into his business. He left next morning and, selling out, left for parts unknown. She kept the secret until the law gave her a divorce on the ground of abandonment.

Whether Pasteur and Koch's peculiar modes of treatment will ultimately prevail or not, their theory of blood-contamination is the correct one, though not original. It was on this theory that Dr. J C Ayer of Lowell, Mass. nearly fifty years ago, formulated Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

A Child Saved.

My little boy was taken very bad with diarrhœa, he was very delicate and got so low we had no hope of his life, but a lady friend recommended Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and although he could only bear a few drops at a time he got well. It saved my child.

Keep the Works in good order.

NORHAM, ONT., January 15, 1890.
W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.
DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.
Yours faithfully,
H. F. ATWELL.

WIT UNDER DIFFICULTY.

Some Remarkable Historical Instances of Bright Retorts.

One of the smartest of the celebrated Bishop Bloomfield's bon mots was also made during his last illness. He had inquired what had been the subjects of his two archdeacon's charges, and was told that one was on the art of making sermons and the other on churchyards. "Oh, I see," said the dying bishop, "composition and decomposition!" Among the peculiarities of Selwyn which attracted attention were his his love of children, and his morbid taste to see death or the dead. Not an execution escaped him, and he is said to have made a journey to Paris to see Damiens broken on the wheel. The last propensity was the subject of many a joke among his intimates, of which the first Lord Holland's was the best.

When on his deathbed he was told that Selwyn had called to inquire after him. "The next time Mr. Selwyn calls," said he, "show him up, for if I am alive I shall be delighted to see him, and if I am dead he will be glad to see me." Equally as grimly cynical was the reply of William Taylor (or "Willie Harrow," as he was commonly called). Being visited in his last extremity by a clergyman, he was asked if he was prepared for another world. "'Deed, sir," said Willie, "I dinna ken if I need trouble mysel' aboot it; for if the folk there are like the folk here they'll pay unco' little attention to a puir body like me.

The field of battle has produced many an example of grim humor, and a capital story is told how, when Sir William Scrope was about to charge with his troop at the famous conflict of Edgehill, at the opening bull of the Parliamentary campaign against Charles I., he said to his young scapegrace of a son, "Jack, if I should be killed, lad, you will have enough to spend," to which the rogue answered, "And egad, father, if I should be killed you will have enough to pay." "Why are you so melancholy?" asked the Duke of Marlborough of a soldier after the battle of Blenheim. "I am thinking," replied the man, "how much blood I have shed for sixpence." Another retort of one of the rank and file conveyed a well-merited rebuke. A soldier had his two hands carried off at the wrists by a shot. His colonel offered him a crown. "Colonel," replied the man reproachfully, "it was not my gloves but my hands that I lost."

"Once," writes Mr. Lawrence Oliphant, "I was in a Cornish mine, some hundreds of feet down in the bowels of the earth. Crawling down a ladder and feeling that the temperature was every moment getting warmer, I said to a miner who was accompanying me: 'It is getting very hot down here. How far do you think it is to the infernal regions?' 'I don't know exactly,' he replied, 'but if you let go you will be there in two minutes.'"

Sheridan, too, when dying, on being requested to undergo an operation, humorously replied that he had already submitted to two, which were enough for one man's lifetime. Being asked what they were, he answered, "Having my hair cut and sitting for my picture." There is a sly insinuation in the following, which no doubt was duly appreciated by the person to whom it was addressed.

Even duelling, too, has discovered men who will jest to the very last, and as an example of grim humor under singularly uncomfortable circumstances the following would be exceedingly hard to beat. M. de Malsaignes was a determined duellist. Having quarrelled with a brother officer they agreed to fight out the dispute in the very room where it took place, when M. de Malsaignes' adversary managed to run him through the body and nail him against the door. "This is all very well," said the transfixed duellist, "but, pray, how are you to get out?" Dr. Mead and Dr. Woodward fought under the gates of Gresham College. Woodward's foot slipped, and he was at the mercy of his opponent. "Take your life!" exclaimed Dr. Mead. "Anything but your physic," retorted the prostrate man.—London Standard.

A Police Spy.

BRUSSELS, July 19.—During the trial of the Liege Anarchists yesterday Moineau and others of those arraigned declared that their fellow-prisoner, Lacroix, was a police spy, and accused him of causing the explosion in the house of Magistrate Beltjens.

That Young Man's Big Whale.

BERLIN, July 19.—A despatch from Tromso, capital of the Norwegian island of that name, says that the Kaiser Adler, with Emperor William on board, is on the whaling grounds north of Karlo. On the day the Imperial party reached the grounds the Emperor succeeded in catching a whale 54 feet long.

HAMILTON, April 20th, 1892.
I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp and they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes. Hearing of Anti Dandruff I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years. When half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Anti-Dandruff has no equal.

Back Ache.

Back ache is caused by sick kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills will remove it. By their peculiar action on the kidneys they impart activity and benefit the system by purifying the blood. You cannot have pure blood with disordered kidneys; health's existence depends upon their natural condition. They are the governors of the system, constant disorder results in kidney consumption, which is Bright's disease. dw

THE MARRIAGE OF CONNIE GILCHRIST DESCRIBED.

A Former Skirt-Dancer Captures the Duke of Orkney and Is Now a Countess—History of the Peer and His Bride—Sensational Charge Against a Former Chaplain of Lord Salisbury.

LONDON, July 21.—Miss Connie Gilchrist, the ex-Gaiety burlesque actress, who has been prominently before the public for many years, yesterday became Countess of Orkney.

The marriage took place yesterday in All Souls' Church, Langham-place. There were no flowers and no singing. The service was of the simplest character possible, and was conducted by the Rev. W. P. Legg, the rector.

The bride was accompanied by the Duke of Beaufort, who conducted her to the altar rail and gave her away.

She wore a magnificent dress of pale blue bengaline, with a ruche of the same material around the skirt; the bodice was of the same material, with cuffs and a collaret of lace and puffed sleeves of reseda velvet. Her hat was of straw, ornamented with reseda velvet bows and sprays of pale pink roses.

The only ornament worn by the bride was a massive diamond brooch, and she carried a neat bouquet of white gladioluses and lilies tied with white satin streamers.

She was attended by her niece, Miss Doe, who was the only bridesmaid, and who wore a gown of dark corded silk trimmed with brown velvet, and a broad sash of brown ribbon en suite. Miss Doe's waistcoat was braided in pale pink satin, her hat was of brown straw, ornamented with brown satin bows, with sprays of varied blooms, and her present from the bride was a massive initial diamond brooch. She carried a bouquet of pale pink carnations tied with streamers en suite.

The best man was Mr. Gerald Pratt, cousin to the bridegroom.

The newly-married pair will take up their residence at Leighton Buzzard.

Miss Connie Gilchrist commenced her life as an artist's model, for as a child she was remarkable for her almost faultless form. She is now 28 years old, and appeared for the first time on a music hall stage 10 years ago, first becoming conspicuously known to the public through her portrait painted by Whistler and entitled "The Golden Girl."

The young lady had many notable admirers, among them Earl De Grey, Reginald Shirley Brooks, Carlton Blythe, Hughie Drummond, and she finally found sanctuary in the friendship of the very elderly Duke of Beaufort, who claims she is his natural daughter, and for this reason and upon this introduction she entered society.

The new Countess of Orkney has always been a bold and accomplished horsewoman, and has been one of the most dashing and picturesque personages in fashionable hunts. It was on the hunting field she met the Earl.

Edmund Walter Fitz-Maurice, seventh Earl of Orkney, who also bears the titles of Viscount Kirkwall and Baron Dechmont, was born on May 24, 1867, and succeeded to the title in 1889.

His Attempt to Kill Cats May Cost This Man His Life.

ORILLIA, Ont., July 21.—George Portugais, a Midland Railway employe, last night loaded his revolver for cats, but in climbing a fence the weapon was discharged. The ball entered his throat at an angle and is lodged under the left ear, but cannot be extracted in the patient's precarious condition.

Tried to Enter the Carnegie Mills.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 21.—Considerable excitement was caused in the neighborhood of 33rd-street yesterday by the attempt of about 50 non-union men to get into the upper mills. They were surrounded by a large body of strikers. No arms or clubs were displayed, but the situation looked serious for a time. One of the new men made a show of resistance and was roughly handled, but cooler heads prevented a disturbance and the new men were finally induced to leave.

Everything is now quiet about the mill. The strikers are anxiously waiting to see what will be done to-day, when the date for the old men to return expires.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 21.—The warden of the penitentiary at Zacatecas reports that last Friday three prisoners who were serving life sentences for robbery were instantly killed by an electric discharge during a thunderstorm and 10 more were made insensible by it, five of that number having since died from their injuries.

They Say They Are; But, Are They?
THIS is the time of year when lots of Clothing Stores are offering goods 50 to 60 per cent. below cost, and at much less than goods can be bought at other stores, retailing below wholesale prices, closing out the stock of some defunct or deceased firm, running alleged bargain tables and sacrificing goods below cost, just for fun, are among the many pleasantries to which clothiers treat the reading public.
A few days ago one of those shrewd, bright and flippant buyers entered our store. It was evident that curosity, and not the desire to purchase, had brought him. He looked at Suits and he looked at Overcoats. He criticised and condemned, but finally the salesman showed him a suit that attracted his attention. He objected to the price, whereupon the salesman informed him that we are at present selling goods below cost. Quick as a flash came the response, "You say you are, but are you? Everybody else is spinning the same old yarn." Well, we sold that man the suit. We convinced him that we are actually selling below cost. We showed him the old price in black figures, and the new one in red figures. The difference between the two told the tale. All we ask is to be put to the test. We are confident that we are underselling every one in the clothing trade

SEVEN MEN INJURED BY THE COLLAPSE OF A BRIDGE.

Three People Killed on the Bay of Quinte Railway—Two Trains Crash Together in a Deep Cut—The Orillia Murder Mystery.

TORONTO, July 22.—Seven of the workmen engaged in the construction of the new iron bridge in Dundas-street met with a serious accident yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock. While engaged in removing the old bridge a section of it fell on them, carrying with it a part of the temporary bridge, two of the men receiving injuries from which it is doubtful if they will recover.

As soon as the accident occurred the ambulances were telephoned for and promptly arrived on the scene, Ambulance B carrying three of the injured to the hospital and Ambulance C carrying two. The other two men were taken to their homes.

The following is a list of those injured and the nature of their wounds:

James M. Hunter, widower, boards at West Toronto Junction, has two grown-up boys in St. Thomas and one in Washington Territory. He has a deep wound on right arm at elbow joint extending to the bone, two wounds on right side of face, one in front of right ear and the other just over the carotoid artery, also a severe fracture of jaw on right side.

William Boyle, married, living at 64 Cooper-street, was brought to the hospital in an insensible condition, suffering from concussion of the brain and severe internal injuries with vomiting of blood. Mr. Boyle is in a very critical condition.

Bennett Gillis, widower, boarding at 106 Victoria-street, has a little boy and girl living with relatives about 40 miles from Toronto. He is suffering from severe wounds and contusion of face and nose and fracture of ribs.

Clark Chamberlain, aged 45, married living at 61 Woolseley-street, has three grown-up boys and girls. He is suffering from bruises and injury of left leg above ankle point, with suspected fracture.

David O'Brien, aged 42, married, has three small children, living at 44 Bellevue avenue. He has a fracture of left arm at shoulder-joint, bruises on right back and hip and dislocation of left hip joint.

Thomas Tracey, 478 Brock-avenue, was taken to his home and is not badly injured.

John Gould, 5 Northcote-avenue, was taken to his home and is said to be in a critical condition, having had his chest crushed in.

THEY MET IN A CUT.

Another Canadian Railway Collision Due to Somebody's Carelessness.

DESERONTO, July 22.—A collision occurred yesterday morning on the Kingston, Napanee & Western Railway about 7.10 a.m. between Marlbank and Erinsville between a light engine and the regular morning passenger train from Tweed.

It appears that the light engine had been ordered to proceed to Erinsville to do shunting and to then back some distance to the gravel pit, where it was intended that the regular morning train which started some 30 minutes later than the ballast train from Tweed, should cross. Before the ballast train had got to the pit, however, the collision occurred. The regular train had orders to keep a sharp lookout for the ballast train, but owing to a curve in the road the ballast train was not seen till too late to slacken up.

The Dead.

WILLIAM CHRISTIE of Tweed, engineer of passenger train.

WILLIAM HARDY of Tweed, fireman on special.

INFANT, child of Mrs. Naphin of Deseronto.

Seriously injured: Charles Kirby, engineer of special; Thomas Watson, fireman on passenger train, and James Mumble, brakeman on special.

Slightly hurt: W. H. Wilkinson, conductor of special; Miss Carrol, passenger.

Robbed by Masked Men.

BELLEVILLE, Ont., July 22.—Early yesterday two masked men forced their way into Mr. Satchell's dwelling near Foxboro, forced the old man at the point of a pistol to produce his cash box, which they robbed of its contents, namely $50 in cash and two bank notes, and then taking a horse from John McCrary's stables, harness from James Meagher's premises and a buggy from another man, yard made their escape. Two men attempted to follow them, but were stood off with pistols.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON

THE HOUSE AND THE RETALIATION MEASURE.

The Motion of Mr. Curtis Passed—Some Speeches on the Subject—Will a Toll Be Levied on Canadian Vessels Passing Through the Sault Canal?

WASHINGTON, July 22.—In the House yesterday Mr. Hooker, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported the bill to provide for the calling of an international arbitration congress.

Mr. Blount, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, called up the bill to force reciprocal relattion between the United States and Canada. Mr. Blount said the President had in two messages called the attention of Congress to the fact that, notwithstanding treaty rights, American citizens were discriminated against in the matter of transportation through the Welland, St. Lawrence and other canals. A rebate was accorded to Canadian vessels, which was not accorded to American vessels. This bill was designed to require that this discrimination should be abolished and that the treaty rights of American citizens should be preserved.

An Abrogation of the Treaty.

Mr. Lind (Minneapolis) enquired whether the bill might not be construed as an abrogation of the treaty.

Mr. Blount could not say; he was inclined to think it would.

Mr. Lind suggested that if it did it would be a very serious matter.

Mr. Blount replied that it probably would be, but there was a very serious matter to meet now and that was that the great lakes should be open to Canadian trade and denied American trade.

Mr. Lind Makes a Suggestion.

Mr. Lind suggested that the United States receive the free use of the St. Lawrence River in perpetuity. This was a very important right. We could build canals of our own, but we could not build a St. Lawrence River.

Mr. Blount thought the Government should stand manfully and heroically for the rights of their citizens and meet every emergency which arose when it arose.

Mr. Hitt (Ill.) said the pending bill was one that deeply concerned the people of the Northwest and the cities of the east—everywhere that the grain trade concerned American citizens. The grain producers sent their grain by the lakes and the canals and by railroads. Vast crops were sent by water during the water season, and the mode of passage from Lake Erie to Lake Ontario was by the Welland Canal. American citizens were entitled to the use of that canal on terms of equality with Canadian citizens. For that right they had paid a great price. It was a reciprocal privilege. We gave Canada the use of those great canals, on which the Government had lavished millions of money. For that we were entitled to the use of the Welland Canal if we paid the same tolls that the Canadians did. Every year great sums were spent for the St. Mary's Canal, through which we welcomed Canadian vessels to pass free. But while we did this we found that for every cargo that passed through the Welland Canal we were charged ten times as much as were the Canadians. It was a bald fact that American trade was subjected to ten times the exactions that Canadian trade was in passing through the Welland Canal.

The bill was passed without division.

In the Senate the House Bill to enforce reciprocal commercial relations with Canada was laid before the Senate and was, on motion of Mr. Frye, placed on the calendar, taking the place of the Senate Bill on the same subject, which Mr. Frye said was almost identical with it.

The bill provides that when the President shall be satisfied that the passage through any canal or lock connected with the navigation of the St. Lawrence River, the great lakes or the waterways connecting the same, of any vessels of the United States or of the cargoes or passengers in transit to any port of the United States is prohibited or is made difficult or burdensome by the imposition of tolls or otherwise, which he shall deem to be reciprocally unjust and unreasonable, he shall have the power to suspend the right of free passage through the St. Mary's Falls Canal, so far as it relates to vessels owned by the subjects of the government discriminating against the United States.

BLOODTHIRSTY REVENGE.

Repeated and at Last Successful Attempts to Murder a Brother Officer.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., July 22.—Full particulars of the sad affair at the Loguerra ranch, Tamaulipas, Mex., were received in Matamoras yesterday.

It seems that Lieut. Garcia Cuellar, belonging to Colonel Maineros's command, was sent in charge of an escort carrying clothing and equipment to a detachment under Lieut. Pablo Peres, stationed at the Guerras ranch.

The Lieutenants, through some private misunderstanding, were deadly enemies. A fight ensued and both fired their revolvers without any fatal result.

Lieut. Cuellar started alone on his way back to Mier, when Lieut. Perez ordered the bugle to sound the call to arms.

The men, 20 in number, followed and overtook Cuellar and opened a fusilade upon him with their carbines.

Cuellar, single-handed and alone, fired 40 shots from his pistol facing his pursuers, and when his ammunition became exhausted he yelled out to his pursuers that he would surrender if his life was spared.

He was captured, but not before another volley was fired at him without any injury to his person.

After he was captured Lieut. Perez grasped a gun from one of the soldiers and took deliberate aim at Cuellar's breast, shooting him dead.

The Woodstock Burglary.

BUFFALO, July 21.—A dispute over the division of their plunder resulted yesterday in the arrest of John Milton and John Smith, the two men who recently robbed a hardware store in Woodstock, Ont.

A large number of razors and other articles, proceeds of the robbery, were found in the men's possession.

The address was accompanied by a purse containing $300.

CAPTAIN ANDREWS SAILS AWAY.

In a Fifteen-Foot Yacht He Begins His Ocean Voyage.

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., July 22.—"In sixty days I will be in Spain," was Captain William Andrews' answering shout to the cheers of several thousand people who had gathered to-day to see him start on his perilous trip across the Atlantic Ocean in his tiny yacht, the Flying Dutchman, less than fifteen feet in length. All afternoon people thronged the pier and crowded about the captain watching him as he directed the launching of the craft, which was accomplished at 5.30 p.m.

No time was lost in getting the food supplies aboard, consisting mainly of canned beef, crackers and preserves, together with a large quantity of bottled Saratoga water. As the boat floated on the waves it was the signal for cheering and the waving of handkerchiefs by the ladies, who were present in strength. The sea was almost as calm as a lake and the weather was propitious for the occasion.

After seeing that everthing was snug and taut Captain Andrews proceeded to raise sail at precisely a quarter to six, and the canvas immediately filled and the voyage was begun with a fair and steady breeze.

Every day during the voyage a bottle will be thrown overboard noting location, the weather conditions and other information about the trip. The captain will sail due east and expects to first sight land within 30 days at one of the Azores, which he says is directly in his plan.

DOES SHE TALK WITH ANIMALS.

The Remarkable Powers of a Pretty Kentucky Girl.

GREENUP, Ky., July 22.—Alice Sanderland is an unusually pretty country girl residing with her father on a farm several miles from here. The girl is well educated, and has been a wonder to her friends for several years. She speaks to animals in an unknown tongue and they obey her implicitly, even against the commands and blows of their owners. She also foretells hours ahead, just where and how many animals will be found at certain spots and what they will do.

Saturday she gave a public test of her power. She said five yoke of oxen would be found on Spalding Hill at a certain house. She described minutely what the animals and driver would do at her approach. It came about as she predicted. She then described a pasture some distance away, and said that under a certain tree were seven cows, which would approach when she came in sight and all give down their milk without being touched. The fluid came out in streams, but no one touched them. At her command they returned to their grazing. Many other wonderful things are told of her.

The Orillia Murder.

ORILLIA, Ont., July 22.—Since the coroner's jury said that young Joseph Badgerow of Rama Township had met death at the hands of some persons unknown the good people of the township and adjoining towns have been puzzling their brains in the hope of obtaining some clue to the perpetrator of the deed. No definite steps have been taken to place the crime on any certain individual, but the authorities are at work and something startling may develop in a short time. Many rumors are going the rounds, and the "I told you so" people are as numerous as usual. The boy's body was too badly decomposed to admit of the true cause of death being ascertained, but the face, throat and the condition of the respiratory organs did not indicate that death had been caused by strangulation. The suicide theory is scoffed at.

Supposing it to be a case of murder, suspicion points to the boy's own father, Charles Badgerow. This man bears a most unenviable reputation. About a year ago he left his wife and ever since has, it is alleged, been living in adultery with another woman named Christina Reid. The boy, Joseph, dearly loved his mother and used to go to see her whenever he could.

This displeased the father especially, as on these visits the dead boy used to tell his mother of his father's doings with Mrs. Reid. Mrs. Badgerow, the mother of the boy, feels very sad over his death. She thought a great deal more of Joseph than she did of his father, and always used to stick up for him when his father wanted to punish him. "Joe always stuck to me," she said, "and one night when I was being abused he struck his father in the face, and I admired his pluck. I cannot think that he was a boy who would commit suicide. On one occasion in Orillia last fall his father threatened to shoot him if he told me anything about Mrs. Reid and himself. He was drunk at the time and said he had a pistol in his pocket. He often abused me and he knew the boy thought a lot of me. Badgerow has an awful ugly temper. But I don't think he could kill his own son."

The fact that the father did not seem to be at all grief-stricken was noticed at the funeral and this fact is now being commented on.

GRAIN vs. DAIRY FARMS.

Grain farming is not in these days of low prices and prairie farm competition, the most paying business in the world. If the altered physical conditions of the country should permit a fair crop the low price is a decided damper to the farmer. With wheat at its present price, the growing of that grain does little more than pay cost. Wheat, it is generally conceded, cannot be grown at a profit for a less price than one dollar per bushel. The competition of the Canadian Northwest, South America, India and Russia is hard on the Canadian farmer, and the reports of the acreage sown and the probable yield indicate that there is little hope for improvement in prices. But the farmer who has noted the signs of the times and has not kept all his eggs in the wheat basket, has a more hopeful outlook. Instead of milking his land he has milked his cows and has made money in the process, when the exclusively wheat farmer has not. He finds a ready sale for his milk through the cheese board at remunerative prices. The dairy farmer equips himself—supposing he has the land to start with—with a machine, commonly called a cow, which costs much less than a reaper—and when she becomes worn out can be capitalized in the shape of beef. When the reaper is done it is only scrap iron. The reaper is much more expensive to keep than a cow, that is, feeding the reaper with a wheat or oat crop means exhaustion of the soil by rapid degrees, till at last there is no paying work left for the reaper. The cow, on the other hand, can, with proper management, be made to increase the fertility of the soil. There is no use elaborating this idea. Every thinking farmer—the farmer who doesn't know how to think, doesn't know how to act—knows that dairy farming or what is, perhaps, better, a judicious mixture of grain and dairy farming pays the best. Apart from other obvious advantages of mixed farming, is the idea of more thorough cultivation. A man who devotes two-thirds of his tillable acreage to dairying will have only a small portion left for grain, and this, with the help of the manure of the dairy part of the farm, will be cultivated more thoroughly, with less expense, with perhaps as large a yield, and with the added profit of the dairy branch to boot. Besides there are thousands of acres of new idle ground in this county that wouldn't grow two bushels of wheat per acre, where a sowing machine would be of about as much use as a sewing machine, and where a reaper would be of less use than a razor, but which would nevertheless maintain a profitable cow to the acre. If the despondent grain farmer who thinks "there's no money in farming" would convert reapers into cows his farm mortgage wouldn't prance so heavily through his brain in the shape of nightmare.

A Measly Bird.

The Thirteenth Battalion band of Hamilton, had been engaged to play at Detroit this week, but President Campau, of the Detroit Driving park, who is also chairman of the Michigan State Democratic committee, has been compelled to cancel the engagement on the ground that the band is not American. Let the eagle scream! If this is a sample, it is the smallest, measliest bird that was ever created.

People who give Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial realize its great merit and are glad to say a good word for it. Have you tried it?

The Father Mathew Remedy, taken faithfully according to the direction, will restore the sick brain to its normal state, and at the same time will prevent from taking any more alcoholic liquors. 1d

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and a dollar. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption. dw

Seven Years' Suffering.

GENTLEMEN,—I have suffered very much from inflammatory rheumatism, which through wrong treatment left ugly running sores on my hands and feet. With these I suffered for seven years, during which time I had neither clothes nor stocking on. I commenced using B. B. B. externally and internally using the pills also, and I can say now that the sores are entirely cured, and have been for some time. I believe the bitters were the means of saving my life.

THUNDER IT DOWN THE AGES!

GOUGH BROS. HOLD THEIR ANNUAL MID-SUMMER SALE IN PETERBOROUGH.

It is customary with us, after the 15th of July, to organize in our different stores a big sale of our entire stock. This we do—first, because we believe it does not pay to carry goods over until another season, and secondly, in order to make room for our big fall purchases of which require every inch of room we can command, therefore, during the month of July the following extraordinary inducements will be offered:—

OVERCOATS and WINTER CLOTHING

IN OUR MEN'S CLOTHING DEPARTMENT

we will take 20 per cent. off our regular prices.

IN OUR CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

we will take 15 per cent. off, and in our

HAT AND CAP DEPARTMENT

we will take 20 per cent. off.

Remember, all our goods are marked in plain figures, and it is a well-established fact that our prices are the lowest, consequently when we advertise a

it means a reduction, for the goods are sold at the regular prices and the discount taken off after the sale is made.

We have just closed a remarkably successful season, our sales going away beyond our most sanguine expectations. Thanks to you, good people of Peterborough town and county; and although we are certain we have given general satisfaction, we are not egotistical enough to believe we have pleased everybody. When our Saviour was on earth he did not please everybody. Can we expect to? Nor do we claim to be infallible. We are liable to err in our judgment as well as others, but we do claim to do our business in an honorable way, because we believe it pays; and for this reason if there are any of our patrons who have cause for complaint, let him come to us and we will make it right now, either by refunding the money or replacing the goods.

THIS FALL WE WILL ASTOUND ASTONISHMENT IN OUR

OVERCOAT DEPARTMENT.

Not only in our prices but by showing twenty times more goods and ten times nicer goods than were ever seen before in Peterborough. But more about this hereafter. What we want now is to make room for this great stock for fall, and if low prices will do it, you will get them now, for we are bound to clear out the balance of our Spring and Summer Goods regardless of cost. Don't miss this great opportunity; it will pay you to buy now for next year, and other merchants would do well to take advantage of this great sale, also, for we will sell them cheaper than any man in Canada can make them for.

The statistics of the custom house in San Francisco show that the sum of $750,000 was collected last year as the duty on importations of smoking opium at that port alone, with the tariff at $12 a pound. This means an importation of 62,000 pounds.

One hundred and fifty of the songs and ballads of Burns are soon to be published in Czech by the editor of a Prague newspaper. In every instance the Bohemian translator has preserved the metrical form of the original, a feat of apparently very great skill.

"I was prostrated with a severe bilious complaint," writes Erastus Southworth, of Bath, Me. "After vainly trying a number of remedies, I was finally induced to take Ayer's Pills. I had scarcely taken two boxes when I was completely cured."

A Pleasant Herb Drink.

The best cure we know of for constipation and headache is the pleasant herb drink called Lane's Family Medicine. It is said to be Oregon grape root, combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring boiling water onto the dried roots and herbs. It is remarkably effective in all blood disorders, and is now the sovereign remedy for ladies in clearing up the complexion. Druggists sell the packages at 50c and $1 dw

They give free services to all who call upon them before August 1st, 1892, and thoroughly test you if your case is curable or not. All incurable cases are rejected. Moving in the Right Direction.

At the last meeting of the Farmers' Institute of Blanchard township, Mr. J. H. Beam read a paper on the statute labour question, showing that commuting the statute labour and having the township look after all the improvements on the roads would be economy to the township, and that the roads would be kept in much better condition. The council have also taken a step in bringing this matter promptly before the ratepayers. At their last meeting a resolution was moved by Councillor Sinclair, seconded by Councillor Berry, and carried:

"That, whereas, the performance of statute labour as at present existing in this township in the opinion of a great many ratepayers, should be abolished, and the council wishing to lay the matter squarely before the ratepayers, authorize the clerk to prepare a bylaw for the abolition of statute labour, to be submitted to the ratepayers at the next municipal election."

This step on the part of the Blanchard council shows an awakening to the necessity of securing better roads, and of improving on the system of road-making now in vogue. The statute labour is a farce. — St. Thomas Journal.

Blake and the "Old Man."

Some months ago it was expected that Mr. Laurier would present to Mr. Gladstone Mr. Forbes' great portrait of the G.O.M. on behalf of the Canadian Liberals; and there were pleasant anticipations of the great speech which the eloquent leader of the Liberal party would make on such occasion. Now it transpires that Mr. Blake is to be the spokesman of Canadian Liberalism when it pays its tribute of respect to the great leader of English Liberalism. It will be probably Mr. Blake's first appearance after his election to a seat in the Imperial Parliament. A banquet is to be tendered him at the time by the National Liberal Association. That Mr. Blake will rise equal to the occasion we all know. Most Canadians would go a long distance to hear Edward Blake address England's Grand Old Man.

Cavandish.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

A violent rain and wind storm passed over this part of the country. The storm came from the west. No damage reported west of Kinmount except fences and trees blown down.

Two and a half miles east of Kinmount, Mr. T. Hunter's barn was unroofed and on the next lot Mr. Spencely's barn was blown down. On lot 30, con. 1, Snowden, Mrs. St. George's barn was unroofed. About a mile farther, lot 2, con. 18, Cavendish, Wm. Peacock's house was unroofed and two rounds of logs also blown off.

The wind followed the line of the White Lake road leading to the Buckhorn road and in places heaped it full of trees all the distance to the Buckhorn road, so many trees stood near the centre of the road that were uprooted consequently it is badly torn up.

Foster's Hentruit Statesmanship.

Although Mr. Foster's duty of five cents per dozen upon eggs has not increased the price of eggs in Ontario and Quebec it has aroused a storm in British Columbia. The Pacific province does not yield enough eggs for home consumption; and as it will not pay to bring them from Ontario, eggs are imported into the province from the neighboring states of the American republic. The duty of five cents a dozen upon imported eggs is therefore a serious and special tax upon the people of British Columbia. The Victoria Times protests against the tax as a burden upon British Columbia, but so long as that province sends a solid contingent of Tories to the Ottawa parliament it will have no right to complain about unjust taxation levied upon it by the Tory party.

Preaching and Practice.

The Baptists of Toronto are practising what they preach in the matter of tax exemptions. The trustees of the Jarvis street church have paid $468 15, on account of taxes, and have also insisted for the use of the Pavilion. The check was accompanied by the usual protest against tax exemptions of ecclesiastical property. What they do voluntarily, all congregations should be made to do.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Is superior to all other preparations claiming to be blood-purifiers. First of all, because the principal ingredient used in it is the extract of genuine Honduras sarsaparilla root, the variety richest in medicinal properties. Also, because Cures Catarrh the yellow dock, being raised expressly for the Company, is always fresh and of the very best kind. With equal discrimination and care, each of the other ingredients are selected and compounded. It is because it is always the same in appearance, flavor, and effect, and, being highly concentrated, only small doses are needed. It is, therefore, the most economical blood-purifier in existence. It Cures SCROFULA makes food nourishing, work pleasant, sleep refreshing, and life enjoyable. It searches out all impurities in the system and expels them harmlessly by the natural channels. Big Purchase of Clothing.

Mr. Vineberg, of the firm of Meiklenberg & Vineberg, clothiers, of this town, returned from Montreal this morning, where he had been engaged for the past few days in making extensive purchases of ready-made clothing and gents' furnishings for the local firm, at about one-half the regular wholesale price. They promise to make a public announcement in a few days of the extraordinary bargains they will be prepared to offer.

Another Midnight Blaze.

Another fire occurred this morning at two o'clock. An alarm was sounded and the brigade were quickly on the spot. The fire was on the corner of London and Water streets, in an old story and a half frame house belonging to Mr. T. G. Hazlitt. The building was unoccupied, the last tenant Mrs. Barns moving out some time ago. The house was burned nearly to the ground. Water was thrown upon it for nearly an hour. The loss is about $200. It is remarkable that this is the third instance in which "spontaneous combustion" has caused the destruction of unoccupied houses within the last month.

The Sail Over the New Route.

The Oddfellows' excursion on Civic Holiday offers an opportunity to sail over a new excursion route to the residents of Peterborough. The sail from Belleville to Picton, down the picturesque Bay of Quinte, past many points of interest and much beautiful scenery cannot be surpassed on inland waters. It should be a great attraction for a day's outing, especially when the steamer Rocket is such a fast and commodious craft, and Glenora, the charming summer resort, Picton and the Sand Banks are sights to be seen at the end of the sail. Home will be reached in good time in the evening. Return fare only $1.50.

A Great Influx of Visitors.

Mr. R. B. Rice, D.D.H.C.R., C. O. F., Toronto, has written the local courts asking what arrangements could be made regarding the great excursion of the Canadian Order of Foresters, 13 Courts in all, to Peterborough on August 15th, Toronto's Civic Holiday. About 1,000 visitors are expected in town and they will spend all the day roaming in our parks and viewing the places of interest and manufacture in our booming town. Sports will be held under the auspices of the visitors in the afternoon. An efficient committee have the matter in hand and no doubt they will make the excursion a grand success. Two or three of the committee will visit Peterborough a day or two before the excursion in order to make all preliminary arrangements. The Peterborough Courts are preparing to give their visiting brethren a cordial reception. It is probable that the High Chief Ranger himself will accompany the excursion.

NOTICE.

Bankrupt Stock to be sold by public auction. As I have made up my mind to give the buying people of this town the biggest chance they ever have received, I will place on the counters no less a man than Mr. John Haggart on Saturday next, at twelve o'clock sharp, and every article he puts up has to go at your own price; also on Saturday night at seven o'clock. Remember the time and date. This stock is well assorted—you can get everything in the Dry Goods line that is required. Keep the ball rolling, I like lots of fun. Respectfully yours.

Last Sad Rites.

The Port Hope Guide says:—The funeral of the late Miss Sarah A. Hawkins took place this afternoon from the residence of her brother-in-law, Mr. Mark Smith, Seymour street. Rev. D. Roddick, pastor of the Baptist church, conducted service at both the residence and cemetery. Deceased was a sister of Mr. John Hawkins, Peterborough.

He also expects to sell about half a score more of binders before the season closes.

To-day's Cricket Match.

The members of the Toronto and Rosdale Cricket clubs who are camping out at Stony Lake came to Peterborough this morning and are playing the town a game on the P. A. A. A. grounds. The following players are wielding the bat for Peterborough:—Dumble, Ray, B. Boucher, G. Boucher, W. Stocker, H. Oldfield, J. H. Burnham, A. Crofton, W. J. Montgomery, W. D. Parker, A. H. Morgan and others.

Sent on its Relief Mission.

The town of Peterborough yesterday shipped via. G.T.R the donation made by the town council on Monday night, a consignement of 100 barrels of flour for the sufferers of St. John's, Newfoundland. The flour was purchased from Messrs. Hilliard & Peplow at a cost of $3.70 per barrel or an equivalent to a grant of $370 in cash to the sufferers. The flour supplied by Messrs. Hilliard & Peplow, cost them exactly $4 20, but they generously disposed of it at $3.70 for the relief cargo. This represents a gift of $50 from the suppliers of the flour and is a liberal donation.

An Enjoyable Outing Easily Obtained.

Civic holiday, Aug. 15th, will have many excursions, but the pleasantest of all will be the one to the Chemong terminus and through the beautiful chain of lakes to Lakefield—leaving the G. T. R. station at 7 a.m. for Chemong, boarding the steamer Golden City, passing through Chemong and Buckhorn Lakes to Buckhorn village, where two hours will be spent; sailing from thence down through Deer Bay, passing Lovelock Rapids and locks into Lovelock Lake, arriving at Burleigh Falls and locks, where one hour will be spent; from Burleigh a sail through the Stony Lake waters studded with islands, replete with ever changing scenery, to Clear Lake and Lakefield—affording a trip which cannot be excelled for variety and beauty of scenery and general comfort. Round fare 85 cents.

Put in Another Telephone.

At the last meeting of the council the Bell Telephone Company presented a communication stating that they had resumed the collection of rents for the use of their instruments in Peterborough, and offering to put in three instruments, one in the town clerk's office, one in the police station and another in the chief's residence. They offered to do this for $60 a year, which is $5 less on each instrument than their regular rates. A fourth telephone should be place in the town officials office, and that should be at the residence of Mr. Pope, street inspector. It would be of the street surveyor who is often put to a great deal of trouble and inconvenience by not having this very necessary medium with the outside world. Several councillors are in favor of putting in an instrument for the street inspector.

The Nuptials of Mr. Ralph Ross, of Brockville, and Miss Ella L. Wrighton.

"Ivamere," the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wrighton, McDonnel street, was the scene of a quiet but pretty and most interesting scene last evening when Mr. Ralph Ross, B.A., Classical Master of the Brockville Collegiate Institute, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to their eldest daughter Miss Ella L. Only the immediate relatives and most intimate friends of the bridal party were present to witness the solemn and impressive ceremony performed by the Rev. Jos. H. Locke, pastor of the George street Methodist church. The handsome bride looked charming in a pretty travelling dress, and was assisted through the important occasion by her sister, Miss Eva H. Wrighton, who was dressed in a stylish cream crepon costume trimmed with baby ribbon. The fortunate groom was supported by Mr. Eustace Grabbe cousin of the bride. After the evening ceremonial the contracting parties with the guests present partook of an elegant wedding dejeuner served in excellent style. Mr. and Mrs. Ross left at 12 o'clock via C. P. R. for a six weeks wedding tour in the Eastern Provinces and New England States. They will return on Sept. 1st and take up their residence in Brockville where a fine home on one of the principal avenues is awaiting their occupancy. The wedding presents received were numerous and of rare value. Among them may be mentioned a handsome upright piano given the bride by her mother, and an interesting memento of the pleasing event, donated by the matriculants of '91 of the Peterborough Collegiate Institute, where Mr. Ross was their former successful teacher. The groom is a respected young man of varied talents and much promise and is well known in Peterborough. The bride is one of Peterborough's most popular young ladies where her amiable disposition and many admirable qualities have endeared her to all. The EXAMINER with a host of warm friends joins in felicitations over the gladsome event and wishes the happy parties a long life of unalloyed prosperity and connubial bliss.

Wm. Kitsby was charged with being a vagrant. His present home is at the gaol, being sent up twice a year, getting a six months sentence each time. The magistrate accommodated him with another six months' sentence this morning.

The Town's Bank Account.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I observe some correspondence in the papers with regard to the bank account of the town. For the life of me I can't see what difference it makes whether the town treasurer is banker or not. I think I know something about the town's business and the way in which the Ontario bank has guarded and watched that interest, and I feel certain, with all due respect to the other bankers that there is not one of them at the time the Ontario bank took the town's account, would have given the same privileges and attention that Mr. McGill has bestowed upon the civic finances. The town is paying the Ontario bank 6 per cent. The county is paying the Bank of Commerce 6 per cent. also for precisely a similar kind of accommodation. The county, whose affairs are efficiently guarded by a gentleman of Mr. Pearse's sound financial judgment, with the aid and assistance of other capable and experienced men of affairs like Mr. John Burnham, and others of the county council, think they are not paying too much. The Separate School Board is also paying the Bank of Montreal six per cent. for the accommodation it requires. Then how can it be argued that the town, taking into consideration the extra advantage gained by having the account with the Ontario Bank, is to be considered as paying an extravagant figure for the financial accommodation it requires when it pays six per cent.? At a certain period, when circumstances called for special vigilance in the management of our town finances, it was, to my knowledge, a special benefit to the town in having the functions of town treasurer and town banker combined in one person. This little correspondence seems to have had its origin in other motives than those actuated by a special zeal for the interests of the town, for I can see not the slightest reason for solicitude on the subject, but on the contrary it seems to me that we are fortunate in being placed in financial matters as we are placed. If the town councillors watch the expenditure of the people's money as carefully as the money itself is looked after, the town will be gaining more solid advantage than can result from any amount of grumbling about a half per cent on the rate of interest.

Yours truly,
STILL ANOTHER RATEPAYER.

A Popular Outing.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—For four Saturdays I have "taken in" the new popular Saturday afternoon excursion per steamer Golden E, to Victoria Park, and I cannot refrain from adding my simple testimony to those of many others that have already appeared in print as to the pleasure the trip has afforded my family and myself. The sail of a couple of hours each way is simply delightful, while the scenery is romantic and charming. The prizes awarded by Commodore Calcutt are an additional attraction. My family and myself number four persons, and in the four trips which we have made we have secured, collectively, two handsome lamps, a valuable pocketbook and a couple of dolls. It has done me more good to see my two little ones' delight on receiving their prizes than the whole excursion costs.

I hope Mr. Calcutt will be encouraged in his efforts to cater in this way to the little ones of the town, for it is really their excursion.

Thaking you, Mr. Editor for inserting the above, I am,

CHARLES WEST.

"System" of Sewerage.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I see it stated in the local papers that a bylaw has been passed by our town council calling for a vote of the ratepayers on the question of raising $40,000, for sewerage purposes.

I do not expect or pretend that any word or advice from me in the matter will have any effect upon our heaven-born town councillors, or in the least degree divert them from their settled purpose of rushing blindly into the expenditure of hundreds of thousands of dollars of the people's taxes on a misnamed "system" of sewerage—a bungled, botched and piece-meal makeshift, without cohesion, method or relative finish of any of its parts to the others. All is chaos and guess-work now—there is no plan or system to work or vote upon—there is no one directly responsible. The ratepayers of the town may depend upon it, that if, upon the existing mixed and muddled information on the subject, they vote money, that it will be expended largely in experimental, stupid jobbery, as the caprice and whims of members of the council, wholly ignorant of such technical work, may direct, and a pliant engineer yield to and approve of in the most unprofessional fashion, they will sorely regret it before many years have elapsed.

While I am strongly in support of constructing a proper system of sewerage, based upon well-defined principles and plans suitable to the physical configuration of the town, I am opposed to all haphazard undertakings, that I am sure must eventually result in disappointment and failure to a very great extent. Until such time, therefore, as a comprehensive, well-connected, economical scheme, each part thereof truly fitting into the other, is devised and submitted to competent judges, I would respectfully advise the ratepayers not to vote, but if they do, to vote the by-law down.

Yours truly,
J. W. FITZGERALD.

Peterborough, July 22nd, 1892.

The Banks and the Town.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—Correspondents are devoting considerable attention to the bank account business of the town, which it is both their right and duty to do. With a desire to add variety to the discussion, and to suggest something in the interest of the ratepayers, I submit that the present would be an opportune time for considering the advisability of charging all the banks a license for the privilege of doing business in the town. In Kingston, and other places, I believe this matter is being seriously considered, with a good prospect of being put into practice. In Quebec province the banks pay for the privilege of doing business, and it should not be long before the same system is applied here. The banks don't come to town as philanthropists; they make money by being here. Any advantage they bestow upon the citizens has to be paid for—and that without ceremony as I have sometimes found out. There is no good reason why so much money should be made in Peterborough by the banks, and sent out of Peterborough to build up and enrich Toronto, Montreal and other cities, without the town that furnishes the facilities for this coinage of wealth, getting some small share of the benefit—and such benefit would I think be justly derived from the placing of a nominal fee—say $100—for doing business here. This little license fee would aggregate sufficient to pay two thirds of the amount of the interest of the accommodation the town requires, and I don't see why the banks should not pay for the privilege of making tens of thousands of dollars yearly out of the people of the town of Peterborough. The town councillor who will take up this matter and push it in earnest will receive my vote, and a plumper at that.

Yours truly

CARD OF THANKS.

I HEREBY offer my thanks to the residents of Peterborough and surrounding country for patronage and good will extended to me for the past 20 years, and would respectfully ask a continuance of same in a new departure of Jobbing, Carpentering, and all kinds of Store and House Fixing and Manufacture, and in all Plain and Fancy Wood Work.

EDWARD COURTNEY.

Factory over Wand's Planing Mill, Ashburnham. P.O. Box 56.

WOULD YOU BUY,

If the Price were Low?

Most men who do not own houses would become owners if they could do so at a moderate cost.

It is my business to build houses, the cost of which is within the reach of people in fair circumstances.

I have one house well built, good location. Aylmer street, between Townsend and Hall streets—$2,200. Look it up. Will have two on Dalhousie; work now going on.

WOMAN AS HOUSEKEEPER

WHERE THE HUSBAND MUST ENTER BY THE KITCHEN.

And Take off His Shoes Too. Before Getting Into the House—Cherry Canning—And Other Things That the Good Housewife Should Know and Act Upon.

I often wonder if some women into whose starchy and uncomfortable homes I am sometimes entrapped into going, really know what neglecting means.

There is never any dust in their houses, for they're not really homes.

There are never any papers or magazines lying about, just ready for a weary hand and brain. The husband of this style of housekeeper (not homekeeper) takes his shoes off at the kitchen door and dons slippers. That is one rule of madame's which she rigidly enforces, even if it do necessitate the poor victim's making a journey through a nasty alley (and what alleys are not, even the best of them?), which causes his already famished stomach to rebel at the chips of dried beef, weak tea and baker's cake she has ready for him. She couldn't cook anything else because she had spent an hour after dinner scouring pots and pans that were now hanging beautifully resplendent against white marbled oilcloth upon the kitchen wall. There are no children in that house. Even the house dog knows enough to wipe its feet.

I give a sigh of happiness as I look round my own home. There are two robust, healthy boys and they make more solid work in one minute than the childless housekeeper ever dreamed of in her philosophy. Right square in front of the sitting-room door lies a pack of toys three feet high. Sometimes they are all nicely stacked up, when one of the little fellows happens to notice that mamma looks tired, though just now, I must confess, they are in direct confusion.

Over in the bay window sits the little wife herself darning stockings, which I wouldn't do at $5 a pair. There are little scraps and ends lying all about her, and this Friday, too!

"Oh, dear, John, how the neighbors would talk if they knew I put my patching off until Friday! And, oh, you wretched boy, how you did splatter that pink lamp globe with chocolate when you and I were racing all over the house to see which one would get possession of the chocolate pot; and I never noticed it until this minute!"

Yes, and "sure enough," there they are, right on the handsome brass lamp; but we had a jolly, handsome romp, and the two lads joined in and screamed with joy as wife came out victorious, as she always does. And afterwards mamma played the piano and a new waltz of her own, and sang the little fellows to sleep with her own songs to guitar accompaniment, and I enjoyed it all as much as they did. We forgot to wash the lemonade glasses, and left watermelon lying on the brass waiter.

"Now, who wants to scour that?" sighs wife; "if I only loved work as my neighbors do, I'd fly at the thing and scour the system out of it."

Now she has dropped the patching and is playing a soft accompaniment on the guitar to the scratch of my pen, but don't for one minute think that that patching won't be done and that we live in confusion; for we don't.

There are books and papers and toys and music and song, but there isn't any dust. Somehow or other the children's faces are always clean, my buttons are always sewed on, she makes the most of her dresses and fol-de-rols, though when she does it I can't see—and then she says I bother her quite a great deal.

I never have to go around the back way when it is muddy, and she is willing to cook peas and bake greenapple pie for supper if I want it. Her pans may not be as bright as her neighbors'; I'm sure I never looked; I never had time, for looking at her own merry face. She may have neglected something though I cannot see what; yet she never neglected to fill the house with peace and love, to supply me with bodily comforts, to feed my brain with sweet, fresh bits of wisdom and rest.

A man loves bodily comforts, and in judging every man by myself I am enveloping the whole. So to those wives who want to have a happy home I say: Look out for our comfort first (and it is a poor man who will not repay you a hundredfold), and scrub your cellar stairs and dust your attic windows afterward. Cultivate some of the graces and fewer of the greases. A man doesn't want a slave for a wife; a hired girl will work for wages, and since I come to think of it, this girl that we have had since our marriage left a week ago on the same mission, and it is presumed the kindly neighbors imagine that perforce we will have to swallow more than the original "peck of dirt" until we can find just the one to take her place, and in the meantime "God bless the efforts of the little wife!"

Doctors? Pshaw! take BEECHAM'S PILLS.

Names of the Cunard Steamers.

LONDON, July 21.—Edmund Yates writes: "Some curiosity has been excited as to the raison d'etre of the names Campania and Lucania given to the new steamships of the Cunard Company now building at Fairfield. According to the traditions of the Cunard Line every name must end in "ia," and Campania and Lucania were not heathen divinities, as has actually been stated, but two great southern provinces of ancient Italy. Campania was the district of which Naples was the capital, and included all the lovely scenery of the rich country down to Paestuo. South of that came Lucania, stretching from sea to sea, running up to the highest point of the Apennines, and boasting Horace of Venusia as its son."

The African is better protected against the evil effects of the excessive heat than his white brothers in two ways. The texture of his cuticle is exceptionally well adapted to encourage free perspiration, and his natural temperament does not incline him to borrow trouble largely.

The largest artificial stone in the world forms the base of the Bartholdi statute of liberty on Bedloe's island, New York harbor. This immense stone was made from broken trap rock, sand and American cement. Five hundred car-loads of sand and over 20,000 barrels of cement were used in manufacturing the monster.

Professor Milne, of Tokio, records a dense storm of yellow dust which suddenly covered the deck of a vessel ninety-five miles from Nagasaki, Japan, which is upward of four hundred miles from the coast of China. The dust was so fine that, though composed of feldspar, quartz and a few shreds of plants, it did not affect the eyes, and had not the deck been covered with it it might have been mistaken for a peculiar yellow fog. Yet it seems to have extended for two thousand miles and to have come from the "loose" plains of China.

A Gentleman.

I knew him for a gentleman
By signs that never fail;
His coat was rough and rather worn,
His cheeks were thin and pale—
A lad who had his way to make
With little time to play—
I knew him for a gentleman
By certain signs to-day.

He met his mother on the street;
Off came his little cap.
My door was shut; he waited there
Until I heard his rap.
He took the bundle from my hand,
And when I dropped my pen,
He sprang to pick it up for me,
This gentleman of ten.

He does not push and crowd along;
His voice is gently pitched;
He does not fling his books about
As if he were bewitched.
He stands aside to let you pass;
He always shuts the door;
He runs on errands willingly
To forge and mill and store.

He thinks of you before himself;
He serves you if he can;
For in whatever company
The manners make the man.
At ten or forty, 'tis the same,
The manners tells the tale;
And I discern the gentleman
By signs that never fail.

MISERY OF LIFE IN MOROCCO.

The Sultan Only Maintains His Power by Keeping the Tribes at War.

Written law there is none. Prisoners languish in chains, some innocent, some guilty; but, says a writer in the Fortnightly Review, they are condemned without trial or released only through bribery. I find no security for life or property. The rich deny or bury their wealth, which is unearthed by threats and confiscated by torture. The poor lie down and starve. I see tribes of hardy mountaineers in constant revolt against the sultan. I cannot see that the sultan in any sense governs anything or anybody. He makes no roads, builds no harbors, fosters no trade, administers no justice; he only keeps his place by setting one tribe to plunder another or by keeping whole populations in a state of starvation, and hence unable to resist his exactions.

As he plays off the tribe within so he plays off the nations without. He keeps out their influence by formenting their rival jealousies. In Tangier itself, the diplomatic capital of Morocco, there is not a wheeled carriage. Why? Because there is not sufficient cohesion among the consulates and legations to get a carriage road made. This is called the status in quo and is sometimes lauded as an admirable policy.

Look beyond Tangier. I see between ranges of metalliferous mountains, upon whose slopes herds of wild horses, enough to set up the continent with cavalry, or tame cattle for its commissariat, could be raised, vast alluvial plains, well watered, utterly untouched by industry, yet capable of bearing grain and fruit enough to supply half Europe—wheat, oranges, lemons, Indian corn, sugar, grapes, olives, dates, bananas, and every kind of vegetables. I see a great navigable river, the Lebon, down which all this produce might be floated, between Fez and the seacoast, for rapid export. Not a steam plow or a harrow or a threshing machine will the Sultan permit; not a square foot will he sell; not a steamer or trading boat may ply upon rivers which should be at once the boundaries of teeming and prosperous provinces and the arteries of cosmopolitan commerce.

What the Trouble Was.

Employer—I was sorry to learn, Mr. Jennings, that you were too ill to attend to your duties at the office yesterday. What seems to be the trouble?

Mr. Jennings (the clerk, absent-mindedly)—Poor batting and no good men in the field—that is—I mean—

Employer (with great dignity)—I think I understand what you mean, Mr. Jennings. I can't ask a man to work for me any longer who is afflicted that way."

Whether Pasteur and Koch's peculiar modes of treatment will ultimately prevail or not, their theory of blood-contamination is the correct one, though not original. It was on this theory that Dr. J C Ayer of Lowell, Mass. nearly fifty years ago, formulated Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

A Child Saved.

My little boy was taken very bad with diarrhœa, he was very delicate and got so low we had no hope of his life, but a lady friend recommended Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and although he could only bear a few drops at a time he got well. It saved my child.

NORMAN, Ont., January 15, 1892.
W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.
DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.
Yours faithfully,

DEATH OF THOMAS COOK.

HOW HE BUILT UP HIS VAST EXCURSION BUSINESS.

Starting as a Lad at Gardening for a Penny a Day, He Lived to See His Name Known Throughout the Civilized World.

LONDON, July 21.—Thomas Cook, the venerable founder of the widely known Cook's excursion, whose death was announced yesterday, was born at Melbourne, in Derbyshire, England, on Nov. 22, 1808. His parents were in humble circumstances and his boyhood was a struggle. When Thomas was four years old his father died. The lad left school at 10 and went to work at gardening on the Melbourne estate, receiving as his pay a penny daily. He next was apprenticed to his uncle, John Pegg, and learned the trade of wood-turning.

Leaving Melbourne he went to Loughborough, in Leicestershire, where he was employed by Joseph Weeks, a publisher of Baptist books. Young Cook's strong religious views induced him, in 1828, to become a missionary in the County of Rutland. In 1832 he married Miss Mason, a Rutland county farmer's daughter, and began business as a wood turner in Mount Harborough. The Father Mathew temperance movement at this time was attracting much attention in England and Cook zealously enrolled himself in the cause. He was the founder of The Children's Temperance Magazine, the first of its kind in England. It was while engaged in temperance work that he conceived the idea of an excursion party, and on July 5, 1851, a train, for which he had bargained, carried 570 passengers from Leicester to Loughborough and back at one shilling a head. It was the first publicly advertised excursion train which was run in England.

Extension of the System.

This was the turning point in his career. The fame of his undertaking spread abroad and his services came to be in great demand. He was busily occupied in 1842, 1843 and 1844 planning and conducting temperance and Sunday School excursions. In 1843 he took 4000 teachers and children from Leicester to Derby to see the races. In 1845 he got up an excursion party from Leicester to Liverpool and published in connection with it a handbook of the trip to Liverpool. The train started on August 4 and proved so successful that a second train was run on August 20.

He next took excursion parties to Scotland, and they were so satisfactory that the system was extended. In 1851 he conducted large numbers of sightseers to the great exhibition in Hyde Park, and in 1853 to the Dublin exhibition. In 1856 he led a party "on a grand circular tour of the Continent." In 1862 he housed in London 20,000 visitors to the second great exhibition at South Kensington. The previous year he carried 1673 workingmen from London to Paris.

Having made a beginning in foreign travel he extended his tourist system over other parts of the Continent. He first added Switzerland to his list and then Italy. His first London office was opened at No. 98 Fleet-street in April, 1865, and at the same time he published The Excursionist in Leicester. In November, 1865, he paid his first visit to the United States. He found the excursion system imperfectly developed in America and made arrangements for trips over 5000 miles of railway. The first party of tourists to the United States left England on April 21, 1866, and the second on April 25 of the same year.

Tour of the Holy Land.

It was in 1868 that he made his first tour of the Holy Land, which led to a transformation of travel in the east. In 1871 he conducted a party of American Knights Templar on an European trip, and his style of business so impressed Sir Knight Jenkins, the leader, that he joined him and the firm of Cook, Son & Jenkins was established in New York, with branch offices in Boston, Philadelphia and Washington. At the end of six years the partnership was dissolved. In 1872, with nine companions, he made an exploring tour round the world which consumed 222 days. In 1878 at the Paris exhibition the holders of tickets issued by Cook & Son numbered 400,000. In this year his son, John Mason Cook, became sole managing partner.

From then to the present time the business has grown to enormous proportions. Cook's name has come to be known in almost every part of the world. Three generations were represented in the business, John Mason Cooke having three sons engaged in it—namely, F. H., E. E. and T. A. Cook. The amount and character of the work performed may be estimated from the fact that in 1890 alone the firm issued 13,948,153 announcements and a travelling ticket for every four announcements.

Thomas Cook's death occurred in his home at Stoneycroft, Leicester. His wife died some time ago. He had two children, John M., and a daughter who died ten years ago.

HAMILTON April 20th, 1892.

I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp and they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes. Having tried Anti Dandruff I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years. When half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Anti-Dandruff has no equal.

HAS HE MET WITH FOUL PLAY?

Great Britain Anxious About the Fate of Her Minister To Morocco.

LONDON, July 22.—The Foreign Office is anxious over the entire absence of communications from Sir Charles Euan Smith, the British Minister to Morocco, who recently visited Fez to confer with the Sultan.

The Foreign Office has had no communication from him since the announcement that the negotiations had been ruptured. Sir Charles is supposed to have left Fez, but the Government has heard nothing of him since the eve of the date fixed for his departure.

Among those who accompanied Sir Charles on the trip to Fez were his wife and daughter and a Miss Kerisson, a friend of Miss Smith.

During the stay of the party in Fez the Sultan granted an exequatur to the British Consul at Fez, but refused him permission to fly the British flag. The Minister protested against this decision, informed the Sultan that the flag would be hoisted and that His Majesty would be held answerable for all insults to it.

The flag was accordingly hoisted at the Consulate, and the natives, enraged at the sight of it, organized a hostile demonstration. The situation became critical. Sir Charles and the members of the commission, fully armed, guarded the British flag.

The Grand Vizier accordingly acquainted the Sultan with Sir Charles' determination and with the fury of the mob. The Sultan then sent 400 soldiers to protect the British mission and endeavor to pacify the populace.

The Sultan afterwards compelled the leader of the mob, who was a high official, to pay over to Sir Charles the sum of $10,000, which the latter directed should be distributed to the poor of Fez and elsewhere. Other punishments were meted out to the other ringleaders, and they may have combined to avenge themselves.

In the Cholera Districts.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 22.—The Novoe Vremya, describing scenes in the cholera infected districts says: The Baku railroad station was filled with a tumultuous crowd of fugitives. When the doors were opened the crowd rushed to the platform and soon overcrowded the trains. Many sat on the floor rather than be left behind. The stench of the atmosphere was suffocating. Prudent passengers sprinkled their own and their neighbors clothes with carbolic acid. A doctor looks at the tongues and feels the pulses of the passengers. Everybody protests that he or she is in perfect health. The train then starts. Often within a few minutes a passenger is taken ill with cholera. The inmates of the patient's compartment at once become panic stricken. The patient is removed, and the place where he sat is sprinkled with carbolic acid and the passengers immediately refill their places. A similar scene occurs frequently.

Trouble in Morocco.

ROME, July 22.—The Capitate says that all the European powers will concentrate naval squadrons at Cadiz in order to be ready to proceed to Morocco where the question between France and the Sultan is becoming complicated and threatens to cause discord between France and the powers interested in maintaining an equilibrum in the Mediterranean.

The Cholera in France.

LONDON, July 22.—A despatch to The Lancet from Paris says that the cholera in the suburbs of that city is stationary and exhibits no tendency to extension within the fortifications.

It does not seem to have taken root within the walls of the city.

The Captain Censured.

LIVERPOOL, July 22.—The Board of Trade in the case of Capt. Redford of the Inman Line steamer City of Chicago announced its judgment yesterday. It censures the captain for running his ship ashore near the Old Head of Kinsale and suspends his certificate for nine months.

Struck a Reef.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 22.—The steamer Walamo, having on board 83 passengers, struck a reef near this city during a fog and went to pieces. Three of the passengers were drowned.

A HAMILTON MAN'S INSANITY.

The Sad Case of Archibald McLellan, Now of Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 22.—To be stricken with insanity at the age of 60, torn from wife and friends and removed to an asylum without hope of recovery was the appalling fate reserved for Archibald McLellan of No. 211 Thirty-first-street. He is now in the Detention Hospital awaiting the formality of a judicial enquiry and a jury's verdict before being committed to the institution for the insane at Kankakee. He was examined by several physicians yesterday, who found no ground on which to base a hope of his recovery. Mr. McLellan was prominent in the Masonic fraternity. During the last seven years he was employed in the office of Grand Secretary Gilbert W. Barnard at No. 78 Monroe-street, performing general clerical work. He was originally from Hamilton, Canada.

One of his brothers was mayor of Hamilton. He has another brother in Toronto and two sisters in different parts of the Dominion.

A Woman's Method of Ending Life.

TRIBES HILL, N.Y., July 22.—Mrs. Michael Lefferts, 28 years old, wife of a well-to-do farmer, attempted to commit suicide in Alexander Woods, near Sharon Springs, a short distance from her home, by means of an explosive.

She held it down on the ground while she ignited it. The concussion hurled her a distance of 20 feet. She was found by her husband. Her body is cut in many places and her shoulders and breast badly burned.

Mrs. Lefferts is the daughter of the late Jerome Ackley, who was a well-known merchant in Madison County. She has three children. No reason is given for her deed. Mrs. Lefferts is still alive and her injuries are painful. She refuses to speak about the affair.

Well-Known Thief Arrested.

SARNIA, Ont., July 22.—Last week McMaster's bookstore, Battley's jewelry store and Sanders' furniture store, Hall's shoe store and Kirby Bros.' drygoods store were broken into.

While this thieving was going on, one Charles Norman, was boarding at the Germania House at Port Huron. He was about 50 years of age, of good address, said he was from Toronto, that he was agent for a wire fence. He used to come and go, frequently being away for a day or two, as he said, placing his wire fence with the railways. Detective Buckeridge of Port Huron, suspected that Norman might be the man wanted. He visited the Germania House and found Norman absent in Canada. A search of his trunk in his room disclosed goods which were at once identified as stolen. Burglar tools were also found in his trunk.

A watch was placed upon the hotel and when Norman came home from Canada he was placed under arrest. A letter was also found in Norman's pocket from his wife in Toronto, acknowledging the receipt of a package of silver spoons, and a despatch was sent to the chief of Police at Toronto to search Norman's house for stolen property.

Norman was arraigned in the Port Huron police court and pleaded guilty of 10 robberies, one at Croswell, one at Jeddo, two at Brockway, three at Port Huron and three at Sarnia. He was remanded to jail until such time as the circuit court is in session, when he will be sentenced.

They Say They Are; But, Are They?

THIS is the time of year when lots of Clothing Stores are offering goods 50 to 60 per cent. below cost, and at much less than goods can be bought at other stores, retailing below wholesale prices, closing out the stock of some defunct or deceased firm, running alleged bargain tables and sacrificing goods below cost, just for fun, are among the many pleasantries to which clothiers treat the reading public.

A few days ago one of those shrewd, bright and flippant buyers entered our store. It was evident that curosity, and not the desire to purchase, had brought him. He looked at Suits and he looked at Overcoats. He criticised and condemned, but finally the salesman showed him a suit that attracted his attention. He objected to the price, whereupon the salesman informed him that we are at present selling goods below cost. Quick as a flash came the response, "You say you are, but are you? Everybody else is spinning the same old yarn." Well, we sold that man the suit. We convinced him that we are actually selling below cost. We showed him the old price in black figures, and the new one in red figures. The difference between the two told the tale. All we ask is to be put to the test. We are confident that we are underselling every one in the clothing trade.

A KENT COUNTY WOMAN KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

Strange Death of a Young Woman in Her Father's Arms—Convocation of Royal Arch Masons in London — A Long List of Drowning Accidents.

RIDGETOWN, Ont., July 23.—Mrs. Jeremiah Rushton of Rushton's Corners was killed by lightning last evening during the storm. She was in the act of calling up a neighbor woman over a telephone between the two houses to ask if one of her children was there, when the fluid killed her instantly.

The barns of Morgans in the Howard road, about a mile from Mr. Rushton's here, burned at the same time.

A man, name not known, working about a mile in a westerly direction, is also reported killed.

THE SIMCOE SENSATION.

The Alleged Simcoe Swindlers Remanded for Another Week.

SIMCOE, Ont., July 23.—The trial of W. E. Norton, alias J. A. Chrystie, school teacher of Teeterville, and W. E. Kelly, barrister, for obtaining money under false pretences came up Friday before the police magistrate. The court room was crowded. After hearing two or three witnesses the court adjourned until next Thursday.

The arrest of the two men, it will be remembered, arose out of a bogus advertisement in a Toronto paper for a teacher to travel with a mythical Mrs. Jones, $10 being secured from a number of the applicants on the representation that they had been engaged for the post.

WASHING HER DOLL'S DRESS.

Sad Death of a Little Dot Who Was Imitating Her Mother.

MOUNT ELGIN, Ont., July 23.—Edith Sheldrake, the two-year-old daughter of Walter Sheldrake, watched her mother washing, the clean clothes being placed in a crock, which was half full of water. The washing being complete, the clothes were taken from the vessel and hung on the line. During the mother's absence, the child with a garment from her doll proceeded to imitate her mother in washing, using the crock for a tub. Not being tall enough to reach into the crock, the little one procured a box to stand upon, and during her play overbalanced and fell head first into the crock.

Fell From the Dock.

EAGLE, Ont., July 23.—Ted Hooper and George McAuley, two boys of about 10 years of age living on the 14th concession, were sitting on the dock fishing when by some means Ted Hooper fell from the docks and not being a swimmer was speedily drowned.

Why the Dinner Failed to Arrive.

Some time later Fred. Collins saw the little fellow's body being carried down stream over the rapids. The body was recovered next day.

AMHERSTBURG, Ont., July 23.—About 6.30 o'clock last evening, when the barge Emma L. Coyne was at the mouth of the river, a sailor named John H. Cook, who was scraping the mizzen-mast, accidentally fell onto the top of the cabin and was killed.

$10,000 Fire at Stittsville.

STITTSVILLE, Ont., July 23.—At 1.45 o'clock yesterday fire destroyed Mr. Mann's private dwelling, store and outbuildings, also the private dwelling of Mr. McCurdy. Loss over $10,000; insurance $7800.

Suspected Horse Thief.

SIMCOE, July 23.—A stranger came here yesterday with a horse and buggy, the horse being sick from overdriving. He sold the buggy and harness to one of the liverymen for $10. He then went to the railway station and was about starting for Detroit when he was arrested by the police. Word has been received from a liveryman in Dunnville, who will be here to-night to claim the turnout. The man is in jail and refuses to give his name.

Serves Him Right.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., July 23.—The customs officers have seized a steam yacht owned by R. H. Southgate, a well-known American hotel manager, who is camping near here. It is claimed that Southgate, who for many years past has spent his summers on Ridou Lake, has been in the habit of bringing into the country a large stock of groceries and liquors, upon which he paid no duty.

Circus Hand Killed by a Train.

WINNIPEG, July 23.—An employe of McMahon's circus, now playing in Manitoba, fell from a railroad train near Virden last night and was killed.

STATE OF TRADE.

The Hawks that Soared from Liberty to License Pined.

NEW YORK, July 23.—Special telegrams to Bradstreet's from more important centres show a moderate revival of general trade, with indications that the autumn's demand is already making itself felt and will meet expectations with a fair expansion in volume of distribution of all staples.

Throughout the Province of Quebec the volume of general trade is moderate, but good crop prospects suggest a more active movement in the fall.

In Ontario moderate activity is reported in trade circles. The export cattle trade is said to have been unprofitable to shippers of late.

Bank clearings wired to Bradstreet's from Halifax, Montreal, Toronto and Hamilton aggregate this week $22,010,000, a decrease of 2 per cent. within a week.

There were 22 business failures in the Dominion of Canada this week, against 34 last week and 15 in the week a year ago.

ORDERED BACK TO CANADA.

Passenger Agent Ruse Said to Come Under the Contract Labor Law.

BUFFALO, N.Y., July 23.—Immigration Inspector De Barry called upon Robert E. Ruse, Grand Trunk Railway Passenger Agent, yesterday and ordered him to return to the country from which he came. Ruse is a Canadian and De Barry says he is not properly qualified to draw pay for labor in this country, as his wife and family reside in Canada, and on the date of his employment he had taken no steps to become a citizen.

Ruse argues that his case does not come under the alien contract labor law, as his is skilled labor; which is exempt. He says he has taken out citizenship papers and rented a house here.

He will appeal to the Immigration Bureau at Washington and promises to make it interesting for Mr. De Barry.

Shipping California Fruit to London.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 23.—At 10 o'clock last night the first special fruit train for London, consisting of five cars, left this city under charge of the California Fruit Transportation Company. It will be due in New York next Tuesday morning, and the fruit will be transferred in half an hour to the steamer Majestic of the White Star Line. The vessel is fitted with refrigerator capacity for five carloads. In one of the cars is a box of choice pears for Queen Victoria. The train is handsomely decorated with American and English flags. A regular auction day will be established for California fruit in London. Trains of five cars each will be sent out regularly.

There have been in all 66 cases and 11 deaths.

Killed by a Kick.

TORONTO, July 23.—On Bloor-street near Dovercourt-road, yesterday afternoon, a three-year-old child named Mullen, whose parents live in the vicinity, was killed by one of a team of horses attached to a Christie Brown wagon. The child ran in front of the wagon and was kicked in the head, killing it instantly.

Swift Justice in This Case.

BUFFALO, N.Y., July 23.—John Milton and John Smith, the two bad men from Canada, were convicted in the Police Court of petit larceny in stealing a number of razors from Joseph Codrill of Woodstock, Ont., and sentenced to the workhouse for six months each.

Killed By Icewater.

BRADFORD, Ont., July 23.—Mr. John McKee went to Church Hill, where he was engaged to do some painting. Previous to starting to paint he assisted in unloading some hay, after which he drank freely of ice water. Shortly after he complained of feeling ill and a doctor was called in, who administered restoratives, but without effect and he died in a short time. There is no doubt that the cold drink while overheated was the cause of his death.

Feet Cut Off By Mowers.

ORANGEVILLE, July 23.—A 6-year-old son of Henry L. Atkinson of Mono was playing in the grass where a mowing machine was at work on his father's farm and was not noticed by the elder brother, who was driving, until the mower had caught him and cut off his left foot.

FERGUS, July 23.—The 7-year-old son of Stephen Demmons, a farmer on the 4th concession of Luther, who was on a visit to his grandfather's, Mr. William Clark's, on the 8th line of Garafraxa, went out to the hay field, which his uncle was cutting with a reaper, and stepped in front of the cutting bar, one of his feet being cut off at the ankle.

In a State of Nature.

PARIS, July 23.—On Wednesday night about 10 o'clock those who happened to be in Grand River-street were startled to see a man in an almost nude state. Constable Cook came along and took him to the lock-up. The man gave his name as Charles Mitchell, and said he belonged to Toronto, and that he had been pursued by men who wanted to kill him. Constable Cook telephoned to his friends in Toronto, and they came to Paris and took him back to Toronto this morning.

Alice Mitchell's Trial.

MEMPHIS, July 23.—In the trial of Alice Mitchell for the murder of Freda Ward, John Perry, a grocer, located next door to the Mitchell residence, testified that Alice was a cigaret fiend. He had sold her many packages of cigarets. She was a regular tom-boy, without the slightest fancy for anything that other girls like.

Buried His Last Sail.

PORT DOVER, Ont., July 23.—Oakley Jaico, son of Capt. Joice of the schooner Erie Stewart, was lost off the tow of the schooner T. D. Stinson as he was furling the mainsail in a high wind.

THE TAMWORTH WRECK.

Further Particulars of the Collision—Over a Score Wounded.

TAMWORTH, Ont., July 23.—The collision on the Bay of Quinte Railroad Thursday was of a far more serious character than the despatches sent out from here indicated. The cut, where the accident occurred near Erinsville, was probably a 40-foot one and a sharper one is not to be found on the whole line. The cliff on the right is at least 20 feet high and is a boundary to a cemetery well lined with tombstones. The left hand side has an inclination of 10 feet.

The regular morning train comprised three box cars and a baggage coach. In the collision the east-bound train struck the light engine and raised her up on end and then fell over, preventing the light engine from falling from its upright position. The two locomotives were consequently straight up in the air. The box car next to the engine was the only one to leave the rails. Breaking loose it toppled over and fell at the side of the rail.

The Victims.

So far the fatalities number only three, but at least one of the injured will die. None of the trainmen were instantly killed. Fireman Wellington Hardy was terribly crushed and scalded, and died in about 15 minutes. Hardy was an unmarried man and his father is a shoemaker at Tweed.

Engineer Christie suffered great agony. He was cut in two across the stomach, and his legs were jammed. Despite this he lived for an hour after the collision and his last words in this world were, "How's poor Tom?" (his fireman). Conductor Richardson says that Christie had every chance to jump, but sooner than do this waited and reversed his engine. He also believes that Christie's act of reversing the engine saved the lives of the people in the baggage car.

The third death is that of a six-months-old baby of Mrs. J. Naphin Deserton. The child was in its mother's arms when the accident occurred, and had its head smashed. It died four hours after the accident. The mother escaped serious injury.

Charles Kirby, the engineer on the special, cannot possibly recover. He is almost scalped and received serious internal injuries.

In all 19 were injured. Of the trainmen Conductor Wilkinson, Brakeman Jas. Mundy and Fireman Thomas Watson of Belleville will be laid up for some time, if they ever entirely recover. Mail Clerk W. J. Doller and Brakemen Brown and Hearns escaped with slight injuries.

The most seriously hurt of the passengers include Miss Nellie Carroll, resident near Erinsville, a bad scalp wound extending from the forehead back to the neck; Mrs. Sarah Murphy, Erinsville, a bad scalp wound; Mrs. Samuel Brown, jaw broken.

The accident was due to the carelessness of Engineer Charles Kirby of the ballast train, which left Tweed without orders.

A Torontonian on Board.

One of the passengers on the train was James S. Porter, sailor's missionary, Toronto, who was en route from Tweed to Napanee at the time of the accident. His appointment was through the Upper Canada Tract Society and he had been arranging for meetings at Tweed. In the collision his shoulder and back were badly bruised, and he received a terrible gash on the side of the head. Asked about the accident he replied: "I don't know anything only I found myself senseless outside the car. I was reading a book at the time and I have a faint remembrance of something hitting my head."

TORONTO GRAIN MARKETS.

Business Transacted and Prices of Grain in the Queen City.

TORONTO, July 23.—The receipts of grain on the street yesterday were represented by one load of goose wheat at 66c, 400 bushels of oats at 35c to 35 1-2c, and one small load of peas at 60c. Hay was in moderate supply, 20 loads selling at $8 to $9.50 for new and $11 to $12.50 for old. One load of straw sold at $10.

On 'Change to-day business was quiet, $3.70 being bid for straight roller, without offerings.

Myers is Still in Office.

ORANGEVILLE, July 23.—No definite action has as yet been taken by the Ontario Government in the matter of the dismissal of Mr. Elgin Myers, Q.C., from the position of Crown Attorney of the County of Dufferin for promulgating annexationist doctrines. There is little doubt, however, that Mr. Myers will ultimately go. There may be a formal investigation, which if it takes place will be conducted by Mr. Æmilius Irving, Q.C., but it will not save Mr. Myers' official head. It is not likely that the Government will make any announcement until Myers' successor is appointed.

Killed the Artful Dodger.

BUFFALO, N.Y., July 23.—Simon Jacobwitz took the part of the negro "artful dodger" at Eagle Park yesterday and was killed. The "artful dodger" is the man who pokes his head through a hole in a piece of canvas and permits people to throw baseballs at him at the rate of three throws for a nickel.

Jacobwitz, who was not over 19 years old, refused to wear the wooden headpiece worn by the negro. Three men threw baseballs at his head. The last ball struck him on top of the head and he dropped. An hour or so later he died.

The coroner says concussion of the brain killed him.

Killed On the C.P.R.

EGANSVILLE, Ont., July 23.—A tangled white mass dragging at the cowcatcher of his engine caused Driver Albert Hudson of the Winnipeg express to stop his train just as it had crossed the bridge and was pulling into the station. The driver, Conductor Wright and a train hand got out with lanterns and found the train had struck and mangled a man out of all resemblance to human form. Somewhere among the tattered clothing upon the body there was found an order from the Klock Lumber Company to a storekeeper in Ottawa directing the merchant to give "the beater, Peter Martin," a pair of pants.

GASPE, Que., July 23.—The trading schooner Willie, which was seized at Mingan on the 19th inst., has been confiscated. It is reported that two schooners laden with smuggled whisky are off the coast.

The cruiser Acadia left this port yesterday morning in pursuit.

Lakefield.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The "Knights of Rest" from Camp "Elsinore" (Dr. Bell's front island) after a two weeks jolly outing, broke camp on Friday morning, and through the courtesy of the captain of the Mary Ellen, who came up for them, arrived in town to catch the 9:30 a.m. train for Peterborough where they meet the Peterborough cricket club in a friendly match on their grounds to-day. The following is the camp roll: Clarence Bell, Commodore; Fred Anderson, Rear Commodore; Matthew Curry, Treasurer; Fred Falls, Allan Bell, Mont. Martin, Douglas Grant, Fred Oxley, Horace Webber, all of Toronto, and Louis McQuade, Victoria, B. C. Mr. R. C. Strickland kindly went down to captain the team, and after there two weeks' outing they should give a good account of themselves, if the charms of the young ladies up the lakes have not demoralized them, so far as cricket capabilities are concerned.

Mr. John Dinwoodie spent a couple of days up the lake the guest of Camp "Elsinore," and kept up his reputation as a fisherman, securing the only three maskinonge round the lake during his stay.

There is great fun with the campers (with lots of smothered curses on the part of those blocked and delayed) watching the race down the lakes of the different drives of logs. Hewlitt, Lakefield Lumber Co., Gilmour and Rathbun are all at the Narrows, and have been for two weeks past owing to contrary winds, and every expedient known to river drivers is to be first in Clear Lake is used. Rathbun has secured the services of the boats to tow, and they are taking small blocks down the back lakes every night. Gilmour's is warping with both horse and man power, while Hewlitt and the L. L. Co. who had the start are well on their way, so the race is now between the two former companies. Where is the Ontario Act? The channels have never been so badly blocked for years, and the grumbling outside the fun of the race is universal. Boat owners, island owners and the travelling public are one in their complaints.

CAMP NOTES.

The boss of a camp which shall be nameless caught a couple of chickens the other evening that had escaped from their coop and flown over from a neighboring island. He thought he had a good joke, so killed and got them all ready for the pot, and after setting out his table with other luxuries, started out and invited his guests to partake of the feast. He ROPED them all in, but alas! some chaps equally wicked was ahead, took the stewed chicken and fixings, had a good meal, turned out the lights, and when the guests arrived the banjo played "Willie, we have missed you" and "Where has the baby gone?" 'Nuff said.

Camp Chorus of the "Knights of Rest" Camp, on Elsinore Island, Stony Lake, 1892. Tune—"Jingle Bells."

We are a jolly lot,
As you can plainly see.
We've all come here to-night
To get upon a spree.
Good fortune is our chum,—
To it we always yield,
For we can drink more rum
Than any man in Lakefield.

CHORUS:
Hip, hurrah! heep, hurrah!
Remember what we say!
We're the finest lot in Canada—
We're the jolliest crowd to-day!
—Repeat.

Our commodore's name is Bell,
He's noted for his snore,
It would almost make you yell
To listen to his roar.
His brother's name is Al,
For kicking he's the fel,
Oh, that extension leg of his
Would be apt to make you yell.

CHORUS:
Next there's Douglas Grant,
For eating he's the boy,
Now this you all will grant,
He's an elegant mouth for pot.
He eats enough for four,
Of every kind of grub,
In fact he can eat more
Than any four in the club.

CHORUS:
We're the guest of Dr. Bell,
From Toronto Bay we come;
"Hi-yah," is our yell,
We're all up here for fun.
There's Shorty Mac, and Fatty Jack,
There's Captain Allan Bell,
Curry and Martin, temperance men,
And Anderson, with his yell.

CHORUS:
There's Curly Falls, the deck hand,
Who tried to drown the cook,
There's Anderson, the ladies' man,
With his paralyzing look.
In fact we all are birds,
Though few are jays, indeed,
'Tis true, in other words,
We always take the lead.

THUNDER IT DOWN THE AGES!

GOUGH BROS. HOLD THEIR ANNUAL MID-SUMMER SALE IN PETERBOROUGH.

It is customary with us, after the 15th of July, to organize in our different stores a big sale of our entire stock. This we do—first, because we believe it does not pay to carry goods over until another season, and secondly, in order to make room for our big fall purchases of which require every inch of room we can command, therefore, during the month of July the following extraordinary inducements will be offered:—

OVERCOATS and WINTER CLOTHING

IN OUR MEN'S CLOTHING DEPARTMENT

we will take 20 per cent. off our regular prices.

IN OUR CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

we will take 15 per cent. off, and in our

HAT AND CAP DEPARTMENT

we will take 20 per cent. off.

Remember, all our goods are marked in plain figures, and it is a well-established fact that our prices are the lowest, consequently when we advertise a

it means a reduction, for the goods are sold at the regular prices and the discount taken off after the sale is made.

We have just closed a remarkably successful season, our sales going away beyond our most sanguine expectations. Thanks to you, good people of Peterborough town and county; and although we are certain we have given general satisfaction, we are not egotistical enough to believe we have pleased everybody. When our Saviour was on earth he did not please everybody. Can we expect to? Nor do we claim to be infallible. We are liable to err in our judgment as well as others, but we do claim to do our business in an honourable way, because we believe it pays; and for this reason if there are any of our patrons who have cause for complaint, let him come to us and we will make it right now, either by refunding the money or replacing the goods.

THIS FALL WE WILL ASTOUND ASTONISHMENT IN OUR

OVERCOAT DEPARTMENT.

Not only in our prices but by showing twenty times more goods and ten times nicer goods than were ever seen before in Peterborough. But more about this hereafter. What we want now is to make room for this great stock for fall, and if low prices will do it, you will get them now, for we are bound to clear out the balance of our Spring and Summer Goods regardless of cost. Don't miss this great opportunity; it will pay you to buy now for next year, and other merchants would do well to take advantage of this great sale, also, for we will sell them cheaper than any man in Canada can make them for.

Chemong.

(From Our Own Correspondent).

On the 20th Chemong baseball club held a very successful pic-nic at Chemong for the purpose of raising funds to purchase material. There was a good attendance and about $40 was realized. There was a rather jag-handled baseball match between the Chemong seniors and the Hiawatha clubs, the Alnwicks failing to put in an appearance. The Chemong boys won by a score of 21 to 7. In the evening the Chemong juniors challenged the Hiawathas for a game, but the Rice Lake boys evidently satisfied with one drubbing in a day, refused to come to the scratch—seven were willing to play but the others flanked. Two members of the Hiawatha club, the Howards, seemed better pleased in creating a disturbance, Mr. Howard taking the mask, gloves and bat from the field when they had no right to take the place of the captain. I think such members have no place in a club. The races and other sports passed off pleasantly, and the Yankee visitors from Curgeon were well pleased with their visit. But no one was lucky enough to catch the big fish.

"I was prostrated with a severe bilious complaint," writes Erastus Southworth, of Bath, Me. "After vainly trying a number of remedies, I was finally induced to take Ayer's Pills. I had scarcely taken two boxes when I was completely cured."

AN OAKVILLE MIRACLE.

The Remarkable Case of Mr. John W. Condor.

A Helpless Cripple For Years—Treated by the Staff of the Toronto General Hospital and Discharged as Incurable—The Story of his Miraculous Recovery as Investigated by an "Empire" Reporter.

Toronto Empire.

For more than a year past the readers of the Empire have been given the particulars of some of the most remarkable cures of the 19th century, all, or nearly all of them, in cases hitherto held by the most advanced medical scientists, to be incurable. The particulars of these cases were vouched for by such leading newspapers as the Hamilton Spectator and Times, The Halifax Herald, Toronto Globe, LaMonde Montreal; Detroit News, Albany, N.Y., Journal; Albany Express and others, whose reputation placed beyond question the statements made.

Recently rumors have been afloat of a remarkable case in the pretty little town of Oakville, of a young man recovering after years of helplessness and agony. The Empire determined to subject the case to the most rigid investigation, and accordingly detailed one of our best reporters to make a through and impartial investigation into the case. Acting upon these instructions our reporter went to Oakville, and called upon Mr. John W. Condor (who it was said had so miraculously recovered) and had not long been in conversation with him when he was convinced that the statements made were not only true, but that the half had not been told. The reporter found Mr. Condor at work in one of the heaviest departments of the Oakville Basket Factory, and was surprised in the face of what he knew of the case, to be confronted by a strapping young fellow of good physique, ruddy countenance and buoyant bearing. This now rugged young man was he who had spent a great part of his days upon a sick bed, suffering almost untold agony. When the Empire representative announced the purpose of his visit, Mr. Condor cheerfully volunteered a statement of his case for the benefit of other sufferers. "I am," said Mr. Condor, "an Englishman by birth, and came to this country with my parents when nine years of age, and at that time was as rugged and healthy as any boy of my age. I am now 29 years of age, and it was when about 14 years old that the first twinges of inflammatory rheumatism came upon me, and during the fifteen years that intervened between that time and my recovery a few months ago, tongue can hardly tell how much I suffered. My trouble was brought on, I think, through too frequent bathing in the cold lake water. The joints of my body began to swell, the cords of my legs to tighten, and the muscles of my limbs to contract. I became a helpless cripple, confined to bed, and for three months did not leave my room. The doctor who was called in administered preparations of iodide of potassium and other remedies without any material beneficial effect. After some months of suffering I became strong enough to leave my bed, but my limbs were stiffened and I was unfitted for any active vocation. I was thus hampered more or less for the following nine years, when I was again forced to take to my bed. This attack was in 1886, and was a great deal more severe than the first. My feet, ankles, knees, legs, arms, shoulders, and in fact all parts of my frame were affected. My joints and muscles became badly swollen, and the disease even reached my head. My face swelled to a great size. I was unable to open my mouth, my jaws being fixed together. I, of course, could eat nothing. My teeth were pried apart and liquid food poured down my throat. I lost my voice, and could speak only in husky whispers. Really, I am unable to describe the state I was in during those long dreary months. With my swollen limbs drawn by the tightening cords up to my emaciated body, and my whole frame twisted and contorted into indescribable shapes. I was nothing more than a deformed skeleton. For three long weary months I was confined to bed, after which I was able to get up, but was a complete physical wreck, hobbling around on crutches a helpless cripple. My sufferings were continually intense, and frequently when I would be hobbling around the street I would be seized with a paroxism of pain and would fall unconscious to the ground. During all this time I had the constant attendance of medical men, but their remedies were unavailing. All they could do was to try to build up my system by the use of tonics. In the fall of 1889 and spring of 1890 I again suffered intensely severe attacks, and at last my medical attendant, as a last resort, ordered me to the Toronto General Hospital. I entered the Hospital on June 20th, 1890, and remained there until September 20th of the same year. But, notwithstanding all the care and attention bestowed upon me while in this institution, no improvement was noticeable in my condition. After using almost every available remedy the hospital doctors—of whom there was about a dozen—came to the conclusion that my case was incurable, and I was sent away, with the understanding that I might remain an outside patient. Accordingly from September 1890 to the end of January 1891, I went to the hospital once a week for examination and treatment. At this stage I became suddenly worse, and once more gained admission to the hospital, where I lay in a miserable suffering condition for two months or more. In the spring of 1891 I returned to Oakville, and made an attempt to do something towards my own support. I was given light work in the basket factory, but had to be conveyed to and from my place of labor in a buggy and carried from the rig to a table in the works on which I sat and performed my work. In August, 1891, I was again stricken down, and remained in an utterly helpless condition until January 1892. At this time Mr. James, a local druggist, strongly urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I was prejudiced against proprietary medicines as I had spent nearly all I possessed on numerous highly recommended so called remedies. I had taken into my system large quantities of different family medicines. I had exhausted the list of liniments, but all in vain, and I was therefore reluctant to take Mr. James' advice. I, however, saw several strong testimonials as to the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a blood builder and nerve tonic, and thinking that if I could only get my blood in better condition my general state of health might be improved, I resolved to give Pink Pills a trial. With the courage born of despair I bought a box, but there was no noticeable improvement, and I thought this was like the other remedies I had used. But urged on by friends I continued taking Pink Pills and after using seven boxes I was rewarded by noticing a decided change for the better. My appetite returned, my spirits began to rise and I had a little freer use of my muscles and limbs, the old troublesome swellings subsiding. I continued the remedy until I had used twenty-five boxes when I left off. By this time I had taken an considerable flesh, and weighed as much as 160 pounds. This was a gain of 60 pounds in a few weeks. My joints resumed their normal size, my muscles become firmer, and in fact I was a new man. By April I was able to go to work in the basket factory, and now I can work ten hours a day with any man. I often stay on duty overtime without feeling any bad effects. I play baseball in the evenings and can run bases with any of the boys. Why, I feel like dancing for very joy at the relief from abject misery I suffered so long. Many a time I prayed for death to release me from my sufferings, but now that is all gone and I enjoy health as only he can who suffered agony for years. I have given you a brief outline of my sufferings, but from what I have told you you can guess the depth of my gratitude for the great remedy which has restored me to health and strength.

Wishing to substantiate the truth of Mr. Condor's remarkable story, the Empire representative called upon Mr. F. W. James, the Oakville druggist referred to above. Mr. James fully corroborated the statements of Mr. Condor. When the latter had first taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills he was a mere skeleton—a wreck of humanity. The people of the town had long given him up for as good as dead, and would hardly believe the man's recovery until they saw him themselves. The fame of this cure is now spread throughout the section and the result is an enormous sale of Pink Pills. "I sell a dozen-and-a-half boxes of Pink Pills every day," said Mr. Mr. James, "and this is remarkable in a town the size of Oakville. And better still they give perfect satisfaction. Mr. James recalled numerous instances of remarkable cures after other remedies had failed. Mr. John Robertson, who lives midway between Oakville and Milton, who had been troubled with asthma and bronchitis for about 15 years, has been cured by the use of Pink Pills, and this after physicians had told him there was no use in doctoring further. Mr. Robertson says his appetite had failed completely, but after taking several boxes of Pink Pills he was ready and waiting for each meal. He regards his case as a remarkable one. In fact Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are recognized as one of the greatest modern medicines—a perfect blood builder and nerve restorer, curing such diseases as rheumatism, neuralgia, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus dance, nervous headache, nervous prostration and the tired feeling resulting therefrom, diseases depending upon humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. Pink Pills restore pale and sallow complexions to the glow of health, and are a specific for all the troubles peculiar to the female sex, while in the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses of whatever nature.

The Empire reporter also called upon Mr. J. C. Ford, proprietor of the Oakville Basket Factory, in which Mr. Condor is employed. Mr. Ford said he knew of the pitiable condition Condor had been in for years, and he had thought he would never recover. The cure was evidently a thorough one for Condor worked steadily at heavy labor in the mills and apparently stood it as well as the rest of the employees. Mr. Ford said he thought a great deal of the young man, and was pleased at the wondrous deliverance from the grave and his restoration to vigorous health.

In order to still verify the statements made by Mr. Condor in the above interview the reporter on his return to Toronto examined the General Hospital records, and found therein the entries fully bearing out all Mr. Condor had said, leaving no doubt that his case is one of the most remarkable on record and all the more remarkable because it had baffled the skill of the best physicians in Toronto.

These pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N.Y., and are sold in boxes (never in loose form by the dozen or hundred, and the public are cautioned against numerous imitations sold in this shape) at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had from all druggists or direct my mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company from either address. The price at which these pills are sold make a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.

Those unhappy persons who suffer from nervousness and dyspepsia should use Carter's Little Nerve Pills, which are made expressly for sleepless, nervous, dyspeptic sufferers. Price 25 cents. dw

Gun Club Pop.

The members of the Peterborough Gun Club held their regular Friday pop yesterday. The scores made were exceedingly good considering the wind which blew right across the targets. The club will shoot a match with the Port Hope Gun Club about the middle of next week at Jubilee Point. It is important, therefore, that all the members should turn out to practice. The two regulation traps ordered from Cleveland will arrive next week and it expected that three traps will be in use by next Friday's shoot. Following is the score of yesterday:

An Enjoyable Outing Easily Obtained.

Civic holiday, Aug. 18th, will have many excursions, but the pleasantest of all will be the one to the Chemong terminus and through the beautiful chain of lakes to Lakefield—leaving the G. T. R. station at 7 a.m. for Chemong, boarding the steamer Golden City, passing through Chemong and Buckhorn Lakes to Buckhorn village, where two hours will be spent; sailing from thence down through Deer Bay, passing Lovelok Rapids and locks into Lovesick Lake, arriving at Burleigh Falls and locks, where one hour will be spent; from Burleigh a sail through the Stony Lake waters studded with islands, replete with ever changing scenery, to Clear Lake and Lakefield—affording a trip which cannot be excelled for variety and beauty of scenery and general comfort. Round fare 85 cents.

Last Night's Band Concert.

The band played to listening hundreds in the Court House Park last evening. The night was cool and delightful and the music much appreciated by the large concourse of auditors. "Donnybrook Fair" and St. Andrew's Night" especially pleased the younger element while these quadrille caused the nerves of the older ones to tingle some. The musicians occupied their new stand for the first time. It is large and roomy and having no covering is capable of giving the music its fullest and richest tone. Owing to its location on the brow of the hill near Brock street the stand has another effect upon the people present. It attracts them more upon the hill and consequently the green swards and terraces are not walked upon so much, neither is the excessive crowding along the various walks and avenues constantly going on. The one thing needful to the new band stand which is excellently lighted by 16 gas gets, is seats. A row of these is needed around the stand in order to accommodate the musicians and save them the trouble of standing while playing.

Progress.

The inspection is altogether very satisfactory. He left for Lindsay this afternoon.

Retiring From His Position.

The district meeting of Peterborough District, No. 34, I O O F., was held in the Otonabee Lodge rooms last evening. Bro. John Nugent, D D G M., presided. After the meeting the members adjourned to the refreshment rooms of Mr. H. Long where the retiring District Deputy Grand Master treated them to fine repast. Addresses were made by the members and the Deputy Grand Master and an enjoyable time spent generally. Bro. R J. Stewart, P.G., of Norwood Lodge has been nominated by the committee as the succeeding D.D G M., but must be appointed by the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge which meets next month.

The Sons of Canada.

Sons of Canada have made arrangements for running their fourth annual excursion to Jubilee Point on Civic Holiday. Prof. Butcher's orchestra will provide music for dancing. Be sure and make your arrangements for attending this excursion. The success of past excursions conducted under the same auspices guarantee that this will be the best of the season. Make a note of these four facts: Civic Holiday; Sons of Canada Excursion; to Jubilee Point; the best of the season.

It was a Great Meet.

Mr. Wm. Clancy returned last evening from Detroit, where he has been attending the great five days Blue Ribbon Horse meet in that city. He says he saw the largest crowd and witnessed some of the finest races ever seen on an American track. "Mascot" won the great free for all race in fine style. In the free for all trot "Jack" won, making his fastest heat in 2.12. The great Canadian stallion "Alvin" was third in the race. "Nancy Hanks" trotted against time on a regulation track. Her fastest time is 2 09, but she only succeeded in going it at her trial in the meet in 2 11¼ The great pacing stallion "Roy Wilks" was distanced in his class.

Glenora.

Glenora is one of the most picturesque points on the picturesque Bay of Quinte. It is historic ground. The steamer lands at the wharf, and a public road runs past it. On the shore are mills and other buildings. From the road rises up a mountain, from the top of which a grand view may be obtained, and on the top of this mountain lies a fairy lake, a beautiful sheet of water without inlet, which furnishes power for the mills below. It is a pretty place, and near it is a romantic and picturesque glen which gives the name Glenora to the place. Glenora is one of the objective points of the Oddfellows' excursion on the civic holiday, which will go to Belleville and down the Bay of Quinte to Picton on the steamer Rocket. Fare from Peterborough $1 50; children half price. Keep the day for this new route.

Off For Brantford.

Canton Peterborough, No. 10, I.O.O F., accompanied by the 57th Battalion and Fire Brigade Band, will assemble at Peterborough Lodge rooms at 8.30 o'clock, and will leave town at 9 p m., per G. T. R., on Monday, going to Port Hope, and remaining there until 4 o'clock the next morning, when they will be transferred, along with the Montreal Canton and Encampments to Brantford, where the Grand Encampment and Cantonment meet on Tuesday and Wednesday next. The head and canton will number about fifty. On the way there they will be provided with a special car. Mr. T. Hooper, confectioner, will provide refreshments for the travellers on the journey. Grand Chief Patriarch D. H. Moore, and Past Chief Patriarch, T. Workman, will represent Mount Hebron Encampment, and Past Chief Patriarch Dr. Bell will represent Hiawatha Encampment.

Within an Ace of a Watery Grave.

Yesterday morning two young men thought they would take in St. Luke's excursion to Victoria Park and left about seven o'clock in the morning for their destination. When near the Park, the steamer Daisy passed the canoe in which they were seated, and the canoeists, seeing how near the steamer they could approach, got caught in the trough of the Daisy's swells with the result that their canoe upset. The young men succeeded in grasping the sides of the canoe and were hanging on for dear life when a boat was lowered from the Daisy, and assisted by Messrs. Louis Mercier, G. Calcutt, R. Land and J. Tobin, the struggling victims were rescued, but none too soon, for they were in a very exhausted condition and could not have held on very much longer. The officers on board the river steamers hope that this narrow escape will serve as a warning to canoeists who think they are doing a clever trick by running close to passing steamers just to have a rock in her waves. The practice is a very dangerous one and will result fatally one of these times.

Obituary.

The Late James R. Brown.

The EXAMINER records with especial regret the death of Mr. James R. Brown, which sad event took place at the family residence, 267 Reid street, this morning. Mr. Brown had been suffering for about a month from an affection of the heart, which proved fatal this morning. The deceased gentleman, who has been a most highly respected and esteemed citizen for the past five years, was a native of Scotland, where he was born in 1820. In 1854 he with his wife came to Canada, settling at first in Quebec city. He shortly afterwards went into the railway service, with which he was connected for many years—up to 1883—when he went into the lumbering business, in the eastern sections of Ontario, which he followed for several years with success. In the year 1887 he retired from active business and settled in Peterborough. Mr. Brown leaves behind him a widow and five children, Mrs. Geo. Bolton, Detroit; Mrs. A. C. Cook, Kippewa; Mrs. R McEwen, Sunbury; Mrs. A. Caswell, Portland, Oregon; Mr. James R Brown, jr., Montreal. All these except Mrs. Caswell, were present at the death bed of their father—after different home-coming from the joyous reunion, of June 6th last, when Mr. and Mrs. Brown celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day. Mr. Brown was a gentleman of high qualities of character, of sterling integrity, generous impulses genial as a companion, faithful as a friend. In religion he was of the Presbyterian faith, a member of the congregation of St. Paul's, and in politics a broad-minded Liberal, and in every relation of life, domestic, social and public, a man who commanded love, esteem and universal respect. The funeral will take place from the family residence, 267 Reid street, on Monday, July 25 h, at 3 o'clock p.m.

The steamer "Golden Eye" with palace scow attached took down 300 jolly excursionists, who spent the day in an enjoyable manner and returned at 7 30 o'clock in the evening delighted with their outing, the cool breezes, the rural scenery and the day's pleasures. Dinner was partaken of at the park served by a faithful band of ladies in fine style. LeBRUN'S OLD STAND.

GEORGE STREET.

The Sewerage Outlet.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—As a stranger in Peterborough, while admiring the cleanliness and prosperity of the town in many ways in advance of similar towns in the old country, I am utterly astonished at the proposal of the town council to construct sewers whose outfall shall be into the river Otonabee and would most earnestly (although a stranger though possibly having some future interest in your prosperous town) ask the council before it is too late to pause and consider are they sanction the pollution of the river by sewerage.

Now, from a cursory glance at the land round about the district it is quite evident to my mind, that it would be considerably improved by a freer use of manure; the land is hungering for a return of what has for the last fifty or a hundred years been so freely taken away from it in the shape of prolific wheat and other crops. Doubtless many farmers are aware of this and have done their best by the utilization of the contents of cesspools and otherwise to supply the need, but here you have a easily collected, which the council proposes to throw into the river, not only at a loss to the land, but at the cost of the pollution of the water, destruction of the fishing interest and contrary to recognized sanitary principles. I am quite aware that sewage is turned into the sea from many of our large towns. The Clyde at Glasgow at this time of the year is an abominable sewer; the Thames, near London, E.g., but little better; the Liffey, at Dublin, stinks, and go where you will you will, find a similar state of things. But, happily, not everywhere—for there is a large sewage farm at Croydon, Bog, another at Berlin in Germany, and another at Paris. At all these places large crops are raised of rye, vegetables, etc. Croydon I know more especially, for its sewage farm supports a large dairy, supplying some of the best and richest milk for miles around. Why, then, I must remark, should not you good people of Peterborough, who have you have the chance either from whence it came, or collect it, evaporate the fluid portion of it and sell the solid matter to the farmers. I know nothing of the engineering difficulties or facilities, but I see you light your town by electricity and drive your dynamos by water power. Why then could you not pump your fluid sewage to sewage pits for evaporation or to erect levels that it may find its way to the large farm lands round. Sewer pipes, river pollution and robbery of the land of its rightful possession in the shape of manure, make one tremble for the future of Peterborough in the shape of typhoid, played out farms and emigration to the North-west. Let the council then pause and consider.

RUN YOUR SEWAGE BACK TO THE LAND

Yours faithfully,
GEO. K. POOLE, M.D.,
Surgeon-Major H M S.

No MAN ever smoked "Myrtle Navy" tobacco for a fortnight and then took to any brand in preference to it. It bears its own testimony of its qualities, and it is testimony which is always convincing. The smoker who uses it is never annoyed by getting it sometimes of good quality and sometimes of bad. The arrangements of the manufacturers for keeping its quality equal are very elaborate and complete, and are the results of many years of experience and close observation.

Willow and Wicket.

The Peterboroughs Defeat the Torontos by 37 Runs in a One Innings Game.

The Peterborough cricket club yesterday played a game with an eleven composed of the Rosedale and Toronto cricket clubs. Wickets were pitched at 11 o'clock and the Peterboroughs went in and ran up a score of 77 runs, Chas. Halliday making 14 and Sam Ray 10. All the wickets were down by noon. In the afternoon the boys went at it again, the visitors taking their innings. They were retired in an hour's time, having succeeded in running up only 40 runs, C. Bell taking 17 of these. The home team again went in and as the match was played on time when four o'clock came the stumps were pulled, Peterborough having only five wickets down and having 65 runs to their credit, Goldsmith and Halliday doing fine work. The result of the match was therefore decided on the first inning, Peterborough winning by 37 runs. For the visitors A Bell and Oxley did all the bowling, the former taking 3 wickets at the cost of 35 runs. For the home team Stocker, Goldsmith and Oldfield did the trundling in fine style as the bowling analysis will show. Following is the score:—

"Quid Pro Quo."

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—So far as my rather long dead Latin serves me quid pro quo freely translated means some thing for something else. On this principle I sympathise with the letter signed as above in yesterday's issue of your paper. We license auctioneers whose sales result as a rule in leaving our money amongst us. And then why not tax the banks who make big money out of the town and should in return for the privilege, contribute a little something to the public treasury for the big something they get out of our business men, who, if he takes a note to the bank is charged 8 per cent for the accommodation and at this rate the note must be "gilt-edge." I think the proposal of Quid Pro Quo is a step in the right direction, namely to have the town council put a license fee of $100 upon each bank for the privilege of doing business here. The stock of the banks is chiefly held by plutocrats in the large cities, to which the large sums made by the banks in Peterborough is taken. Then why shouldn't the banks pay a little for the privilege of doing business in town? If our town council had as keen an appetite for making money for the town as they have for spending the town's money, they would have little hesitation in bringing the banks to time as promptly as the latter bring their customers up to the mark.

Yours, etc.,
BUSINESS.

What Will the Adult Invalid Eat During the Present Hot Weather.

This is an interesting subject to thousands of men and women at this particular season. The dieting of adults is often as difficult to deal with as is the proper feeding of your infants.

The adult's digestive organs are weak; the stomach is incapable of retaining ordinary food; thus, it is imperatively necessary to look for some article of food that will not nauseate—a food that will agree with the stomach, and at the same time give greater strength and vitality to the broken-down system.

Science, fortunately, has provided for the wants of all invalids. It has given them Lactated Food, which can be easily and comfortably taken by the weakest man or woman, without disagreeing with the stomach.

Lactated Food being a predigested food does not tax the organs of digestion, or lower the vital powers, as other foods do. Lactated Food is easily assimilated by the invalid, and is taken with the greatest relish. There is no food known to the medical faculty that rebuilds in flesh and muscle as quickly as Lactated Food.

Lactated Food, to-day, is more popular in Canada, as a food for invalids, than any other ever introduced.

CANADIANS MISLED AND DECEIVED!

Thousands Squander Money Uselessly!

SCORES OF AGENTS THAT ARE DELUSIONS AND SHARES!

Our People Speak of an Honest, True and Tested Remedy That Gives Life When all Other Remedies Fail!

The people of Canada, from week to week, have presented to them miraculous cures which almost rival those reported from certain religious shrines. Indeed, the proprietors of certain quack nostrums seem to vie with each other in attempts to catch the unwary and unsophisticated. Most energetic, and even agonized, attempts are persistently made to convince the thoughtless multitude that each one of these advertised quack nostrums is a "gift from heaven," "a scientific discovery," "a water of life," or "a universal life-restorer." These all-sufficient fluids and pills are powerful enough to drag the most helpless sufferers from the most terrible agonies. We are informed that the most helpless paralytic can, in a few days, jump and frisk about like a young boy; we are now assured that he who fails from a height of forty to one hundred feet can have everybone restored, and every muscle renewed and strengthened, and the whole body made fit again for hard work and the proper enjoyments of life.

We are truly a blessed people—a favoured nation—with so many agents for miraculous works in our midst!

True it is that our young Dominion shelters many gullible people. There are and ever will be crops of verdancy which will flow and flourish as regularly as season follows season. This is the element that furnishes the backbone—the sinews of strength—to the quack nostrum manufacturer.

Extended educational facilities and a general diffusion of sort of medical views are, however, dispelling this rank ignorance which has too long enchained thousands of well-meaning men and women, who have spent their hard-earned dollars in vain, seeking a cure for disease.

Since the advent of that remarkable scientific remedy Paine's Celery Compound, which is so strongly recommended by the medical faculty in Canada, our people have received a new light. Sufferers, who for months had been leaning on quack remedies for support and cure, have cast them out for ever, and have laid hold on Paine's Celery Compound, which has renewed, strengthened, invigorated and restored them to health and strength.

This is no idle statement; every assertion can be proved by letters that have been received from the sufferers who have been cured.

The victories achieved by Paine's Celery Compound in the field of disease are remarkable, owing to the fact that the sufferers were rescued after all these quack nostrums had failed. The great boast of Paine's Celery Compound is, that it takes up those who are pronounced incurable, and in due time these marvels are restored to new life. This is not done by any miraculous agency; the great power lies in the true and scientific properties of the medicine. It is owing to its superior qualities, that Paine's Celery Compound is enabled to publish so many strong testimonials. People who give testimony in favour of Paine's Celery Compound are not testified and advertised to death; their testimony is only used once in the newspapers. Paine's Celery Compound does not nauseate the public with oft-repeated tales; its testimony is always new, fresh and crisp; and proves conclusively that it is working on steadily and mightily for the benefit of Canadians.

Mr. W. J. Arkell, of 18 Cornwall street, Toronto, was one of our unfortunate Canadians who had an extended experience with very many of the advertised quack remedies of the day. These loudly advertised nostrums only increased his sufferings and agonies; he became disgusted with medicine and medical treatment generally, owing to his many failures to secure freedom from suffering. His good wife had heard of the wonderful work accomplished by Paine's Celery Compound and procured the great medicine for her husband. At her earnest solicitation he tried it, but with little faith. The first bottle produced such magical effects that it did not require any urging to induce him to buy the second bottle, which made him a new man.

Mr. Arkell joyously declares that Paine's Celery Compound is "worth its weight in gold." Read Mr. Arkell's letter, sufferer. It is quite possible that you may be suffering from the same troubles; if so, go at once and use the same life-giving and healing power:

Messrs. Wells & Richardson Co.

GENTLEMEN,—I feel it my duty to let it be known to others who suffer as I have suffered in the past, how to become wonderfully and speedily cured.

For the past three years I have been troubled with weak back, sore eyes and nervousness, my nerves being so unsteady as to keep me awake at night, and have been most of the time under the doctor's treatment. I got worse instead of better, and became disgusted with all medicines. A friend of mine tried to persuade me to use Paine's Celery Compound, but as I would not buy any more medicine, my wife bought a bottle of it and presented it to me, and persuaded me to try once more. I am happy to say I took it, and it produced such good results that I did not need any persuasion to buy the second bottle, which made me a new man. It has been worth its weight in gold to me.

Wishing you every success, and hoping others will benefit by this information.

I am, yours etc.,
W. J. ARKELL.

The Inter-County Bridges.

In reference to an article in the EXAMINER urging the adoption of a compromise, rather than go to arbitration, the Bobcaygeon Independent says: "In this connection the wish of the EXAMINER that the matter should be settled amicably, without arbitration, is commendable, but it must be obvious to any unprejudiced person that when the values of the bridges in question are considered, the offer of Victoria is the most reasonable of the two. What is needed in this difficulty is that the counties should meet in a spirit of equity, and not with the spirit of horse traders, haggling and dickering over a difference in price, and trying to bluff and beat each other in the transaction. It is not to be supposed that Peterborough desires to take any course but that which is fair and honourable, and it is quite certain that the gentlemen of the Victoria committee have no wish that Peterborough should pay more than what on broad principles of equity may be considered just. Under these circumstances it is difficult to see the necessity of an arbitration, and it is to be hoped that the matter may yet be settled in an amicable manner.

The Great Female Medicine

The functional irregularities peculiar to the weaker sex, are invariably corrected without pain or inconvenience, by the use of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. They are the safest and surest medicine for all the diseases incidental to females of all ages, and the more especially so in this climate. Ladies who wish to enjoy health, should always have these Pills. No one who ever uses them once will allow herself to be without them. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all medicine dealers.

A Suitable Gift.

A tube of Dyer's Jelly of Cucumber and Roses for making the skin soft and smooth will be acceptable to any lady. Druggists keep it. W. A. Dyer & Co., Montreal.

A BURN OR CUT will heal quickly and leave less scar if Victoria Carbolic Salve is applied at once. dw

If you are tired taking the large old-fashioned griping pills, try Carter's Little Liver Pills and take some comfort. A man can't stand everything. One pill a dose. Try them. dw

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it, a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and a dollar. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption. dw

IMPORTANT.—Capilline contains no noxious substances like so many other Hair Restorers, but to the contrary it is the best Hair Tonic and at the same time the most agreeable Toilet Article.

Seven Years' Suffering.

GENTLEMEN,—I have suffered very much from inflammatory rheumatism, which through wrong treatment left ugly running sores on my hands and feet. With these I suffered for seven years, during which time I had neither shoe nor stocking on. I commenced using B B B externally and internally, using the pills also, and I can say now that the sores are entirely cured, and have been for some time. I believe the bitters were the means of saving my life.

"German Syrup"

G. Gloger, Druggist, Watertown, Wis. This is the opinion of a man who keeps a drug store, sells all medicines, comes in direct contact with the patients and their families, and knows better than anyone else how remedies sell, and what true merit they have. He hears of all the failures and successes, and can therefore judge: "I know of no medicine for Coughs, Sore Throat, or Hoarseness that had done such effective work in my family as Boschee's German Syrup. Last winter a lady called at my store, who was suffering from a very severe cold. She could hardly talk, and I told her about German Syrup and that a few doses would give relief; but she had no confidence in patent medicines. I told her to take a bottle, and if the results were not satisfactory I would make no charge for it. A few days after she called and paid for it, saying that she would never be without it in future as a few doses had given her relief." ⑦

GLADSTONE'S CONDITION CAUSING ALARM IN BRITAIN.

The Captain of the Ill-Fated City of Chicago Censured and Deprived of His Certificate for a Period of Nine Months — General News from Other Lands.

LONDON, July 22.—Mr. Gladstone left Pitlochry for Chester this afternoon. He was given an enthusiastic reception upon his arrival at Perth, and some of his admirers presented him with baskets of fruit and flowers. He looked well and showed no sign that his campaign had affected his health. His intimate friends deny the rumors that he is in poor health. He drove 30 miles yesterday in an open carriage, a feat which if the reports of his enfeebled condition were true would have been impossible. In a short address he made at Kirkmichael his voice was good and showed no sign of weakness.

Mr. Gladstone was heartily welcomed on returning to Hawarden last evening. He is in good spirits and health, but he has lately been complaining of a slight trouble in the eye which was recently injured.

The Liberal Program.

LONDON, July 2.—It is announced that a Cabinet Council preparatory to the meeting of the new Parliament will be held next week.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt upon invitation has conferred with Labouchere and other leading Radicals. He assured them that should the House of Lords reject the Home Rule Bill, electoral and other reforms calculated to strengthen the Liberals in the constituencies would be pressed.

It has been decided that Mr. Gladstone shall move an amendment to the formal address of the Queen asking the Queen to change her advisors as the electors have shown that the country has lost confidence in her present advisors.

A Pledge from the Irish.

LONDON, July 22.—Mr. Gladstone is communicating with the leaders of the anti-Parnellites party in an endeavor to obtain an absolute assurance that the party will support him with its whole vote in an attack on the Government by a "no confidence" ament. The negotiations are likely to be prolonged until the matter is submitted to a plenary meeting of the party after Parliament assembles.

In return for a pledge of unbroken vote a section of the Anti-Parnellites want a written assurance from Mr. Gladstone as to the time of the introduction of the Home Rule bill with some modification satisfactory to Irish ideas.

Speaking to a little group at Kirkmichael yesterday while driving from Braemer to Pitlochry, he said: "Do not be discouraged because our nominal majority in the House of Commons is not very large It will comfort you to know that I have sat in 25 Parliaments and in five I have seen Liberal Governments in office doing a great deal of work for the country with not such a majority as has now been returned."

The T., H. & B. Railway Bonus Carried by 247 Majority.

BRANTFORD, Ont., July 22.—Voting on the T., H & B. Railway bonus bylaw for $70,000 took place yesterday. The bylaw was carried by a majority of 247.

Russia has recently celebrated the 900th anniversary of the foundation of the first christian bishopric in Volhynia, under the reign of St. Vladimir.

In the time of Henry VII. parliament passed a law which declared that on and after that date pins should not be sold for more than 6s. 8d. per 1,000.

English medical authorities are coming to the conclusion that the smoking of pure opium is not nearly so injurious to Chinamen as has been supposed.

Whether Pasteur and Koch's peculiar modes of treatment will ultimately prevail or not, their theory of blood-contamination is the correct one, though not original. It was on this theory that Dr. J C Ayer of Lowell, Mass. nearly fifty years ago, formulated Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

A Child Saved.

My little boy was taken very bad with diarrhœa, he was very delicate and got so low we had no hope of his life, but a lady friend recommended Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and although he could only bear a few drops at a time he got well. It saved my child.

THE BEST FAMILY PILL IN USE

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, Ont., January 15, 1890.
W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.
DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.
Yours faithfully,
H. F. ATWELL.

POLITICAL ECLIPSES.

Another Batch of Noted Britishers Who Get the Congo.

LONDON, July 22.—There are a few important reverses to note in the polling returns. Of the notabilities who have sustained defeat, the loss of Sir John Puleston is most serious for the Ministry. After representing Davenport for 18 years, he undertook to contest the Carnarvon district against Mr. Lloyd George—a gentleman who, as a church disestablisher, Home Ruler and anti-tithe payer, has helped to make Welsh grievances almost as prominent as those of Ireland. But Sir John has proved unequal to the task assigned him. Though knighted, five years ago, in recognition of his services to the Eisteddfod, and though more recently appointed governor of Carnavon Castle—which he has largely restored—he cannot induce the Radicals of the principality to discard their convictions. Being determined to procure a legislature of their own, they are sagacious enough to see that this is more likely to be gained by the aggressiveness of Mr. George than by the slower, if safer, tactics of less ardent men.

Prominent Parnellites.

But if the changes in Great Britain are not material, the same cannot be said of Ireland. In that country of perpetual surprises—where a man is no sooner defeated in one place than he heads the polls in another—there has just been an eclipse of more than average interest. Dr. Tanner is not an ordinary luminary. He may be regarded as the "comet of politics"—occasionally a fiery one—whose appearances always helped to produce commotion of some kind. He colleagues never knew exactly where to look for him, or in what part of the Legislative Chamber he would be on view. It might be high up in the gallery or low down on the Treasury Bench, or even—during the temporary absences of its rightful occupant—in the Speaker's chair itself. But whether chaffing Mr. De Leslie or flattering Mr. Chaplin, whether abusing Mr. Balfour or satirising Sir William Harcourt, the doctor was always entertaining. In his worst tantrums, when all was sound and fury, it was impossible to judge him very harshly, for at bottom—as everybody admits—he was full of urbanity and kindness. If his disappearance should prove of a protracted character, the House of Commons will be a duller place than it has been.

By the defeat of Mr. Joseph Nolan the Parnellites lose a steady supporter. As a Parliamentary skirmisher, however, he was not of much account—being heavy in manner, resourceless in obstruction and altogether wanting in the quickness of debate.

Mr. Carew, who has been beaten in North Kildare, was much brighter and smarter in all respects, though even he does not rank amongst the best of the fighting men in Mr. Parnell's old band.

Amongst the defeated candidates may be mentioned Mr. Blane. The member for South Armagh was a tailor by trade, and his gesticulation—according to an irreverent critic—was not unlike that of a man who was wielding a tape measure. As for his voice, it was monotonous in the extreme—the matter of his addresses being decidedly better than the manner of his delivery. Mr. Blane's introduction to Parliament was due to the action of Mr. Healy, who, in conjunction with a priest, and unknown to the innocent candidate, selected him from a body of volunteers who were decorating a church. It is pretty evident that the same combination has effected his downfall.

HAMILTON April 20th, 1892.

I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp and they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes. Hearing of Ayer's Hair Vigor, I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years. When half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Ayer's Hair Vigor has no equal.

OFFICIAL LIST OF THE PROPOSED NEW CABINET.

Alarming Spread of the Cholera—The Lancet Says the Disease Travels Faster Now by Rail Than Formerly by Sea—A Budget of Readable Political Gossip.

LONDON, July 23.—The Queen will be asked to confer a dukedom on Lord Spencer and a baronetcy on Arnold Morley.

The first measure to be introduced by the new Government will be the "one man, one vote" bill, and next will be introduced the Home Rule bill.

LONDON, July 23.—To enquiries addressed to Mr. Akers Douglass, the chief Conservative whip, yesterday as to whether the Government if defeated on a vote of "no confidence" would persist in remaining in office he responded simply that "the Government will act in accordance with precedent and the Constitution."

As the balance of precedents is distinctly towards immediate resignation on defeat the whip's reply can be taken as opposed to the reports that Lord Salisbury will challenge the validity of Mr. Gladstone's majority and try to govern with a minority.

The First Note of Discord.

The main result of a meeting of a small group of Radicals at the house of Sir William Vernon Harcourt yesterday has been the introduction of the first note of discord in the party.

After the meeting several members of the House of Commons who had been present appeared at the National Liberal Club, where they announced that a memorial would be sent to Mr. Gladstone, urging him to put leading planks of the Newcastle program to the forefront and Home Rule in the background. The reserved attitude of the Irish leaders is in contrast with this premature activity of the Radicals. Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien and other McCarthyite chiefs will not be interviewed for the present. Mr. Redmond as well maintains a similar reserve.

Sir Charles Dilke is manœuvering to secure the leadership of the new labor party, hoping through them to win back place and power.

LONDON, July 23.—The Post yesterday contained a leader headed "Why Resign?" which is causing a sensation in view of that paper's close relations with the Government.

The evening papers all reprint the leader as a semi-official tip. The article says: "Assuming that the Opposition has a sleader majority on the motion that the Government does not possess the confidence of the country, why should the Ministers immediately resign in view of the fact that they have not to deal with a compact Opposition but only a disjointed horde of factions? How can Lord Salisbury and his colleagues conscientiously reconcile their duty to their sovereign and their party with an impetuous abandonment of power in consequence of the transient action of the horde which now disfigures the character and degrades the traditions of Parliamentary opposition?

"The Ministry," the article concludes, "should not act beyond advising the sovereign to prorogue Parliament until the normal period of assemblage arrives."

The New Cabinet.

LONDON, July 23.—The Graphic says, A meeting of Liberal leaders on Thursday discussed the composition of the new Government. The opinions of Mr. Gladstone having been submitted it was provisionally agreed that Lord Hirschell should become Lord Chancellor; Lord Roseberry, Foreign Secretary; Mr. Labouceere, Postmaster-General; Lord Ribblesdale, Master of the Buckhounds; and Lord Camoys, Lord-in-Waiting.

The Spread of Cholera.

LONDON, July 23.—In a leader The Lancet says: "A new danger has arisen for Europe. Whereas cholera formerly took a long time to travel from India to Eastern Russia, the railway has superseded the old trade routes over the desert and brings cholera from Bokhara and Persia by rapid transit to the Caspian Sea.

"The danger is greater because the countries traversed served by their sanitary state to intensify the infection, whereas by the sea route to the Mediterranean there is always a chance that the disease aboard a vessel will die out.

"The amount of cholera in Russia is already serious. Taking only two days last week, the official (we fear incomplete) returns report 1300 deaths, of which number 912 occurred in towns on the Volga.

"At the same time there has been no immediate indication of its rapid extension westward, and there is ground to hope that its customary route across the continent does not present the sanitary conditions favorable to the diffusion of cholera such as existed in 1854, when the disease last reached England by this route."

LONDON, July 23.—The Standard's Moscow correspondent says: There have already been nine cases of cholera and four deaths from the disease at Nijni-Novgorod. Here the intestinal disease is killing off children under 5 years of age, 600 of whom have died within a week.

A large staff of doctors has left Odessa for Astrakhan, where the mortality is increasing.

The Canadians at Bisley Camp.

BISLEY CAMP, July 23.—The garden party in the Canadian camp yesterday was a great success and was largely attended. Among those who were present were Earl Waldegrave, Sir Charles Tupper, Sir Casimir Gzowski, Sandford Fleming, Generals Sandham, Macdonald, Laurie and Sir Donald Smith. A great many ladies also graced the camp by their attendance. Mrs. Massey and Mrs. Macdonald performed the functions of hostesses, and in a very efficient manner.

The Duke of Cambridge, Commander-in-Chief, inspected the Canadian camp to-day.

Sir Donald Smith will give the team a dinner on Tuesday next.

The team won ten prizes in the match for the Alexandria competition.

Four of the Canadian team have won places in the second stage for the Queen's Prize.

Lieut. Rjdell of the 22nd Battalion came in fifth for the Prince of Wales' prize, and Lieut. McAdam of the 3rd Battalion seventh.

OFFENSIVE ECZEMA

Suffered Terribly. Doctors and Medicines Useless. Cured in Four Weeks by Cuticura.

I have a boy, fifteen years old, born in Fishkill, portrait enclosed, who had the eczema so offensive that I could not stay in the room with him. The poor boy suffered terribly. His feet were terribly sore, he could not wear any shoes, and had therefore to stay at home from school. When he put on a pair of dry stockings in the morning, they would in one hour be saturated with moisture and very offensive even in the coldest weather. The disease began to spread over his body, especially his hands and fingers. The thumbs on both his hands became stiff and as useless as two withered sticks of wood. It would be useless for me to try to tell the suffering this boy endured. I took him to two different doctors, both gave him lots of medicine, but all to no use. He grew worse. I therefore despaired of ever having him cured. One day I saw the great benefits promised to those who would use CUTICURA REMEDIES. I went right away to the drug store and bought them. I must confess I had but little faith in them. However I used them according to directions, and to-day I say truthfully to all the world, if you wish to publish it, that my son is entirely cured, thank God and thank the discoverers of CUTICURA REMEDIES. They cured him in four weeks as sound as a gold dollar.

They Say They Are; But, Are They?

THIS is the time of year when lots of Clothing Stores are offering goods 50 to 60 per cent. below cost, and at much less than goods can be bought at other stores, retailing below wholesale prices, closing out the stock of some defunct or deceased firm, running alleged bargain tables and sacrificing goods below cost, just for fun, are among the many pleasantries to which clothiers treat the reading public.

A few days ago one of those shrewd, bright and flippant buyers entered our store. It was evident that curosity, and not the desire to purchase, had brought him. He looked at Suits and he looked at Overcoats. He criticised and condemned, but finally the salesman showed him a suit that attracted his attention. He objected to the price, whereupon the salesman informed him that we are at present selling goods below cost. Quick as a flash came the response, "You say you are, but are you? Everybody else is spinning the same old yarn." Well, we sold that man the suit. We convinced him that we are actually selling below cost. We showed him the old price in black figures, and the new one in red figures. The difference between the two told the tale. All we ask is to be put to the test. We are confident that we are underselling every one in the clothing trade.

A COWARDLY OUTRAGE.

MANAGER FRICK OF THE CARNEGIE COMPANY SHOT DOWN.

His Wounds Very Dangerous—The Would-Be Assassin a New York Cigarmaker of Anarchistic Tendencies—Two Dynamite Cartridges in His Mouth.

PITTSBURG, July 23.—Henry C. Frick, the head, chief and practically the absolute dictator of the great Carnegie iron and steel enterprise, the controller of the coke industry in the western part of the State and the possessor of a fortune variously estimated at from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000, was shot and perhaps fatally wounded a few seconds before 1.45 o'clock Saturday afternoon in his private office on the sixth floor of The Chronicle-Telegraph building in Fifth avenue. The would-be assassin was Alexander Burkman, age 21, a cigarmaker, who says he lives in Forty-second-street, New York. He is a Russian Hebrew. The first bullet entered Mr. Frick's neck, the others lodged in the back. A moment before the tragedy a slim, dark-complexioned young man, neatly dressed in light clothing, entered the elevator car on the first floor and requested to be let out at the office of the chairman of the company.

Leaving the car the stranger proceeded across the hall and entered Mr. Frick's office. It was hardly more than a minute before there was a noise like a scuffle and then a shot rang out upon the air. Before the startled clerks in the other offices could rush to the scene there were three more shots.

Grappled With His Assailant.

The first man to enter the room found Mr. Frick hanging on to his assailant, while blood streamed from his wounds. At the sight of the clerk the would-be assassin shook himself loose from his victim and dashed out of the door, but instead of taking to the stairs made a bound into the elevator car, which was standing there with the door open at the time. The elevator man had sufficient presence of mind to hold him in the cab until the arrival of Officers McRoberts and Crossin, who placed him under arrest. In the meanwhile an immense crowd had begun to gather in the streets, and when the officers appeared with their prisoner, who was pale and trembling and with his clothing spattered with blood, there were hundreds of groans and howls, intermingled with cries of "Shoot him!" "Lynch the murderer!"

When Burkman arrived at the Central Police Station he presented a most desperate appearance and looked and acted the Anarchist he is said to be. His curly hair seemed to stand on end, and his sallow complexion was bleached to an ashen whiteness. He was covered from head to foot with blood and was much excited, but seemed proud of his deed. He was hustled upstairs in the police station. He was placed in one of the women's cells, which are closed from public view and are on the second floor.

Had Dynamite in His Mouth.

At 4 o'clock a second examination of Burkman was made by Dr. Moyer, the police surgeon, and Inspector McKelvey and two dynamite caps were found in his mouth. The desperate man refused to let them be taken out without a struggle, and he had to be choked until he was black in the face before he gave them up. When Dr. Moyer was examining him he thought there was something wrong with his mouth and the doctor asked him to open it. This he refused to do until forced. It was evidently the man's intention to explode them in his mouth and kill himself in the manner used by Anarchist Lingg, the Chicago Haymarket rioter who was condemned to death. It is evident the caps would not work and the scheme failed.

After the caps were taken from his mouth he became more communicative and stated that his name was Alexander Burkman and he was a cigarmaker in New York. He said he had come here with the express purpose of killing Frick, "because he was an enemy of the people." He at first declined to give his nationality, but later said he was a Russian Jew, and that he was proud of his nationality. The would-be assassin is evidently a cigaret fiend. His fingers were yellow where the nicotine came off the cigarets.

He Worked for Most.

At the office of John Most's Freiheit in New York it was said that over a year ago a young man named Burkman worked there as a sort of an apprentice. He seldom made more than $8 or $9 a week, and he was an avowed Anarchist of the most violent type. He was an "individualist Anarchist" and not a "Socialist Anarchist," and as such he did not get on well with some of his associates on The Freiheit. His name appeared on the pay roll for the last time on July 4, 1891. No first name is given.

David Fortney, the young man who operates the elevator, says that the would-be assassin has been in and about the building for three days. Six or eight times he has taken the man up in the elevator. Each time he asked to see Mr. Bosworth of the Frick company. Fortney says he never liked the looks of the man, whom he described as a Hebrew, with a mean and sneaking look.

Before being locked up he was asked if he knew Mr. Frick, and replied in the affirmative.

"Why did you shoot him?" was asked and with a half-hysterical gurgle he replied: "I guess you know that."

Three Bullet Holes.

Immediately after the tragedy the doors leading from the Carnegie building were closely guarded, and admittance was denied to everybody, no matter what the nature of their business. Inside the building the confused murmur of the crowds upon the street was plainly heard. In the meantime all the physicians in the neighborhood had been summoned.

The semi-official statement soon came that three shots had taken effect, one in the ear, another in the neck and a third in the back.

A Clerk's Statement.

One of the Carnegie clerks who stood guard at the door after the shooting occurred said: "We were all busily engaged at work. The door leading from the hall was open. Mr. Frick was alone in his private office. Suddenly we were all startled by a noise which sounded like the swinging of a door. About one-half minute afterwards four pistol shots broke the stillness of the office, and just then a man darted out from Mr. Frick's private apartment. It was then realized what had occurred, and running to Mr. Frick we found him lying upon the floor with his hand near his heart. As the assassin reached the stairway he was intercepted by some men who had heard the shots."

Brick Saved His Life.

H. C. Frick saved the life of the man who tried to assassinate him; such is the story told on all sides. After Burkman had done his bloody work Mr. Frick caught him by the throat and knocked him down. One of the clerks ran into the office when he heard the reports. Burkman was getting up blood-stained and Mr. Frick was sitting on a chair. He pulled out a pistol and was about to shoot the would-be murderer when Mr. Frick caught him by the arm and cried: "Let the man alone." Just then Officers Cross and McRoberts arrived and the man was taken to the Central station.

Mr. Frick is resting easy to-night at his home in Pennsylvania-avenue, East End. His condition is not regarded as dangerous, and unless blood poisoning should supervene his ultimate recovery is regarded as a certainty. The medical aspect of his case was summed up to-night by Dr. Murdock.

"I am of the opinion that Mr. Frick's wounds are serious. However, I do not consider them necessarily dangerous. One of the balls entered the left side of the neck and was taken out on the right. This ball passed through the base of the skull. The other ball entered the right side of the neck near the base of the skull, took a downward course and lodged under the left shoulder blade. Both of these balls have been extracted. He also received two knife wounds, one in the left side of the stomach and another in the left hip. The wounds in the neck are the most serious, but I do not think any of them will prove fatal."

Notes.

The strikers at Homestead are shocked over the bulletins announcing the shooting of Frick. The first unthinking movement of some of the men was one of condemnation of Frick, but the cooler heads, and without exception the American leaders of the strike, deprecated these indecent manifestations and were most outspoken in their denunciation of the attempted murder.

A dramatic incident occurred near the Western Union Telegraph Office. A brawny steelworker could not restrain his feelings, but dropped on his knees on the sidewalk with clasped hands and uplifted eyes to thank God. Friends quickly hustled him away.

An attempt to interview Burkman in the prison proved abortive, as he would say nothing that would throw any light on his antecedents.

Mr. Frick is doing nicely and it is expected will be up and around in a few days. Meantime he will manage the Homestead affairs from his office here.

Secretary Lon-Joy authorizes the statement that there are now between 400 and 500 men in the Homestead mill, and that as many more will go in to-morrow.

LIVED ON ANTS AND LOCUSTS.

The Story of a Survivor of the Ill-Fated Katanga Expedition—Frightful Suffering From Starvation.

LONDON, July 25.—The Marquis de Beauchamp, a colleague of Capt. Stairs and Capt. Bodson of the ill-fated Katanga expedition, has landed at Marseilles. He describes how the Msiris attacked the expedition and how Capt. Stairs sent Capt. Bodson to King Msiri to parley with him. Msiri was about to kill Bodson when the latter in self-defence shot Msiri. Capt. Bodson was then himself killed by the natives. The expedition had been for 26 days without food, except white ants and locusts. The Belgian Mission was reached just in time to save the surviving members of the expedition from starvation. Subsequently they tried to reach the coast by way of the Zambesi River. Captain Stairs had been ill for a long time and he died at Shinde. One hundred and ninety natives attached to the expedition also perished.

Appalling Accident Reported from Alexandria—Hundreds Killed.

VIENNA, July 25.—Some of the newspapers of this city publish a telegram reporting that the tower of the Murale Mosque in Alexandria, which was recently restored, collapsed during a service on the 21st inst., that several hundred persons were killed, and that bodies of the victims were being extricated hourly from the ruins.

Honoring Bismarck.

BERLIN, July 25.—An immense demonstration in honor of Prince Bismarck was held in Kissingen Saturday. Special trains carried thousands to Kissingen from Coburg, Mannheim, Darmstadt, Heidelberg, Pforzheim and Carlsruhe.

Replying to an address presented to him, Prince Bismarck said that the ovation was such that no minister ever before received and he regarded it as a tribute to his work. The endeavors made to bring about German union in 1848, he said, were premature and those made in 1866 had no lasting result, while in 1870 all wielded hammers striking in unison the anvil on which the empire was forged. United Germany was wrought out by French battalions. Friends, he added, had advised him to keep silent, but he would not allow his mouth to be closed. He concluded by joining in cheers for the Emperor, the Empire, the Reichstag.

A Derelict Clergyman Sentenced.

DUBLIN, July 25.—The Rev. Samuel G. Cotton, formerly at the head of the Carogh Orphanage at Kildare, who was charged with manslaughter, in causing the death of one child in his care and with cruelty to others, was sentenced on his conviction on the cruelty charge to six months' imprisonment at hard labor and to pay a fine of £400.

Winners At the Bisley Meeting.

LONDON, July 25.—At the Bisley rifle meeting Saturday the quick firing competition for teams of 10 was won by the team from Scotland by a score of 91. The Jersey team scored 89, the Canadian team 79, the English team 71 and the Irish team 48. Major Pollock of the Argyle Highlanders won the Queen's Prize with a score of 377. Scotland won the National Challenge Trophy with an aggregate score of 1622.

Fifteen Killed in a Colliery.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., July 25.—By an explosion of gas at York Farm Colliery Saturday 15 are dead and one momentarily expected to breathe his last. Llellwyn, the sole survivor, says that he and his "Batty" Christian Hornicker, whose body still lies buried in the mine, had fired a shot with a battery in breast No. 1 on the second lift and immediately there was a strong rush of gas and run of coal. The gas rushed up the airway connecting the first and second lifts and was ignited, it is supposed, by one of the safety lamps that was either upset and broken or faulty and that a terrible explosion followed and the gangways filled with fallen rock, coal and timber covering up the bodies of some of the men. All the bodies have been recovered excepting two.

QUEBEC'S BOLD PIRATE

HAD LOADED HIS FOLLOWERS WITH DUTCH COURAGE.

But it Oozed Out When the Artillerymen Arrived—Bouchard Arrested and Lodged in Quebec Jail—The Customs Authorities Seize an Immense Quantity of Whisky.

BAIE STE. PAUL, Que., July 23.—There was great excitement at Isle Aux Coudres Saturday when the McNaughton, with the detachment of "B" Battery and the customs officers, arrived Saturday morning. The people of the island had fully made up their minds to resist any attempt to arrest Bouchard or any other of the smugglers, but they never dreamed that such a large force as that on the McNaughton would be sent down. The news of the arrival of the vessel caused some of the smugglers to take to cover, but most of the inhabitants drove down to the scene of operations. The artillerymen were used to guard the customs officers while engaged in their search of the island. Numbers of places which were evidently used as storehouses for the contraband were searched. Several of them were found to contain small quantities of smuggled liquor, but most of them were empty, the smugglers having evidently succeeded in removing most of it or having hidden it in a place which the officers could not locate. The most important find was a cache of 20 barrels of liquor hidden near Bouchard's house. It was at once seized and put under guard. Bouchard was detained. He had evidently not anticipated this and was surprised when placed under arrest.

Bouchard's famous schooner, the Busy, was found at anchor at the same cove as she lay in when the customs officers of Quebec were repulsed by the smugglers Thursday. This morning she was taken in tow by a tug steamer, which started up the river for Quebec.

Arrival at Quebec.

QUEBEC, Que., July 25.—The tug McNaughton, with the "B" Battery contingent, arrived here at 6 o'clock Saturday evening. The now famous smuggler Bouchard, surrounded by a picket of soldiers with drawn bayonets, marched ashore seemingly proud of his exploits. At his side stood another well-known smuggler named Landry, nicknamed "Pork and Beans." A large concourse of people stood on the wharf. The two prisoners marched ashore with their escorts, and they cheered the smugglers enthusiastically as they passed between two lines of bayonets. Some were shouting: "Bravo, Bouchard! you're the boy"; others encouraged him by saying that everything concerning him would be all right. Both Bouchard and Landry were arrested yesterday afternoon by Collector of Customs Col. Forsythe. They and all their friends were stupid with drink. They declared that they would have resisted a reasonable force of 15 or 20 men, but 60 men and officers were too many for them.

"You may seize that whisky," said Bouchard, "there are hundreds more barrels of it on this island." One of the soldiers fainted shortly after landing. Bouchard and his ally were given over to the civil authorities.

Sixty-two barrels of contraband whisky were seized by Collector of Customs Forsythe on his expedition at Isle Aux Coudres.

There are nine schooner-owners at Isle Aux Coudres, which has a population of 800. Bouchard is about 50 years old and is 5 ft. 11 ins. in height. His crew was composed of natives of St. Pierre, Miquelon and Quebec.

MANITOBA ELECTIONS.

Premier Greenway Sustained by a Majority of About 10.

WINNIPEG, July 25.—The provincial elections in Manitoba Saturday made little change in the complexion of the parties. The next Legislature will be composed of 25 Government, 14 Opposition and one Independent. All the constituencies have been heard from but Dauphin, which is conceded to the Opposition.

The defeat of the Opposition is almost entirely due to the Separate School cry, which aroused very bitter feeling. The Government is also charged with bribery, and it is reported that Hagel and Wood, Oppositionists, defeated in Killonan and Carillon by small majorities, will immediately appeal.

Among the slain are two Cabinet ministers—Hon. D. McLean, who was defeated in Dennis city by J. F. Frame, and Hon. J. A. Smart, who was defeated in Brandon city by W. A. Macdonald by a majority of 34.

It is not likely that other seats will be found for the Cabinet ministers, but that the Cabinet will be filled from those now elected.

Bob Watson, who resigned his seat in the Dominion Government for Marquette, had a substantial majority in Portage la Prairie over W. J. Cooper.

Premier Greenway had a narrow escape, his majority in Mountain being pulled down to 100.

The Prohibition plebiscite resulted in a large majority all over the province for prohibition, the vote being nearly three to one in favor of it.

Retaliation Against Canada.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The passage by the Senate Saturday afternoon of the Canadian retaliation bill without the formality of a vote, and with no consideration of the measure, was surprising and unexpected. It was late in the day when Senator Davis of Minnesota called up the bill which passed the House a few days ago, and with the mere statement that he asked consideration of the bill at the urgent request of the Committee on Foreign Relations the measure was unanimously passed. By the terms of the bill the President is given power to impose tolls upon freight and passengers passing through the Sault Ste. Marie Canal and even to prohibit the use of the canal to them. Tolls upon freight are to be $2 a ton, and upon passengers not to exceed $5 a head. Although there was no debate upon the bill, it is known that the subject has been very thoroughly considered in executive session, and the expedition shown by the Foreign Affairs Committee was due to a direct intimation from the President that he desired immediate action. For some time past secret agents of Canada have been in this city endeavoring to arrange an amicable settlement of the trouble and have had frequent conferences with the President and Secretary of State. The propositions made by them have not become known, but they were evidently unacceptable to the President and his advisers, the result being that Mr. Harrison determined to brook no further delay and gave the intimation to the Foreign Affairs Committee upon which the Senate acted yesterday.

Score Another for Edison.

They Defeat the Lindsay Baseball Club by a Score of 12 to 7—Notes on the Game.

The Edison Baseball Team went to Lindsay on Saturday, and succeeded in doing up a combined team of Salem and Lindsay by the neat score of 12 to 7. At 1.30 o'clock a special train left town with the ball team and about 225 friends and supporters of the team. Lindsay was reached after a quick run of 40 minutes, and the crowd wended their way to the ball grounds. It was nearly 5 o'clock, however, when the game commenced owing to the absence of several of the Salem team.

The Edisons started the fun in the first innings, scoring four runs on good batting and splendid fielding. The Salem team then settled down and played better ball for the rest of the game. The Edisons scored two more in the third on hits in succession by Landers, LePage and Foster; one in the fourth on hits by Smith and Duckworth, two in the fifth and two more in the sixth on LePage's "corking" three-bagger.

On the whole the Edison team batted well. In the field they put up a good game also. Two quick double plays by Parks, LePage and Foster provoked the applause of the large audience. Parks was the star fielder of the day, his work being magnificent. Lomas and Landers as a battery did great work.

The Salem team has the record of being hard hitters. At the end of the seventh innings the game came to an unsatisfactory conclusion. The Edison team wanted to quit at the end of the fifth as it was getting late, but the Salem captain would not agree to this, so it was decided to play on. In the last half of the seventh innings, as Varcoe slid for the home plate, he was caught by Landers. The umpire's decision was that Varcoe was safe, but he had no right to give a decision, as the other umpire was on base decisions at the time. The Edison men say the man was out, and the men left the field, not so much on account of the umpire's decision, but it being after 7 o'clock and the train leaving at 8, they thought it was time to close. Following is the score, counting the disputed run:

Thou Hast all Seasons For Thy Work, Grim Death!

The poet truly says: "Leaves have their time to fall; the flowers to wither at the north wind's breath; and that even the stars have their time to set."

This we all know, that the young and innocent babies of Canada fade and die at all seasons. The present heated term is, however, the harvest time of the grim reaper; he gathers the innocents in by thousands, and will continue to do so, unless the babes are properly watched and guarded.

Baby's life depends entirely upon its food and dieing during the hot weather. Sour and unhealthy cow's milk, now so abundantly furnished to our homes, is death to the child. Poor, scanty and unhealthy breast milk, depresses its vitality and strength. The common artificial foods irritate and inflame the stomach and bowels. All these foods are productive agents of deadly cholera infantum, dysentery and diarrhœa.

Mother, save your infant by feeding it regularly on health-giving Lactated Food, which increases vitality, flesh, bone and muscle. Feed your babe on Lactated Food, as it banishes irritability, crossness and peevishness. Feed your babe on Lactated Food, because it is recommended by our best physicians as the best food in the world. Feed your baby on Lactated Food because it ensures safety from prevailing infant complaints and death.

Remember, all our goods are marked in plain figures, and it is a well-established fact that our prices are the lowest, consequently when we advertise a

GRAND REDUCTION SALE

it means a reduction, for the goods are sold at the regular prices and the discount taken off after the sale is made.

We have just closed a remarkably successful season, our sales going away beyond our most sanguine expectations. Thanks to you, good people of Peterborough town and county; and although we are certain we have given general satisfaction, we are not egotistical enough to believe we have pleased everybody. When our Saviour was on earth he did not please everybody. Can we expect to? Nor do we claim to be infallible. We are liable to err in our judgment as well as others, but we do claim to do our business in an honourable way, because we believe it pays; and for this reason if there are any of our patrons who have cause for complaint, let him come to us and we will make it right now, either by refunding the money or replacing the goods.

THIS FALL WE WILL ASTOUND ASTONISHMENT IN OUR

OVERCOAT DEPARTMENT.

Not only in our prices but by showing twenty times more goods and ten times nicer goods than were ever seen before in Peterborough. But more about this hereafter. What we want now is to make room for this great stock for fall, and if low prices will do it, you will get them now, for we are bound to clear out the balance of our Spring and Summer Goods regardless of cost. Don't miss this great opportunity; it will pay you to buy now for next year, and other merchants would do well to take advantage of this great sale, also, for we will sell them cheaper than any man in Canada can make them for.

THEIR SERVICES ARE FREE.

A staff of eminent American Physicians and Surgeons have opened an office for medical and surgical attendance, at No. 2365 St Catherine Street, Montreal. They give free services to all who call upon them before August 1st, 1892, and thereby tell you if your case is curable or not. All incurable cases are rejected. Special attention is paid to every case. Invalids living outside of Montreal should address their letters to Mr. JOHN MURRAY, Manager, and inclose two 2 cent Stamps for symptom blank and question sheets

A Thrilling Experience.

On Friday last, says the Lindsay Post, the steamer Crandella was chartered to take the children of St. Paul's church Sabbath school, with their parents and friends on their annual outing. The excursion was held to Sturgeon Point and Fenelon Falls, and was largely attended. When the steamer called at the Point about four on the return trip the western heavens were very dark and threatening, but Capt. Crandell hoped to reach Lindsay before the storm broke. Dark masses of cloud, among which thunder rolled and boomed, bore swiftly down upon the wind, their edges enveloped by a peculiar smoke like haze and illumined by fitful but vivid flashes of lightning. The Esturion had left the Point some little time before, and was near the mouth of the river when the Crandella forged out from the wharf, and, with a full head of steam started on her race with the storm. The delay at the Point, however, had been too long—when near the second lighthouse the gale burst upon her with tremendous fury, and in a moment all was confusion among the ladies and children who crowded the upper deck. The fierce wind blew the heavy rain that accompanied it to every part of the deck, and the boat careened over until it was difficult to maintain a footing. In the height of the excitement a blinding blast of lightning occurred, followed by a ripping and tearing noise, and the next moment a portion of the hurricane deck was torn off, and the tin sheeting was curled up like paper and flung over the other side, a portion resting against and bending the smoke stack. The confusion was indescribable—ladies and children fainted, and even some of the male sex were blanched faces. Two men at the wheel kept the vessel's head on her course, however, and it was shortly seen that the fury of the storm had been spent. Lindsay was reached about 7 o'clock, and the appearance of the vessel while making her way to the new wharf occasioned much surprise and apprehension among those who had friends on board. Crowds came down to view the work of the storm, and enterprising photographers had their cameras planted on the hill side taking views before the gang plank was well out.

Removed, But Not Retired.

Yes, I have opened in my new hotel,
My fondest hops, permit me to express it,
In my new house my patronage to swell,
While health and owner grant me to possess it.
I came a stranger eighteen months ago,
In that old corner I was bound to live,
How I succeeded public proof will show,
My popular name to day clear verifies;
Both law and order strictly I observed,
Though short my record all my actions view,
And still I hold my principles reserved
As in the old to practice in the new.
My Motto is, "liberal, obliging, kind,
Courteous to strangers, prompt to every call;"
From town or country peaceful men will find.
A friendly word and pleasant smile to all.
To my farmer friends let me one word say—
For horses comfort not one charge shall be—
A flowing pump, good stabling, oats and hay,
Large yard and sheds, I hold them all free for thee.
Not bar alone—with brands both strong and light,
My festive board, superior spreads defy,
In various styles to suit your appetites
And every luxury money can supply.
My waiting room displays an open door
Where wives, your daughters or your girl can sit
Until your business or sight-seeing is o'er,
Though you detain them until the gas is lit.
An attentive hostler you will find on hand
To take the ladies single horse or pair,
With all these favours free at your command
I do expect your patronage to share.
My course is formed, my rules I will maintain;
Respect and order shall pervade the place,
No brawling noise, no language rude, profane
Shall be permitted my house to disgrace.
From the old stand I am not fifty feet.
Where Charles Butler kept his grocery store,
Old and new friends come, you will always meet
A cordial welcome and an open door.

HAMILTON April 20th, 1892.

I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp and they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes. Hearing of Ayer's Hair Vigor, I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years. When half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Ayer's Hair Vigor has no equal.

The Late Eugene McNicholl.

(Norwood Register.)

Early in the spring of this year we chronicled the death of Mr. William Wigmore, a resident of the township of Dummer for over sixty years; a little later on we recorded the death of Thomas Bark, for over half a century one of the leading citizens of the township of Asphodel, and, to-day, it is our sad duty to publish the death and burial of Eugene McNicholl, one of the oldest and most prominent residents of the township of Belmont. The deceased was born in the county of Donegal, Ireland, in the year 1805. When about nine years of age he went with his parents to Scotland, and resided in the city of Glasgow until he was twenty-five years of age. He came to Canada in 1830 and remained in the city of Montreal for about a year when he came west and settled in the village of Keene, where for four or five years he ran a flour mill for the late Dr John Gilchrist. He came to the township of Belmont and took up land as far back as the year 1839. With the Bannon's and the Feeney's he laid the foundation of one of the prosperous settlements now known as Rush Point. For many years he was the only Roman Catholic in that intensely Protestant community. Yet such were the sterling qualities of the man, so great his kindness of heart, so unbounded his hospitality, so entirely lacking all those characteristics which mark the bigot that he entirely won the esteem and the confidence of his neighbors. In winning his way to their hearts he was greatly aided by his estimable wife. Her maiden name was Miss Julia Condon, an adopted daughter of his former employer, Dr. Gilchrist. She died of cancer of the face about seven years ago and even yet her name is fresh, and her memory fragrant throughout all that section of country. They reared a family of eight sons and three daughters, all of whom are living except one son, Daniel, who died several years ago. Among his sons are Dr. McNicholl, of Cobourg, Jas. McNicholl, of Norwood, John McNicholl, of Hastings, and Patrick McNicholl of Havelock. His eldest daughter, Mrs. R. H. McLaughlan, still lives in Belmont and walks in her mother's footsteps. His son Michael, with two unmarried daughters, live in the old homestead.

The deceased was a voracious reader and kept himself thoroughly posted in current events. He was a staunch Liberal in politics, a keen controversialist and one of the fairest minded of men. His last illness was of short duration although he had been laid aside from actual work for several years. He breathed his last early last Sabbath morning, having reached the great age of 86 years. The esteem in which he was held by the whole community was marked by the large concourse that followed his remains to the tomb on Tuesday morning. After Requiem High Mass by Rev. Father Conway he was laid to rest in the Roman Catholic Cemetery in the township of Asphodel. Requiescat in pace. Amen.

The value of a good name was well exemplified the other day, when a man asked one of our druggists for a bottle of Sarsaparilla. "Whose?" inquired the clerk. "Whose?" Why, Ayer's, of course. Ye don't suppose I am going to run any risks with Hannah, do ye?"

That AYER'S Sarsaparilla CURES OTHERS of Scrofulous Diseases, Eruptions, Boils, Eczema, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, and Catarrh should be convincing that the same course of treatment WILL CURE YOU. All that has been said of the wonderful cures effected by the use of

during the past fifty years, truthfully applies to-day. It is, in every sense, The Superior Medicine. Its curative properties, strength, effect, and flavor are always the same; and for whatever blood diseases AYER'S Sarsaparilla is taken, they yield to this treatment. When you ask for

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Will Leave To-night.

The members of Canton Peterborough, No. 10, I.O.O.F., will meet in Peterborough Lodge Rooms to-night at 8 o'clock. The members of the band will meet in their hall at the same hour. A procession will be formed at 8 30 o'clock and will march to the Grand Trunk depot where the departing Canton and band will leave at 9 o'clock for Brantford to attend the Grand Encampment and Cantonment which meets in that city on Tuesday and Wednesday. The Peterborough contingent will return home on Thursday morning.

Repairs Needed.

The steps and platform in front of the County Clerk's office are in a very dilapidated condition and the County Engineer should give the matter immediate attention before someone goes through the platform. If our reporter should happen to drop through it will cost the county more than the boundary bridges. Valuables must not be jeopardized. Should the County Court clerk, Mr. Maloney, be so unfortunate as to drop straight through, some one might be found that would take the office, but it is difficult to "pick up" reporters in warm weather, especially if they get a sudden "drop."

Ladies Attention.

Persons desiring to become expert cutters should call on Mrs. E. Keane who teaches Crow's mechanical system—best in use—fits every form—follows every fashion. Suits cut or made complete, patterns drafted while you wait, seamless basques and dartless coats fitted to perfection. Intending pupils should call early; satisfaction guaranteed. Agents wanted at the Peterborough Cutting and Sewing School, corner of George and Edinburgh streets. Arrangements completed to do white sewing of all kinds, everything in the line of family sewing. Ladies needing sewing done should apply promptly to secure prompt filling of orders.

Favourites with the Farmers.

The farmers of this vicinity have evidently very largely acted on the principle of the propriety of patronizing home institutions in the purchase of their farm implements, which admits of their easily and without delay procuring the repairs which all machinery needs. As a result, the Peter Hamilton Agricultural Works as much as three weeks ago sold their entire large output for the season of 1892—self-binders, mowers, hay rakes, etc., etc. This speaks well of the superior quality of the machinery and implements turned out by this sterling company, and shows that the confidence of the farming community they have earned in so large a degree, is founded on the good workmanship and good material contained in their excellent farm machinery. The company has also sold five car loads of binder twine so far this season. The lesson is obvious: patronize home institutions; it pays best.

The Hot Wave.

Thursday, July 21st, the thermometer stood 80°. The hottest registration during the day was 92° at 2 p.m., dropping to 75° at sunset. Friday began with 55°, which increased to 91° at 2 p.m. and fell to 80° at sunset. Saturday entered upon its work at 55°, working up to 96° at 2 o'clock p m., and cooling off to 84° at sunset. On Sunday the morning registration was 65°. From 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. the mercury stood at 93°, and sunset witnessed a record of 80°.

Did You Get a Prize?

The fourth free gift excursion given by Mr. H. Calcutt took place on the steamer Golden Eye down the river on Saturday afternoon and was a great success. About 250 availed themselves of the opportunity of a half day's pleasant outing. The boat left Peterborough dock at 2 o'clock and proceeded to Victoria Park where a couple of hours were pleasantly spent at this delightful spot. The return trip was safely made and home reached shortly before eight o'clock. A large number of presents consisting of chinaware dishes, fancy goods, vases, jugs, etc., were given away and pleased those who had the good luck to hold a winning number very much.

Shipments of Blood Jerseys:

Mr. Robert Walton, of Willowsprings Farm, Smith, has made several shipments of stock recently. On Saturday he shipped Mr. William Stewart, jr., owner of the thoroughbred Ayrshire stock farm, Cramahe, Northumberland county, two thoroughbred pedigreed Jersey heifers. This is the third thoroughbred Jersey Mr. Stewart has purchased from Mr. Walton's herd. A day or two ago Mr. Walton shipped a Jersey cow to Mr. Mulligan of Millbrook, and two thoroughbred Jersey cows to Mr. John Pelton, Wingham. Against all these sales to outsiders is to be put a single sale at home—that of a thoroughbred Jersey bull to Mr. Blewett, of the 17th concession of Smith—thus fulfilling the Scriptures, "A prophet is not without honour except in his own country." It is remarkable that farmers living in the vicinity of local breeders of as good thoroughbred stock of its class as can be found in the country should be so slow to take advantage of the opportunity thus presented of improving their stock, especially when go-ahead farmers living at about the extreme western end of the province find it pays them to ship their thoroughbred stock all that distance.

The Fair Directors Met.

The Directors of the Peterborough Central Exhibition held a meeting at the Morgan House on Saturday afternoon. Those present were: President George E. Elliott, Secretary Wm. Collins and Messrs. J. Kennedy, A. P. Morgan, H. C. Winch, James Davidson, T. Hall and N. Rutherford. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Moved by Mr. Rutherford, seconded by Mr. Morgan, that the following gentlemen be a deputation to wait upon the town council: President Elliott, Secretary Collins, and Directors Kennedy, Morgan, Davidson and Rutherford—in reference to entertaining in a proper manner the Lieutenant-Governor at the time of his visit to the Fair, and also to proclaim the day a public half-holiday—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Morgan, seconded by Mr. Kennedy, that Messrs. Mayor Kendry, Jas. Stevenson, M. P., J. R. Stratton, M. P. P., Warden J. Forster and President G. E. Elliott be appointed a committee on behalf of the society to meet the Lieut. Governor and take part in the reception.

The revision of the speeding contests were completed and will appear in the prize lists. The directors after discussing several attractions to be provided, among them a 1½ bicycle race, adjourned to meet at the call of the chair.

A Canadian Brings Credit to Canada.

The somewhat supercilious and patronizing manner in which the old country journals and public men have been in the habit of speaking of colonials, Canadians included, will probably be modified considerably. The entrance of the Hon. Edward Blake into the Imperial Parliament will serve to show what Canada can do in the way of producing statesmen able to hold their own with the best of them at Westminster, and the publication of an educational work by Mr. Fessenden, headmaster of our Collegiate Institute, for use in the higher schools of Great Britain, shows that we have scholars of Canadian production able to take a leading place among British educationists. The EXAMINER has been favored by the publishers, Messrs. Macmillan & Co., London, England, with extracts of press criticisms of Mr. Fessenden's work, "Elements of Physics," and the tone of them all is highly laudatory. The Manchester Guardian says:—"This is an admirable little work, far in advance of its predecessors in the same field. * * * The author has evidently bestowed on it an immense amount of labour and thought, and has given us a work of great teaching value." Speaking of the subjects treated in the book, The Lyceum says:—"They are excellently done, and the chapter on 'Matter' deserves special notice for simplicity and clearness in treating a subject not easy of illustration. * * * The book is certainly a useful addition to our text books on the subject." The Glasgow Herald says:—"The book is one of the very best of its kind and contains a surprising amount of information given in a clear and simple fashion, especially suitable as an adjunct to experimental teaching." More quotations might be cited, but the above are sufficient to show how highly Mr. Fessenden stands in the opinion of distinguished critics in the old land, and to help Peterborough to a proper appreciation of the head of our most important local educational institution, whose services in so short a time have placed it in so satisfactory and leading a position.

Sent up for Trial.

Alex. Ross and John Wilson, of Peterborough, were brought up for their preliminary trial before Justice of the Peace Ellis at the West Toronto Junction police court on Friday last for breaking into the C.P.R. station at Locust Hill on June 8th, and assaulting the operator, the particulars of which have already been narrated in the EXAMINER. The presiding magistrate committed the prisoners for trial at the next court of competent jurisdiction.

A Strange Freak of Nature.

A strange sight was witnessed at Mud Lake yesterday. About an acre of marshy land broke loose from its position near the shore and floated down the water a distance of three miles, landing near Bridgenorth. The "floating island" is of a swampy formation, and covered with a heavy growth of rushes, willows and other shrubs, which the wind caught, and on account of the load being of so heavy a nature it could easily be driven before the strong wind and high waves.

Ontario Cullers' Examination.

The following candidates have succeeded in passing the Ontario Cullers' examination as required under the Crown Lands Department. The examiners were, Messrs. J. B. McWilliams, James Dollar and J. W. Smith. Those who are now licensed saw log cullers are:—Messrs. Theodore Ludgate, Peterborough; Thomas Bick, Bobcaygeon; John Flaherty, Bobcaygeon; Henry Jenkins, Marmora; M. J. Gorman, Fenelon Falls; George Wilson, Lindsay; Wm. A. Davis, Bobcaygeon; Jas. Bray, Kinmount; Robt. A. Dickson, Keene; Stewart Sims, Campbellford; David A. Cooper, Millbrook.

Charged With Larceny.

A young man giving his name as John Thomas, of Lindsay, was arrested on Saturday afternoon, and at a special session of the police court on Saturday evening at which His Worship, Mayor Kendry, presided, he was brought up on the charge of larceny. It is alleged that on Wednesday last, the prisoner stole a silver watch from Wm. Rogers, who boards at the Croft House, and also purloined a gold ring belonging to Jemima Sanders, who is employed in the house. The prisoner, it appears, stopped over night at the hotel and next morning departed taking the missing articles with him. The matter was reported to the police on Saturday morning, and on Saturday afternoon Thomas was arrested. He is also wanted in Lindsay on a charge of larceny. The case was enlarged until Wednesday next.

A Morning Runaway.

Another of those exciting runaways which are becoming quite popular in Peterborough occurred this morning. The horse attached to the delivery waggon of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, which was left standing on Water street, suddenly took fright and dashed up Water street at at an exciting pace. Dr. McGrath and Mr. G. Fitzgerald were driving up the street and turned to one side of the road in front of the Mechanics' Institute to allow the runaway to pass. A collision ensued, the wheels of the Singer Company's waggon catching the wheels of Dr. McGrath's buggy and pitching it clear over on his horse, which plunged forward and ran away. Strange to relate the occupants, beyond a shaking up, were not at all hurt and crawled out from under the buggy uninjured. The doctor's vehicle was badly smashed about the wheels and top. The Singer Company's horse still continued its path of destruction and ran the waggon into a tree in front of the Morgan House where it was left in a demolished condition. The runaway, after falling down in front of the post office, was pluckily captured by Mr. John Rieger, who brought the animal to a standstill. The runaway escapade was a lively one, but fortunately no one was injured.

gradually growing worse. Three years ago I got down so low that I could scarcely walk. I looked more like a corpse than a living being. I had no appetite and for five weeks I ate nothing but gruel. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a marble statue. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I thought I would try it. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed that I felt better, suffered less, the inflammations of the bladder had subsided, the color began to return to my face, and I began to feel hungry. After I had taken three bottles I could eat anything without hurting me. Why, I got so hungry that I had to eat 5 times a day. I have now fully recovered, thanks to Auburn Woolen Mills Removed to Burleigh Falls.

The Employees Hold Their Annual Outing and Spend a Great Day on the Lakes—Votes of Thanks Passed.

The employees of the Auburn Woollen Mills, held their annual excursion to Burleigh Falls on Saturday, and the day will long be remembered by those who had the pleasure of availing themselves of the trip. At 7 o'clock on Saturday morning a special train consisting of eight coaches and a baggage car left the G.T.R. station for Lakefield carrying with it 500 passengers, consisting of the employees of the mills, their families and friends. At Lakefield the excursionists boarded the Golden City, Capt. Reynolds, Master, with palace scow attached. On the spin up the lakes to Burleigh Falls dancing was indulged in by a large number on board the scow to the fine music furnished by Prof. Butcher's orchestra. At the Falls, which was reached at 10 30, dinner was partaken of, by some who feasted beneath the cool trees on the contents of the heavily laden baskets, and by others who tested the edibles provided by mine host J. Holmes. The afternoon was spent in true picnic fashion. Some went shooting, others fishing, and a large number passed the time pleasantly away in the labyrinthine dance in the pavilion. About five o'clock the return trip was commenced, a stop of twenty minutes being made at Young's Point. On the way several votes of thanks were moved and carried, as follows: Moved by Mr. J. Bain, seconded by Mr. J. LeClerc, that the thanks of the excursionists be tendered Mr. J. Holmes, proprietor of the Burleigh Falls Hotel, for his kind attentions and warm reception tendered them during the day.

Moved by Mr. R. Mann, seconded by Mayor Kendry, that the thanks of the excursionists be due Capt. Reynolds, of the Golden City, for the pleasant and safe sail he had given them. Mayor Kendry in seconding the motion said: I must say Capt. Reynolds has been very obliging and a very pleasant person, and has made it as comfortable as possible for us one and all, the accommodation being ample and complete in every particular, and I know I am speaking the sentiments of one and all when I thank the captain for his kindness in taking us to Stony Lake and return, and any picnic we may have in the future, we know who to apply to, to Capt. Reynolds, of the Golden City.

Capt. Reynolds made an agreeable and appreciative reply.

Moved by Mr. Chas. Dunn, seconded by Mr. Emmet Kendry,—That a vote of thanks be moved to Mr. W. Brandrette, G. T. R. agent, for the efficient and splendid train service provided for the day.

PENCILLINGS OF THE TRIP.

The committee who had charge of the excursion and all its arrangements were Messrs. Robert Mann, (chairman,) Wm. Hartley, (secretary,) Jas. Barnett, M. Walsh, C. Dunn, E. Kendry, J. Bain, M. J. Bowen, J. LeClerc and T. Lane.

The picnic was a great success. Peterborough was reached at 8 30 on Saturday evening.

It is the first outing the employees of the Auburn Woolen Mills have had in nine years and was therefore a great treat.

On the way up Mr. Jay W. Dexter, with his photographic outfit took many views of the party and scenery along the trip.

Dental Advancement.

The "Tooth Tinkers" in Peterborough show a Fine Sample of Bridge Work—No Further Use for Plates or False Teeth.

It is always a pleasure to notice any marks of progress in any department of trade or science among our citizens, and it also gives us pleasure to notice that the science of dentistry is being developed to an extent well worthy the attention of all who desire the inestimable blessings of serviceable and always comfortable incisors and grinders.

An EXAMINER reporter dropped into one of the town dental offices last week, where after having his own mastications examined, was shown a piece of owork that reflects credit upon the skill of the operator, and was assured, gives great comfort and service to the patient in whose mouth it was exhibited. It consists of what, to the uninformed observer, appears to be the insertion of several front teeth, in a way so natural that a very close examination is necessary to convince one it is not really the work of nature. We were informed that the crowns or visible portions of the natural teeth were almost entirely destroyed by disease or decay and further filling seemed to the patient to be useless. So the lady was advised to have these teeth cut off at the gums and crowns attached with a bridge carrying another crown where a tooth had been extracted, thus obviating the necessity for wearing a plate with several teeth. This was done and almost without suffering on the part of the patient. The crowns consist of a porcelain part, which is visible and very natural in appearance, resting upon a very beautiful and artistically constructed gold and platinum attachment, which fastens the whole to the roots of the original teeth which were at first made healthy for the reception of the artificial structures.

This class of work is not often done outside the best offices in the large cities, and it is gratifying to find enterprising and skilful professionals in our town able to meet the requirements of our citizens in a way that reflects credit upon themselves and at the same time removes the necessity and disadvantages of a journey, and the outlay of capital in securing services abroad.

THE PINKERTONIANS.

ORIGIN AND GROWTH OF THIS DETECTIVE FORCE.

Secured in Many Ways—They Are Drilled and Supplied With Arms—How Allan Pinkerton, Once a Cooper, Built Up a Great and Powerful Agency.

From a member of the Chicago police force Allan Pinkerton developed into the greatest detective of the age. He organized a war secret service, and some of his feats as a Government detective read like the romances of Gaboriau.

He was trusted by Lincoln, whose life he once saved; by Grant and the other generals of the Federal Army. And after the war, with the fame of his achievements as a basis, he returned to Chicago to found the organization which is now called upon in emergencies by corporations and individuals in every section of the land. The nucleus of the force was germinated in a must little office on La Salle street, Chicago. The headquarters of the gigantic organization are there yet.

Pinkerton detectives and operatives were soon scouring the country from end to end. They sought after murderers, embezzlers and forgers, but old Allan Pinkerton saw that there were more profitable means of employing his men than as mere detectives. His men became watchmen for banks, and then the vista of Pinkertonian possibilities widened. The "Pinkertonian Preventive Watch" was established in Chicago. Small at first, it grew in numbers as the city grew, and its commercial and financial interests increased. At every block in the business district a Pinkerton policeman could be seen. They acted independently of the regular municipal police, and, though uniformed and armed, they were simply private watchmen, paid by the persons and corporations that employed them.

These men were regularly drilled, and in case of emergency could be made a very effective force. They were instructed to remember the emblem of the Pinkertons—an eye—and the motto, "We never sleep."

Allan Pinkerton was getting old and he gave the direction of his rapidly-spreading interests as a protective agency to his two sons, William A. and Robert A. The New York bureau was established and Robert came here to take charge of it. William, the elder brother, remained in Chicago. A similar institution to the "Pinkerton Preventive Watch," was established in Kansas City. They have no such enterprise in New York or any of the Eastern cities.

It has been charged that the Pinkertons kept a standing army of 35,000 men, but that is a gross exaggeration. It is true, though, that they can concentrate a force of 2,000 men at any point in the country on 48 hours' notice. The exaggerated estimate was probably founded upon the celerity with which Pinkerton operatives swooped down upon points where strikes were in progress. A company of 200 or 300 men wearing the Pinkerton badge might be in the Hocking Valley and simultaneously another of the same proportions in Albany, and still another in Chicago.

The means used by the Pickertons to recruit their forces are simple, though they are surrounded, like everything else of the Pinkertons, with secrecy. A force such as they have at command could not be collected in a day or a week. In the first place they advertize for men. They do this in all the cities where they have branches. An advertizement is inserted in the papers, asking for able-bodied men with courage. Sometimes the phrase "those with army experience preferred," is added.

The applicants do not understand that they are to be engaged by the famous Pinkertons. The name of the advertiser is not inserted, only an address given. In New York the address is a building on lower Broadway, near the United States express office. Here the Pinkertons have an entire upper floor and an armory. Winchester rifles, revolvers, policeman's clubs and uniforms are stored here and acceptable applicants are equipped. There is always on hand, kept available for emergencies, a well-drilled corps of from 150 to 200 men. When a man is accepted he is told off and instructed upon the duties he will have to perform. An experienced operative usually an old and courageous detective, is placed in charge of the squad, and he puts them through a few evolutions, sufficient to ground them in the rules of marching and maintaining a solid front. Military tactics are not carried to quite the extent they are in the metropolitan police, but a new man must acquire the fundamental principles. When the required number of men has been secured, the names of the other applicants, if they have answered the questions satisfactorily, are taken for future call. By that means, when demand is made on the Pinkertons for an extra force they get the men by sending to the addresses of those who were told that they would get places when vacancies should arise.

Pinkerton operatives also visit the United States recruiting offices and get the men rejected by the regular army or the surplus of applicants. They also visit the large shipping offices and secure men who, when out of work, decide upon going to sea as a last resort. The recruits are always told to be careful and never draw any weapons except in the direst emergency. This instruction has proved worthless in numerous instances, and proves how dangerous it is to give even a quasi authority to a hot-headed and ignorant man who is also armed. Men who have been in the army are preferred because of the discipline they have undergone and their knowledge of firearms. Ex-policemen are also acceptable, but they must not be too old.

These men really have no authority to make arrests. They are not sworn in as constables or deputy sheriffs, except in a few cases, and are to all intents and purposes no more than private citizens. The uniform placed upon them by the Pinkertons when they are uniformed invests them with no more police authority than a miniature captain's uniform on a United States officer's 5 year-old son would give the child the privilege to exact salutes from the privates at a military post.

It is risky work that the Pinkerton soldiers have to undertake, as the Homestead affair shows. Their pay may or may not be commensurate. The Pinkertons never work upon contingencies. The offers of reward never attracts them. They won't work for rewards. Their operatives are paid by the day, according to circumstances. On a detective case the price is usually $10 a day for each detective and expenses. In instances like the Pennsylvania riot the price is an average of $8 a day, of which the man gets half. The Pinkertons furnish the outfits of the men, but the firm employing them must contribute the board. With 300 men at Homestead the expense of keeping such a force of Pinkerton janizaries on guard for any length of time is seen to be considerable, even for a man like Andrew Carnegie.—New York World.

Cure for Constipation and Headache

It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50 cents package. dw

Seven Years' Suffering.

GENTLEMEN,—I have suffered very much from inflammatory rheumatism, which through wrong treatment left ugly running sores on my hands and feet. With these I suffered for seven years, during which time I had neither shoe nor stocking on. I commenced using B. B. B. externally and internally, using the pills also, and I can say now that the sores are entirely cured, and have been for some time. I believe the bitters were the means of saving my life.

The Imperial Institute.

A magnificent building, designed to constitute the chief metropolitan memento to the Queen's jubilee, is rapidly approaching completion at South Kensington. It occupies a portion of the site used for the Colonial and other exhibitions a few years ago, and has replaced the gardens, terraces, hand-stands and illuminated fountains that then gave such great delight to millions of visitors. But though these pleasures have gone, the noble edifice will supply an admirable substitute. Within its area will be found a permanent collection of all that is best, most brilliant and of greatest use in Canada and Australia, while the wealth of India—in art and arms, in precious metals and priceless stones—will be displayed on a scale never previously attempted. To a large extent the objects sought to be attained by this Imperial Institute will be commercial or educational rather than ornamental. It will be a rendezvous for business men quite as much as a lounge for pleasure seekers, and in no part of London will either section of the community find a spot where their tastes can be better suited. The exhibits already in position are of undoubted beauty and skill. They comprise specimens of the flora and fauna of many strange lands, as well as the means of transit, methods of workmanship and character of the tools in use among the natives. Some of the designs in silver and gold—with their lavish settings of diamonds—are of the very highest order of merit, and are sure to be immensely popular. Though, as Sir Frederick Able admits, the place at present is little more than a shell, it is an extremely handsome shell. The actual length of its ornate frontage is more than 750 feet—the actual extent of its area nearly nine acres. Nothing could be richer than the great central porch, nothing more imposing than the cupola-tipped tower that rises to a height of 300 feet behind it. At each extremity of the facade are flanking towers 176 feet high, which add considerably to the boldness and grandeur of the architectural conception. Internally the decorative work is just as lavish. Mosaic floors and embossed ceilings are common to almost every corridor and room; while the carved wood, the stained glass, the gilding and the polished marble are as fine and profuse as even an oriental nabob could desire. The great reception hall has not yet been started, and lack of funds may delay the operation for some time to come; but if it is more beautiful than the west staircase or some of the other parts already finished, there will be nothing else to compare with it in the capital. The structure, as in course of progress, will cost £280,000; but an additional £80,000 or £100,000 will be required for the great hall. Though it is proposed to make a commencement with the work of the institute almost at once, the royal opening will be deferred until next year.

Will of an English Peabody.

The late David Lewis, of a clothing firm in Liverpool and Manchester, bequeathed all his fortune, except an annuity for his wife and a few small legacies, for the benefit of the working classes of Liverpool and Manchester. The fund is about $1,000,000 and may amount to $1,750,000. He directed his residuary legatees to use the money for the benefit of the poor of Liverpool and Manchester, leaving it to them personally, in order to satisfy the law and trusting in their obedience to his instructions. Five or six gentlemen from the two cities have been asked to co-operate with the holders of the fortune in carrying out the testator's wishes. Mr. Lewis was known to have a favorable opinion of the Peabody system of dwellings, but some other plan may be adopted.—New York Sun.

IN THE REALM OF LABOR.

AFTERMATH OF THE GREAT HOMESTEAD STRIKE.

Robert Pinkerton Gives Evidence Before the Committee of Congress—Hugh O'Donnell the Leader of the Strikers Now in Jail on a Charge of Murder.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 23.—Hugh O'Donnell, the leader of the Homestead strikers, and Hugh Ross, one of his lieutenants, rest in cells in the Allegheny County jail last night.

It is proposed to trace every bit of iron or steel that has been made by the Carnegie company and to place a boycott upon it. The result will be that from one end of this country to the other a union workman, no matter what his trade, will not handle a pound of Carnegie iron or steel.

Hugh O'Donnell was identified in jail today by a number of Pinkerton detectives as one of the leaders in the recent riot.

Bob Pinkerton Testifies.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The sub-committee of the House Committee on Judiciary charged with the investigation of the Homestead labor troubles resumed its session in this city yesterday. Before the examination of the witness was proceeded with Mr. Devlin of the Knights of Labor submitted a number of questions which he wished the committee to ask the witness. After being considered by the committee the questions were accepted. The Pinkertons submitted a lengthy written statement detailing their origin, purpose and going into the Homestead affair from their point of view.

Robert Pinkerton testified that the men sent to Homestead were obtained in New York, Chicago and Philadelphia. All of them knew the exact nature of their employment and many of them had been for some time previously in the employ of the Pinkerton agency and were well recommended. The barges were not constructed for purposes of protection and were not lined with iron or steel. The barges were employed because it was believed that the men would be enabled to land without a breach of the peace. There were about 310 men on the barges, with about 250 rifles, 300 pistols and ammunition and clubs. The arms were in boxes. They were not to be used by the men before the latter were deputized, and the sheriff had promised to deputize them at the first signs of trouble. In 20 years there was not an instance where the Pinkertons had fired upon strikers except as a last resort to save their own lives, and only three men had been so killed in that time.

They furnished 310 to 315 men to Mr. Frisk at $5 per day per man. He asked to be excused from answering the enquiry: "If he had ever employed men to become Knights of Labor?" The "detective" and the watchmen's branches of his business were entirely separate institutions.

Mr. Oates asked witness what he had to say of the statement that 50 good soldiers could have scattered the Homestead mob and that cowardice was shown by the Pinkertons. Witness replied that he had talked with his men. They said that they could have taken possession of the works almost any time before 10 o'clock; that 75 men could have taken possession of the lands, but they would have had to kill a number of people, men, women and children, and they concluded not to do anything of the kind. The first firing, his men told him, was over the strikers' head. His men were armed with Winchesters. At the start not over 20 of them were given arms and afterwards arms were given to about 40 in all. He thought it evident that the statement of his men was true, for they did not do the execution that was in their power. Mr. Pinkerson said that he had never seen a strike where labor organizations or their men had not beaten non-union men. He had seen men knocked off trains, he had seen them beaten almost to a jelly, he had known members of these very Knights of Labor, whose representatives were here to put obstructions on the track and to put dynamite under cars. He had seen men who wanted to work treated worse than savages by representatives of secret labor organizations and he had them sent to prison for it.

COBOCONK, Ont., July 23.—Thomas Cooper of Argue's drove to town to consult Dr. Broad with regard to the health of his 17-year-old daughter Ada, who has been in failing health for some time. The doctor told him there was danger of heart failure and to get his daughter home as soon as possible. In about an hour he rushed into the doctor's office with her in his arms. An examination showed that she was dead, having expired as her father entered the office.

TORONTO'S FATALITIES.

A TWO DAYS' GRIST OF SUICIDES AND DROWNINGS.

Death of the Master in Chambers at Osgoode Hall—A Woman Commits Suicides in a Cemetery—A Floater Fished from Toronto Bay.

TORONTO, July 25.—The death of Robert Gladstone Dalton, master in chambers High Court of Justice, took place at his residence, 317 Brunswick-Avenue, yesterday. Mr. Dalton had been ill since December last with heart disease. Deceased was 74 years of age and was born at Kingston. His first appointment as an official at Osgoode Hall, dates 25 years back, when he was made clerk of Crown Pleas and Queen's Bench and sat in Chambers besides.

The late Sir Adam Wilson and deceased were warm friends and the demise of the former is thought to have hastened the death of the latter. They were of similar temperaments, being both unobtrusive and retiring. The present Lady Wilson is a sister of deceased.

Last night the body a young woman named Doran was found floating in the pond at Mount Pleasant Cemetery. She was recognized as an inmate of the Deer Park Sanitarium, from which institution she probably escaped.

James Woolings, aged 15, employed in Taylor's Don Valley Brick Works, who had his leg torn off above the ankle joint Saturday while attempting to kick a belt from a pulley, died yesterday.

An inquest will be held at the morgue today by Coroner Johnson to investigate the death of a man who was found floating in the bay at the foot of York-street yesterday morning. From papers found on his person it is thought that his name is Michael Sullivan.

A railway time book was also found on his person, and written on the inside of the fly-leaf was the name "M. Sullivan, Moncton, N.B."

KINCARDINE, Ont., July 25.—Saturday about 11 o'clock James McCallum Cosbie, son of Mr. R. H. Cosbie of 43 Rose-avenue, Toronto, traveler for Samson, Kennedy & Co, lost his life. It appeared that the young lad and his father were bathing in the lake, the latter endeavoring to teach his son to swim. After holding him in the water for some time, the young lad striking out with hands and feet and apparently enjoying himself, the latter suddenly seemed to have lost all animation, and on taking him out of the water it was found that life had fled. Mr. Cosbie and family were spending a few days by the lake.

OVER 2000 KILLED.

Official Reports from the Great Disaster At Sangir.

THE HAGUE, July 25.—Official confirmation has been received here from Batavia of the reported volcanic eruption on the Isle of Sangir in the Celebes Sea between Celebes and Mindano. The eruption came from a volcano known as Gunong Awun.

The whole island was shaken so violently that huts and houses collapsed and great fissures appeared in the rocky formation at the northwestern end.

The huts took fire and those of the natives who were not burned to death in the towns were covered and smothered in the ashes. Lava ran in streams two and three feet deep and 20 or 30 feet wide down the mountain side and into the sea.

The loss of life on the northwestern end was at least 2000 and probably 2500.

Cholera Subsiding.

ODESSA, July 25.—The mortality from cholera is diminishing on the lower Volga, but north of Tsaritzin the disease is spreading rapidly in towns and villages west of the river.

They Say They Are; But, Are They?

THIS is the time of year when lots of Clothing Stores are offering goods 50 to 60 per cent. below cost, and at much less than goods can be bought at other stores, retailing below wholesale prices, closing out the stock of some defunct or deceased firm, running alleged bargain tables and sacrificing goods below cost, just for fun, are among the many pleasantries to which clothiers treat the reading public.

A few days ago one of those shrewd, bright and flippant buyers entered our store. It was evident that curosity, and not the desire to purchase, had brought him. He looked at Suits and he looked at Overcoats. He criticised and condemned, but finally the salesman showed him a suit that attracted his attention. He objected to the price, whereupon the salesman informed him that we are at present selling goods below cost. Quick as a flash came the response, "You say you are, but are you? Everybody else is spinning the same old yarn." Well, we sold that man the suit. We convinced him that we are actually selling below cost. We showed him the old price in black figures, and the new one in red figures. The difference between the two told the tale. All we ask is to be put to the test. We are confident that we are underselling every one in the clothing trade.

H. C. FRICK WILL LIVE.

PHYSICIANS CONFIDENT OF HIS RECOVERY.

To Manage the Homestead Lockout from His Pittsburg Home—Strong Guard Placed About the Millionaire's Mansion—In Dread of Still Another Attempt At Assassination.

PITTSBURG, July 26.—The police authorities are convinced last night that the attempted assassination of H. C. Frick was an Anarchistic plot that may be as great as that for which Spies and his companions were hanged.

IMPORTANT ARREST.

An Accomplice of Bergman Arrested at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, July 26.—About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon Detective Shore arrested Casper Knold, a workman of Taylor & Dians' wire mill, on a charge of being an accomplice of Bergman. The arrest proved an important one, much about Bergman's previous movements being learned through Knold. He is still in the Central Station and will probably be sent to jail in the morning. The police searched his house and discovered a large amount of Anarchistic literature, some of it of a most incendiary description. Among the stuff captured were letters from Anarchists in Chicago, New York, Hoboken and other places.

Knold afterwards admitted having received several letters from Most concerning Bergman, and that Most told him that Bergman was a bad man. He said that Bergman represented to him that he was in search of employment and claimed that he knew nothing of the intended assassination.

Frick Will Live.

PITTSBURG, July 26.—Henry C. Frick's splendid constitution is standing him in good stead. Very few men, so say the doctors, could have survived for many hours the terrible injuries which he received at the hands of the Russian Anarchist, to say nothing of the loss of blood and the shock to the nervous system. Yet he passed a good day, notwithstanding the fact that it was the most sweltering one of the season, and to-night he is reported as resting easily.

At no time since the shooting has the wounded man lost consciousness from pain, and when not dozing to-day he talked freely and apparently with no effort to those about him. The surgeons will not say to-night that he is absolutely out of danger, as it will be several days before the crisis can be regarded as having safely passed, but at the same time they are free to express the opinion that if the indications of the past 24 hours count for anything, he will not only pull through, but that in half the time usually accorded to such cases by medical jurisprudence.

The would-be murderer, Alexander Bergman, spent last night in cell No. 4 of the Central Station and, awaking bright and early, asked for some breakfast, particularly requesting that it should include some eggs. A good meal was given him, and after cleaning the plates he put on a clean laundered shirt, a stand-up collar and a light tie, then he lit a cigaret and for the rest of the day one of these concoctions was not out of his mouth more than a few moments at a time.

A Guard at the Frick Mansion.

There is a strong guard about the house. This was placed there by officials of the Carnegie Company. They seem to fear that another attempt may be made upon Mr. Frick's life.

The police, too, seem to think that something of this kind may happen, and they are keeping a sharp lookout. No one will get into Mr. Frick's house unless he is properly vouched for. Many of his warm personal friends were turned away to-day with the simple statement that Mr. Frick must be kept perfectly quiet and the coming of visitors to the house disturbed him.

Hugh O'Donnell was released this morning on $10,000 bail.

Scaring the Men.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 26.—As a result of the shooting of Mr. Frick eight foremen left the mill yesterday and also a number of men. The foreman of the mechanical department said that they had been told by Amalgamated men that they had better quit, and through fear of being shot they had done so.

Carnegie Not in Favor.

LONDON, July 26.—At a meeting of the Labor Representative Leagues in London yesterday a resolution was adopted strongly condemning the course of Carnegie in regard to the Homestead troubles. The resolution added that should Carnegie insult British workmen by further philanthropic efforts in their behalf it was hoped they would show their detestation of him by contemptuously refusing to accept any offers of help from him.

Died Reading His Music.

NEW YORK, July 26.—August Steinmetz, 62 years old, a German who 10 years ago was a well-known pianist, died early yesterday morning. He was alone and unattended in a miserably furnished room on the first floor of the tenement house at No. 305 First-avenue.

Lying on the floor, half hidden by a threadbare quilt, were several much-worn and yellow sheets of music. They had fallen from the old musician's hands when death overtook him.

DESTRUCTION BY FIRE OF SIMCOE SHODDY MILLS.

Shocking Death of a Prince Edward Island Young Woman—Shot Through the Heart by a Young Child—The Prohibition Commission Commences Business.

SIMCOE, Ont., July 26.—During the severe thunder storm yesterday morning lightning struck the telephone wire and set fire to the shoddy mills of Harding & Co. The material being very inflammable, the whole interior of the building was ablaze in a few minutes. Loss about $6000; insured for $2000.

THROUGH THE HEART.

A Young Woman Killed by a Child's Carelessness.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I., July 26.—At Albany, Saturday, Mary Jane, aged 16, eldest daughter of Michael McCarthy of this city, was accidentally shot through the heart and instantly killed. Deceased was spending her vacation with her uncle. She was in a room talking with her cousin a little child, who picked up a loaded gun which was standing in the corner and accidentally discharged it with the above fatal result. The girl was being educated for a nun at Notre Dame Convent.

C.P.R. Rumor.

HALIFAX, N.S., July 26.—A Montreal man who was seen on the train a few days ago is authority for the report that the C.P.R. Company are negotiating for the purchase of the Spring Hill coal mines. The coal is excellent for locomotive purposes, and the company, it is said, calculate that they will save money by mining and hauling their own coal. Rumors of an early transfer of the I.C.R. to the C.P.R. are again current. I.C.R. officials and employes believe the road will be transferred.

HALIFAX, N.S., July 26.—Yesterday the Royal Prohibition Commission met in the City Hall chamber.

Mr. Spence, on behalf of the Dominion Temperance Alliance, spoke requesting to question witnesses. L. P. Kribs made the same request on behalf of the liquor trade of the Dominion.

The evidence of several clergymen was heard, showing the evil effects resultant from the liquor traffic.

Drowned at the Falls.

NIAGARA Falls, Ont., July 26.—Marcus M. Mason, cashier of the Investment Trust Company of Boston, Mass., was drowned at the Cave of the Winds shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Mason, with a party of friends, who were on their way from Chicago, stopped off to visit the points of interest. J. R. Barlow, guide at the Cave of the Winds, was in company with Mason at the time of the accident. Barlow made a brave attempt to rescue him, but he sank before his eyes. At last reports his body had not been recovered.

Killed on the Railway Track.

MORRISBURG, Ont., July 26.—The body of a man named Timothy Cochrane, aged 49 years, was found early yesterday lying on the Grand Trunk Railway track here. The remains were in a fearfully mangled condition. The head was severed from the body, the skin of the face was hanging to the track and the arms and legs cut in two. Cochrane must have tried to jump on the special freight train which passed before midnight and, missing his footing, fell under the cars and was crushed to death.

The Victims Number Three.

DETROIT, July 26.—Another drowning accident occurred on the river off Belle Isle yesterday afternoon. A rowboat containing two men and a young woman was capsized in the Canadian channel while the occupants were trying to catch a tow. The young woman, whose name is not yet known, was drowned and one of the men, whose name is also unknown, was probably drowned too. The third occupant of the boat, A.B. Morris, one of the proprietors of the new Hurd House of Jackson, was drowned.

ROBBED A STAGE.

The Two Ruggles Brothers Taken from Jail and Hanged.

REDDING, Cal., July 26.—John D. and Charles Ruggles, the two brothers who robbed the Redding stage near here several weeks ago and killed Express Messenger Montgomery and wounded the driver and a passenger, were taken from the jail by about 40 armed and masked men at 2.30 o'clock this morning and hanged. About 1 o'clock this morning the body of armed men who had evidently had a rendezvous some distance from the town marched through a quiet street to the court house.

The brothers were handcuffed and their hands tied behind their backs and were led from the jail. The party walked several blocks and stopped near the railroad company's large woodshed, where a cross beam was suspended from two pine trees. The ends of the ropes, which had been placed around the necks of the two men, were thrown across a beam and the men were told they could make a statement. The brothers had but little to say, though John persisted that the younger one was innocent. In another moment, on a signal from the leader, they were suspended about four feet from the ground, and after securing the ropes the crowd dispersed and the bodies were left there until cut down by the coroner about 9 o'clock.

But Her Information Nearly Had Serious Results for John Dodd.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 26.—The great excitement which has filled Darlington, which lies near Crawfordsville, came to a sudden end last night. At one time it seemed to promise a lynching. John A. Dodd and wife two years ago adopted a boy and girl who had been brought to this city with several others from the New England Orphans' Home in Boston. The boy's name was Lowell Daniel.

On Wednesday he was in the cornfield pulling weeds. Mr. Dodd said that the lad had started to the house, but he never made his appearance. The next day Mr. Dodd made diligent enquiries in Darlington, remarking that he guessed the boy had "run away." Dodd had some enemies who started a rumor that he had made away with the boy.

Yesterday the entire neighborhood turned out and searched the country. Creeks were dragged, the woods scoured and haystacks overturned, but this served only to deepen the mystery of the disappearance, for Lowell Daniel was not to be found.

Edward Murphy, Charles Petro and Thomas Irons came to this city yesterday morning to consult a notorious fortune teller here. She described the Dodd family perfectly, and finally said that in a fit of madness Dodd had struck the lad, killing him. She absolutely declared that the body of the boy would be found in a deserted cabin on the farm of John Booker, who was a neighbor of Dodd.

Warrants were sworn out for Dodd and were about to be served, when the missing lad was found several miles distant at a neighbor's, too busy to send word to the foster parents.

TORONTO GRAIN MARKETS.

Business Transacted and Prices of Grain in the Queen City.

TORONTO, July 26.—The receipts of grain on the street on yesterday were represented by one load of oats at 34c. Wheat nominal at 80c for white and red, 72c for spring and 66c for goose. Hay was in light supply at $8 to $9.50 for new and $10 to $12.50 for old. Straw nominal at $8 to $9 75 per ton.

Business was quiet on 'change to-day, the only offering being three cars of hard wheat by sample at 82c.

BAY CITY WIPED OUT.

A Million Dollar Fire Sweeps Through a Michigan Town.

BAY CITY, Mich., July 26.—Fire, which broke out at 2 o'clock yesterday in the lumber manufacturing establishment of Miller & Turner, on the west side of Water-street, and swept across into the settled districts on the east side, destroyed stores, hotels and restaurants. In all about thirty blocks, including more than 300 houses and building places, were burned, involving a loss of fully $1,000,000.

Two churches, four hotels and 40 stores are destroyed.

One woman was burned to death.

An Entire Family Drowned.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 26.—During the severe storm which passed over this part of the country last night an entire family of nine persons were drowned by the sudden flood following a cloudburst. The family consisted of William Doly and wife, their three children, Doly's father and mother, Mrs. Doly's mother and a servant girl. The first known of the disaster was the finding of the body of the servant girl this morning in the yard of a neighbor's some distance below where the fated house stood.

For Dumping Garbage.

WINDSOR, July 26.—There is evidently more trouble in store for A. C. Lloyd, who was fined for dumping garbage in the Detroit River. The townships of Malden and Anderdon border on the river and a lot of the stuff lodged in their territory. Their cases are just as clear as the Amherstburg one and they will bring the matter before the grand jury. It now appears that the crew of the La Belle did not wait until they got to Turkey Island, but on different nights dumped garbage at the head of Fighting Island, and another night a captain of one of the ferry boats saw them dumping it in the Canadian channel opposite Sandwich.

Durnan At Saratoga.

SARATOGA, July 26.—Almost all the oarsmen who are to participate in the National regatta Tuesday and Wednesday have arrived, and are hard at work getting into shape for the big event. Every man who could swing an oar was out, and doubles and singles darted about everywhere. The arrival of Durnan, the Canadian sculler, who is to take part in the senior singles, has aroused a great commotion. In many quarters he is looked upon as a sure winner. It is said that he could have won the championship from Hedley in the Toronto regatta had he so desired. This Durnan denies emphatically. Upon Durnan's arrival here the Regatta Committee set to work to investigate the rumors.

"In the Toronto regatta," said Durnan today, "my stomach went back on me. It is my principal trouble in rowing. I rowed as hard as I could in that race and I will do the same in this one."

Hanlan, who is Durnan's uncle, laughs at the rumors. "If Durnan is all right," he said, "there are very few scullers in the country who can beat him." The little Canadian weighs only 140 pounds.

Another Collapse.

Ottawa Free Press.

The placing of the beet root sugar industry of Quebec province upon the federal government's pauper roll, has not helped it. The great beet root sugar factory at Farnham, in which a vast amount of money has been sunk, has collapsed. Its liabilities are placed at $60,000 while its assets are valued at $9,000, and many farmers who made contracts to supply beets to the factory will lose heavily. Yet the Farnham factory received nearly $50,000 from the Dominion government last year in the form of bounty upon sugar produced, besides aid from the provincial government and from municipalities. Its experience is a fair sample of the results of the bonus system No institution can prosper upon doles from the public treasury. The effect of granting "outdoor relief" to manufacturing establishments seems to be to take away from them that spirit of energy and self reliance which is essential to success. When manufacturers come to look to the public treasury for that which they should acquire through their own energy and push they generally go to the wall. During the closing hours of the Dominion Parliament Mr. Foster asked for power to continue granting bounties to manufacturers of beet sugar. Mr. Laurier, Mr. Scriber and other Liberals opposed the proposition, pointing out that the public were asked to pay a bounty equal to the first cost of cane sugar. But the bounty was voted, Mr. Ouimet declaring that the beet sugar business was now on the sole hope of the Quebec farmers. If such be the case the condition of the agriculture in the neighboring province must be desperate indeed, for the Montreal Star says that the failure of the Farnham establishment means the total collapse of the beet root sugar industry. It is thus all along the line. Legitimate and remunerative industries do not require bounties, and it is wrong to tax the whole people for their maintenance; while those which are in their nature unsuited to the country and unprofitable cannot be kept up by the pauper system. There is no excuse for giving public money to manufacturers to enable them to do business at a loss.

Manitoba's Prohibition Plebiscite.

A Plebiscite taken on Saturday under the authority of the Legislature of Manitoba shows that a majority of the people are in favor of a prohibitory liquor law. The vote is only declaratory, not operative, but as a result of it the Legislature will probably be asked to pass a prohibitory law. The president of the League, Mr. W. R. Mulock, Q.C., is confident that such a law is not ultra vires of the Legislature, but if it be passed, its constitutionality will probably be tested in the courts. Manitoba seems to be desirous to maintain its reputation for moving rapidly to radical legislation.

$10,000 to the Ton.

G. T. Ware, a lawyer of Port Arthur, reports the discovery of a valuable mine of silver about twenty-six miles northwest of Port Arthur, on mining location 140T, near the celebrated group known as Badger, Beaver, Rabbit Mountain and Porcupine. The vein of silver is eight feet wide and can be traced half a mile. Mr. Ware says it is the richest silver bearing ore of the district, assays of which contain from $10,000 to $12,000 worth of silver to the ton taken eight feet from the surface.

"Tired All the Time."

is the complaint of many poor mortals, who know not where to find relief. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses just those elements of strength which you so earnestly crave, it will build you up, give you an appetite, strengthen your stomach and nerves. Try it.

Hood's Pills act especially upon the liver, rousing it from torpidity to its natural duties, cure constipation and assist digestion

Women with pale colorless faces, who feel weak and discouraged, will receive both mental and bodily vigor by using Carter's Iron Pills, which are made for the blood, nerves and complexion. dw

A Child Saved.

My little boy was taken very bad with diarrhœa, he was very delicate and got so low we had no hope of his life, but a lady friend recommended Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and although he could only bear a few drops at a time he got well. It saved my child.

MRS. WM. STEWART, dw Campbellville, Ont.

The effect is sure.—Constipation, the most obdurate case will not resist the persevering action of the Indigenous Bitters.

Important Mineral Survey.

The Coal Trade Journal says that the Dominion Government has decided to have a thorough mineral survey of the district from Sudbury east made during this summer and next, including Peterborough, Victoria and Hastings counties. That there are various kinds of minerals in those counties is well known, and to obtain knowledge of its location and extent such a survey is very desirable. It is thought that, besides iron, gold, phosphates, etc., which are known to exist, nickel may be found.

A Good Example.

The Young Liberals of Toronto have set a noble example to their brethren throughout the country, which they would do well to follow. In making up the Provincial Voters' Lists in that city lately, 6 000 new names were added under the manhood suffrage clause, and of these most of 4 000 were put on by the Young Men's Liberal Club. It will thus be seen how much can be done by a little hearty and united labour.

The St. John Relief Fund.

Toronto has contributed about $20,000 to the St. John's relief fund; the Ontario Government is giving $10,000; Montreal has subscribed $30,000, and other cities are giving in proportion.

A lady, whose hair came out with every combing, was induced to give Ayer's Hair Vigor a faithful trial. She did so, and not only was the loss of hair checked, but a new and vigorous growth soon succeeded that which had gone.

Harsh purgative remedies are fast giving away to the gentle action and mild effects of Carter's Little Liver Pills. If you try them, they will certainly please you.

THUNDER IT DOWN THE AGES!

GOUGH BROS. HOLD THEIR ANNUAL MID-SUMMER SALE IN PETERBOROUGH.

It is customary with us, after the 15th of July, to organise in our different stores a big sale of our entire stock. This we do—first, because we believe it does not pay to carry goods over until another season, and secondly, in order to make room for our big fall purchases of which require every inch of room we can command, therefore, during the month of July the following extraordinary inducements will be offered:—

OVERCOATS and WINTER CLOTHING

IN OUR MEN'S CLOTHING DEPARTMENT

we will take 20 per cent. off our regular prices.

IN OUR CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

we will take 15 per cent. off, and in our

HAT AND CAP DEPARTMENT

we will take 20 per cent. off.

Remember, all our goods are marked in plain figures, and it is a well-established fact that our prices are the lowest, consequently when we advertise a

GRAND REDUCTION SALE

it means a reduction, for the goods are sold at the regular prices and the discount taken off after the sale is made.

We have just closed a remarkably successful season, our sales going away beyond our most sanguine expectations. Thanks to you, good people of Peterborough town and county; and although we are certain we have given general satisfaction, we are not egotistical enough to believe we have pleased everybody. When our Saviour was on earth he did not please everybody. Can we expect to? Nor do we claim to be infallible. We are liable to err in our judgment as well as others, but we do claim to do our business in an honourable way, because we believe it pays; and for this reason if there are any of our patrons who have cause for complaint, let him come to us and we will make it right now, either by refunding the money or replacing the goods.

THIS FALL WE WILL ASTOUND ASTONISHMENT IN OUR

OVERCOAT DEPARTMENT.

Not only in our prices but by showing twenty times more goods and ten times nicer goods than were ever seen before in Peterborough. But more about this hereafter. What we want now is to make room for this great stock for fall, and if low prices will do it, you will get them now, for we are bound to clear out the balance of our Spring and Summer Goods regardless of cost. Don't miss this great opportunity; it will pay you to buy now for next year, and other merchants would do well to take advantage of this great sale, also, for we will sell them cheaper than any man in Canada can make them for.

Heavy Cheese Exports.

(Montreal Trade Bulletin)

The prompt manner in which the recent heavy exports of cheese from Canada and the United States have been absorbed on the other side of the Atlantic, has been remarkable, showing that the consumptive demand in Great Britain has been very keen, owing, no doubt, to the clearence effected in old stocks at the beginning of the season. From the opening of navigation to July 16th, the shipments of cheese from this port amounted to 453,000 boxes against 362,000 boxes for the corresponding period last year, showing the large increase of 91 000 boxes. The total exports from New York up to July 15 h were 462,000 boxes against 384 000 boxes for the same period in 1891, being an increase of 78 000 boxes. The aggregate shipments from Montreal and New York from May 1st to July 16th were 915,889 boxes against 747,322 boxes for the same period in 1891 showing a total increase from both ports of 168 567 boxes. About a year ago the exports from Montreal had fallen behind those of the year previous by 103,000 boxes, and notwithstanding the largely augmented shipments this year the markets in great Britain appear to have been less overupplied than at this time last year. Of course it may be that owing to the excellent quality of the June make holders on the other side have been induced to put a large proportion into store, although some advices by mail indicate that the consumption has been fully equal to the immense landing on the other side. There are no large accumulations in Canada, the shelves of factorymen having been well cleared from week to week; and unless the English market become clogged by the heavy shipments from New York and Montreal within the next two or three weeks, it looks as if there would be good steady trade to the close of the season's make.

What's in a Name?

The Tory press and speakers are great on styling themselves "Unionists" as regards the British elections. They seem to think there is something in the meaningless term that will catch the unthinking. Too term is synonymous with "loafers" or "flaggers" in Canada, who have come to be such an object of derision, even among themselves.—Acadian Recorder.

Removed, But Not Retired.

Yes, I have opened in my new hotel,
My fondest hope, permit me to express it,
In my new house my patronage to swell,
While health and owner grant me to possess it.
I came a stranger eighteen months ago,
In that old corner I was bound to rise,
How I succeeded public proof will show,
My popular name to-day clear verifies;
Both law and order strictly I observed,
Though short my record all my actions view,
And still I hold my principles reserved
As in the old to practice in the new.
My Motto is, "liberal, obliging, kind,
Courteous to strangers, prompt to every call;"
From town or country peaceful men will find.
A friendly word and pleasant smile to all.
To my farmer friends let me one word say—
For horses comfort not one change shall be—
A flowing pump, good stabling, oats and hay,
Large yard and sheds, I hold them still for thee.
Not bar alone—with brands both strong and light,
My festive board, superior spreads defy,
In various styles to suit your appetites
And every luxury money can supply.
My waiting room displays an open door
Where wives, your daughters or your girl can sit
Until your business or sight-seeing is o'er,
Though you detain them until the gas is lit.
An attentive hostler you will find on hand
To take the ladies single horse or pair,
With all those favours free at your command
I do expect your patronage to share.
My course is formed, my rules I will maintain,
Respect and order shall pervade the place,
No brawling noise, no language rude, profane
Shall be permitted my house to disgrace.
From the old stand I am not fifty feet.
Where Charles Butler kept his grocery store,
Old and new friends come, you will always meet
A cordial welcome and an open door.

Rapid Relief.

DEAR SIR,—I had for years been troubled with dyspepsia and sick headache, and found but little relief until I tried your Burdock Blood Bitters, which made a perfect cure. It is the best medicine I ever had in my life, and I will never be without it.

The Malodorous Eagle.

Under auspices of the sanitary board of Detroit the garbage collected in that city has been regularly carried by boat, at night, to Amherstburg and dumped in the river a short distance above the water works dock. The townspeople protested in vain, and on Wednesday night sent out a tug which captured the American craft and crew. The prisoners will be tried for infringement of health and customs laws.

The Provincial Statutes.

The Queen's Printer announces that the Ontario statutes for last session will be ready for distribution about the second week of August. The unusual delay in publication is accounted for by the fact that many very large and important statutes are contained therein. Four hundred and five hundred pages is usually considered a large volume, but the forthcoming one will be about 1,000 pages, the largest ever issued by the Province.

Into Niagara Rapids.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 25.—A pretty young school teacher named Allison from Corry, Pa., jumped into the whirlpool rapids on the Canada side. She went down the incline and was suddenly seen to throw herself into the roaring waters. A couple of tourists saw the woman jump and rushed up to where she was struggling in the water and, after heroic efforts to reach her, they caught her by the dress and pulled her to shore just before she reached the eddies. She was taken up the elevator and removed to Mrs. Bartle's residence, where restoratives were applied and she was brought back to consciousness. She gave her reason for the foolish act as being temporarily "mad," and expressed contrition over and over again for her attempted self-murder.

Shot Himself.

WINNIPEG, July 25.—William Olson, a Swede sectionman employed by the Canadian Pacific at Canmore, committed suicide by shooting.

Warm Words of Praise.

The Port Hope Guide in a report of the Presbyterian church Sunday school picnic held at Jubilee Point, speaks the warmest words of praise of the Point as a picnic ground, and the report also speaks very highly of the accommodation furnished by the Golden Eye and the courtesy, kindliness and attention of the officers and crew. A correspondent writes the Guide next day endorsing in every respect the Guide's remarks respecting the picnic ground, boat service, etc.

On the Diamond.

An exciting game of baseball was played on Vatican Park Saturday afternoon between the Vatican Park Nine and the Lakeside Nine, which resulted in a victory for the former team by a score of 30 to 23. The batteries were, Park Nine, W. Heffernan and G Riley; Lakeside Nine, Geo. Ducsay and W. Jackson. The game was a close one until the last innings, when the Lakeside team went to pieces. Both nines play good ball, and the field work of "Pat" Butler, the star player of the Lakesides, is worthy of mention. W. Clancy acted in the capacity of umpire.

No Meeting of the Council Held.

The town council did not hold a meeting last night, but will hold a regular meeting on Monday evening next. The councillors held a committee meeting in the town clerk's office, at which a couple of of hours discussion was indulged in relative to the town transferring the same rights and privileges to the new Canadian Electric Company as are now extended to the Edison General Electric Company. Messrs. Hall & Hayes, barristers, were present on behalf of the company. Several propositions were moved by the council, but no ultimate conclusion was reached. After the committee had finished meeting, a deputation from the Peterborough Central Exhibition, consisting of President Elliott, Secretary Collins and Directors Kennedy and Morgan, waited upon the civic legislators in reference to entertaining the Lieut.-Governor of Ontario on his visit to Peterborough to open the fair. Several of the councillors declared themselves favourably impressed with the scheme. No doubt the Lieut.-Governor would attract a large concourse of people to Peterborough, and it was but fitting that he should have a hearty reception. The visiting governor will probably remain a day. He will be met at the station here by delegations from the town and county councils and the Agricultural Society, the band and probably the 57th Battalion as a guard of honour. Mrs. Kirkpatrick and one or two of his staff will accompany the Lieut.-Governor. At noon he will be entertained at luncheon. In the afternoon at the formal opening of the Exhibition it is proposed to present him with addresses of welcome from the councils of both the town and county and the Agricultural Association. Moved by Mr. Bradburn, seconded by Mr. Dawson, that the Finance Committee, consisting of Messrs. Donaldson, Cahill, Meldrum, Kelly, Bradburn, Young and Malhern, be a committee to meet and co-operate with the committee appointed by the Fair directors in the matter of entertaining the Lieutenant-Governor. —Carried. The would-be council proceedings closed at 10 30 o'clock.

Judgment Given To-Day.

County Magistrate Ellmison this morning rendered judgment in the Ashburnham house breaking case. For the crime of forcible entry into the brick house on Sophia street. His Worship fined Geo. Calder $25 or 50 days in gaol. Mrs. Calder, found guilty on the same charge, was fined $20 or 40 days in gaol. On the charge of attempting to do Constable A. Moore bodily harm she pleaded guilty and the magistrate levied a fine of $5 or ten days in gaol, the sentences to run consecutively. The prisoners will probably serve out their sentence behind prison walls, but the magistrate ordered their release if the fines were paid at any time previous to the expiry of their sentences.

Bound to Live, Anyway.

Last evening a resident of the northern part of the town turned his horse out to graze near the G.T.R. bridge on the Missing Link, Murray street. During the night the animal not content with his quarters, attempted to cross the elevated bridge and went down between the ties where it remained for some hours with its body resting on the ties and its legs projecting beneath. It was found in this position at an early hour this morning by an early riser, who, after seeing the animal's difficulty, stopped a freight train which was fast approaching about 5 30 o'clock. He then aroused several of the neighbours and by their assistance and that of the firemen and engineer of the freight train, the animal was raised up and made to stand on all fours. No sooner was this accomplished than the fractious equine in its effort to stand, backed off the bridge and fell a distance of ten feet to the ground, but beyond a few scratches sustained in the fall, the beast was not hurt. The same horse, which belongs to John Weirsteinhoim, fell down a well last year and was extricated after a good deal of exertion. The species of horse flesh must assuredly belong to the feline tribe, which has nine lives.

Dont Lose the Baby.

Every mother knows how critical a time the second summer is, and how many little ones die during that period from Summer Complaint, Dysentry, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus; and how anxiously she watches day by day, lest the dread disease snatch away the loved one! There is no disease that comes so suddenly, or is frequently so quickly fatal, as these Bowel Complaints, and in a large majority of cases doctors and medicines seem to be of no avail. There is, however, one remedy, which in forty of trial has never been known to fail when taken according to the printed directions, and this is PERRY DAVIS PAIN KILLER. It is so safe and sure that no mother is justified in being without it. A bottle in the house ready for sudden sickness will often save a life. You can get the new Big Bottle for 25c.

A Great Electrical Storm.

Lightning, Thunder, Rain and Wind—Disturbances of Electric Wires—Telephone Instruments Disorganized — Trees Blown Down—Farm Buildings Struck by Lightning and Burned.

Last night one of the most magnificently beautiful electric storms that ever passed over the town came upon us about half past eight. The supply of electrical energy accumulated by several days' intensely hot weather was let loose upon us in one grand flood. Like the other great storm, that of last night swept down on the wings of a strong gale from the north-west. The rain came in driving torrents, and the cloud-arched concave of heaven was for a time a perpetual blaze of electric light. The flashes of lightning came in succession, too rapid almost for the eye to distinguish, the immense sheets of lightning interlacing and crossing like luminous shuttles, while, to give variety, ever and anon dazzling lines of sinuous lightning, like fiery serpents, flashed downward, and earsplitting peals of thunder punctuated the perpetual roll of heaven's artillery that reverberated like half-a-dozen Waterloos. It was impossible to conceive a grander display of celestial fireworks than the exhibition of last night.

THE EFFECTS OF THE STORM.

The effects of the storm were various. The electrical disturbance had a decided effect upon the telegraph and telephone and electric light appliances. The lightning disarranged the armature of the incandescent dynamo at the electric light station. The consequences were that shops and dwellings dependent upon it for light were left in darkness, except for the weird and livid glare of the electric storm. With the dreadful scene there were mixed more or less ludicrous happenings. Persons under the hands of barbers in whatever stage of operation were left as the sudden darkness left them. Here a man with his head half shorn of its locks there a man besmeared with lather or half his face clear and the other half bearing a week's stubbly growth. These had to sit in comical inactivity, a prey to the natural awe of the warring elements and of disquet at the half completed tonsorial contrast. They either had to go home unshaved and unshorn or wait till twelve o'clock when the light was restored. The dynamos being supplied with duplicate parts the injured machine was in good working order by midnight.

THE TELEGRAPH AND TELEPHONE LINES.

The Great Northwestern telegraph company suffered no damage to speak of, except the burning out of a lightning arrester in the top of the pole in front of the office. This morning the wires and instruments were in good working order. The Canadian Pacific Telegraph Company also escaped scot free, with the exception of the direct line to Norwood, which was struck dumb. The Bell Telephone Company's instruments also suffered. About 40 instruments were put out of commission, but the damages were repaired shortly after midday. The trunk lines, however, suffered greatly, there being up to two o'clock no connection by any of the trunk lines except Lindsay. The Ontario Telephone Company had 109 instruments put hors du combat and the trunk line to Bridgenorth refused to work, but at one o'clock the damage was repaired. The telegraphic service of both the Grand Trunk and C.P.R. escaped injury.

OTHER FORMS OF DAMAGE DONE.

The high wind, which was noted above, did considerable damage by the breaking of trees and the twisting off of large limbs. All over the town there are to be seen thrifty growing trees broken badly. The stronger the growth the greater seemed to be the danger of breaking. Some large willows were split down and large limbs were torn from other trees. Along the avenues the boulevards and walks are strewn with broken twigs and dead branches snapped off by the gale.

In the vicinity of the town there are no reports of serious damage done by lightning. Down the river about eleven miles the barns of Mr. John Donaldson, in the vicinity of Hale's bridge, were struck by lightning and together with the sheds and outbuildings burned to the ground. Besides the buildings there were burned thirty tons of hay and the large quantity of farm implements, etc., usually found about a well-equipped farmer's buildings. The loss is protected by an insurance of only $500

Mr. W. H. Moore crossed the lake last night on the steamer, but being asleep, did not observe the storm on the lake. In passing through Port Hope he was informed that the lightning struck Mr. Stanley Patterson's office, breaking the glass in the windows and severely stunning Mr. Patterson himself. He was also told that two other houses were struck, but the resulting blaze was put out before any damage was done.

FLASHES FROM THE STORM.

Mr. Joseph Eagan, of Otonabee, had three horses, which were pasturing in a field, killed by being struck with lightning.

Mr. Jos. Redmond, it is said, also lost several cattle in the storm.

Mr. D. Bellegheu had a large plate glass in the west end of his furniture establishment smashed during the gale.

Mr. Walter Stocker had a large bill board near Park street blown over into the creek.

No. 2 fire alarm was put out of order by the storm, but has since been repaired.

Rain fell to the depth of 70/100 of an inch in a very short period.

The Great Northwest Telegraph Co's. office at Port Hope was badly gutted by fire last night. The batteries, lines, etc., were destroyed. The St. Lawrence Hall also took fire but was extinguished by the fire brigade who were kept busy until 12 o'clock extinguishing incipient flames in various parts of the town.

EFFECT AND CAUSE.

Scientists associate the energetic electrical exhibitions, of which last night's was a brilliant example, with the presence of spots on the sun. It is supposed that the electrical conditions produced in the sun by the development of these spots, which are by some, held to be masses in the sun's photosphere of "burnt"-hydrogen, that aqueous vapour, which are of a darker hue and sink below the jets of flaming hydrogen that flash and dart upward for thousands of miles from the sun's surface. It is held that the solar electricity has a sympathetic effect upon terrestrial electricity, and hence we have grand auroral displays and such storms as blazed in the heavens for a grand half hour last night.

Concerted Physical Culture.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I have long cherished a hope that I should some time see all the youth of our town physically trained. I am now disposed to think that an opportune time has arrived when I can commence the work, and if encouraged in the scheme, it will be the height of my ambition, more especially when I see 500 boys uniformed, equipped, thoroughly drilled and disciplined.

I am aware from my long and practical experience as a teacher of physical culture, the amount of good the boys would derive from the training I should give them. Parents would see a marked change in their boys; the course of drills, etc., they would be subjected to, would give them dignity, manliness, courtesy, obedience, manners and all that goes to make the gentleman—it will give them a spirit of loyalty, they will be the best of citizens, and fitted for business.

I would not presume to say the boys have not been taught these things, but I feel certain that the instruction they will get will be the means of perfecting them into the manhood I have mentioned.

I am pleased to state that several parents and some of the leading military spirits of the town, have given me their hearty approval and support.

Every boy, say from 11 years, will be eligible for membership, and when the corps is complete it will be divided into companies, according to its strength, and each company will have its captain, lieutenants, sergeants and buglers. There will also be rules and regulations to be observed, and I trust that after the corps has been formed and fairly drilled to add to it a fife and drum band.

Any boy who wishes to become a member will please hand his name at me, 489 Aylmer street, as soon as possible, and the first meeting will take place on Aug. 4th, at 3 p.m., Central School grounds, and if the weather is too warm I will address the boys on points of interest.

In conclusion I would urge parents and guardians to consider this matter seriously and send me their boys, that they may receive this physical education.

"Life is a folded flower and what it holds
We know not, till' unwinding leaf by leaf,
It shows God's secrets hidden in its folds
And bares its fragrant heart to visions brief."

Thanking you Mr. Editor, I remain.

Yours etc.,
E. G. RUNDLE.

TALKS FOR THE FARMER.

WHITEWASH MAY BE APPLIED ADVANTAGEOUSLY JUST NOW.

How to Make the Article so That it Will Not Rub Off—Things That the Intelligent Dairyman Will not Do—How to Cure Smut in Wheat.

"Whitewashing" is in season at all times on the farm, but especially so during the summer and about the poultry premises in particular.

All the out-houses, coops, fences, and even the trunks of trees can stand a thorough washing twice a year, and the whole premises thereby made to take on a more neat, new and attractive appearance. White makes a beautiful contrast with the green foliage of the trees and surroundings, but is considered by some too glaring and hard on the eye. This can easily be remedied by the addition of a little dry coloring as may suit one's liking.

Poultry houses and coops should be whitewashed inside and out. All the nest boxes and other fixtures should receive a coating. The ordinary lime and water wash has the disadvantage of easily washing off, and also sticking to and marking one's clothes or whatever runs against it. We clip from the American Poultry Yard, three excellent recipes for making whitewash that will not rub off:

1. Slake in boiling water, one-half bushel of lime, keeping it just fairly covered with water during the process. Strain it, to remove the sediment that will fall to the bottom, and add to it a peck of salt dissolved in warm water; three pounds of ground rice boiled in water to a thin paste; one-half pound powdered Spanish whiting, and a pound of clear glue dissolved in warm water. Mix the different ingredients thoroughly and let the mixture stand for several days. When ready to use, apply it hot. If a less quantity is desired, use the same proportions.

2. A good whitewash for use upon outside work may be prepared as follows: Slake in boiling water one-half bushel of lime and strain as before. Add to this two pounds of sulphate of zinc and one pound of salt dissolved in water. If any color but white is desired add about three pounds of the desired coloring matter, such as painters use in preparing their paints. Yellow ochre will make a beautiful cream color, browns, reds, and various shades of green are equally easily obtained.

3. Another excellent wash, lasting almost as well as ordinary paint, may be prepared for outside work as follows: Slake in boiling water one-half bushel of lime. Strain so as to remove all sediment. Add two pounds of sulphate of zinc, one pound common salt, and one-half pound whiting, thoroughly dissolved. Mix to proper consistency with skimmed milk and apply hot. If white is not desired, add enough coloring matter to produce the desired shade. Those who have tried this recipe consider it much superior, both in appearance and durability, to ordinary washes, and some have not hesitated to declare that it compares very favorably with good lead paints. It is much cheaper than paint and and gives the houses and yards to which it is applied a very attractive appearance.

Things We Do Not Do.

1. We do not consider that we know everything about butter-making, as something new is being discovered every month. Not only from our own work are we continually learning, but also from the observation and research of others.

2. We do not keep a cow that makes less than 200 pounds of butter in a year;

3. Nor put the dry cow on a starvation ration;

4. Nor expect a cow to make something out of nothing;

5. Nor keep our cows in an ice-house, hog-pen or dungeon;

6. Nor allow them to go a whole year without carding or brushing them.

7. Nor depend upon pasture alone for a supply of summer feed.

8. We do not allow the milk to stand very long in the stable to absorb foul odors.

9. We do not neglect to strain the milk at once after milking;

10. Nor set the milk in deep cans in well water without changing the water at least twice, or without ice;

11. Nor mix sweet cream with cream to be churned less than twelve hours before churning. (The cream is ripened in one vessel which holds the cream for the whole churning);

12. Nor add scalding water to the cream; nor guess at the temperature with the finger; nor take two or three hours to churn;

13. Nor gather the butter until the "dasher stands on top," and then dip it out of the buttermilk;

14. Nor add coarse salt by guess; nor work the butter into grease.

15. And finally, we do not send our butter to market wrapped in old rags that may have seen other service in the home.—Ontario Agricultural College Bulletin.

TO BLACKMAIL THE FAIR.

Prominent Knights of Labor Accused of an Attempt to Compel the Managers to Yield Up $10,000.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—There was a sensational scene in the Riggs House lobby Friday in which representatives of Knights of Labor and the Confederation of Labor had high words and almost came to blows. The row was all about the $5,000,000 appropriation for the World's Fair. The men representing the Knights of Labor are John W. Hayes, secretary and treasurer, and John Devlin of Detroit and A. W. Wright of Philadelphia, members of the Executive Board.

It was while these men were standing in the lobby of the Riggs talking to Messrs. Felix McCluskey and Charles Thompson of this city that the trouble occurred. John Kuhoe of the Federation of Labor, entering the front door, walked straight up to the group and accused the representative of the Knights of Labor of having attempted to blackmail the World's Fair people out of $10,000. Hot words followed, and but for the interference of outsiders someone would have been hurt. The matter, however, was afterwards adjusted.

The row of to-day is the climax of a story, the first chapter of which began some weeks ago.

Devlin and Hayes called upon General St. Clair and suggested that they could materially aid in the passage of the $5,000,000 appropriation by having petitions circulated and very generally signed in the districts of congressmen who were supposed to be opposed to the bill.

General St. Clair thought well of the scheme and drew up a form of petition and handed it to Devlin, but was taken greatly by surprise when he was told that the World's Fair people were expected to pay the expenses incurred in getting up these petitions, which would amount to $10,000.

General St. Clair told Devlin that the proposition was absurd and that he would not even submit it to the Board of Directors. Then Devlin got angry, and, according to General St. Clair, said that it would not cost any more to get up petitions against the passage of the bill. This meant fight, and General St. Clair from that time until to-day has met it at every turn.

J. C. Davis, Rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, Eufaula, Ala.: "My son has been badly afflicted with a fearful and threatening cough for several months, and after trying several prescriptions from physicians which failed to relieve him, he has been perfectly restored by the use of two bottles of Boschee's German Syrup. I can recommend it without hesitation." Chronic severe, deep-seated coughs like this are as severe tests as a remedy can be subjected to. It is for these long-standing cases that Boschee's German Syrup is made a specialty. Many others afflicted as this lad was, will do well to make a note of this.

Moncton's Missing Mayor.

MONCTON, N.B., July 25.—Sensation is caused here by the mysterious disappearance of John McCunow, mayor of this town. McCunow, who is a general insurance agent, left Moncton Thursday afternoon to visit the scene of a fire 20 miles back of Hampton, King's County, upon which destroyed property he held a risk. It was his intention to have returned Friday at noon and delivered an address at the decoration services in the cemetery.

An outline of the address has been found in his desk. Early Friday morning he was seen at Hampton, but since then all trace of him has been lost, as he did not leave on train. It is feared he is either lost in the woods or that some accident has overcome him in a thickly-settled part of the road. A searching party has gone from here looking for him.

HAMILTON April 20th, 1892.

I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp and they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes. Hearing of Anti Dandruff I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years. When half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Anti-Dandruff has no equal.

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, ONT., January 15, 1892.
W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.
DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.
Yours faithfully,
H. F. ATWELL.

SMUT IN CANADIAN WHEAT.

Our Grain Realized Less in England on This Account.

From all accounts our wheat is coming into poor repute in the old country markets. What with complaints about faulty inspection and smut it would seem that unless some action is speedily taken the export trade in wheat will be even much more seriously handicapped than it is now. President Baird, of the Toronto Board of Trade, made two statements the other day which should open the eyes of every one to the importance of avoiding smut in our wheat. He said English importers of Canadian wheat had this season demanded a rebate of two and three shillings a quarter from Canadian shippers on account of the presence of smut in Ontario wheat, and he added he believed that if our wheat had been free from smut we should have had a good steady export demand up to the present time.

A bulletin of the Agricultural College, Guelph, published a couple of years ago, treats of smut and the remedy. It says, in the course of an interesting description of its habits, when wheat is affected with smut the grains are shorter and more swollen than usual and present a greenish, dark color. Sometimes they are cracked. These affected grains are completely filled with minute round black spores, having an unpleasant smell, and presenting under the microscope a somewhat roughened appearance. The reproductive bodies called sporides or sporules are produced outside the wheat plant, but when they come in contact with the young host they find its way into its tissues, and running up the stem between the cells they finally reach the seed and bear spores in tiny stalks. It has been calculated that one grain may contain 4,000,000 spores enclosed within the thin skin and not exposed as in the common smut of wheat and oats. Investigation indicates that the trouble in plants attacked comes from the ground and travels upwards; that the results of the attack manifest themselves in the head, and especially in the grain; that seed dusty from smut results in much of the wheat being smutty. Passing through the animal does not destroy the germinating power of smut, consequently the spores in manure are in a condition to spread the trouble. As it is readily seen on affected parts and may be picked off, it should be gathered and destroyed by fire or otherwise. It is not sufficient to pick off the smut and throw it upon the ground, as the spores will still continue to form. The remedies suggested are:—(1) Sow clear seed; (2) steep seed five minutes in a solution of copper sulphate (1 lb. to 1 gallon of water), constantly stir so as to wet the grain evenly, then spread on a floor to dry, or add some land plaster or slacked lime and mix until dry. One gallon is about enough for four bushels. Some prefer using a weaker solution and allowing a longer time; e.g., 1 lb. copper sulphate to four gallons of water an steep 24 hours; (3) 1 lb. caustic potash in six gallons of water; let soak a day. Or, take 40 lbs. hardwood ashes in ten gallons of water, let this stand a day, stirring from time to time, and the water poured off will be a solution about the same strength as the preceding. (4) Brine strong enough to float an egg does very well if the seed is kept in it for several hours, with occasional stirring. (5) Immersing the grain in hot water 135° F. for five minutes, or 132° F. for fifteen minutes, destroys smut spores without injury to the grain. A temperature of 5° above or below this fails in its results. By keeping the seed in a sack made of coarse material it may be readily dipped into any of the solutions recommended.

ACROSS THE ATLANTIC.

FRIGHTFUL CRIME OF AN INSANE WOMAN IN IRELAND.

She Murders Her Three Children by Placing Their Heads in Boiling Water—Disastrous Wreck on an English Railway — Many Passengers Believed to Have Been Drowned.

LONDON, July 26.—A serious accident happened to the Nottingham express yesterday. When near Melton Mowbray Station, about 14 miles from Leicester, the train suddenly left the rails and rolled down the embankment, which is quite high at that place, falling a mass of wrecked and broken cars and engine into a brickyard.

The engineer, fireman and a boy who was with the engine were instantly killed, and many of the passengers were injured.

The wreck, fortunately, did not take fire, but it is feared that several persons lost their lives and that their bodies are crushed beneath the wreckage.

NEW FACES AND METHODS.

The "Fine Old English Gentleman" Makes Way for the Ultra Radical.

NEW YORK, July 26.—"A Member of Parliament" cabling from London to the Herald says: The only well-known followers of Parnell who came back are Messrs. Harrington and Redmond. The anti-Parnellites fought them everywhere with the aid of the priests. Behold the result—we shall have 20 new Irish members among the McCarthyites, all appearing for the first time in Parliament.

Of course the Liberal-Unionist seceders from Mr. Gladstone have suffered, but not to the extent the Gladstonians anticipated and hoped. They have come back, 46 strong, objects of the most fatherly interest of Mr. Gladstone. I think I see a couple of doubtful persons in this party, but the rest will stand firm to their colors. With 268 staunch Conservatives they will make up a most formidable army.

The Gladstonians proper only number 274, so that the Unionists have no cause to be ashamed of their muster roll.

There will be many new faces in the House, and the doorkeepers and officials have all their work cut out to "learn" them. Among the Gladstonians there are 104 who never sat in Parliament before, and among the Conservatives 75. Altogether there will be 214 new members out of a total of 670.

Some excellent men have gone, many of them specimens of the "fine old English gentleman," like Sir Rainald Knatchbull. The drift of the times is against them and they cannot stand against the raging tide of democracy. With every House of Commons henceforth the type which stood its ground for so many centuries in Parliament will become more and more rare.

Mr. Gladstone has lost some of his sturdy supporters and their places have been taken by men whom he must profoundly distrust and who look upon him as a played-out relic of the past—as a curiosity of a remote era, fit only to be labelled and put into a museum. They would not like to get up in a public meeting and say so, but that is the feeling of many of them.

The old order is changing. Men who led the Liberal party are no longer in touch with it. Even Mr. Morley is being rapidly left behind. It is the old story—the advanced radical is very soon distanced by some one more advanced. The guillotine which he has so bravely used falls upon his own neck. The new school of radicals will sweep away the old and before many years are over the glory of Burns and company will have been dimmed.

Who of all the men well known to the public came back to the new Parliament much stronger than before? There is but one answer, and that is Chamberlain. Owing to his superior powers of organization or personal influence he has carried every position. He has even enlarged his borders so as to include some of the midland counties. He is in a position to dictate his own terms to either Lord Salisbury or Mr. Gladstone, and in proportion as he has grown Lord Randolph Churchill has shrivelled and declined. He decided to efface himself from this contest and succeeded only too well. No one thinks of him, no one mentions his name. He has allowed his old rival to do all the work and fill the public eye.

Drowned in the St. Lawrence.

GANANOQUE, Ont., July 26.—John Taylor of the firm of Baker, Taylor & Haskett of Montreal was drowned to-day off Cherry Island, in the River St. Lawrence, while bathing.

What Bismarck Said.

BERLIN, July 26.—Prince Bismarck, in his speech at Kissingen on Sunday, after referring to the events of 1866 and 1870, said: "My hearers must excuse the political nature of my speech. After 40 years of political life it is impossible for me to abandon politics. People may try to close my mouth as much as possible, but I shall not be silent. All of my opponents are of the opinion that I would occupy a higher place in history if I kept silent and said not another word, and my resistance to this suggestion has caused the harshest judgment against my person and character. The semi-official press especially forget that when they declared me a dangerous man their aspersions must infallibly react on the office I quitted. They cannot disparage me without the poison they use against me acting upon people and events that contributed to the foundation of the Empire."

"Anarchy, Thy Kingdom Come!"

BRUSSELS, July 26.—Merlenus, the head of the band of dynamiters who, with 15 of his followers, is now on trial at Liege charged with having caused dynamite explosions in that city on May-day and at other times, to-day made an aggressive speech in court, in which he referred to Gambetti, the Fenians and the Belgian revolution of 1830 as leading up to Anarchist development. He concluded his speech by shouting: "Anarchy, thy kingdom come!"

G.T.R. Reducing Expenses.

LONDON, July 26.—At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Grand Trunk Railway of Canada yesterday it was decided that Sir Henry Tyler, president, and Mr. Hubbard, the new director, vice-president of the English Board of the Great Northwestern Railway, should proceed to Canada about the middle of August to examine thoroughly into the working system of the entire line.

The board decided that expenses must be reduced to the lowest reasonable point.

To Dine the Team.

LONDON, July 26.—Sir Donald A. Smith of Montreal will entertain the Canadian Bisley team at dinner to-morrow night at the Hotel Metropole.

The National Challenge Trophy again goes to Scotland this year. The highest score in this contest was 1692; England came next with 1682 and Wales third with 1653 points.

Boiled Her Children Alive.

DUBLIN, July 26.—A terrible tragedy is reported from the Village of Guheeu in Ballygarnon, County Roscommon, Ireland. A woman of the village having become insane seized her three children one after the other and held them head downward in a pot of boiling water until they were dead. She then attempted to commit suicide in the same manner, but was discovered before life was extinct, though not until she was so severely scalded that her recovery is impossible.

The Aeronaut is Lost.

BERNE, July 26.—A fete was given at Besançon yesterday in behalf of the St. Gervais sufferers. In connection with the fete there was to be a balloon ascension. While the preparations for the ascension were being made, one of the ropes broke, and the balloon, with the aeronaut, shot up into the air without ballast or grappling irons. It is feared that the aeronaut has perished.

OFFICE—FURNITURE WAREROOMS.

They Say They Are; But, Are They?

THIS is the time of year when lots of Clothing Stores are offering goods 50 to 60 per cent. below cost, and at much less than goods can be bought at other stores, retailing below wholesale prices, closing out the stock of some defunct or deceased firm, running alleged bargain tables and sacrificing goods below cost, just for fun, are among the many pleasantries to which clothiers treat the reading public.

A few days ago one of those shrewd, bright and flippant buyers entered our store. It was evident that curosity, and not the desire to purchase, had brought him. He looked at Suits and he looked at Overcoats. He criticised and condemned, but finally the salesman showed him a suit that attracted his attention. He objected to the price, whereupon the salesman informed him that we are at present selling goods below cost. Quick as a flash came the response, "You say you are, but are you? Everybody else is spinning the same old yarn." Well, we sold that man the suit. We convinced him that we are actually selling below cost. We showed him the old price in black figures, and the new one in red figures. The difference between the two told the tale. All we ask is to be put to the test. We are confident that we are underselling every one in the clothing trade.

THEY PLOTTED TO KILL.

FRICK'S ASSAILANT KNOWN TO HAVE HAD CONFEDERATES.

Believed to Have been the Agent of a Band of Conspirators—Two More Anarchists Arrested in Pittsburg—The First Clue Obtained Through a Money Package Sent From New York.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 27.—Three of Alexander Bergman's supposed accomplices in his murderous assault on Henry Clay Frick are now under arrest.

As pointed out yesterday the attempt to murder Mr. Frick, was, it is now generally believed, the result of a well planned, deliberately executed scheme of Anarchists to settle a wage war by the realization of their scheme to punish capitalists by death for their differences with labor.

Whether Johann Most will be landed in prison for complicity in the ferocious onslaught on Mr. Frick remains to be seen. At this moment there is much to indicate that he must have known such a crime was being planned.

Anarchy has not made such a desperate attempt to popularize itself since the Haymarket riots in Chicago. Since that time anarchists have become convinced that they can't fight the American Government face to face, army to army. In this last effort to make themselves a power there is every reason to believe that they deliberately doomed one of their number to almost certain destruction in order that he might kill that capitalist now most prominent in the eyes of the American people.

Had the assassin succeeded in destroying Mr. Frick there is very little doubt that the Carnegie Steel Co. would have been beaten in its fight against organized labor. Then the Anarchists would have claimed the credit of having won the fight and thereupon sought to make converts.

The Scheme Fell Through.

But the scheme fell through. Bergman's shots were not fatal. He was arrested. He had not the courage to chew the fulminate cartridge hidden in his mouth and thus shatter himself to a hundred fragments. Now Bergman's fellow-conspirators have begun their march into prison.

Bergman with all his bravado and all his pretence that he alone had planned Frick's killing, did not succeed in hiding his history during the week preceding the attempt at assassination.

Carl Knold, whose arrest was telegraphed yesterday, is the man at whose house Bergman boarded from July 14 until the day before the shooting. He is an Anarchist and is proud of it, but he protests that he knew nothing of Bergman's fiendish plan.

When the name of Mr. Frick's assailant was on everybody's tongue Saturday afternoon one of the employes in the Adams Express Company's offices happened to remember that he had delivered packages of money to Alexander Bergman, in care of Carl Knold, at No. 52 Cherry-street, Allegheny.

Sent From Long Branch.

The money packages had been sent from Long Branch, N. J. After consultation the express company's officials decided that they tell what they knew to Police Superintendent Roger O'Mara of Pittsburg. This was done and promptly a detective was sent to Knold's home and he was arrested.

SENT BERGMAN MONEY.

F. Mollick, a Long Branch Baker, Also Arrested.

LONG BRANCH, July 27.—Capt. James Layton of the Long Branch police, last afternoon arrested F. Mollick, charged with being accessory, before and after the fact to the attempted assassination of H. C. Frick at Pittsburg Saturday.

Mollick came from New York about three weeks ago and went to work in Heidl's bakery.

On Wednesday or Thursday of last week Mollick, as he called himself, went to the Adams express office at Broadway and Third-avenue, and sent a money package said to contain $6, addressed to A. Bergman, Alleghany City. Supt. O'Mara learned this fact at the Adams express office in Alleghany City and telegraphed Capt. Layton as above.

Another Alleged Accomplice.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 27.—H. Bauer, another supposed accomplice of Bergman, was arrested in Alleghany at yesterday. He was locked up pending an investigation. Bauer is the head-centre of the Anarchists here.

WILL GET THE FULL PENALTY.

Frick's Friends Determined to Give the Anarchist a Long Sentence.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 27.—Alexander Bergman, the Anarchist who attempted to assassinate H. C. Frick on Saturday, will not be permitted to escape with the punishment of seven years in prison, provided for a single case of felonious assault.

Six informations were laid against him this evening, charging him with offences under which he can receive sentences aggregating 32 years in the penitentiary.

A wild rumor was in circulation during the day that several friends of Berkman had arrived in Pittsburg from Chicago last night armed with dynamite bombs and cartridges and that an attempt would be made to pass some of the explosives in to the prisoner.

The jail authorities do not take much stock in the story, but will be very careful to allow no one to see him who is not known.

May Employ Pinkertons.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—The O'Neil amendment providing against the employment of Pinkerton detectives by Government officers was not agreed to by the Senate conference in the joint conference on the sundry bill to-day.

Sheriff Tipton was shot in the head and died in a few hours. Tom Howard was instantly killed and George Rayburn fatally injured near Louisville. They were pursuing a horse thief named Hurley who, after the fight, made his escape.

Freight train No. 25 on the Ontario and Western Railroad ran on to a loose track at Rockrift, N.Y., yesterday. Five cars were piled upon the top of the engine and Engineer Crane was instantly killed. A flag was out properly, but the train was not under control.

Edward Parker Deacon, who was sentenced to one year's imprisonment at Grasse for killing Abelle, the alleged lover of his wife, has been officially informed that the petition for his pardon, which had been signed by the jurymen before whom he was tried, had been rejected. It is said when his term of imprisonment expires he will be expelled from France.

NEWS FROM NEAR TOWNS

MURDEROUS ASSAULT ON A GUELPH CHINAMAN.

Still Another Drowning Accident at Niagara Falls—Second Day of the Prohibition Commission—Fires in Several Towns—General Canadian News of Yesterday.

GUELPH, July 27.—Three or four years ago Sam Kee, a Celestial, came to Guelph and opened out a Chinese laundry in Tovell's Block, Upper Wyndham-street. A year ago he sold out to Chong Chung, or Chong Kee, a man about 40, who has since conducted the business. Of late Chong has been acting peculiarly and has been complaining of his head, stating that he was going to die.

Last week he got the assistance of Chi Chung, a young Chinese from Chatham, who arrived on Thursday, and it was understood that Chong Kee was going to sell out his business to the new-comer. He wrote down to a relative of his in Toronto that he was sick and told his landlord that he was going to die that week, tapping his head. The relative came up yesterday and told those around that Kee Chung was crazy.

Chong wanted to go back to Toronto last night with the relative, but the latter would not take him.

At 5.30 yesterday morning the night watchmen at Bell's, who were standing for the moment on the corner of Wyndham-street, saw the young Chinaman rush out of the laundry down street, bleeding profusely and crying out that he had been stabbed. He had the appearance of being badly carved up. As near as they could make out from his broken English and his dazed condition he had been asleep when Chong Kee tied his long queue to the board at the head of his bed and then tried to kill him, to get his money, he said. He received four or five wounds from his assailant before he could get free.

The weapon used was a kind of butcher's cleaver, which they had had for splitting kindling, and the little middle room where Chi Chung's temporary bed was placed shows evidence of a struggle from the bloodstains, the broken down bed and the general disorder.

The young Chinaman had three or four cuts on the head. The worst slash is on the back of the right hand, the tendons of three fingers being out through and the bones also cut. It is a question whether he will regain the use of his hand. Word has been sent to his brother, Li Chung, in Ingersoll.

Chong Kee had disappeared and a search was made for him by the chief. In the yard of the Bank of Montreal adjoining he passed in rear of the privy vault and was just about to leave, when he noticed a board over the receiving vault at the rear and, looking more closely, saw the Chinaman under it crouched in the filth. After being partly cleansed he was placed in the cells. He has a red mark on his neck, as if he, or someone else, had attempted to cut his throat, and he says Chi tried to kill him.

Chong Kee has instructed his solicitor to write to Wing Tai, Toronto, to come to his help.

The Prohibition Commission.

HALIFAX, N.S., July 27.—The Royal Prohibition Commission heard the testimony of License Inspector MacKasey, Mayor Keefe and City Stipendiary Motton this morning. The most interesting was by that of the latter, who during his examination said there was a great deal of difficulty in enforcing the law here. It was a complicated act and needed simplifying. Drunkenness was increasing.

Charles H. Longard, J. B. Ryan, C. B. McDougall, inspector of wines and liquors and director in McDougall's Brewing Company, and Gordon, foreman of the McDougall Distillery Company, testified. McDougall said his company imported 100 cars of grain last year; their corn comes principally from Chicago; output goes to St. John, Quebec, Montreal and Halifax; he did not think prohibition law advisable. it would take away 50 cent. of business of Halifax, which would go to Montreal; he said there was a good deal of smuggling going on; witness considered the sale of pork and liquor on an equal footing.

The commission leave Thursday morning for Sydney, N.S., where they sit Friday and on Saturday return to Truro; hold session there Tuesday; from thence to Yarmouth, St. John, and three other places in New Brunswick and across to Prince Edward Island, finishing their visit to the Maritime Provinces.

A Wild Pigeon Story.

MONTREAL, July 27.—A couple of wild pigeons, a French-Canadian sportsman says, were recently shot in Sault aux Recollets bush. He says it is over 25 years since specimens of these birds were seen there. Many years ago the birds were exceedingly numerous, so numerous, in fact, that the clergy offered prayers for their destruction or removal, since when, this faithful habitant asserts, the birds have almost disappeared.

Poisoned by Rancid Beans.

HAVERHILL, Mass., July 27.—Spoiled butter beans, in which the essential oil ptopaines had developed, were served at dinner at the Cable house yesterday. Ptopaines is an acute poison, and Mrs. Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Seaborn, Daniel McCarthy, Levey Smith and Mrs. George Wilson died, and six others are very ill from its effects.

Smuggling Eggs From Canada.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Special Agent Ames has reported to the Treasury Department that G. H. Bush was arrested at Plattsburg, N.Y., on a charge of smuggling eggs into the United States from Canada. This is said to be an extensive practice.

Dawson the Victor.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—George Dawson of Australia and Danny Needham, formerly of St. Paul, fought at the California A.C. last night for a $2000 purse. Dawson won in the 29th round. Seventeen thousand persons witnessed the fight.

A Great Railroad Man Dead.

BOSTON, July 27.—Thomas Nickerson, one of the greatest railway builders of the age, died last evening at his home in Newton at the age of 82 years.

Mr. Nickerson was the moving spirit in building the Mexican Central road.

A CANADIAN ROBBER

Arrested In Germany, Where He Was Living Like a Prince.

NEW YORK, July 27.—Henry F. Hardy, one of the most desperate and reckless bank robbers and jail breakers that this country has ever produced, is in the custody of the police of Frankfort-on-the-Main, Germany. When arrested he was living on the proceeds of robberies in Berlin and Baden-Baden, in handsome style, as Edward Carson, a wealthy American mine owner.

He had apartments at one of the fashionable hotels in Frankfort, and was associating with several well-known Americans and their families and with two English noblemen. His clothing was of the finest quality and he wore expensive jewelry. His lavish expenditure of money had won him the title of "The American Millionaire."

While seated in the reception room of his hotel last Friday conversing with a Mr. Greene of New York, the German police entered and placed him under arrest. He protested vigorously and Mr. Greene was positive that an absurd mistake had been made. But a Baden-Baden banker recognized in Hardy a tall, slender, dark young man who had dashed into his bank, seized a package containing $24,000 and escaped.

Hardy was taken to jail and the German police cabled a description of the prisoner to Chief Inspector Steers. The message was received at Police Headquarters yesterday morning.

Chief Inspector Steers at once recognized "Carson" as Hardy, for whom the police of many large cities in the United States and Canada have been searching since December last.

Hardy, on September 10, 1888, robbed the First National Bank of $2750 and the Commercial National Bank of $8460 by snatching the money from the tellers. He was arrested but escaped from the court room while the trial was in progress. He was recaptured and next day sentenced to 18 years' imprisonment. He was taken to Sing Sing and then transferred to Dannemora Prison. Two weeks latter a gang of painters was put to work in the yards. Hardy donned a pair of overalls and joined the painters. Half an hour later he walked out of the yard and disappeared. He was captured in Plattsburg after a desperate struggle, during which a policeman shot him in the leg.

He was sent to the Clinton Prison Hospital and on the night on his arrival there he made a rope of his bedding and escaped in his night clothes. He went to Montreal and a few days later he robbed in his old reckless way the Bank of Quebec of $3000 and the Bank of Montreal of $7000. He next turned up in Philadelphia where he was again arrested, and taken to Dannemora Prison, from which he again escaped in two months.

Hardy has 37 years' imprisonment to serve in this country, and when the Germans get through with him he will be brought back here, if in the meantime he does not escape.

A Pointer for Barley-Raising Farmers.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—We are in receipt of a letter from a large firm of English maltsters which, in our opinion, will be invaluable to the farmers in your vicinity, and would ask you to kindly insert same in your valuable paper. The gist of the letter is as follows:

"One of our great objections with your Canadian two-rowed barley is occasioned by your farmers being entirely too anxious to secure an extra bright article, and in order to obtain this they harvest it whilst too green, the consequence is that the grain is flinty and will not produce the yield to the brewer which it would if allowed to ripen properly. We would much prefer a little colour and have the grain mellow and full of starch than obtain a flinty white berry; also it is most important that the grain should be allowed to "sweat well" in the stook, and you must give your farmers positive instructions as to the threshing of the grain; heretofore there have been so many broken grains in your barleys (which will not sprout when on the floor, and are perfectly ruinous to the malting of the grain) that all the other good qualities have been neutralized and only a second or third class article produced. Now this state of things could be easily averted by your threshers opening their machines and threshing more slowly, and you can see the advantage of this when we tell you that it will enhance the value of the grain at least 5 to 10 cents per bushel, and lastly you must be most careful that there is no admixture of six rowed barley, as this is very damaging indeed to the trade."

If our farmers will zealously carry out the above instructions we can guarantee them a handsome figure for all the barley they can grow, and we earnestly hope that they will look after their interests carefully in this matter, and make it profitable, both for themselves and the dealers.

By inserting the above you will oblige.

Yours very truly,
J. B. MCKAY & CO.,
Toronto.

Britain's Big Trade Figures.

The total trade of the United Kingdom with her own possessions and with foreign countries last year, according to a report just published, was £744,554,982. This is less than the trade of the previous year, but larger than that of any of the three preceding years, and more than £101,000,000 great, er than the trade of 1887. The imports were £435 441,264, nearly £16,000,000 more than those of the previous year, and £73,000,000 more than the imports of 1887. The falling off was in exports, which were £309,113 718, as against £315 592 679 in 1889 and £328,-252,118 in 1890 The exports of goods of British production and manufacture were valued at £247,235,187, against £263,530,-535. The proportion between trade with the colonies and trade with foreign countries is not materially altered. The imports from foreign countries are £335 645,256, and from British possessions £99,223,939. The exports to foreign countries are £215 256,192, and to British possessions £92 752,083. The total foreign trade is £550,900 000, and the total colonial trade £191,000,000.

THUNDER IT DOWN THE AGES!

GOUGH BROS. HOLD THEIR ANNUAL MID-SUMMER SALE IN PETERBOROUGH.

It is customary with us, after the 15th of July, to organize in our different stores a big sale of our entire stock. This we do—first, because we believe it does not pay to carry goods over until another season, and secondly, in order to make room for our big fall purchases of which require every inch of room we can command, therefore, during the month of July the following extraordinary inducements will be offered:—

OVERCOATS and WINTER CLOTHING

IN OUR MEN'S CLOTHING DEPARTMENT

we will take 20 per cent. off our regular prices.

IN OUR CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

we will take 15 per cent. off, and in our

HAT AND CAP DEPARTMENT

we will take 20 per cent. off.

Remember, all our goods are marked in plain figures, and it is a well-established fact that our prices are the lowest, consequently when we advertise a

GRAND REDUCTION SALE

it means a reduction, for the goods are sold at the regular prices and the discount taken off after the sale is made.

We have just closed a remarkably successful season, our sales going away beyond our most sanguine expectations. Thanks to you, good people of Peterborough town and county; and although we are certain we have given general satisfaction, we are not egotistical enough to believe we have pleased everybody. When our Saviour was on earth he did not please everybody. Can we expect to? Nor do we claim to be infallible. We are liable to err in our judgment as well as others, but we do claim to do our business in an honourable way, because we believe it pays; and for this reason if there are any of our patrons who have cause for complaint, let him come to us and we will make it right now, either by refunding the money or replacing the goods.

THIS FALL WE WILL ASTOUND ASTONISHMENT IN OUR

OVERCOAT DEPARTMENT.

Not only in our prices but by showing twenty times more goods and ten times nicer goods than were ever seen before in Peterborough. But more about this hereafter. What we want now is to make room for this great stock for fall, and if low prices will do it, you will get them now, for we are bound to clear out the balance of our Spring and Summer Goods regardless of cost. Don't miss this great opportunity; it will pay you to buy now for next year, and other merchants would do well to take advantage of this great sale, also, for we will sell them cheaper than any man in Canada can make them for.

DESTRUCTIVE BLAZE.—During the fierce thunder storm here on Monday night about 11.30 the lightning struck the out buildings of Mr. John Donaldson. The buildings burned with inconceivable rapidity, and within 20 minutes after the buildings were struck they were a pile of embers. Mr. Donaldson who was informed by Mrs. Donaldson of the fire, had retired and was about going to bed. He hastily dressed and rushed to the barn. He opened the doors to draw out a wagon but was nearly repelled by the suffocating gas that filled the interior of the building. By great effort there were saved a team of horses, three buggies, and the wagon, fanning mill and three sets of harness. The barn was a large one, and was unusually well equipped. There were burned, a gang plough, other ploughs, a seeder, a new fanning mill, a sawing machine, three sets of sleighs, a cutter, hay fork with attachments, and a host of smaller implements, forks, rakes, etc., such as accumulate about a farm barn. There were also burned 36 loads of hay, 50 bushels of wheat, some 30 bushels of oats, besides turkeys, hens, etc. The buildings consisted of a barn 30x115 feet, and stables and driving sheds 30x60 feet. The loss is altogether between $2000 and $2500, and the insurance is $800, in the Grange Mutual. Mr. Donaldson has the sympathy of the entire neighborhood in his great loss, which is all the more inconvenient at harvest time when lack facilities for storing a large crop will be severely felt.

A Dangerous Period for Baby!

Mothers Take Warning!

We cannot too strongly impress upon mothers the fact that teething time is a dangerous one for baby. The summer time, with its prostrating and weakening weather, is always the most critical time; and great care must be exercised in order that baby's life be saved.

The teething period is, at the present season, attended with considerable constitutional disturbance. In some cases the derangements are truly alarming. Diarrhœa, dysentery and convulsions are to be dreaded, and every possible effort should be made to avoid these often fatal troubles.

During the process of teething, the child's safety depends upon proper and sensible feeding. Improper foods cause intestinal irritation, and often result in cholera infantum and dysentery, and in many instances cause stubborn constipation. These improper foods cause fever; the infant becomes very restless; it is then that convulsions are to be feared. Common prepared artificial foods and a poor quality of cow's milk are conducive to these dangers.

To destroy a predisposition to convulsions, fevers and irritation of the intestinal parts at this particular season, pure and health-giving Lactated Food should be fed to the child if the supply of mother's milk is not sufficient, pure and strengthening.

Experience has proved that Lactated Food is the safest and best diet for infants who are teething in the hot weather. Lactated Food has been the saving agent of thousands of little lives during the dentition period, and hundreds of thankful mothers have testified to this fact.

Lactated Food being a predigested food, and its constituents coming so near nature's food, renders it an invaluable article of diet for every baby that is teething during the oppressively hot weather.

Try Lactated Food, mothers, during the teething time; you will certainly be delighted with the results.

All For a Boy.

In the autumn of 1889 Mary Ford, the indigent wife of a London labourer, virtually sold Harry Gosnage, her child of a former husband, then eight years of age, to an organ grinder, who afterwards deserted him on the streets of Folkestone. A local clergyman sent him to Dr. Barnardo's Home, and the boy was some time later sent to Quebec. Shortly after the priest in the locality where Mrs. Ford lives persuaded her to take steps to have the boy removed from Dr. Barnardo's care, and an application was made for the boy, to which the doctor replied that he could not find the boy. A writ of habeas corpus was then applied for and granted, the case was appealed and carried from court to court to court, until yesterday the Privy Council confirmed the writ and ordered Dr. Barnardo to produce the child within three months.

Manvers.

During the great storm of Monday evening a barn belonging to Mr. James McComb, glover, town, of the size of 30x50, was blown down in this township.

Back Ache.

Back ache is caused by sick kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills will remove it. By their peculiar action on the kidneys they impart activity and benefit the system by purifying the blood. You cannot have pure blood with disordered kidneys; health's existence depends upon their natural condition. They are the governors of the system, constant disorder results in kidney consumption, which is Bright's disease. dw

Hebrew View of the Y.P.S.C.E.

The Christian Endeavour Convention has received high praise from a somewhat unexpected quarter. The American Hebrew says that New York has witnessed an assemblage that has stirred it to its very depths in wonderment and admiration. "All have marvelled at that wondrous gathering of 30,000 young men and women with their Christian Endeavour badges. The surprise was occasioned by the previous thought that young America was either averse or indifferent to religious influences, or, at all events, was not willing to make any public profession of its adhesion to the truths and principles of religious organizations. The idea was certainly dissipated with a thoroughness and emphasis that is seldom vouchsafed for the destruction of a widely disseminated fallacy. That convention has done much to give the lie to the free'n'ed hosts of agnosticism, that the young intelligence and culture of America had turned their backs upon the teachings of positive religion."

Gibson means business, and he is determined that no expense will be spared to make this charming hotel one of the best summer resorts on the Midland waters. Mr. Wm. Bowman, well known in Peterborough, assists in the management of the house, and employs his experienced hand in the various details of the house with tact and ability. Chemong "Has the Call" for Pienics.

The large Baptist church picnic which went up to Chemong this morning is the fourteenth or fifteenth excursion that has visited that favourite pic-nic resort this season. And there are still more to come—one on August 5th and one on Civic Holiday with several yet to come—enough to swell the total to a score. Easy to get at, delightful when one gets there, and hard to leave are causes for the popularity of Chemong.

Arrested in Peterborough.

Chief of Police Ranell last evening received a telegram from Mr. Wm. E. Keeler, sheriff of Cayuga county, New York, to arrest one George Clark, of Auburn, charged with forgery and grand larceny. In less than half an hour after the telegram was received, the chief spotted his man standing in front of a town hotel and had him behind prison bars. He immediately wired the Auburn authorities and received word that an officer would be sent to-day with warrants to take charge of the prisoner.

Death of Rev. Alex. Bell.

Rev. Alex. Bell, Presbyterian minister, formerly pastor of St. Andrew's church, town, died at his residence, Euclid avenue, Toronto, on Tuesday, July 26th. Rev. Mr. Bell was pastor of St. Andrew's for about fifteen years, succeeding Rev. D. J. Macdonnell, now pastor of old St. Andrew's, Toronto. Rev. Mr. Bell had marked ability as a preacher, and his many friends in Peterborough, while regretting his death, will cordially extend their sympathy to the bereaved wife and orphaned family. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon.

Another Big Day for Our Citizens.

Large posters announcing the visit of Emerald Beneficial Association of Toronto, to town are out. The date is on Saturday, August 6th, the 118th O'Connell anniversary. Some hundreds are expected from the Queen City. The list of sports, games and attractions on the St. Joseph Hospital grounds for which $150 in prizes is offered, will be the marvel of the day. There will be a lacrosse match between the Senior Torontos and Peterborough Cubs, a great baseball match, tugs of war, sports, &c., on the grounds. A fine string band will provide music for dancing. Mr. T. Doyle is chairman of the committee, J. B. Hennessey secretary, and M. C. O'Neil treasurer, which is enough to insure its success.

He Was Well Pleased.

Mr. Wilson, of Toronto, now travelling for a large firm dealing in pressed bricks, but a former trainer of the teams in the Toronto fire department, was in town yesterday. He dropped around to the fire hall and requested to see the workings of our fire station. Accordingly Mr. John Murphy showed him around the premises and trotted the horses out for him. Mr. Wilson expressed himself as highly pleased with the department, which is one of the best equipped and most efficient fire services he had ever seen in the smaller cities and towns. He commended the trainer of the horses upon the first-class manner in which they were trained to do their duty. They were equally as well trained as the best teams of the Toronto department.

A Family Affair.

The family race of Peterborough has a duty to perform. That is, he has to give his family an outing on civic holiday. This fact may appear to some people very easily settled, but with the family man it is a question that requires a great deal of deep thought, as he has to look to the comfort of himself and family. There are a great many ways in which he could give his family an outing, but none will meet with so much favor as a trip with the Sons of England (Lansdowne Lodge). For a family excursion this one will have no equal. They have a programme of sports that will amuse both young and old. Everything tending to the welfare and comfort of the excursionists will be looked after. Come to Sturgeon Point on civic holiday, Aug. 15, and you will never regret it. Fare for round trip 50c., children under twelve half fare.

Wednesday's Market Means.

The market this morning, owing to the busy season of harvest time with the farmers was not large. Grain is moving slowly. One load of oats sold at 30c. Very little spring wheat was offered, selling at 76c. straight, fall 78 to 80c., peas brought 59 to 63 and 64c. Several loads of fine green hay fresh and sweet smelling from the meadows was offered, selling at $7 and $8. Other miscellaneous staple necessities of life sold as follows:—New potatoes 15c. per peck, huckleberries 10c. to 12c. per quart, raspberries $1 per pail or 10c. per quart, green beans 10c. per peck, peas 8c. per quart, celery $1 per dozen, carrots 5c. per bunch, cucumbers 10c. per dozen, onions 5c. per bunch, eggs 9 and 10c. per dozen, butter 17 and 18c. per lb. little offered. Very few meats were offered. No auctioneers sales to blend harmoniously with our busy lively market.

—Messrs. Shaughnessy & Kennedy, the enterprising shippers of fat stock, are still actively engaged, and are making Peterborough quite a shipping port. Yesterday they shipped a carload of fat hogs and sheep to Montreal and also a carload of first-class steers. On Saturday they will ship another carload of cattle to Montreal.

A Social Social.

Man is a social animal—decidedly gregarious in his habits, especially when there is a woman in the case. Therefore the sociable social to be given under Y.P.S.C.E. auspices and under canvas on the grounds of the Charlotte street Methodist church on Thursday will be an irresistible attraction. Everybody will welcome everybody, and the presiding officer will be universal sociability. A fine programme, first-class refreshments, the phonograph and a silver collection comprise a few of the attractions—be thou attracted and come. d

Worst Case of Scrofula the Doctors Ever Saw

Completely Cured by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

"When I was 4 or 5 years old I had a scrofulous sore on the middle finger of my left hand, which got so bad that the doctors cut the finger off, and later took off more than half my hand. Then the sore broke out on my arm, came out on my neck and face on both sides, nearly destroying the sight of one eye, also on my right arm. Doctors said it was the they ever saw. It was simply awful! Five years ago I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Gradually I found that the sores were beginning to heal. I kept on till I had taken ten bottles, ten dollars! Just think of what a return I got for that investment! A thousand per cent? Yes, many thousand. For the past 4 years I have had no sores. I Atones for His Offences.

Walter Soanes, of Lindsay, Gets a Year in the Central for Larceny—A Bad Young Man.

The enlarged case of Walter Thomas John Soanes, of Lindsay, came up at the police court this morning, Police Magistrate Dumble on the bench. The young man pleaded guilty to both offences with which he was charged, viz., that of stealing a silver watch from William Rogers at the Croft House on Wednesday last, and also of purloining a bold ring belonging to Miss Jemima Sanders, an employee of the same house. The Magistrate in sentencing addressed a few words to the prisoner, admonishing him on the seriousness of his offence and that he, a young man, should earn his living and not try to exist by stealing. The crime was one which could not be overlooked. His Worship then pronounced a sentence of one year's confinement in the Central Prison for stealing the watch and for the second offence, the larceny of the ring he rendered the same decision, the sentences to run concurrently. Soanes, although a young man, has already a black criminal record, being wanted in Lindsay and other places on the charge of larceny. The young man took his sentence coolly manifesting no very great anxiety or trouble over his doom.

'Tis Hard to Say Good Bye.

Mr. R. J. Colville's Associates in Christian Work Tender Him a Farewell Last Night.

The members of the Young Men's Christian Association, the Ladies' Auxiliary of the association, the Young Women's Christian Association and the ladies of the Nicholls Hospital, and Protestant Home assembled in the Y.M.C.A. rooms last evening to bid Mr. R. J. Colville, late secretary of the Y.M.C.A. here, farewell, before he leaves to assume his new duties in Toronto on Monday next. The farewell was an informal affair and partook of a social nature. A short interesting programme was first carried out, in which Misses Code and Eden Jewett rendered very acceptably instrumental solos, Miss Sophie Cameron sang in a sweet voice, and a trio by Messrs. A Hamilton, Grey and Steers was pleasingly given.

Mr. G. J. Early, President of the Y.M.C.A., then took the chair, and after devotional exercises delivered a feeling address, expressing sorrow at the removal of Mr. Colville from their midst, but praying that he might by the hand of Him who had called him to the new field of labor, work every success and make every effort to carry on the good work in Toronto. He then called upon Messrs. G. M. Rogers, J.W. Bennett and Albert Hamilton, who each delivered suitable remarks, expressing the great personal benefits they had derived from Mr. Colville's dwelling in their midst, and wishing him success in the new sphere of operation to which he had been called.

Mrs. Fairbairn, on behalf of the Ladies' Auxiliary Society, and Miss Code, on behalf of the Y.W.C.A., spoke earnestly in Mr. Colville's efforts to help in every Christian work and to lend a hand in every good cause.

Mr. Colville in rising to reply to the many affectionate marks of love and esteem toward him, was quite overcome with emotion. He prayed that God's richest blessing might rest upon them all. He had endeavoured to do his duty here as best he knew how and he was grateful that his feeble efforts had been appreciated. He begged to thank the members of the Ladies Auxiliary in connection with the association, he believed it was one of the greatest factors in the success of the association here and its work. The Young Women's Christian Association since its organization had also rendered every assistance. He thanked Misses Eden Jewett and Sophia Cameron for the help they had given the association in rendering their services whenever required. The speaker, after asking the prayers of all Christian people for his success in the work in Toronto, resumed his seat

"God be with you till we meet again" was feelingly sung, and after the benediction pronounced by Mr. A. J Johnston, refreshments consisting of ice cream, lemonade and cake were served, and with an epicurean relish partaken of. The handsome upright piano was kindly loaned for the occasion by Messrs. Jackson & Co., Aylmer street.

BONES. HORNS, ENTRAILS—EVERYTHING GOES

To Swell the Profits of the Stock Yard Packers—How Cattle Are Slaughtered For Market—Thorough Economy and Ingenuity Characterize the Business.

Some railway tracks are crossed, and the sight-seer stands in the thick of a cluster of packing-houses. From out of a doorway under a phenomenally long porch come huge sides of red and white beef, shot out as if from a multiple cannon. These great weights of meat hang from pulleys that run upon a track overhead, and they swing along one after another as boards are turned out of a saw-mill, and with force enough to toss the men who are paid to guide them as if the men where jackstraws. These junks of meat were moving in the pens a short while before; now they are being loaded into refrigerator cars. In this building the cattle are being turned into butcher's meat. I saw two fat and comfortable steers coming out of an alley, and was told that they were trained to lead the other cattle to the foot of an inclined and enclosed gangway, there to turn and leave them, while the other brutes went on and up the walk to the slaughter-pens. That is earning their living—and an honest one—with a vengeance!

I saw that the beeves were driven into pens, and that men ran along or stood over them on planks laid across the tops of the pens. I saw that they jabbed and prodded the poor beasts into the right position for their purpose, and then that they felled them with crushing blows from hammers upon their skulls. Then the doors of the pens were thrown open, chains were fastened about the hind legs of the unconscious beasts, and they were swung up so that they hung upon a trolley running on a single overhead rail. Silently and methodically the slaughterers walked along and gashed their throats, and the mysterious red essence of life was flung with drenching volume on the slippery floor. Rapidly, far more rapidly than the reader would believe unless he had seen it done, the carcasses are sent back to the next and the next and the next set of operatives to have their hides taken off—so skillfully that they fetch more than any other hides discarded by any other butchers in the world—to have their entrails removed, to have their heads and hoofs taken off, to be split and washed, and to be sent swing along to the cooling rooms. Silence, skill, expedition, these were the characteristics of all the labor in that murderous place.

Everything—without particularizing too closely—every single thing that appertains to a slaughtered beef is sold and put to use. The horns become the horn of commerce; the straight lengths of leg bone go to the cutlery-makers and others; the guts become sausage castings; their contents make fertilizing material; the livers, hearts, tongues, and tails, and the stomachs, that become tripe, all are sold over the butchers' counters of the nation; the knuckle bones are ground up into bone flour for various uses; the blood is dried and sold as a powder for commercial uses; the bladders are dried and sold to druggists, tobacconists, and others; the fat goes into oleomargarine, and from the hoofs and feet and other parts come glue and oil and fertilizing ingredients. Over the slaughter-house I found a series of rooms heaped full of bones and horns. The bones had been boiled to get the fat of the marrow as well as to clean them. Then they had been dried and shaken about until they were as smooth and clean as cotton spools. The knuckle joints had been cut off them, and one room was filled with the ground-up flour of those parts. The white and pretty bones that remained were to be shipped to Connecticut, England, and Germany, to be worked into knife-handles, fan-handles, tooth-brush handles, backs for nail-brushes, sides for pen-knives, and into button-hook handles, shirt-studs, cuff buttons, and so on, ad infinitum. What was to become of the horns was still more astonishing. By heating them and then tapping them skilfully, the operatives had loosened the soft cellular filling which solidifies and strengthens each horn. The substance around this, between it and the inner surface of the horn, goes for glue; the rest is ground up into bone-meal. The horns were then to be sent to the makers of horn goods, who, by cutting each horn skilfully and then pressing it between heavy rollers, manage to spread each one out into a flat ribbon. In this shape it can be used in a thousand ways. The artificers who do this work cut each horn spirally, so that it becomes a tight curl capable of being straightened out. By immense pressure the curve is taken out of it. Good horns sell at $125 a ton. It is by such thorough economy and ingenuity—by losing nothing and wasting nothing—that the great firms in this business have monopolized their field. A small butcher in the east cannot kill his meat and market it in competition with the stock-yard packers, because he must waste what they save and sell.

I made a tour of the refrigerating or cooling rooms. They are kept at a temperature of 30°, I believe. Yet when the meat fresh from the slaughter is railroaded into such a room, the animal heat in it warms the room for a considerable time, and fills it with steam as with a fog. Once it is cooled, the the sides of beef are firm and hard and almost appetizing. Everywhere, except at the actual scene of slaughter, these houses and the work in them are clean, and above criticism. While I looked on they were killing four beeves a minute, or 240 in every hour. There were slaughtered in those stock-yards during 1890 no less than 2,219,312 head of cattle, more than 1,000,000 sheep, and 5,733,082 hogs.

As I passed out of the yards some one handed a card to me. It contained a record of the business of one firm, the leading one of the "big four" packing concerns. It showed that during the year ending April 1, 1891, that company transacted sales of $66,000,000 worth of meat and other goods. It killed 712,000 cattle, 1,714,000 hogs, and nearly 500,000 sheep. It employed 7,900 persons, and paid nearly $4,000,000 in wages. It owned 2,250 refrigerator cars and 50 acres of buildings. It made 7,000,000 pounds of glue and 9,500 tons of fertilizer. I suspect that its hogs and sheep and boxes of glue and sides of beef and cans of meat may stretch out, if piled one on the other, from here to the moon, but I leave the calculation to others, satisfying myself with the reflection that America is great, and Chicago is its prophet.—Julian Ralph in Harper's Weekly.

Christian Science.

One of the most remarkable cases on record of dependence on faith cure is that of a Dexter woman who is reported as having become so infatuated with the Christian Scientist theory that she laid away on the shelf her false teeth that she had worn several years, declaring that she had faith that natural teeth would grow again. She waited patiently for the result for six months, but for some inexplicable reason the new teeth yet delayed their coming.—Lewiston Journal.

CANADIAN RETALIATION.

What The Washington Post Has to Say About the Matter.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Upon the same subject which Canadian newspapers discuss under the heading "Give blow for blow," the retaliation bill passed by Congress last week, The Washington Post yesterday, in a leading editorial, says:

"The Canadian Retaliation Bill has now passed both Houses of Congress, and will speedily become a law. While a retaliatory policy is in some respects objectionable, and, as a rule, to be avoided if possible, especially between such near neighbors as Canada and the United States, for the reason that innocent citizens are the victims of its oppressive results, there seemed to be no other way in this instance in which to bring the Dominion Government to terms, and that such will be its effect is highly desirable to the interests of all parties concerned.

"The discriminations against American commerce passing through the Welland, St. Lawrence and other canals are so obviously inequitable that it is passing strange the Canadian authorities should not readily grant the relief desired. They will doubtless realize in time, should their present stubborn position be maintained, that two can play at the same game and that Canadian commerce is not exempt from burdens in American waters so long as the vessels of the United States in Canadian waters are subjected to similar onerous impositions.

"Of course a toll upon freight through the St. Mary's Canal of $2 per ton means that the ultimate consumer must pay it, and a toll of $5 per passenger means to the passenger $5 more fare, which would necessarily have the consequence of crippling shipments and travel over that route and thereby raising a wave of popular indignation against the Canadian Government that would naturally compel Canada to recede from its present discriminating policy against the United States. It should recede before the action by the President, under the bill just passed, is necessitated or there is an imminent likelihood that the new government, which recently went into power with such a flourish of trumpets, will find itself at an early day in the future ingloriously dislodged."

Smuggled Diamonds.

NEW YORK, July 26.—Among the baggage of T. Darlignen, a passenger on the steamship La Gascogne, from France, Customs Inspectors Brown and Donohue to-day seized smuggled diamonds and gold jewelry worth nearly $5000 on the person of a cabin passenger, who arrived here on the Ems. They also found a pair of diamond earrings.

An Engineer Stricken in His Cab.

DESERONTO, Ont., July 26.—Charles Kirby, the engineer of the special in the late train disaster near Erinsville, on the B. Q. Railway, will recover. The two others who were severely hurt, Miss Carroll of Erinsville, who received a scalp wound, and Mrs. Brown, who had jaw fractured, are also progressing favorably.

HAMILTON April 20th, 1892.

I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp and they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes. Hearing of Anti Dandruff I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years. When half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Anti-Dandruff has no equal.

Amulet Worn By De Soto.

WARRENSBURG, Mo., July 26.—During the meeting of the State Teachers' Association at this place during June there was an exhibit of a most queer medal, which is supposed to be an amulet worn by De Soto during his explorations through this part of the country.

It is of pure silver and bears inscriptions on both sides, while it also bears the insignia of the Pope and an image. On one side is a representation of Christ on the cross between the two thieves, while on the other is the representation of the Last Supper.

Formerly Lived in Toronto.

BAY CITY, Mich., July 26.—William Munsie, president of the Curling Club and vice-president of the St. Andrew's Society, died last night aged 59 years. He was a prominent Scotchmen and a real estate and insurance agent. He came to Bay City from Toronto seven years ago. Mr. Munsie was formerly wealthy, but lost his property through a fire at Parkhill, Ont.

A Free Coinage Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Senator Vest introduced in the Senate a joint resolution authorizing the President to proffer to Great Britain, Germany and France, as an inducement to enter into an international agreement for free coinage of silver, a reduction of 25 per cent. in tariff duties on textiles, hardware, earthenware and glass. Tabled.

Consul Ryder's Wife Arrested, Too.

COPENHAGEN, July 26.—Mrs. Ryder, wife of the United States Consul here, has been arrested in connection with the charges of embezzlement upon which her husband was arrested a few days ago.

Two May Die.

CHICAGO, July 26.—Fifteen hundred colored people were congregated in the Grand Central Depot to-day waiting the departure of a picnic train on the B. & O. R. R. The train when backed into the shed was not stopped in time and crashed upon the platform and into the crowd. A number were badly hurt and two of them are likely to die.

Underground Railways.

There is no prospect of adequate relief from steam. The feeling of the people is wholly against elevated railways; railways do not only increase the congestion, and on the ... practically in the congested districts could neither be constructed nor used; and underground railways drawn by steam carriages are far too costly to construct, besides involving too much vibration for the safety of the houses above, and too little air for the safety of the travellers below. An inner and outer circle of such railways has been constructed; but though they carry multitudes, they hardly seem to relieve the demand, they cannot be made cheap, owing to the conditions of construction, and it has been found practically impossible to push them across the centres of traffic where they are most required. What is needed is either some means of motion through the air, which remains to be discovered, or motion through the earth at such a depth that buildings on its surface are not interfered with, that the streets are unconscious of the new subways, and that the rights of property can hardly be said to impede their construction. This motion can be secured. Carriages filled with human beings can be driven through iron pipes, eleven feet in diameter, placed fifty or more feet below the soil, at great velocity, yet without danger either of accident or asphyxiation.

The electric motors emit neither smoke nor steam; they can be made to ventilate the pipes so that breathing is as easy as above ground, and they supply daylight or its equivalent, for themselves. The principle of their structure is perfect; but their use has been checked by a vague impression that pipes so laid and used at such a depth would produce unforseen evils, and possibly injure property very seriously. This impression will now be dispelled. The joint committee, after hearing quantities of evidence from experts, has reported that the evidence is "conclusive in favor of the sufficiency and special adaptability of electricity as a motive power for underground tubular railways"; that "way-leaves" should be granted them to pass under any public streets, on condition of their running a sufficient number of cheap trains.—The Spectator.

Traces of phylloxera have been discovered at Roufach in the same vineyard where the disease first manifested itself four years ago. At that time the authorities succeeded in localising the disease, and it is believed that they will now be able to prevent it from attacking the neighboring vineyards.

According to The Freisinnige Zeitung Prince Bismarck's recent conduct has estranged many persons who desired to erect monuments to him during his lifetime, and the inhabitants of Dueren, near Aachen, have decided to spend the money which was contributed toward a monument for the benefit of their needy neighbors whose crops were recently destroyed by hailstones.

The value of a good name was well exemplified the other day, when a man asked one of our druggists for a bottle of Sarsaparilla. "Whose?" inquired the clerk. "Whose?" Why, Ayer's, of course. Ye don't suppose I'm going to run any risks with Hannah, do ye?"

Cure for A Constipation and Headache

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that, when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50 cents package. dw

Seven Years' Suffering.

GENTLEMEN,—I have suffered very much from inflammatory rheumatism, which through wrong treatment left ugly running sores on my hands and feet. With these I suffered for seven years, during which time I had neither shoe nor stocking on. I commenced using B. B. B. externally and internally, using the pills also, and I can say now that the sores are entirely cured, and have been for some time. I believe the bitters were the means of saving my life.

Self Application of Electricity FOR MEDICAL PURPOSES BY THE DORENWEND
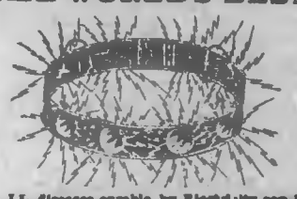
ELECTRIC BELT
And Attachments.

HEAD OFFICE—109 Yonge St., Toronto

THE WORLD'S BEST.



ALL diseases curable by Electricity can be treated at home by the Dorenwend Appliance. The Dorenwend is the only Legitimate Electric Belt made which fulfils the requirements of Electro-medical science. It is a complete BODY BATTERY. It has an Independent Battery, which generates a mild, continuous current of Electricity (without shocks) and can be regulated to suit the strongest man or the weakest child. It is a CURRENT of QUANTITY, not merely a sensation current, and the quantity current is the greatest curative. It is a successful treatment for INDIGESTION, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, SCIATICA, LUMBAGO, LIVER AND KIDNEY TROUBLES, WEAK BACK, SPINAL DISEASES, HEART DISEASES, NERVOUS DEBILITY, PARALYSIS, VARICOCELE, FEMALE COMPLAINTS, IMPOTENCE, SEXUAL DEBILITY and all Diseases of the Nervous and Muscular Systems.

Remember that the DORENWEND ELECTRIC BELT is the very latest invention in this line, and was invented by a competent electrician, and makes us the best in the world; we defy anyone to bring proof to the contrary.

Do not close this Belt with the humbug appliances of years ago, made with which the country is being flooded. If you wish to experiment with cheap articles, buy them; but if you want to procure a genuine Electric Belt and one that will be a benefit get a Dorenwend Belt.

Send name and address for Illustrated Book on Home Electro-medical treatment and mention this paper. J. D. TULLY, Agent, Peterborough. 6136

THE NATHAN MURDER.

Recalled By the Death of the Son, Who Was Suspected.

NEW YORK, July 27.—There died at Berlogne, France, yesterday Washington, son of the late Benjamin and Emily G. Nathan, in the 40th year of his age.

The subject of the above notice will be recognized as a central figure in one of the most noted of tragic of mysteries—the murder of Benjamin Nathan, his father.

It was Washington Nathan who, at 6 o'clock on the morning of July 29, 1870, stumbled over his father's corpse, which was lying on the library floor in the Nathan homestead, No. 12 West Twenty-third-street. The mystery of that murder has never been solved, and to the day of his death Washington Nathan has suffered under the probably unjust suspicion of complicity in the butchery of the old millionaire.

Washington Nathan, always noted for high living and money-spending qualities, married Mrs. Arnott, a daughter of Colonel Mapleson of operatic fame. By Benjamin Nathan's tragic death the entire property passed to Mrs. Nathan. The Nathan family then moved to Fifth-avenue and expended $35,000 annually in living expenses.

The mother died in 1879, leaving $1,000,000. Washington Nathan, however, leaves no estate, having spent all his money in in luxurious living. The closing years of his life were years of—for him—sadly straightened circumstances.

LIGHTNING'S NEGATIVE.

A Suspender Star Photographed on Mr. Gardner's Body.

PATERSON, N.J., July 26.—Henry Gardner, assisted by a boy, was unharnessing his horse when lightning knocked him, the boy and the horse down. The barn was perforated with little holes, and on Mr. Gardner's body was photographed the picture of a star that was perforated on the metal work of his suspenders. It was of a bluish black color.

A GREAT CEREMONY.

Sacred Relic of St. Anne Officially Delivered Yesterday.

QUEBEC, July 27.—Yesterday one of the greatest and most impressive Catholic ceremonies took place at Ste. Anne de Beaupre. It was the occasion of the safe official delivery of the relic of Ste. Anne brought some months ago from Rome by Mgr. Marquis, and for the past three months exposed to the faithful in the church of St. John the Baptist, New York and all the principal churches in this city.

Will go to Law About It.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 27.—Great indignation has been expressed in Pittsburg today over the nature of the punishment inflicted on Private Lams, and there is little doubt that action will be taken by his friends to test in the courts the right of General Snowden and Colonel Streator to tie a man up by his thumbs and then shave his head and drive him out of camp for exhibiting the foolishness of a boy and persisting to retract a remark which everybody considers thoughtless.

Caused by Gas.

ST. LOUIS, July 27.—The gas generated by the escaping stock from the recent fire in the Water Pierce oil buildings, heated by the intense summer sun, exploded about 5 o'clock this afternoon, wrecking full one half of the great Mill Creek sewer, the largest of the city's drainage system and causing a known loss of three lives and injuring three others.

INTERESTING ITEMS BY WIRE.

Cincinnati reports five fatal sunstrokes.

There were five deaths from heat prostration at St. Louis yesterday.

There were 13 deaths from sunstroke in Chicago yesterday.

San Francisco had a slight earthquake shock yesterday.

The Right Rev. Thomas Legh Claughton, recently Bishop of St. Albans, is dead.

Merrall & Sons, worsted spinners of Bingley, have suspended; liabilities £130,000.

Yesterday in New York was the hottest July 26 on record. There were nine deaths directly attributable to the heat.

Horace Denyk, a lineman employed on the electric railroad at Passaic, N.J., was killed by touching a live wire yesterday.

The schooner Sybil of Vancouver was seized yesterday by a United States revenue cutter after she had landed 13 smuggled Chinamen on Idly Island.

Ex-County Treasurer Nehemiah Hulett, aged 70, dropped dead at Duluth yesterday while running to catch a train. He leaves an estate worth $750,000.

The Rev. Dr. Llewellyn Evans, professor of Hebrew at the Congregational Theological College, Bala, Wales, died of heart disease at Bala.

Blazing Benzine.

CINCINNATI, July 27.—A locomotive on the switching tracks of the Cincinnati Southern Railway at Ludlow, Ky., late yesterday afternoon dropped a few coals of fire on powdered resin on the track, which at once ignited and soon set in flames the storage warehouse of the Standard Oil Company, adjacent to the track. One warehouse was a wooden structure 300 feet long; the other was of brick 100 feet long. Each was one story high. As nearly as can be learned these warehouses contained 20,000 to 25,000 bbls. of benzine. In addition to above eight freight box cars, two tanks of turpentine and 1000 feet of the Cincinnati southern siding were destroyed.

HOME RULERS DISAGREE.

Breach Said to Exist Among the Leaders Over Shelving the Question.

LONDON, July 27.—The Conservative whip is urging upon the members of the party the necessity of a full attendance at the opening of Parliament on Aug 4.

The circular usually issued by Lord Salisbury to the members of the House of Lords and by Mr. Balfour to the members of the House of Commons prior to the opening of the session has been dispensed with.

LONDON, July 27.—The very plain intimation given by T. P. O'Connor as to the intention of certain Liberals to shelve the question of Irish Home Rule has caused a decided sensation among the politicians of all parties. Mr. O'Connor is noted for his moderation, and there is no doubt that there is strong foundation for the warning which he has given. Despite all attempts on the part of the Liberal leaders to disguise the truth, it has become known that there is a lively breach in the party on the Home Rule question.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt has had two meetings of prominent Liberals at his house to discuss the subject. At these meetings the opponents of Home Rule have urged their antagonism in undisguised language, and have advised the policy of shelving the subject for the present. Prof. James Stuart, elected as a Gladstonian from Shoreditch, does not conceal his desire to have Home Rule shelved, and Colman, the Norwich mustard-maker, who is one of the most generous contributors to Liberal funds, has urged that Home Rule ought to be set aside.

It is feared there are others who have claimed to be Liberals in all that the term implied, while the Government was in Conservative hands, and while their votes in behalf of Home Rule meant nothing, who will be found hostile now.

The Parnellites have agreed to assist in ejecting Lord Salisbury to make way for Mr. Gladstone, their line of conduct afterward to be guided by the course which the Liberal Government will pursue. In view of Liberal discontent and dissention, even the small Parnellite contingent becomes important, and there is a disposition on the part of the more prudent leaders, both British and Irish, to antagonize them as little as possible.

Gladstone Gives a Dinner Party.

LONDON, July 27.—An occulist has visited Mr. Gladstone and after an examination of his injured eye told him it had regained so much of its strength that he might use it briefly for reading purposes. Mr. Gladstone's general health is admirable. He has now made arrangements to come to this city yesterday and has invited Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Mr. John Morley, Mr. Arnold Morley and five other leading members of the Liberal party to take dinner with him in the evening.

They Say They Are; But, Are They?
THIS is the time of year when lots of Clothing Stores are offering goods 50 to 60 per cent. below cost, and at much less than goods can be bought at other stores, retailing below wholesale prices, closing out the stock of some defunct or deceased firm, running alleged bargain tables and sacrificing goods below cost, just for fun, are among the many pleasantries to which clothiers treat the reading public.
A few days ago one of those shrewd, bright and flippant buyers entered our store. It was evident that curosity, and not the desire to purchase, had brought him. He looked at Suits and he looked at Overcoats. He criticised and condemned, but finally the salesman showed him a suit that attracted his attention. He objected to the price, whereupon the salesman informed him that we are at present selling goods below cost. Quick as a flash came the response, "You say you are, but are you? Everybody else is spinning the same old yarn." Well, we sold that man the suit. We convinced him that we are actually selling below cost. We showed him the old price in black figures, and the new one in red figures. The difference between the two told the tale. All we ask is to be put to the test. We are confident that we are underselling every one in the clothing trade.
HERE ARE A FEW OF OUR PRICES:

Verdict in the Erinsville Railway Wreck The Railway Company Censured—A Little Boy Fatally Burned At Guelph—Deaths from Lightning and Drowning.

HALIFAX, July 28.—Robert Pickford, president of the Board of Trade, Herman N. Hirschberg, commercial traveler of Toronto; Bishop Courtney, Dr. Reid, medical superintendent Lunatic Asylum, and William Murray, Governor Rockhead Prison, testified before the Prohibition Commission yesterday. Pickford thought liquor laws of the city were observed. There had been a decrease in drunkenness throughout Nova Scotia and moral suasion was responsible. His conviction was that the law of prohibition should not be passed, as the best interests of the community could be served by moral suasion. He felt absolutely convinced that a prohibition law could not be enforced in this part of the country. He. between that high licence was the proper mode of controlling the liquor traffic.

Herman M. Hirschberg, commercial traveler, Toronto, travels all over Nova Scotia, except in Island of Cape Breton. He stops at hotels and has good means of knowing whether the Scott Act is enforced, and he could truthfully say he never was in a solitary town in the province where he could not get all the liquor he wanted. In most cases it was sold openly, though in some places one had to get it through holes in the wall. From his observations as a commercial traveler he most decidedly though prohibitory law could not be enforced. The same state of things be described as existing in Nova Scotia also applied to New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island.

Bishop Courtney did not think the law of prohibition desirable. The reason was because people are not in a condition to enforce the law.

Dr. Reid did not think drunkenness was a greater factor to insanity than other causes. In woman, maternity was a great and exciting cause to insanity. The greatest percentage of causes for insanity was unknown. The second was ill-health. Other causes were straggling. Religion was a greater cause of insanity than intemperance. In fact, religious causes were very far ahead of any other outside the first two as exciting cause of insanity.

The Governor of Rockhead Prison said during his 12 years of experience he never knew a case of vagrancy, disorderly conduct or assault that was caused otherwise than by liquor. In fact, liquor was the cause of about every prisoner being sent to prison. There would be no trouble were it not for drink—no crime, no poor asylums, no prison or any such institutions. He thought prohibition desirable and that it could be carried out in Nova Scotia except in Halifax. The reason it could not be carried out in Halifax was because Halifax was the Gibraltar of rum. He believed in limiting the number of licenses but not in high license.

Roderick McDonald of McDonald & Co., iron manufacturers, was the first afternoon witness before the prohibition commission. He considered capital put into the liquor business wasted; that business employs the least labor of any industry in comparison to capital; considered prohibitory law would work well; thought drunkenness had decreased; did not think prohibition would promote smuggling.

L. S. Briand, secretary of the Licensed Liquor Association, said the total wages of the liquor business would annually amount to $83,000. Hotel property would depreciate one-third; present law in Halifax was bad; it had increased drunkenness and people were not in sympathy with it.

THE PARENTS WERE AWAY.

And the Children Played With Fire With Fatal Results.

GUELPH, July 28.—Yesterday morning Mr. James Jarrett left his residence in Perth-street, and went to his furniture shop in West Market Square, while Mrs. Jarrett went berry-picking below Aberfoyle, leaving the children at home. They amused themselves soaking bulrushes in oil and setting them on fire. It appears that one had not gone out entirely and, when it was put again in the oil can it set the oil on fire and the can exploded, the burning oil being scattered over the dress of the little girl between three and four years old, and she was so terribly burned that she will probably die.

ANOTHER ELECTRIC VICTIM.

Arnold Reid Killed While Walking from the Barn to the House.

DRESDEN, Ont., July 28.—Last evening as Arnold Reid, working at his brother-in-law's, Mr. McNabb, on 5th con. Dawn, was going from the barn to the house, he was struck and instantly killed by lightning. His brother was also knocked insensible but survived. This is the eighth death in the family within a few years.

Smallpox Dying Out.

REGINA, N.W.T., July 28.—Smallpox is apparently dying out in the Territories. Governor Royal, who has just returned from Calgary, reports that every precaution has been taken. No new cases are reported, and all the sick patients are doing well. Governor Royal has telegraphed to Premier Abbott advising the inspection of all passengers coming into the Territories from the West. No cases exist in the Northwest outside of Calgary.

Horses on a Bust.

WIARTON, Ont., July 28.—The most terrific storm that ever visited this section passed over Wiarton about 7.15 o'clock last evening. Almost every smoke stack was placed horizontal, every boat house, a large two-storey building and the skating rink was blown over, one side of Young's mill roof was lifted and business places flooded, windows blown in and much damage done. extent not yet known.

Three cases of smallpox were discovered yesterday among the Japanese railroad laborers at Nampa, Idaho. One hundred and fifty Japanese were at once run out of that place and Caldwell.

During the naval manœuvres which were held off Brest yesterday evening a torpedo boat, while steaming at full speed, ran directly upon the keel of one of the ironclads which was taking part in the manœuvres, and sank in 10 fathoms of water.

During a theatrical performance at Rueil, in the Department of Seine-et-Oise, France, the seats fell with a crash, carrying down with them 700 people. Some persons had loosened screws in the frame work that supported the seats. Eighty persons were badly hurt.

ONLY A LAUGHING STOCK.

The Message That Niagara's Latest Suicide Left Behind—A German Immigrant Goes Over the Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 28.—This morning about 8 o'clock William Glassbrook, mate on the steamer Maid of the Mist, discovered a floater in the water below the falls in front of Goat Island, and above the Cave of the Winds under the Terrapin Rocks. Glassbrook launched the lifeboat and secured the body, which was identified this afternoon as that of Victor Freiman, a German who came to this country about five months ago, and who had been at Niagara Falls, N.Y., for two days.

He had secured employment with Mr. Braunn, and was to have gone to work Monday, but last night Braunn received this letter:

Please respectfully give my things in the trunk I left with you to any poor man who is in more need of it. I shall want it no more. I am but a laughing-stock of humanity and a curse of the same. Please do not think hard of me if I have done anything wrong to you or have troubled you in the short time I have been with you.

Very respectfully, VICTOR FREIMAN.

P.S. Accept the military papers in my portfolio.

From all that can be learned it would appear that Freeman had gone to Lasall, a village about five miles above the falls on American side, and after mailing the letter to Mr. Braunn went to the river and jumped in, his body being carried over the falls some time during the night.

AFTER OTTER HUNTERS.

U. S. Cruisers Bursting Up a Lucrative Industry.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Advices from Behring Sea are to the effect that the patrol squadron of the United States revenue cutters and cruisers, besides chasing seal poachers, are bursting up the lucrative industry of hunting sea otters. The schooner Jennie and the schooners Konsac and Lettie, owned by the Alaska Commercial Company of San Francisco, have been seized by the Mohican and sent with their crews to Sitka.

The native hunters were allowed to go home. This course surprises the whites and alarms the natives. This industry, now prohibited, furnished the sole support of the Aleution Indians, and without it they must have Government aid or starve.

SPANKED THE BRIDE.

Youthful Elopers Fall Into the Hands of the Girl's Mother

TRENTON, N. J., July 28.—Sadie Nolan and Peter Brennan are quite young, the girl being only 16 and Brennan 18. Sadie is the daughter of Joseph Nolan, a wealthy farmer of Lawrenceville. He forbade Brennan paying attention to his daughter, because of her age, but the two made up their minds to start in life for themselves and eloped and were married.

Nolan put a detective on their track, and he found them at the home of Joseph Oates, between Trenton and Lawrence. They were taken before Justice Savidge, with the parents of the bride. Justice Savidge held Brennan for abduction, and then Mrs. Nolan grabbed her daughter, and in the tussle nearly all her clothing was torn off. Then the irate mother took a law book and proceeded to give her daughter an old-fashioned chastisement.

When she became tired she told the bride to join her boy husband and take the consequences.

FASTEST ON RECORD.

Another Remarkable Trip of the City of Paris.

NEW YORK, July 2.—The Inman line steamship City of Paris, which sailed from Liverpool on the 20th inst. and Queenstown on the 21st for New York and arrived here early yesterday, beat the record for western trips across the Atlantic. The time of her passage across the ocean was 5 days, 15 hours and 58 minutes.

Her average time was 20.47 knots an hour. The best average time has hitherto been made by the steamship Majestic, which made the record of 20.41 knots an hour.

THE FIGURE OF A SUN GOD.

Remarkable Discovery of an Old Sioux Indian Camping Ground.

RAT PORTAGE, Ont., July 28.—While Charles Moore was returning from the vicinity of Black Sturgeon Lake, where he had been prospecting some nickel properties he has in that region, he discovered in a burnt pine woods what is believed to have been an old Sioux Indian camping ground. On a pine tree facing the south the figure of a sun god is cut in the wood and the bark removed. Those images are used by the plain Indians only on the occasion of sun dances, when the young braves of the tribe are initiated as warriors. To the north of where is thought stood the medicine lodge some human bones lay strewn over the ground. They are badly decomposed and show evidence of having been burnt. It is probable the bones are those of some poor victim who fell a captive during the frightful Indian massacre of 1862, brought here by their captors to be put to death by torture. The location of the old camping ground is a wierd and desolate spot.

Found Drowned At Rat Portage.

RAT PORTAGE, Ont., July 28.—The body of a man was found in the water near the island; the body, which was somewhat decomposed, appearing to have been in the water about five days. There was nothing to identify the body and no one is known to be missing.

The Life Preserver Did Not Save Him.

HALIFAX, N.S., July 28.—The dead body of a sailor was found on the marsh at Rossway Head, St. Mary's Bay, Digby, yesterday. He is supposed to be one of the unfortunates from the ill-fated Peter Stuart, lost near Yarmouth some three weeks ago. When found a life preserver was attached to him.

School Teacher Drowned.

BELLEVILLE, Ont., July 28.—A man named Barriger, a school teacher, was drowned last night at Zwick's Island.

Was Shot With a Roman Candle.

CORONA, N.Y., July 28.—Mrs. Rafele Regida, a widow, keeps a boarding house on Flushing Bay. On Sunday Antonio Gallina applied for board. He was under the influence of liquor and had only been in the house a short time when he began to set off Roman candles. One of the balls struck her 18-months-old baby in the neck and dropped down inside of the dress.

Yesterday the child died in great agony.

CENSURED THE RAILWAY.

The Erinsville Wreck Was Due to a Defective Timepiece, But the Owner Was Not to Blame.

TAMWORTH, Ont., July 28.—At the adjourned inquest held yesterday on the recent accident on the line of Quinte Railway, by which William Christie and Wellington Hardy were killed, a large number of witnesses were examined.

W. H. Wilkinson, conductor on the special ballast train, deposed that he had orders to work between Tweed and Erinsville, keeping clear of regular trains. He had never before run from Erinsville to the gravel pit under similar circumstances. The agent at Erinsville did not warn him not to go out. The driver of his engine said we had plenty of time. The regular train should be due at the gravel pit between 7.15 and 7.20. Wilkinson left Erinsville at 7.01, and calculated to be in the gravel pit at 7.05, the time of the regular at Marlbank (the gravel pit is half way between Erinsville and Marlbank). By this calculation Wilkinson expected to have fully 10 minutes clear of the regular at the pit, the agent at Stoco having informed him that the regular was on time. There was no doubt the regular left Marlbank ahead of him, and this caused the collision. He was positive that the collision occurred at 7.03.

The jury returned this verdict:

We exonerate Conductor Wilkinson from blame, as it appears to us he had sufficient time to get into the siding at the gravel pit before the arrival of Conductor Richardson's train. We find also that Conductor Richardson in charge of the mixed train from Tweed was running ahead of schedule time in consequence of imperfect timepiece, but not on account of any negligence on his part, and fully exonerate him. We, however, censure the Bay of Quinte Railway & Navigation Company in control of said road owing to the multiplicity of rules, and we consider that there is not sufficient attention paid to the comfort and safety of the traveling public.

Due to Criminal Negligence.

ST. CATHARINES, July 28.— At the adjourned inquest in connection with the late Merritton disaster a verdict was returned that "The authorities of the G.T.R. are culpably and criminally negligent in not having attached air brakes to train No. 52, and in allowing excursion train to be run without air brakes to the imminent peril of human life. Further, the jury do censure the G.T.R. authorities for permitting such dangerous discrepancy to exist in the timepieces in the several stations whereby this deplorable accident was rendered possible. The jury further find that the operators should not be called upon to discharge any duty except that to which they should be compelled to exclusively devote themselves."

Col. Wilkinson Dead.

WINDSOR, July 28.—The funeral of the late Col. J. H. Wilkinson will take place this afternoon with Masonic honors. The funeral will take place at Sandwich. The deceased was a native of the county in which he died, having been born in Sandwich 62 years ago. He was known to every old resident in Essex and few were better posted on county historical events. He was of magnificent physique, standing 6 feet 6 inches and weighing nearly 250 pounds. A long, snowy white beard made him a very conspicuous figure.

Sudden Death of Vicar-General Marechal.

MONTREAL, July 28.—A sudden death occurred in the palace of the Roman Catholic Bishop of Montreal a few minutes before 9 o'clock last evening, when the Most Reverend Louis Dolphis Adolphe Marechal, Vicar-General of the province, went to meet the Maker he so dearly loved and worked for in life.

Vicar-General Marechal, who was one of the best-known priests in the province and also the right hand man of His Lordship the Bishop, had lately returned from a trip to the Northwest, where he had been visiting the different institutions of the Sisters of St. Ann.

Yesterday he went to the palace, after having heard confessions for three hours. When he arrived he looked as hearty as ever, and during the afternoon he had a conversation with the bishop.

Many Farm Buildings Burned.

PORT ELGIN, Ont., July 28.—During the severe thunderstorm which passed over this section on Monday evening the barns on the farm of Donald McLachlan, Arran township, were struck by lightning and totally destroyed with all the hay and farm implements; no insurance. Also the barns of Alexander Campbell, Burgoyne, were struck and burned to the ground. Five horses were also burned to death, three binders and all farm implements; no insurance.

Died From Sunstroke.

WINDSOR, July 28.—John Latham sr., died yesterday morning from the effects of a sunstroke received the day previous. The deceased has been a familiar figure in the streets of Windsor for years as a member of the police force. Latterly he has been employed as a private watchman, and was always regarded as one in whom great confidence could be placed.

Tore the Jail Into Sections.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., July 28.—Three prisoners in the county jail across the river escaped last night. They lifted the doors of their cells from their hinges, sawed through the cage and windows, and lifted the iron shutters. One of the trio, Nixon, had served several terms in Canada and in the United States. He was awaiting trial for alleged theft of wool. The others had but two weeks to serve.

Dropped Dead on a Load of Hay.

ORILLIA, Ont., July 28.—Adam Conklin of Rathbun, a farmer, aged 55, dropped dead on a load of hay yesterday. Heart disease.

Fell from a Train.

ORILLIA, July 28.—The 10-year-old son of Conductor McCarthy fell off the train near Maripoma Station. The boy was not missed until Lindsay was reached, and not until this morning was he found. He was badly cut on the head, bruised on the body, but managed to crawl to the fence, where he had laid all night.

Robbed the Bank of $10,000.

EL RENO, O.T., July 28.—At 10.30 a stranger entered the El Reno Bank, stepped up to the cashier's window, and presented a gun at the head of Mrs. Sawyer, wife of the president, and demanded that she hand out all the money in the bank. She stepped to the vault and handed him all the packages of bills in the vault, safe and what was in the daily change drawer, aggregating $10,000. The man then disappeared.

THURSDAY, JULY 28, 1892.

Lakefield.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The village is very quiet—all who can get up the lakes are there, and farmers are engaged in their harvesting and only turn up on Saturday evening in the village.

Court Lakefield No. 43 C.O.F. meet in their hall on Saturday evening.

Alex Roseborough, con. 7, Smith had a horse killed by lightning on Monday night.

Our worthy councillor, John Hall, contributed five barrels of flour to the St. John's fire sufferers.

Mr. EJ. Carter, of Pittsburg, Pa., with his wife and her sister, are here for a visit to friends and an outing up the lakes.

CAMP ECHOES.

The lake has been visited by several severe thunder storms the past week, on Sunday morning the lightning struck two large pines on one of Dr. Bell's islands, one a dead one was shivered into kindling wood, the other a live one, about 3 feet distant had a furrow cut from top to bottom twisting around the tree cork screw fashion.

A Miss Verney caught a 4½ pound bass at Young's Point last Friday. Miss reports that his guests are having good bass fishing, but the muskicongs do not take the bait well.

The Mary Ellen continues to do a large passenger trade, last Saturday evening she had a large crowd having to make no less than 23 calls before getting her passengers all distributed.

The thunderstorm on Monday night was very severe on the lake. The wind for a time blew a perfect hurricane, while the lake seemed like the sky to be a sheet of flame. There was very little thunder or rain, and we have not heard of any damage being done.

A little girl of the Rev. Mr. Edwards, Peterborough, who is staying at Mr. Eden's Island, had a narrow escape from drowning last week. She went in bathing and was soon struggling in some twenty feet. Mr. Philip Alcombrac, of Lakefield, who was paddling past, happened to notice the child and hurried to the spot, but had to dive after it, as she had gone down for the last time. She came to in a few minutes and was soon all right.

Services were held on Juniper Island on Sunday morning by Mr. Colville and in evening by Rev. Mr. Edwards. Both were favoured by good audiences, nearly all the lumbermen from the drive in the vicinity attending.

Great complaints are being made by a number of the island holders about the manner in which their islands are being blocked by logs this season, and numerous letters have been sent to both the Ontario and Dominion Government on the subject. It has not been the fault of the lumbermen altogether, as they have been favoured with contrary winds for the past three weeks and are all delayed at the Narrows, but they try all they can to keep passage open to the different islands and are always ready to help canoes and boats through.

Mr. Wm. Jones, of Toronto, has resumed operations at the granite quarries, Eagle Mount, and will soon have a large force of men at work. He has rented Dr. Bell's cottage, "Elsinore," for the balance of the summer and will bring down his family at once.

Ennismore.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

A local legal case of interest was tried at the latest session of the Division Court. Michael T. Cadigan brought suit against James Murphy to recover the sum of $15, the alleged value of a steer whose possession was in dispute. At the trial judgment was reserved but delivered on Tuesday in favor of the plaintiff. Messrs. Edmison and Wood for plaintiff; Mr. R. E. Wood for defendant.

A Child Saved.

My little boy was taken very bad with diarrhœa, he was very delicate and got so low we had no hope of his life, but a lady friend recommended Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and although he could only bear a few drops at a time he got well. It saved my child.

THUNDER IT DOWN THE AGES!

GOUGH BROS. HOLD THEIR ANNUAL MID-SUMMER SALE IN PETERBOROUGH.

It is customary with us, after the 15th of July, to organize in our different stores a big sale of our entire stock. This we do—first, because we believe it does not pay to carry goods over until another season, and secondly, in order to make room for our big fall purchases of which require every inch of room we can command, therefore, during the month of July the following extraordinary inducements will be offered:—

OVERCOATS and WINTER CLOTHING

IN OUR MEN'S CLOTHING DEPARTMENT

we will take 20 per cent. off our regular prices.

IN OUR CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

we will take 15 per cent. off, and in our

HAT AND CAP DEPARTMENT

we will take 20 per cent. off.

Remember, all our goods are marked in plain figures, and it is a well-established fact that our prices are the lowest, consequently when we advertise a

GRAND REDUCTION SALE

It means a reduction, for the goods are sold at the regular prices and the discount taken off after the sale is made.

We have just closed a remarkably successful season, our sales going away beyond our most sanguine expectations. Thanks to you, good people of Peterborough town and county; and although we are certain we have given general satisfaction, we are not egotistical enough to believe we have pleased everybody. When our Saviour was on earth he did not please everybody. Can we expect to? Nor do we claim to be infallible. We are liable to err in our judgment as well as others, but we do claim to do our business in an honourable way, because we believe it pays; and for this reason if there are any of our patrons who have cause for complaint, let him come to us and we will make it right now, either by refunding the money or replacing the goods.

THIS FALL WE WILL ASTOUND ASTONISHMENT IN OUR

OVERCOAT DEPARTMENT.

Not only in our prices but by showing twenty times more goods and ten times nicer goods than were ever seen before in Peterborough. But more about this hereafter. What we want now is to make room for this great stock for fall, and if low prices will do it, you will get them now, for we are bound to clear out the balance of our Spring and Summer Goods regardless of cost. Don't miss this great opportunity; it will pay you to buy now for next year, and other merchants would do well to take advantage of this great sale, also, for we will sell them cheaper than any man in Canada can make them for.

Gladstone's Success and Prohibition.

Mr. Gladstone's ence se has caused a considerable depreciation in the value of brewing stocks in England. The trade, it appears, was practically unanimous in its support of the Conservatives, because Mr. Gladstone had promised to support a direct veto or local option law. Up to the present the temperance people of England have been denied any effective legislation, and they have had to make the obtaining of a direct veto Act an issue at the election. The number of candidates pledged to direct veto is now so large as to make it a reasonably certainty that it will carry in Parliament. The London Economist realizes now that there is financial trouble ahead for the brewing interest. It advises the trade to make haste to effect an arrangement whereby the owners of licensed houses shall have fixity of tenure for a certain number of years, provided their record be clean. It does not believe that local option will cause a wholesale shutting up of licensed places, but its remarks upon the subject indicate that it fears very considerable results.

Manufacture of Binder Twine.

A deputation from Brantford consisting of Jos. Stratford, Jacob Mott, Thos. Brooks, F. X. Chalcraft, and John Hope, of Bow Park farm, waited upon the Attorney-General of Ontario on Tuesday to ascertain the intentions of the Government regarding the manufacture of binding twine. These gentlemen had intended forming a company for the manufacture of binder twine and agricultural implements, in which capitalists should take $50,000, and the farmers of the Province, through the Patrons of Industry, $150,000 stock. They wanted to know to what extent the Government intended to enter on the manufacture of twine at the Central Prison, and also whether a combination of interests could not be made so as to secure for farmers the blessing of cheap binding twine. After a long discussion Sir Oliver Mowat promised to take their representations into consideration.

Farrer's Retirement From Journalism.

(The Globe)

We are sorry to have to announce that Mr. Farrer, who for the past two years has been the principal editorial writer of The Globe, has decided to retire from active journalism for a time and will sever his connection with The Globe on August 1st. The Globe has found Mr. Farrer to be a man of unusual ability and of the strictest integrity, a master of his profession, conducting public discussion upon a high level, and scrupulously avoiding the meaner and coarser habits of political controversy, and The Globe parts from him with regret.

A Proposed Ship Canal.

English capitalists have, it is said become interested in the project of a ship railway through Canada from Lake Ontario to Georgian Bay, a distance of sixty six miles, and the work may be completed before the beginning of the twentieth century. Such an undertaking, if successful, would revolutionize all the methods and conditions of transportation from the Northwest to the seaboard.

The Great Female Medicine

The functional irregularities peculiar to the weaker sex, are invariably corrected without pain or inconvenience, by the use of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. They are the safest and surest medicine for all the diseases incidental to females of all ages, and the more especially so in this climate. Ladies who wish to enjoy health, should always have these Pills. No one who ever uses them once will allow themself to be without them. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all medicine dealers

NATIONAL PILLS are sugar-coated, mild but thorough, and are the best Stomach and Liver Pill in use. dw

Increase Your Weight

If you are losing flesh and blood, commence at once taking Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, which is far ahead of all other preparations of the kind in existence. By taking Miller's Emulsion people gain from 5 to 10 lbs. by the time the first bottle is consumed. It is the greatest blessing of the century to all in delicate health, or who suffer with coughs, colds and ailments that tend to consumption. Remember, Miller's Emulsion contains all the constituents found in wheat. It is used in all the hospitals and asylums of the country. In big bottles 50c and $1, at Peterborough Drug Store's. dw

Women with pale colorless faces, who feel weak and discouraged, will receive both mental and bodily vigor by using Carter's Iron Pills, which are made for the blood, nerves and complexion. dw

Back Ache.

Back ache is caused by sick kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills will remove it. By their peculiar action on the kidneys they impart activity and benefit the system by purifying the blood. You cannot have pure blood with disordered kidneys; health's existence depends upon their natural conditions. They are the governors of the system, constant disorder results in kidney consumption, which is Bright's disease. dw

The American Language.

A language belongs to those who know best how to use it, how to bring out all its resources, how to make it search its coffers round for the pithy or canorous phrase that suits the need, and they who can do this have been always in a pitiful minority. Let us be thankful that we too have a right to it, and have proved our right, but let us not up no claim to vulgarise. The English of Abraham Lincoln was so good not because he learned it in Illinois, but because he learned it of Shakespeare and Milton and the Bible, the constant companions of his leisure. And how perfect it was in its homely dignity, its quiet strength, the unerring aim with which it struck once nor needed to strike more. The language is alive here and will grow. Let us do all we can with it but debase it. Good taste may not be necessary to salvation or to success in life, but it is one of the most powerful factors of civilization. As a people we have a larger share of it and more widely distributed than I, at least, have found elsewhere, but as a nation we seem to lack it altogether. Our coinage is ruder than that of any other country of equal pretentions, our paper money is filthily infectious, and the engraving on it, mechanically perfect as it is, makes of every bank note a missionary of barbarism. This should make us cautious of trying our hand in the same fashion on the circulating medium of thought.—James Russell Lowell in Harper's.

Are better known and more generally used than any other cathartic. Sugar-coated, purely vegetable, and free from mercury or any other injurious drug, this is the ideal family medicine. Though prompt and energetic in their action, the use of the pills is attended with only the best results. Their effect is to strengthen and regulate the organic functions, being especially beneficial in the various derangements of the stomach, liver, and bowels.

are recommended by all the leading physicians, and druggists, as the most prompt and effective remedy for biliousness, nausea, costiveness, indigestion, sluggishness of the liver, jaundice, drowsiness, pain in the side, and sick headache; also, to relieve colds, fevers, neuralgia, and rheumatism. They are taken with great benefit in chills and the diseases peculiar to the South. For travelers, whether by land or sea, are the best, and should never be omitted in the outfit. To preserve their medicinal integrity in all climates, they are put up in bottles as well as boxes.

Ayer's Pills

How the "Examiner" Went Astray.

We don't mean in a moral sense, of course; that is a moral impossibility for a "Grit" newspaper. But we have received complaints from subscribers at Stony Lake that the EXAMINER addressed them at Juniper Island post office have failed to reach them. They were regularly sent daily, and inquiry showed that the postage passed over the railroad and past Lakefield all right. Further inquiry showed that the parcel containing all the papers were handed out of the lake post office to Mr. Harry Grundy, the outside paper of the parcel bearing his name, the last subscriber on the list, and the address, "Juniper Island P.O." Subscribers who have failed to receive their papers will have to have it out with Mr. Grundy.

Where No. 5 Will Go.

The members of No. 5 Company of Peterborough Rangers assembled at the shop of their captain, Wesley Millar, last evening in large numbers to make arrangements as to how they would spend their company fund and what shape such expenditure would take. It was unanimously decided to run an excursion on the Golden Eye to Jubilee Point on Thursday next, August 4th. A committee consisting of Color Sergt. Hounsell and Sergt. Raby and Kemp, were appointed an excursion committee. The boys will take their friends and relatives along with them A full orchestra will provide music on the trip and the palace scow will be attached to the steamer. A limited number of tickets will be sold at 50c. a couple which is very cheap, equivalent to 25c. each.

CHEMONG'S COOL BREEZES

One of Nature's Aqueous Beauty Spots Visited.

How Many of our Busy Citizens Enjoy a Day of Well Earned Pleasure—The Destination of Many Excursion Parties—Those Who are Summering at the Park and Those Who are Rusticating There for a Brief Period.

To adequately describe Chemong Park, which is one of nature's aqueous beauty spots, is alike a difficult and impossible task. Words are inadequate to portray, at this season of the year, her beautiful scenery, her quiet summer life, her cool breezes and her delightful surroundings. This favourite summer resort and the well equipped hostelry managed by miss host, the genial L. G. Fobert are quite as popular during this sultry season when fresh air and cool breezes are an exhilirating contrast to stagnant and stifled city atmosphere, as at any previous period. The camping season is now at its highest and consequently everything around Peterborough's watering place is on the qui vive All the beautiful cottages are occupied by their owners or tenants, and the Park House erected one year since is unprecedentedly well patronized, and enjoying a great season's run. A large number of Peterborough's busy citizens are so engrossed with the cares and perplexities of business life that a holiday season of one or two weeks is to them entirely out of the question, and they hie to Chemong some afternoons for a few hours' breathing spell and quiet enjoyment. Here the mornings are sublimely cool, the evenings grand, the nights peaceful. As fine a sheet of water as ever shone beneath the heavens, and stretches far to the left and right. On its placid surface, coursing o'er it with great speed, canoeists spend their time in wafting away the weary hours. Such exercise and such pursuits give strength to the muscles, tone the complexion a swarthy hue, the weary one a vigorous relaxation, and the dyspeptic a sharp appetite.

Among those now quartered at the summer homes, relishing rustic life, homely modes of living, and unmolested freedom, are the following well known Peterboroughonians, all accompanied by their families. They are.—Messrs. R. B. R gers, T A. Hoy, T. Rutherford, R Carton, Fred Bull, Thos. Graham, W. H. Blokham, J. W. Bribbin, D. H. Barrett, Peter Henry, J. D. Tully, John A. Cameron, Tom Kelly, Geo. Hutchinson, W. Smoker, H. S. MacDonald, T. H. G. Deane, Mrs. Blanchard, Conductor Matthews, G. T. R., Toronto, and others. They all express themselves in love with the resort and are spending a delightful holiday.

The guests at the Chemong Park Hotel are not a whit behind the cottagers in the enjoyment this resort affords. The airy rooms are already nearly all occupied, although August is the month in which the house enjoys its heaviest rush. The cuisine is excellent, the accommodation first class.

THE VERANDAHS COOL RETREATS and the lawns dipping lakewards into wooded glens, are lovely promenades. Quiet enjoyment and restful ease are the rule. The registrations number as high as forty and fifty daily. Among the numerous guests domiciled at present are:—Mayor Kendry, Mrs. Kendry and Miss Kendry, Peterborough; A. A. Douglas, Toronto; Capt. Bottom, A. Watson, J. Gallagher and J. Stevenson, Bobcaygeon; M. D. Welsh, G. Kerr, S. J. Corlath and D. Smart, Port Hope; S. F. Murphy, Toronto; Miss Chalk, Miss Mallison, Port Hope; A. H. Morgan, Peterborough; Miss Bayers, Kingston; J. Harrigan, Toronto; Rev. D. Ruddick, Port Hope; T. B. Carson, Port Hope; D. Bellegham, Peterborough and others.

The picnic season at the Park opened on June 25th, and the number of excursions which have been to this point since that date attests the strong public favor in which it is held.

Yesterday the Port Hope Baptist church Sunday School picnic was held at the Park and not less than 400 people were on the ground. They came up to Peterborough in the morning, where they spent about half an hour before embarking on the Chemong train whence they were transferred by the "Maple Leaf" with place scow "Chemong" attached to their destination. Foot races and other sports were carried out in the cool pine grove. Rev. D. Ruddick is the pastor of the church, and expressed when he said they had visited a most delightful spot, and were unanimous in expressing their praise of the Park, the steamer and the hotel. During the afternoon the Citizen's Band, of Port Hope, under the leadership of Mr. T. B. Carson, played many very creditable selections which were much appreciated by the park population. The Port Hopers spent three hours in Peterborough before returning reluctantly home last night.

THE OPINION OF THE EXCURSIONISTS

The large dancing pavilion is in popular favour at this season of the year, many sweeping across the floors on nimble feet during the quiet even tides.

The Park Grocery, owned by Mr. Alex. Elliott, and managed by the genial Dan. Borritt, does a rushing business.

The Peterborough Boat Club House which occupies so commanding and picturesque a site, has been unoccupied for some seasons by the club. It is on dit among the campers that a prominent Peterborough gentleman and family will occupy it next week. It has been suggested that the pretty structure be removed from its lovely isle to the shore and converted into a chapel for holding summer services. The service morning prayer conducted by Rev. W. M. Loucks of St. John's church, in the pavilion is largely attended by people of all denominations dwelling at the park.

THE ANGLER'S HOOK

is kept at its work and to describe the sport of angling and trolling would be impossible. Many black bass have become ready victims to the fly-tipped hook, while the large and noble maskinonge abounds in the waters. A Peterborough gentleman caught a lunge of no large dimensions on Tuesday that after having landed it, the sportive monster vanquished it would be destroyer by sailing off with the fishing apparatus—everything except the gentleman himself. The grounds are unusually neat and clean this year. The trees are well trimmed, the walks well laid out and all the outside arrangements perfect.

A young gentleman and lady, from the town, while in the act of gathering the pretty water lily buds leaned too far to the canoe's side and were precipitated in the foaming brine. They were rescued in time to save two valuable lives.

Most of the business men leave their families in the morning for town, returning again in the evening. They believe in Chemong's popularity, because as already stated it is easy to get at, delightful when one get's there, and hard to leave.

Two or three private picnics visit here daily.

Mr. T. Patience is the courteous and obliging clerk of the Chemong House this season.

Past Grand Patriarch Moore.

The Brantford Expositor, shows live enterprise in devoting its first page of Tuesday's impression to the visiting Oddfellows Encampment. It contains eight or ten portraits of prominent Oddfellows and patriarchs including a good portrait of Past Grand Patriarch, D. H. Moore accompanied by the following biographical sketch:—

D. H. Moore, grand patriarch of the grand encampment, I.O.O.F. of Ontario, whose portrait is printed herewith, was born on Michaelmas day, 1850, in the township of Emily, in the county of Victoria. He received his education at the Omemee Grammar school. He entered upon the calling of a farmer, which he conducted till 1877, when he became a resident of the town of Peterborough, entering into business. Not long afterward he received an appointment in the Crown Timber department of the Ontario government, and this position he still holds. His connection with Oddfellowship dates from 1873, when he became a member of Peterborough lodge, No. 111. He has been distinguished for nearly a score of years as an enthusiastic and active Oddfellow, taking an intelligent and effective interest in the advancement of the principles of the order and his nomination to the important position he now holds is a consequence of the devoted services he has rendered to Oddfellowship. Mr. Moore was first sent as representative to the grand lodge when the body last met in this city. He was the first C.P of Mount Hebron encampment, No. 56, of Peterborough, and has always since been its representative at the grand encampment sessions except when filling other offices in that grand body.

For the Good of Others

Rev. Mr. Williams Heartily Endorses Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We are pleased to present this from Rev. A. A. Williams, of the Sillsbee street Christian Church, Lynn, Mass.:

"I see no reason why a clergyman, more than a layman, who knows whereof he speaks, should hesitate to approve an

Article of Merit

and worth, from which he or his family have been signally benefited, and whose commendation may serve to extend those benefits to others by increasing their confidence. My wife has for many years been a sufferer from severe

Nervous Headache

for which she found little help. She has tried many things that promised well but performed little. Last fall a friend gave her a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It seems surprising what simply one bottle could and did do for her. The attacks of headache decreased in number and were less violent in their intensity, while her general health has been improved. Her appetite has also been better. From our experience with

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I have no hesitation in endorsing its merits." A. A. WILLIAMS

For the Orillia Fire Brigade are in Town Accompanied by their Band and 400 Friends.

A special steamer into the G.T.R. station precisely at 11 o'clock this morning alive with human freight. As the steam brakes brought the swift railroad equipage to a standstill on the rails 600 jaunty excursionists, on pleasure bent, leaped from the coaches with sprightly air and elastic step. The Peterborough Fire Brigade held a meeting last night to make arrangements towards giving the visiting brethren a hearty reception and they are doing it to-day in first class style. A committee consisting of Messrs. Sharp, Metherall, Hutchinson, Kincaid and Moore were appointed to take charge of the arrangements. At the station were all the fire ladies of Peterborough under gallant Chief T. Ratherford and Assistant Chief John Craig. The boys were uniformed to beat the band—because the band was unable to be present owing to a few of their number remaining in Toronto, and on account of the musicians just arriving home from Brantford after three days' visit to that town with the Cantons. The hose waggon and hook and ladder outfit were at the station also and both equipages were bright and clean. After exchanging greetings a procession was soon formed in the following order:

Orillia Brass and Fire Brigade Band, 21 strong, J. W. Mitchell, Bandmaster.
Orillia Fire Brigade, 23 strong, Robt. Mainer, Chief; W. Town, Assistant Chief.
Peterborough Fire Brigade, 18 strong, T. Ratherford, Chief; J. Craig, Assistant Chief.
Salvage Waggon, John Murphy, driver.
Hook and Ladder Waggon, E. Lawrence, driver.

The line of procession was up Charlotte to Aylmer to Rook to George to Charlotte where the procession broke up. The visiting firemen dined at the Snowden House the guests of the local brigade, the Orillia band dined at the Morgan House the guests of the Peterborough band. The Junior and Senior lacrosse teams from Orillia accompanied the excursion and are quartered at the C.P.R. Hotel. They are playing matches with the Peterborough lacrosse teams on the P.A.A.A. grounds this afternoon before a large number of spectators. The band are entertaining their visiting brethren at the band hall and the firemen their corresponding ranks at their rooms on Simcoe street.

The six hundred truissent guests to Peterborough will return home at 7.30 o'clock this evening. It took nine coaches to carry the large party this morning.

The committee in charge of the excursion are: Bandmaster J. W. Mitchell, chairman, J. R. Robbins, secretary, and Messrs. Chief Mainer, J. Sparling, J. B. Henderson and Ed. Clarke. This is the first union excursion the Orillia band and fire brigade ever had. The latter generally hold theirs on Orillia's civic holiday. It is needless to say that the pioneers are enjoying themselves, either at the parks, the cemetery, or witnessing the lacrosse matches. A few people were taken in on the way down as far as Beaverton, after which place the special made no stops.

Home at Early Morn.

The Peterborough Canton and Band Return from the Grand Encampment and Cantonment at Brantford—They Saw Much and Profited Much.

Canton Peterborough, No. 10 I.O.G.T., Patriarchs Militant, Jos. Mills, captain; A. McFarlane, lieutenant; and J. Fraser, ensign, together with most of the Fire Brigade and 57th Battalion band returned home at one o'clock after spending two days of delight and profit in Brantford, where the 23rd session of the Grand Encampment and Cantonment of Ontario was held. The departing band and canton left Peterborough at 12 o'clock per G.T.R. on Monday morning. They occupied a through car and had a good time on the way. T. Hooper served excellent refreshments and the boys know how to appreciate them. At 4 30 o'clock the Canton and band numbering 50 were attached to the west bound express which had on board the Belleville Canton and band. The Montreal Encampment passed through Peterborough to Brantford on the C P R at 11 o'clock on Monday night. The train bearing the Belleville and Peterborough Cantons and band together with the representatives from the encampments of both places, was heavily loaded, being double headed from Hamilton to Brantford. The manufacturing city, was reached at 11 o'clock on Tuesday morning. The Belleville and Peterborough Cantons were the first to arrive, and right royally were they received at the station by the Demonstration Committee and the Stratford Canton and escorted to their sleeping apartments at their hall in the fine large market building of the city. The Peterborough band and Canton were quartered at the Brunswick House, where mine host Wm. Dale treated them handsomely. The sessions of the Grand Encampment were held in the commodious Collegiate Institute building from 9 to 6 o'clock on Tuesday and Wednesday. There were 12 cantons present and 120 representatives from the various Encampments throughout Ontario. A large number of Past Chief Patriarchs were also present, making in all about 170 representatives from Ontario Encampments. On Wednesday afternoon the grand procession of the visitors from all parts of Ontario was held through the principal streets. Brantford was tastefully decorated for the occasion, all their places of business bearing evergreens and flags in profusion while their large grand arches spanned the principal avenues at the corners. After the procession it was intended to hold a great programme of sports on the agricultural grounds but a fierce rain storm accompanied by a terrific thunder and lightning burst over the city just after the procession had finished marching. The telephone system of the city was badly shattered and burned out.

THE DESTINATION OF THE PARTY,

The drill by uniformed Cantons was one of the pleasant features of the trip and a fine sight. Mayor Secord addressed the visitors on Tuesday morning, conferring upon them and read them an address of welcome. While there the representatives of Canadian Oddfellowship were treated to a magnificent exhibition of the Brantford fire brigade on the market square. The fire hall of Brantford is one of the finest and largest in the Dominion. The department, which has a paid fire brigade, has an extension ladder and hose service attached, which can be raised as high as sixty feet. The exhibition was much enjoyed by those who had the pleasure of witnessing the fine equipages and clean evolutions of the brigade. Brantford is a city containing 17,000 busy inhabitants, and supports more manufactories for its size than any place in the Dominion. The city is erecting a fine electric street car service for which the Ellam General Electric Company, of Peterborough, has the contract. She has a fine system of waterworks, a thorough system of sewerage, fine parks and imposing public buildings. The Peterborough Oddfellows were all well pleased with their visit and the treatment received. They left the city at 5.30 p.m. and had a quick run to town, arriving here at 4 a.m., their car being attached to a through freight from Port Hope.

PRACTICAL SCIENCE.

FIRST PRINCIPLES THAT MAY BE ACQUIRED AT HOME.

Some Simple Experiments Which Will Prove Amusing, Interesting and Instructive—Boys and Girls May Spend a Profitable Hour Studying This Column.

It is rather a curious reflection which has been noted by one of the poets, that the same force that determines the shape of a dewdrop—round—also has had to do with making the world round, writes T. B. Russell. Small shot used to be made by dropping molten lead from a great height, in a shot tower, and there is a well-known story of the late Mr. Parnell's boyhood, when he climbed to the roof of the house he lived in with an iron ladle full of lead clippings in one hand, and had a brazier ready to be hoisted up, designing to try the experiment of making bullets in this way.

Water readily assumes the shape of small spherules in falling from a dust cart; one may see the drops roll along on the dust for quite a distance before their cohesion is overcome so as to let them spread. Mercury, which is heavier, falls into a flat puddle when poured on a plate; but, as every one knows, the sides of the puddle have a distinctly rounded shape, and a small quantity of mercury will lie almost in a spherical drop.

It will be objected, however, that the world is not quite round; it is flat at the poles, the wiseacres will say. That is true—at least, it bulges at the sides, and so makes the poles flat. But this is due to the operation of forces other than the gravitation which determines the general sphericity of worlds and dewdrops. It is due in great part to centrifugal force, the force which gives rapidly revolving bodies a tendancy to fly away from their axes. A Japanese parasol, or even an ordinary umbrella, will fly open if whirled by spinning the stick; and shop boys make use of this same centrifugal force to dry a mop which has been dipped in water, as the illustration shows.

The pretty experiment of whirling a can of water by a string, or by the handle, without spilling, is due to the same force; for this force keeps the liquid pressed firmly up against the side of the can, in its efforts to escape from the circle of rotation, even when the can is at that part of its orbit where the mouth is downward. Similarly, the earth, revolving at a great pace, in its semi-liquid or soft ages, on an axis whose ends we call the poles, set up sufficient of this force to partly alter its own shape from a true globe to the form which the geography books lucidly describe as an oblate spheroid, by which they mean a body shaped like an orange or thereabouts.

Gravitation is the quality by which every particle of matter in the universe attracts every other particle, with an energy proportioned to its mass, and decreasing according to the distances which divide them. Thus, it is not alone the earth, as many people seem to suppose, which exercises this quality. If we set two or three apples floating in a bucket of water, after a little while they are sure to be found together, and probably clinging to the side of the bucket. And if we hang a flat iron from a high window by a string attached to a piece of stick projecting some little way over the sill, we shall find, on observing it from a distance, that the iron will not hang quite perpendicular, as one would suppose, but will have a slight inclination toward the wall. The artist has been asked to purposely exaggerate the difference in the attached illustration, where the true perpendicular is represented by the dotted line. The farther we go away, the better we shall be able to see this effect.

The farther we go away, the better we shall be able to see this effect.

Gravitation is the quality by which every the floor exactly where the knife will land if so dislodged. Very few people can accurately guage the position. But the operator, who is in the secret, takes a full glass of water, and wets with it the hanging knife. There will be a drop left, which falling to the carpet indicates the place where the knife itself is sure to fall, and the five-cent piece is placed on that spot.

What is called the centre of gravity is the balancing point of a body, and we may, of course vary its position as we distribute the weight of the body. A curious experiment has recently been described, in which a weight was attached to the inside of a hollow ball as shown here. When such a ball is rolled on a table, it does not roll staight like any other ball, but takes a curious and eccentric course. When it is thrown whirlingly through the air it describes a series of curves, also shown in the illustration by dots. A hoop of wood (such as the side of an Elvas plum box or of any round box) may be made to roll paradoxically uphill a little way, by attaching half a bullet with glue to the inside, and the experiment causes great surprise if performed with an entire box, when the lid hides the source of its action. The larger the box the further it will roll phill, of course.

We are apt to think that heavy bodies fall more rapidly than light ones, and indeed so they do, for the reason that light objects cannot resist the obstructive influence of air. In a vacuum a sovereign and a piece of tissue paper will fall at exactly the same rate. It is only the resistance of the air which keeps the feather back under ordinary circumstances. If we cut a piece of tissue paper to the same size as a sovereign, it will be a long while falling under ordinary conditions; but placed just under the coin, it will reach the ground as rapidly. The little bottles called "imps," which will lie down, are made of paper, with half a bullet for the bottom. The shape of the bullet pulls the paper cone upright, unless the balance is redressed by a short piece of wire which the "magician" slips in unperceived. Any one can make an "imp's" bottle in this manner, with a bullet cut in half, as follows: Press the edge of a knife into the bullet, so as to just hold it, and then holding the knife by the handle, with the bullet downward, strike the blade sharply just above the bullet. The force of the blow will suffice to drive the bullet through the lead, probably at the first stroke, although the bullet is not supported in any way from below, and one would expect it to simply fall off. This effect is explained on the principle of inertia, on which many delightful experiments are based. But these must be left for another time.

The merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla is not accidental but is the result of careful study and experiment by educated pharmacists.

A Sensible Man would use Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs. It is curing more cases of coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup and all throat and lung troubles than any other medicine. The proprietor has authorized any druggist to give you a sample bottle free to convince you of the merits of this great remedy. Large bottles 50c. and $1. dw

"German Syrup"

Croup. We have selected two or three lines from letters freshly received from parents who have given German Syrup to their children in the emergencies of Croup. You will credit these, because they come from good, substantial people, happy in finding what so many families lack—a medicine containing no evil drug, which mother can administer with confidence to the little ones in their most critical hours, safe and sure that it will carry them through.

ED. L. WILLITS, of Alma, Neb. I give it to my children when troubled with Croup and never saw any preparation act like it. It is simply miraculous.

MRS. JAS. W. KIRK, Daughters' College, Harrodsburg, Ky. I have depended upon it in attacks of Croup with my little daughter, and find it an invaluable remedy.

Fully one-half of our customers are mothers who use Boschee's German Syrup among their children. A medicine to be successful with the little folks must be a treatment for the sudden and terrible foes of childhood, whooping cough, croup, diphtheria and the dangerous inflammations of delicate throats and lungs. ●

LITERARY.

Hardy, the English novelist, began as an architect. He is fifty-three years of age.

A copy of Poe's "Tamerlane" sold in Boston for $1,850.

Somebody says it is easy to criticise an author but hard to estimate him.

Dickens wrote twenty-four books, comprising 1,125 characters.

A library of 280,000 volumes has been bought in Berlin for Chicago University.

Titles of Mr. Gladstone's writings fill twenty-two pages of the catalogue of the British Museum.

A London bookdealer will send to the Exposition an autograph letter of Columbus which cost him $5,000.

In conversation, Mr. Gladstone is said to be good for at least a couple of columns on any subject from poultry to poetry.

The copyright of "Barnaby Rudge" brought Dickens twenty thousand dollars. The original agreement has been recently sold in London.

The widow of Fernandez Gonzales, the Spanish novelist, died lately. Although her husband made four hundred thousand dollars by his pen he left her poor.

The first edition of Gray's "Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard," was sold recently for fifty-nine pounds. One hundred and forty-one years ago it brought sixpence.

Walt Whitman's house has been bought by one of his executors, and is to be given to the poet's brother, on condition that the room in which the poet worked be kept as he left it.

Jean Ingelow's first poems were written on the window shutters, that folded back against the wall, in her old home. Her mother discovered them first, and her brother had them published.

Two Cambridge, England, women have been investigating old manuscripts in the monastery of Mount Sinai. They met with courtesy, and found the library cleaned and put in order for them.

Mr. Poulteney Bigelow, American traveller and writer, is said to have been expelled from Russia. He made a canoe trip the entire length of the Danube last year, and spoke very freely of Russian affairs while in London.

That is a repelling description which Justin Winsor gives of Columbus. This is the habit of modern history. Readers should examine the two sides, not that writers in general are willingly unjust but that nothing is more natural than injustice.

Never Punish When Angry.

"What?" inquired a surprised parent, in conversing on this subject, "do you say I must not punish my boy while I'm angry with him? Why, then I should hardly ever punish him at all. It is while I am sitting up for him, hour after hour, when I've told him over and over again that he must come in early, evenings, that I feel like taking hold of him smartly when he does come in. If I should say nothing to him then, but leave the matter until the next morning, I should sleep off all my feeling on the subject, and he wouldn't be punished at all." And that father, in that statement of the case, spoke of many a parent, in the whole matter of the punishing of the child while angry. The punishment which the child gets is the result of the passion of the parent, not of the parent's sense of justice; and the child knows this to be the case, whether the parent does or not.

How many boxes of the ear, and shakings of the shoulders, and slappings and strikings, and sentences of doom, which the children now get from their parents, would never be given if only the parents refrained from giving these while angry, but waited until they themselves were calm and unruffled before deciding whether to give them or not! It is not by any means easy for a parent to control himself in his anger, so as to refrain from acting on the impulse which his anger imparts, but he who has not control of himself is the last person in the world to attempt the control of others. And not until a parent has himself in perfect control ought he to take his child in hand for the judicial investigation and treatment of his case as an evil-doer.

A Foe to Biliousness.

Miss Meggie Dunlop, Mackey's, Ont., writes:—"I was a great sufferer from biliousness and headache and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured me." All dealers or by mail at 50c a box or 6 boxes for $2.50. Beware of imitations. Dr. Williams Med. Co., Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N.Y.

HAMILTON April 20th, 1892.

I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp and they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes. Hearing of Anti Dandruff I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years. When half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Anti-Dandruff has no equal.

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, Ont., January 15, 1890.
W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.
DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.
Yours faithfully,
H. F. ATWELL.

DEAR SIR,—For many years, I have been a firm believer in your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills." Not with a blind faith, but a confidence wrought by an actual personal experience of their value and merit. My business is such that I spend much of my time away from home, and I would not consider my travelling outfit complete without a box of Morse's Pills. Yours, &c.,

TWENTY LUNATICS DIE OF CHOLERINE.

Depository of a Miraculous Image Revealed in a Dream—Fatal Riot at a Spanish Fair—Deacon Will Not be Pardoned but Will be Expelled From France.

SANTANDER, Spain, July 27.—During the ceremonies incident to the opening of the annual fair at Alameda yesterday a dispute arose between a civilian and one of the soldiers of the garrison, which resulted in a serious riot. A large number of persons were present, many of whom took part in the melee.

The soldiers stationed at the barracks fired upon the mob which had taken sides with the civilian, notwithstanding that none of the mob was armed, killing two persons and wounding nine.

It was found necessary to call upon both the civil and military authorities to restore order.

Where a Czar was Murdered.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 27.—A sensation has been caused among the lower classes here by the discovery of a miraculous image of the Virgin in the foundation of the church being built on the spot where the Czar Alexander II. was murdered.

It is said that the Virgin revealed the presence of the image to an old woman in a dream.

The image was conveyed to the palace of the Grand Duchess Catharine Michailovna, where the court chaplain was the first to venerate it.

Doubters say the story was concocted to quicken the zeal of the public in behalf of the church building fund.

Twenty Lunatics Die of Cholerine.

PARIS, July 27.—No cases of cholera were reported in the suburbs.

A violent outbreak of a disease supposed to be cholera has occurred in the lunatic asylum at Bonneval, on the River Loir, 75 miles southwest of Paris. Of the 42 cases so far reported 20 have proved fatal. Dr. Brouardel, the specialist, who was sent from Paris to investigate, declares that the disease is merely cholerine.

Cholera in Roumania.

PARIS, July 27.—A despatch received by The Temps says that cholera has broken out at 12 places in Roumania.

Consigned to Living Tombs.

BRUSSELLS, July 27.—Moineau, the head of the Liege Anarchist band was yesterday sentenced to 25 years penal servitude. Wolff and Beaujean, two of the leaders to 29 years each. Four others to 15 years each and two to 10 and three years respectively.

Nine Hundred Homeless.

VIENNA, July 27.—Eighty houses and an ancient Capuchin monastery, with a valuable library, has been destroyed by fire at Male, a town in the Tyrol, 50 miles from Trent. Nine hundred persons are rendered homeless by the fires.

John Morley's Chances of Re-Election.

LONDON, July 27.—Edmund Yates cables—I hear from Newcastle that there is not the slightest chance for Mr. John Morley being elected for that city again, and that if he seeks a re-election on taking office he is sure to be defeated. The feeling is strong against him. Great efforts have been made to induce Mr. Cowen, proprietor and editor of The Newcastle Chronicle, quondam member for Newcastle, to come forward as a Radical Unionist.

The Queen to Remain at Osborne.

LONDON, July 27.—Edmund Yates cables: The Queen had intended to leave Osborne for Balmoral on Wednesday, Aug. 24, but all the Court arrangements are in abeyance until after the meeting of Parliament. It is, however, settled that Her Majesty is not to go to Scotland until the new Ministers have kissed her hand and received the seal of office. So the councils on the occasion of a change of Government will be held at Osborne.

Twelve thousand men are engaged in laying the eastern section of the Trans-Siberian Railway and the work will be completed next autumn.

In the fighting in the Moshi territory between the German force and natives Baron Von Bulow, Lieut. Wolfraur and 20 of the Soudanese soldiers attached to the expedition were killed.

Eugene Wolff, the newspaper correspondent in German East Africa, telegraphs that Dr. Stuhlman, the second in command of Emin Pasha's expedition, is ill at Bagaymo, and that he is lying at the point of death.

The eruption of Mount Etna is daily growing less violent. There is still a discharge of lava from one crater, together with heavy showers of fine volcanic sand, which reach as far as Catania.

The value of a good name was well exemplified the other day, when a man asked one of our druggists for a bottle of Sarsaparilla. "Whose?" inquired the clerk. "Whose?" Why, Ayer's, of course. Ye don't suppose I'm going to run any risks with Hannah, do ye?"

Cure for A Constipation and Headache

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that, when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50 cents package. dw

Seven Years' Suffering.

GENTLEMEN,—I have suffered very much from inflammatory rheumatism, which through wrong treatment left ugly running sores on my hands and feet. With these I suffered for seven years, during which time I had neither shoe nor stocking on. I commenced using B. B. B. externally and internally, using the pills also, and I can say now that the sores are entirely cured, and have been for some time. I believe the bitters were the means of saving my life.

HAVE RAIDED THEIR DEN

MORE ANARCHISTS ARRESTED AT PITTSBURG.

Alleged Plot to Blow Up One of the Carnegie Mills in Which Nearly 150 Men Were at Work—Wholesale Assassinations Planned.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 28.—Andrew Carnegie may well be thankful that he is in Scotland, for if he had been in America last Saturday it is exceedingly probable that triumphant anarchy would have vanquished the author of "Triumphant Democracy." Now that the police have drawn their net and the Anarchist conspirators lie helpless in it, there is no longer a particle of doubt that the attempt to assassinate Henry Clay Frick was the outcome of as vile a conspiracy as has ever been hatched in the United States. All the indications are that the plot was hatched in New York, the centre and hotbed of anarchy in this free country.

Bergman, who struck the blow, was sent on from New York. There is no doubt that he acted according to instructions received in New York.

The Pittsburg police have been for the past four days weaving a rope of evidence that promises to land every one of the prisoners thus far taken within the walls of state prison for 33 years.

The Pittsburg and Allegheny police believe that they have sufficient evidence to prove that these men were each accessories.

A thorough examination of the contents of the desk of Henry Bauer, who succeeded Herr Fricke as the head of the Anarchist Bureau of Literature in the Allegheny District, and whose arrest was telegraphed yesterday, has been made. Besides pictures of well-known Anarchists and an arsenal of firearms there was found a list of 70 millionaires.

A Diabolical Plot Said to Have Been Discovered—More Arrests.

PITTSBURG, July 28.—An attempt has been made recently to blow up Carnegie's lower union mills in this city by turning on the natural gas. There were 144 men in the furnace department at the time, and had the attempt proved successful there would have been great loss of life.

Two more Anarchists were arrested yesterday.

Mr. Frick is improving rapidly.

WHAT IT IS COMING TO.

The Advisory Committee Will Either Ruin or Wreck the Mills.

CHICAGO, July 28.—A local paper prints the following special from Homestead, Pa.: Since it has become evident that the Carnegie Steel Company, under the protection of the National Guard, is about successfully to operate its mills, prominent members of the advisory committee have been considering ways and means for preventing any successful working of the plant. One of the prominent members of the committee to-day said: "We will not under any circumstances permit those mills to run if there if any agency which may be employed to prevent it. We have already selected men who will go into those mills as fast as they can secure employment who are instructed and sworn to carry out our orders in consummating the policy which we have agreed upon. When we are assured there is no longer any hope for us our representatives in the mills will place explosives where they will do the most harm to the machinery. We have definitely determined that the mills shall not be operated by non-union men, and one of the principal ways to prevent it is to either control or wreck the property. I might say a great deal more, but under the circumstances I have gone as far as I dare."

LEADER MOST TALKS.

He Had No Use For Bergman, Who Is a Bungler.

NEW YORK, July 28.—A reporter saw John Most at the office of The Freiheit, No. 167 William-street, yesterday morning. He was preparing an editorial for this week's paper, which is issued to-day.

"My editorial this week," said Mr. Most, "will treat the Frick shooting as of little consequence. The man was assailed, but he was not killed.

"It was only a mere scratch—nothing at all. What the devil is the use of making such a fuss about it? I am getting out my paper, and haven't time to talk about it."

"What do you know about Berkman," asked the reporter.

"Berkman, Berkman! Why, Berkman is a ——— ———. He is my enemy. He is no good. I hate him as much as I do Frick, and Frick is the Czar of America.

"Berkman betrayed me. I took him in here and learned him to be a printer, and then when he got so he could do some things he turned around and blackguarded me; yes, sir, he blackguarded me and he joined my enemies, the Autonomists, who hate me worse nor the police.

"I hain't got any use for Berkman. He has been a botch all his life and the botch attack on Frick was just like him. He came to me a year and a half ago and said he wanted to be with us and that his views were like ours. He seemed like a smart fellow and I gave him a chance. I afterwards found out he was too radical. He didn't use good sense, and was always talking when talk wasn't any use. After he was discharged he joined the Autonomists and became a contributor to their paper, The Anarchist. The Anarchist devotes nearly all its space to abusing me, so you see why I hate Bergman. Any talk about me being mixed up in this affair is rot."

NEW RAILWAY ROUTE.

The New York Central Secures Direct Communication With Montreal.

ST. ALBAN'S, Vt., July 28.—The New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company have just bought Dr. Seward Webb's new railroad, the Adirondack and St. Lawrence railroad, and will take possession August 1. It thus owns and controls a direct line through the Adirondacks as far as Malone, N.Y., thence the Central Vermont, which is closely identified with the Vanderbilt system, and of which Mr. Webb is a director, owns the 46 miles to Coteau Junction. From this point they run to Montreal over the main line of the Grand Trunk Railroad. This practically gives the New York Central a through line of its own into Montreal.

A Quadruple Execution.

SOFIA, July 28.—The four conspirators, Mularoff, Popoff, Gheorghoff and Kargaloff, who with twelve others were recently tried by court martial on charges of being implicated in a plot against the lives of Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria and his Prime Minister, M. Stambuloff, were executed in this city at 5 o'clock yesteaday morning.

Norwegian Cabinet Crisis.

CHRISTIANIA, July 28.—At a Cabinet Council held Tuesday at which the King presided, His Majesty requested Mr. Steen, the Prime Minister, and his colleagues, who recently resigned, to remain in office. Mr. Steen agreed to this.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 28.—In view of the cholera in certain parts of Russia all the schools under the control of the Holy Synod have been closed and will not be reopened until October.

GREATEST SKIN CURES

Cuticura Cures All Skin Eruptions, Gives a Clear Complexion Free from Pimples.

Too much praise cannot be said of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, as I have used them for the last year and a half or so, and find them to be the greatest skin cures, blood purifiers and humor remedies of the age. I have used a good many so-called toilet soaps, and I find CUTICURA SOAP is the best I have ever used. I find it far superior to all other toilet or medicinal soaps. It cures all Skin eruptions, and gives a clear complexion. As for shampooing I would use no other, and for the face either, as it is a cure for all pimples, blackheads, eczema and all irritations and roughness of the face. For after using the CUTICURA SOAP awhile, it makes the face smooth and cool, and does not give that burning sensation which so many other toilet soaps do. Try the CUTICURA REMEDIES and you will not regret it that you have ever done so.

STRATTON & BRADBURN.

They Say They Are; But, Are They?

THIS is the time of year when lots of Clothing Stores are offering goods 50 to 60 per cent. below cost, and at much less than goods can be bought at other stores, retailing below wholesale prices, closing out the stock of some defunct or deceased firm, running alleged bargain tables and sacrificing goods below cost, just for fun, are among the many pleasantries to which clothiers treat the reading public.

A few days ago one of those shrewd, bright and flippant buyers entered our store. It was evident that curosity, and not the desire to purchase, had brought him. He looked at Suits and he looked at Overcoats. He criticised and condemned, but finally the salesman showed him a suit that attracted his attention. He objected to the price, whereupon the salesman informed him that we are at present selling goods below cost. Quick as a flash came the response, "You say you are, but are you? Everybody else is spinning the same old yarn." Well, we sold that man the suit. We convinced him that we are actually selling below cost. We showed him the old price in black figures, and the new one in red figures. The difference between the two told the tale. All we ask is to be put to the test. We are confident that we are underselling every one in the clothing trade.

To Whom it May Concern.

Be it know that there is a day before us—one that is causing some commotion among the society people of Peterborough. Their greatest anxiety is, how can they make the inhabitants of this burg believe that their excursion is the best? Now, of course every society has a right to believe that their own society is going to have the best trip. But the public at large are satisfied that the excursion to Stargazer Point on Civic holiday, Aug. 15th, under the auspices of Lansdowne Lodge Sons of England will be the best. Tickets for round trip 30c., children under 12 years, 40c.

The Artificial Lightning the Worst.

The Ontario Telephone exchange suffered greatly from the recent thunderstorm, but contact with the artificial lightning of the electric light wires was the more fatal. Last night an electric light wire by some means came into contact with the telephone wires and made mischief, burning out most of the lightning arresters. The insulation was burned off a large number of the wires, and the water used by the lad in charge to put out the fire very seriously damaged the switch board making it practically useless. The damage is very considerable and the switch board will be abandoned. On Monday a number of men will arrive from Hamilton to connect Ontario subscribers' instruments to the Bell exchange. It is expected that in the course of a few days the substitution will be effected.

Gun Club Jottings.

Six members of the club wended their way over to Riverside Park yesterday afternoon to enjoy their regular weekly pop. The wind was very strong and the score, notwithstanding the southern tempest which blew the birds to the ground, was highly creditable. Following is the score:—

R Tivey..... 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 1 1 0 0 1 0 0 1— 6

The Port Hope Gun Club have written Secretary Loucks that they are unable to get their club together next week to shoot a friendly match at Jubilee Point, but they said that the Peterborough Gun club may expect to hear from them soon with favorable results.

In the shoot yesterday afternoon Mr. E. B. Loucks shot with one of W. W. Greener's celebrated "Forester" guns, manufactured in Birmingham and London, England. The gun cost $175, and is the finest and best modelled gun ever seen in Peterborough. On the barrels is a patent grip made of spring steel and covered with morocco leather. It keeps the hand from touching the heated barrels while firing. The gun is entirely hammerless. After loading when the breech of the barrels is placed back in position, the gun is cocked, but by shifting a lock button on the side of the stock it unlocks the fowling piece. The handsomely polished barrels are fastened to the stock by a new patent treble wedge fast, whereas most firearms only possess one spring. Another great advantage this gun has is that there is no trigger to catch when boating or hunting, causing the gun to be discharged at random. When the lock button is shifted it is "safe," no power or accident of any kind can cause the gun to be discharged. Mothers could rest assured that their sons would be safe from harm if this new make were universally used.

Mr. Gus. Sawers used a handsome Ithaca gun, manufactured on the same principle as the "Forrester" gun. The Ithaca is very popular with Toronto gun clubs.

A Misunderstanding and its Explanation.

A slight misunderstanding took place at the gates of the P.A.A.A. grounds during the Orillia and Peterborough lacrosse match on Thursday. Some members of the P.A.A.A. who held $5 tickets, full membership tickets, entitling them to play in all the practice games and giving them free admission to all the matches played on the grounds and also those who held what is known as non players tickets, which cost $2, admitting the holder to all matches played on the grounds free of charge, were compelled to pay the necessary 25 cents admission to see the game, the gentleman at the gate refusing to accept either the full membership or non-player's tickets for admission to the game. In explanation to those holding these membership tickets and who were compelled to pay, it may be mentioned that the Peterborough Lacrosse team had made arrangements with the Orillia lacrosse club in reference to their receiving a certain percentage of the gate receipts and the gate keeper being an Orillia man, was a stranger to the rules of the P.A.A.A., and in refusing to accept these tickets, was only looking after the interests of his club. The ticket sellers also had no checks to give these permanent ticket holders in order to admit them. The trouble has now been obviated, and in future no misunderstanding will, it is hoped, occur. After this all holders of full membership or non-player's tickets on presentation of these at the ticket office will receive checks, which by instructions the gatekeeper will accept and admit them. When the returns are made up after the match there will be no trouble or misunderstanding over how many tickets have been sold and what the receipts are, owing to this present system of managing affairs. The directors of the Peterborough Amateur Athletic Association express regret that any misunderstanding or trouble arose over the matter from an unlooked-for source and the treasurer of the association has received word to refund the admission fee to all those holding full membership or non-player's tickets, who were, in consequence of the misunderstanding, compelled to pay to enter the grounds. The directors assure such holders of tickets that no mistake of a like nature will occur again. In view of the arrangements stated above.

MESSRS TUCKETT & SON are often asked to call their "Myrtle Navy" tobacco to retail dealers. They never in any case do so, and for the best of reasons. The wholesale trade of the country have a distributing machinery which handles the "Myrtle Navy without any addition to its permanent expenses. If the manufacturers were to undertake that work, as they would by selling to the retail trade, it would require an independent machinery, the whole cost of which would have to be borne by the proceeds of the tobacco sales, and of course it would fall upon the consumer. Selling to the wholesale trade alone is, therefore, for the consumer's benefit, and is a convenience to the retail trade, because every traveller who calls—in the grocery line—can take orders for "Myrtle Navy."

THE CANADIAN BUDGET.

THREE MORE FATALITIES IN THE QUEEN CITY.

Scalped by a Washing Machine—An Immigrant Lad Sustains a Fatal Sunstroke—Attacked by Minks—An Old Sailor's End—Smallpox Epidemic Over.

TORONTO, July 30.—William H. Tugard, a colored longshoreman, fell off the schooner Lily last night. Some of the ship's crew rushed to his assistance, but were unable to save him. Deceased leaves a wife and family.

The body of Daniel Sullivan, a deck hand on the steamer Carmona, was fished out of the Scott-street slip yesterday morning.

William Hildcraft, an electric light man, while assisting in repairing a break on one of the lines last night, received a shock which resulted in instant death. The unfortunate man leaves a wife and two children.

RISING RAPIDLY.

Matrimonial Relief for a Sufferer Offered by a Sympathetic American.

ST. JOHN'S, N.F., July 30.—Temporary buildings are going up rapidly in the burned district, 227 being under way now. Permanent structures will be erected as soon as new street lines are run. All old streets in the fire-swept section are to be straightened.

The mayor received from the United States yesterday a letter containing an offer to marry any one of the feminine sufferers, providing she is of good character, has light complexion, is plump, weighing from 150 to 175 pounds, and is between 25 and 35 years old.

Relief supplies continue to come in.

Another victim of the fire, a man named Doyle, died yesterday.

FEROCIOUS MINKS.

A Man Badly Bitten and a Boy Kills 20 of Them.

ARTHUR, Ont., July 30.—A prominent farmer had occasion to visit a creek bottom on his farm, accompanied by his dog. While walking through the tall grass he suddenly came upon a migrating army of minks, and they instantly attacked him with incredible ferocity, jumping at his throat, biting his hands and legs and fairly swarming upon him. His dog was quickly compelled to abandon him, and but for the assistance rendered by some men in an adjoining hayfield, who were attracted by his cries, he would undoubtedly have been overpowered. A boy armed with a stout club succeeded in killing 20 of the ferocious animals.

DIED ON THE ROADSIDE.

Henry Oxford, an Immigrant Lad, Sustains a Fatal Sunstroke.

CHATHAM, Ont., July 30.—Dr. J. L. Bray held an inquest yesterday on the body of a young lad named Henry Oxford, 13 years of age, who was secured from Dr. Barnardo's Home in Toronto by William Morrison, a Raleigh farmer, two weeks ago and who died suddenly.

On the day of his death he watched the cows till noon; at 3 o'clock he was working, pulling mustard, for half an hour; about 5 o'clock he went out for the cows. Not answering when called to tea Mrs. Morrison went out to look him up. She found him lying on the roadside dead.

Dr. Duncan held the post mortem and gave it as his opinion that death had been caused by the excessive heat.

Smallpox Epidemic Over.

VICTORIA, B.C., July 30.—The smallpox scarcely claims recognition now in the ordinary street conversation. It has run its course, and people have become tired of it as they do of everything else, and want something fresh to discuss. There have been no startling developments and the patients are nearly all convalescent.

A Minister Down With Smallpox.

WINNIPEG, July 30.—Rev. Mr. Small, Presbyterian minister at Gretna, is afflicted with smallpox. He caught the disease while visiting some Chinamen there.

Mangled in a Mowing Machine.

SMITH'S FALLS, Ont., July 30.—Ralph Campbell of North Elmsley became entangled in a mowing machine he was driving owing to the horses becoming unmanageable. He was terribly cut by the knives, had three ribs broken and his shoulder dislocated.

Found Dead in a Field.

ERIE, Ont., July 30.—The dead body of a man was found in a field on the farm of Mr. Isaac Teeter. The body presented the appearance of a man about 50 years of age. He is supposed to have escaped from some criminal or charitable institution and that he died from exhaustion.

Scalped by a Washing Machine.

PRESTON, Ont., July 30.—While ascending a hill on a furniture wagon Willie Biggs slipped off, and a washing machine fell on him, tearing the scalp entirely from one side of his head. He will probably die.

Prosecuting a Candidate for Treating.

WINNIPEG, July 30.—George Lawrence, the defeated Opposition candidate in Killarney, is being prosecuted by temperance people for treating during his canvass.

Found Dead in a Closet.

CHATHAM, Ont., July 30.—Dougald McNeill, aged 70, a tanner, was found dead in a closet by some neighbors. A few hours before he was in his usual health.

The Vote on Prohibition.

WINNIPEG, July 30.—Returns regarding the vote on prohibition in Manitoba at the recent election show nearly three to one in favor of the law.

Crushed His Skull in.

SMITH'S FALLS, Ont., July 30.—John James of Montague was engaged drawing hay. A hay fork was used to unload with, and while taking up a fork full the staple in the rafters that held up the fork gave way and the falling block struck Mr. James on the head, fracturing his skull.

Aged 70 and of Unsound Mind.

SMITH'S FALLS, Ont., July 30.—Mrs. Bolton, aged 70 and of unsound mind, who resides on a farm in North Augusta, wandered away a fortnight ago and is believed to have perished from exposure.

Killed by his Team.

MOUNT FOREST, Ont., July 30.—Isaac Halliday of Esquesing was thrown from his rig while descending a hill and so seriously injured that he died.

THE NEW GREAT GUN.

Development of the Modern Murder Machine—Experiments Yesterday.

BRIDESBURG, Pa., July 30.—As the completion of the 20-inch brown segmental tube air gun draws near, the experiments with the fac simile tests have been resumed. Yesterday, with a new powder of greater energy than that heretofore used, three shots were fired, the first giving a pressure of 44,000 pounds per square inch, the second 56,200 pounds and the third more than—86,000 pounds. The exact figures have not been ascertained, but it is known that more than 86,000 pounds was the pressure in the cylinder. The extraordinary result, fully 50 per cent. greater than has ever been obtained in any built-up gun, left no mark whatever on the cylinder, and there was not the slightest enlargement of the bore. The total pressure on each of the plugs at the ends of the cylinder was more than 1,320,000 pounds.

TORONTO GRAIN MARKETS.

Business Transacted and Prices of Grain in the Queen City.

TORONTO, July 30.—There was no grain received on the street yesterday. Wheat is nominal at 80c for red and white, 72c for spring and 66c for goose. Oats are quoted 34c to 35c. Hay was in light supply at $8 to $9 for new and $11 to $12 for old. Straw sold at $9 to $10.

Business was quiet on 'change, two cars of wheat offered by sample at 75c and 74c without bids.

SAULT CANAL.

Nearly 12,000 Vessels Passed Through During the Last Fiscal Year.

DULUTH, July 30.—The annual statement of the Sault Canal for the fiscal year ending June 30 shows the number of vessels passing through the canal into and out of Lake Superior was 11,557, an increase of 2027 over 1891. Tonnage was, by freight, 10,000,000 tons, an increase of 17.5 per cent. over the year before recorded.

Impaled Upon the Bull's Horns

SAN LUIS POTOSI, Mex., July 30.—A sickening sight was witnessed here last night at a bull fight by electric light in the new ring near the city. There were 5000 persons present. The matador, Alberto Limertura, was in the act of giving the third bull a thrust with his short sword, when he slipped and fell. The frenzied bull had him on his horns in a moment, and was goring him ferociously when three of the banderilleros rushed to the rescue. Suddenly the bull charged upon one of the banderilleros, who sought protection behind a barrier erected for that purpose. The bull overtook him and caught him up on the sharp points of his horns, which penetrated entirely through the man's body.

Widowed by Canned Lobster.

NEW YORK, July 30.—Charles Newport was a young Englishman who lived with his parents in Tompkinsville, S.I., and a little while ago he started the Newport Club House, a saloon, on the corner of Bay and Williams streets. He prospered and three weeks ago was married to Miss Dora Getze of Stapleton.

Among the dishes served at the wedding dinner was canned lobster. Immediately after eating it he became sick. The doctor, his father said yesterday, pronounced it a clear case of poisoning. The young man's blood became tainted, and the hot weather of the past few days turned the scale against him and he died. His bride is nearly distracted.

Claims $50,000.

SAND BEACH, Mich., July 30.—A social sensation was caused here yesterday when a young woman giving her name as Cora Lambreth, and bearing in her arms a 2-year-old child, filed notice with the executors of the estate of Harold Watson, who was one of the wealthiest residents and most prominent men in the state, that she would enforce a claim of $50,000 against the estate.

The grounds of her claim are that Watson was her husband by a common law marriage, that he is the father of her child and that she holds a statement from Watson, which in the event of his death was to entitle her to $50,000 from his estate

She lives in Canada, where Watson first met her, and soon afterward he furnished an elegant home for her in Toronto.

Since his death, 18 months ago, she has been endeavoring to secure the amount of her claim from the heirs, but affirms that while they admit its justice they refused to make it good, and she has been forced to make it public.

Watson was well known in political and social circles, and though a bachelor bore an excellent character. He left an estate of nearly $750,000, divided among half a dozen heirs.

The Belle Isle Disaster.

DETROIT, July 30.—The body of a young lady was picked up in the river near Wyandotte early yesterday. It is undoubtedly that of the young woman drowned Sunday with Frederick Reitz while out boating at Belle Isle. The remains are those of a girl of refinement and were clothed in apparel of excellent material. There is little doubt that the body picked up near Amherstburg last evening is that of Frederick Reitz. Mrs. Fox, Abbott-street, is said to be missing since Sunday. Her husband has been dead three months. It is thought she is the woman drowned at Belle Isle.

Bodies Not Yet Recovered.

WIARTON, Ont., July 30.—The bodies of the six persons drowned yesterday have not been recovered as yet, although the tug is out constantly with scow and outriggers, 60 feet wide, armed with drags.

Carried Beyond His Depth

STREETSVILLE, Ont., July 30.—Nathaniel, the 5-year-old son of William Brown of the Woolen Company, was carried beyond his depth while bathing and drowned.

Drowned at Rat Portage.

WINNIPEG, Man., July 30.—Mrs. W. T. Bell of Winnipeg was drowned at Rat Portage yesterday.

Novel Suggestion.

SIOUX FALLS, S. Dak., July 30.—The Council Committee appointed to investigate United States Commissioner Lyons' proposition for city ownership of saloons has made a favorable report.

It proposes a saloon in each ward, with a barkeeper at $50 a month and an assistant at $30.

No chairs or tables will be allowed, and only straight whisky and beer will be sold; no mixed drinks. The report will be made at the next council meeting.

A Hamilton Fire.

HAMILTON, July 30.—Fire occasioned $950 damage at Ainsworth's paint shop at an early hour yesterday morning.

SATURDAY, JULY 30, 1892.

IS THE CHOLERA COMING?

THIS is a question which any civilized community may regard as pertinent. The cholera is raging in Russia and Poland and has got as far west as Paris, the gay capital of France. It is still confined to the suburbs; but it has beset the city and will be found a foe harder to repel than the investing army of the Germans in 1870, when the Russian wheat crop begins to move, and finds its way to England, is there not great danger of the spread of the cholera to the British capital, and with a perpetual intercourse between England and Canada, is it not reasonable to indulge the fear that Canada may be invaded by the pestilence? With this danger confronting us, it would be wise to take every possible precaution. The most thorough system of quarantine should be put into practice. Any neglect in this respect, that will leave the slightest chance that human means can avert, for the cholera to enter Canada is criminal. It is therefore difficult to understand why the Dominion Government declines to improve the condition of the Grosse Island quarantine station, which is shamefully ineffective and presents no barrier of a really effectual character against the entrance of any contagion or pestilence that an incoming vessel may bring. If the Government at the threshold of the Dominion invites the easy entrance of cholera to Canada, there is all the more reason that all the authorities in every community should exercise the utmost activity in making such communities an unsuitable home for cholera. This can be done by paying the most scrupulous attention to both public and domestic cleanliness, and putting city, town and home in the completest possible sanitary condition. The importance of such a step is too obvious to require insistence. The immunity of any country where the Asiatic scourge may find a foothold, from fatal and far spread effects, will be in direct ratio to the public, private and personal observance of the well-known laws of health. Abstemious and temperate habits of life are a good coat of mail against cholera for individuals, and cleanliness of city and home are fortifications that cholera will find it difficult to carry. The necessity of the most perfect, public and domestic cleanliness should engage the attention of the health authorities of Peterborough. At any time a progressive town will be willing to put itself in a condition most conducive to the good health and well-being of the citizens; and this willingness will be especially shown when this good health and well-being may be subjected to unusual danger.

A Prominent Feature!

A Blessing to the Family.

The best physicians in Canada readily admit that Lactated Food is superior to all other foods now on the market. They are aware that it possesses all the necessary elements that the young infant requires, when it is deprived of nature's food—breast milk.

One prominent feature of Lactated Food is the employment of pure milk sugar, thus bringing it near to the standard of healthy human milk. The best medical authorities recommend the use of milk sugar in food for infants in place of cane sugar.

Cane sugar is largely employed in the common prepared foods, and has a tendency to produce fermentation in the stomach, and break up in carbonic acid and alcohol, and thus augments irritation. It also produces gastric catarrh and diarrhœa, and frequently conduces to constipation.

All these dangers are avoided when the mother feeds her infant on pure Lactated Food, which is relished by the little one, and is always retained on the weakest stomach. Lactated Food is, in hundreds of cases, the salvation of the child, and mothers readily admit this fact. Mothers who feed their infants on Lactated Food, are saved from the many worries which harass the mothers who use cow's milk and other foods. Lactated Food is a grand blessing to every member of the family as well as to the little infant.

The Hog-Fostering Industry.

One of the high tariff organs urges that our farmers should go into hog-feeding if they find other lines of business unprofitable. The farmers have been feeding monopoly and combinester hogs for some years, but there is no money for them in such an occupation. Hogs of the Drummond and Gault breed are hard to fatten. It takes a tremendous amount of farm produce to put flesh upon them. They are now pretty fat, but the moment that anybody suggests that their rations be reduced they squeal piteously, and insist that they are still "infant" hogs, whom the farmers of the country must continue to feed. The farmers of Canada have built million dollar palaces on both sides of the Atlantic for their monopoly hogs, but the whole experiment with the breed has proved unremunerative. The hogs seem to think the farmers were made for their benefit, and not they for the benefit of the farmers.—Ottawa Free Press.

Belmont.

Mr. T. C. Caskey, of Blairton, has recently purchased from F. Birdsall & Son, the pure bred Jersey calf, St. Hillier Belleone. Mr. Caskey is to be congratulated on his enterprise in bringing such a valuable animal into Belmont.

A lady, whose hair came out with every combing, was induced to give Ayer's Hair Vigor a faithful trial. She did so, and not only was the loss of hair checked, but a new and vigorous growth soon succeeded that which had gone.

A Child Saved.

My little boy was taken very bad with diarrhœa, he was very delicate and got so low we had no hope of his life, but a lady friend recommended Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and although he could only bear a few drops at a time he got well. It saved my child.

Educational Letters.

NO. 1.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Believing that another crisis is approaching in our educational affairs, I take the liberty of addressing to you this first of a series of letters which I intend to write, giving my views as to the causes of these periodical outbreaks, and suggesting certain changes which I believe to be in the interest of the community.

I have no intention of entering upon a defence of my character, against the malicious and cowardly attacks of Mr. Dumble. If he derives any satisfaction from reiterating these charges or if the other members of the Board find them entertaining, I have no desire to interfere with any of their amusements; but I shall endeavour to show that there is work for them to do which is of more importance to the supporters of the school than a discussion of the private characters of the ratepayers.

Nor am I influenced in the course, which, after careful consideration, I have decided to pursue, by any personal feeling against the Board of Education, or any of the teaching staff. With the treatment I received from the Board during the seventeen years of my engagement with them, I have no fault to find. On the contrary, I remember with gratitude the steady support which I received from most of the trustees; and try to forget, except when his irrepressible malice recalls it to my mind, the persistent and unscrupulous opposition of Mr. Dumble.

I have watched with pleasure the progress that has been made by our Collegiate Institute since the appointment of Principal Fessenden. For him and his able and gentlemanly staff of assistants I entertain the highest respect. I have never ceased to take a deep interest in all that concerns our schools, and heartily sympathize with every effort to increase their efficiency and extend the sphere of their usefulness.

My object in writing this letter is not to injure the schools, but rather to point out the dangers with which, in my opinion, they are at the present time threatened.

In a letter addressed to you nearly three years ago I stated that no institution could permanently prosper as long as Mr. Dumble was in anyway connected with it. Since that time, I have seen no reason to change my mind, and I still assert that Mr. Dumble's presence at the meetings of the Board is a constant menace to the stability of our educational institutions. If the present condition of affairs in our Collegiate Institute has been brought about by Mr. Dumble, as I believe he boasts it has, he deserves all credit for it. Nor do I deny that the present efficiency of the school is largely due to him. No one will refuse to give him credit for the possession of certain qualities which are most desirable in a trustee.

He is liberal—I might use a stronger term—in the expenditure of public money, ambitious of having the name of building up a large and flourishing institution, regular in his attendance at the meetings of the Board, and always ready to take a leading part in the discussion of every question, while his position as police magistrate gives him an importance to which his ability does not entitle him.

With these qualities, however, Mr. Dumble has others which are not of so useful a character. His mind, though active, is narrow and prejudiced. He is vain and fond of displaying his power; arbitrary, and not overscrupulous as to the means he makes use of to accomplish his purposes. Of a nature somewhat coarse and unfeeling he is ignorant or careless of the wounds he inflicts on others. Not content with ruling the Board, he occasionally lets them see that he rules them. When this occurs there is an outburst of dissatisfaction, which, usually, however, soon subsides. He permits himself to be defeated on some minor points, while the substantial advantage remains on his own side.

An example of this kind was furnished at a recent meeting of the Board. Mr. Dumble permitted them to discharge the music teacher, while in the more important question of a change of Inspectors, he obtained, almost single handed, a complete victory over the Board. What makes this the more noticeable is the fact that Mr. Dumble is a High School trustee, while the duties of the Inspector are confined to the Public Schools. Though Mr. Dumble generally manages to appease the Board by some unimportant concession, or attains his end by artifice or bullying, there are times when he is unable to do so; and it is just here that the danger which threatens our schools is to be apprehended.

There are on the Board a number of much abler men than Mr. Dumble, but they are either unable or unwilling to resort to the arts by which he usually succeeds. There is a danger that these gentlemen, in order to mark their disapproval of Mr. Dumble's conduct, may be led into some act which will result injuriously to the educational interests of the town. It is by no means uncommon, even now, to hear members of the Board congratulating themselves on account of having defeated Mr. Dumble.

Now, Mr. Dumble is not always wrong. On the contrary, he is often right, and it is much to be regretted, if he is to remain a member of the Board, that a feeling of this kind should exist.

But, though this state of affairs is to be regretted, it is, by no means, a matter of surprise.

Mr. Dumble is an educated man—a university graduate. Though lacking that breadth of mind which enables one to attain distinction, he is skilled in all the petty arts of his profession. He is a man of considerable wealth, and holds an important public position. He is a prominent member of a respected church; accustomed to speak in its assemblies; and can assume, at the meetings of the Board, an air of candour which lends weight to his utterances. With such a colleague as I have described Mr. Dumble to be, it is quite natural that the other members of the board should be occasionally on guard and should be inclined to view with suspicion any question he may bring forward.

Though there is, in Mr. Dumble's character, a large element of uncertainty, any injury to the schools is less likely to result from any direct act of his than from some act on the part of others which may be brought about by his arbitrary proceedings.

It would, of course, be much better for the peace of the community, and ultimately for the educational interests of the town if the town council would not persist in appointing Mr. Dumble to the position of High School trustee. In the meantime the other members of the Board should decide each question on its merits, quite regardless of Mr. Dumble's opposition or support, and should carefully guard against permitting his idiosyncrasies from influencing their judgment on public questions.

In my next letter I shall take up the question of the Public Schools, and shall gladly answer any communications which may appear over the writer's own signature.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for the present and former use of your columns, I am,

Yours truly,

BARTON EARLE.

The Municipal Act.

Outline of Recent Legislation Affecting Municipal Government.

The qualifications of councillors in towns is reduced to $400 freehold or $600 leasehold; in townships to $200 freehold or $400 leasehold.

Leaseholds for a term of not less than 5 years are to be deemed owners for the municipal franchise, and persons assessed for $200 or more in towns of less than 3,000 inhabitants are now entitled to vote. The former minimum was $300.

The day for resigning is limited to the nomination day and the day following. A voter may select for himself any one of the prescribed forms of oath.

Certified copies of documents in the custody of the clerk may be filed in courts instead of the original.

Auditors are required to make a report upon the condition and value of the securities given by the treasurer, the cash balance in his hand, and whether immediately available. The treasurer's book account shall also be submitted to the auditors.

The valuation for equalization may be extended by the county council for a further period of five years.

Clerks are to receive a reasonable remuneration for services under the ditches and watercourses act and for copies of documents furnished.

In voting on money by-laws a voter can vote in each ward in which he has a vote.

The power of granting a bonus for promoting any manufacture is withdrawn.

A more definite procedure in relation to motions to quash bylaws is enacted, and the party applying is now required to give security for costs to the extent of him self in $50 and two securities in $50 each.

A magistrate is not disqualified from acting where in case of conviction a fine, or part thereof, goes to the municipality of which he is a ratepayer.

Cities and towns may pass bylaws enabling inspectors or chief constables, where a person is charged with being drunk without being disorderly, in the case of a first or second offence, to discharge the offender without bringing him before a magistrate.

Hawkers of watches, plated ware or silver ware are required to take out a pedlar's license.

—A gentleman showed a reporter to-day a very ancient silver coin—at least its stamp indicated it was. He said that he had won many dollars in wagering lovers of old and curious moneys that he had an older coin than any of them had. An explanation revealed the fact that the coin was a soft silver piece, and had had the date stamped on perfectly by the owner himself that it was impossible to distinguish it from the regular stamped date on all the coins at the time of last make.

They captured two muskinonge, one tipping the steel-yards at 27 pounds and the other, more modest, weighing 15. They also hooked twenty fine black bass, varying in weight from two to five pounds. They claim that one of their beauties weighed 6½ lbs. This looks like a mistake, either of the scales of the fishers or the scales of the fish.

Off for the Labrador.

Acadian Recorder, Halifax, N. S.

Prof. W. M. Reid, J. D. Scomberger, Lyle Vincent and W. D. Vincent arrived by the Halifax last night. They are some of the party who go to Labrador in the schooner Evelina in the interests of the World's Fair to secure an Esquimaux village with some fifty inhabitants and all appurtenances thereto belonging. The schooner left Cunningham & Carren's wharf to-day on her mission.

A Recorder reporter was talking to-day to Capt. Wm. McConnell, of Port Hilford, Guysboro, who is in charge of the vessel. An interesting incident was mentioned (and although it sounds like a "puff" of a patent medicine it is worth noting.) "Do you see that man over there," said a friend. "that is Capt. McConnell, who is going after Esquimaux. I have known him for years, and he was that bad with asthma that he had sometimes to be held up on board his vessel. You see him"—(he was piling wood in a cord measure to take on board)—" he is a well man; and he attributes it to some of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that he took. two after each meal."

Out of curiosity, the reporter secured an introduction to the captain, and after some talk about the expedition, remarked: "Is that correct, Captain, about your recovery from asthma, and that you attribute it to those pills?"

"Well, I don't know anything else. I recovered after taking them."

"And haven't been troubled since?"

"No. Of course we will see what this winter may bring forth; I haven't said anything about it."

"But last winter?"

"I began taking them in December, and found the change brought about in my condition, which Dr. Parker, of Halifax, said was about as bad as it could be."

It isn't often that a patent medicine gets such a big boom in the incidence of newsgathering, as is furnished in the above; but it is all set down just as it transpired, incidentally.

The whole Labrador party consists of Messrs. Tabor and Vincent, Prof. Reid, of Harvard College; Mr. Lyle Vincent, St. Louis; Dr. Baur, Philadelphia, a distinguished naturalist; Prof. Gillette, New Haven, Conn., and Hon. W. F. Ryder, Quebec. They expect to return with about 50 Esquimaux, with dogs, komatiks, kayaks, and a general collection of curiosities from Esquimaux land. The schooner is a handsome model, 85 tons, and is a fast sailer. John Silver & Co., furnished the supplies.

Progress.

It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

Another Company Organized.

The Local Branch of the Globe Savings and Loan Company Elected Officers Last Night—They Apply for a Charter.

A regular meeting of the local branch of the Globe Savings and Loan Company, whose head office is in Toronto, was held last evening at the office of the Secretary-Treasurer on Water street for the purpose of appointing officers and applying for a charter. The Globe Savings and Loan Company has a capital of $10 000,000 and the officers in connection with the Toronto head office are, Wm. Ball, of the Ball Organ Co., President; W. H. Howland, ex Mayor of Toronto, first Vice-President; John Fisch, of the Temperance and General Life Company, second Vice-President; J. L Kerr, formerly with the Confederation Life, Manager and Secretary. This Company has been anxious to protect its members in every possible way, and as additional security over and above that afforded by the heavy bonds which all the officers have given, the following is the substance of two out of many of the clauses in their by-laws:—

1st.—To make is impossible for any member of the Company to misuse the funds, all moneys are remitted to the Imperial Trust Company, who will only hand it to the officers of the Globe Savings and Loan Company, when they receive first mortgages or real estate in its place. Therefore, as the Imperial Trust Company is incorporated by the Dominion Government to receive money in trust, and has a very large capital, there can be no fear of the funds being misappropriated.

2nd.—The Company have two regularly appointed auditors, who audit the books and accounts of the Globe Savings and Loan Company, and also of the Imperial Trust Company, once every month. In this way the one is a check on the other, and makes it impossible for the slightest mistake to go long undetected. As Building and Loan Societies are quite as common as Insurance Companies, both in the Old Country and the United States, and are sure to become the same in Canada, it is hoped that the Local Board of the Globe Savings and Loan Company under its new officers will have every success, and when it is known that one hundred and seventy-five shares have already been sent forward, and that some of those who were present at last night's meeting feeling that the security was as good as it was possible to have from any company, are arranging to double up on their shares, there is no doubt but that a prosperous future awaits them.

We might here state that any sum from fifty cents to one hundred dollars per month is accepted and the interest compounded monthly.

The officers of the local board are H. C. Stabler, President; G. S. Bean, Vice-President; Felix Brownscombe, Sec.-Treas.; E. H. D. Hall, Solicitor; David Spence, Dr. Carmichael and J. H. Deake, Directors.

GAY GOWNS IN PARIS.

FRENCH LADIES AFFECT THE STYLES OF YEARS AGO.

From These Illustrations You Can Get a Fair Idea of "Style" as Observed on the Fashionable Streets and in the Drawing Rooms of Paris.

Antiquities are the rage in Paris this season. The Parisian woman, gowned for an evening fete, looks as if she had stepped down from the gilt frame which adorns the portrait of her great grandmother. There is a picturesque quaintness in the sweeping train, the high-puffed sleeves, and the deep, old-fashioned frills she wears. One of the most charming of these old style costumes was made of pale pink crepe, with a full plain skirt. The square corsage was cut low and edged with a standing frill of silvered lace. One huge puff of pink crepe, with an over drapery of the lace, constituted the sleeve, which reached to the elbow. A sash of pink surah, with a silver stripe, went about the waist and hung in long ends down the front of the gown.

The yachting costumes of the season are jaunty and rather severe of outline. A pretty gown to be worn at the seashore is of dark blue diagonal serge, with a pin stripe of scarlet. The blazer, which is cut away at the waist, but with the long ends at the back, is worn over a Russian blouse bodice of soft white serge, trimmed with gold braid and gold buttons. There is a deep white sailor collar edged with gold. The combination of colors is very striking.

The fashionable Russian blouse is shorn of its sleeves. It's a filmy, dressy affair, made of lace chiffon or the finest of crepe. Sometimes the crepe is accordeon plaited and sometimes it is fashioned entirely of folds. An effective Russian blouse was made of Venetian point lace worn over a waist of vieux rose silk, the sleeves of which were a succession of puffs. The Russian blouse had no sleeve save an epaulet of lace.

A gown specially designed for the woman of good figure is a clinging princess robe of black bengaline. The back has a Watteau effect made in accordeon plaits of black gauze. The trimming is brought over the bust and carried around to the back, where it holds the plait in position. An arrangement of heliotrope braid and gilt and green beads. One full puff constitutes the sleeve, which is of heliotrope crepe and reaches to the elbow. With the costume is worn long pale-green gloves and a large black Gainsborough hat laden with pale green tips.

French children look like the golden-haired pink and white Parisian dolls so dear to the heart of American youngsters. They are the most precise, dainty bits of humanity one could wish to see. The white nainsook dresses are combined with colored silk embroidery. A fair child seen in the park one bright afternoon recently wore a dress of white nainsook. The skirt reached to the knee, and towards the bottom was inserted a band of sheer embroidery, the design being outlined in baby-blue silk. A white surah sash, with long blue silk fringe, was tied about the waist. The square yoke was of solid silk embroidery and the full sleeves had cuffs of the same. A big hat with a puffed crown of white surah silk and a shirred brim of blue mull, rested on the bobbing golden curls. A jaunty outing costume of original design is of a light-weight brown serge, made princess effect, with a pointed bodice and suspenders. At one side the gown divides, showing an underskirt of soft material dotted with yellow. From the bodice to the bottom of the skirt is a row of gilt buttons, and a shirt waist of white linen with the yellow dots is worn with the costume.

No matter how severely plain a gown may be made, its skirt is sure to boast a trimming around the bottom. Outing costumes have bands of gilt, silver or fringe braid. The cloth dresses are finished with folds of the material or silk braid arranged in odd patterns, while the evening costumes have a variety of ribbon trimmings. One mode of adornment for the hem of a skirt is to use a band of broad satin ribbon, tying it here and there into a double bow. Ruchings of ribbon and rosettes of ribbon are also worn. Ruffles in alternating lengths of embroidered chiffon make a pretty finish to a skirt.

"German Syrup"

The majority of well-read physicians now believe that Consumption is a germ disease. In other words, instead of being in the constitution itself it is caused by innumerable small creatures living in the lungs having no business there and eating them away as caterpillars do the leaves of trees. The phlegm that is coughed up is those parts of the lungs which have been gnawed off and destroyed. These little bacilli, as the germs are called, are too small to be seen with the naked eye, but they are very much alive just the same, and enter the body in our food, in the air we breathe, and through the pores of the skin. Thence they get into the blood and finally arrive at the lungs where they fasten and increase with frightful rapidity. Then German Syrup comes in, loosens them, kills them, expells them, heals the places they leave, and so nourish and soothe that, in a short time consumptives become germ-proof and well.

MOORS ON THE MARCH.

EUROPEANS ON THE COAST FLYING TO TANJIER.

Insolence of Anarchy—Four Prisoners Insult Their Judge During Their Trial At Versailles—They Are Convicted and Sentenced to Long Terms of Imprisonment.

TO ATTACK TANGIER.

An Alarming Rumor that the Insurgents will Attack the Town.

TANGIER, July 29.—Great excitement and alarm have been created in this city by a report which has been circulated that the insurgents are advancing on the city with the purpose of attacking the Sultan's troops stationed here. The Europeans living along the shore adjacent to the city are flocking into the town for refuge.

"DROWN THEM!" YELLED THE CROW

Conviction of the Versailles Anarchists—Heavy Sentences Imposed on Them.

PARIS, July 29.—The trial at Versailles of the four Anarchists, Faugoux, Chalieton, Drouet and Etievant, who were under indictment for stealing a quantity of dynamite which was used in the explosions on May-day, was ended yesterday by the conviction of the prisoners. Faugoux was sentenced to 20 years' imprisonment at hard labor, Challeton to 12 years, Drouet to 6 and Etievant to 5.

After sentence had been pronounced and the prisoners were being taken from the courtroom to their cells they shouted, "Vive Anarchie!" Their cries were responded to by the crowd which had gathered outside of the court room to catch a glimpse of the prisoners by shouts of, "Drown them!"

At the conclusion of the trial Faugoux boasted that he had always cherished an intense hatred of society, which he declared he would carry to prison with him.

ROBERT LOWE'S DEATH.

An Erudite Master of Classic Lore Who Became Chancellor of the Exchequer.

LONDON, July 29.—The Right Hon. Robert Lowe, Viscount Sherbrooke, is dead. He was born in 1811 at Bingham, Worcestershire. He went to Australia and was elected to the Parliament of New South Wales. In 1865 he returned to England, and four years later was appointed vice-president of the Board of Trade, and vice-president of the Education Board in 1859. He entered the British Parliament as member for Kidderminter, then represented Caine and finally the University of London. In 1868 he became Chancellor of the Exchequer. He resigned the Chancellorship in 1863 and took charge of the Home Office. In 1874 he went out of office with his party, and in 1880, when the Liberals returned to office, he was raised to the peerage.

The most unpopular act of his was an attempt to put a halfpenny tax on every box of matches sold, emphasizing it by his little Latin joke, ex luce lucellum, "Out of light a little profit." There was next day a procession of the match factory hands from the East End of London, who made a demonstration in Trafalgar-square, and the proposition was withdrawn. On that occasion his old enemies the "dregs" triumphed, and Mr. Lowe yielded, dismayed at the democracy.

Balfour Interviews the Queen.

LONDON, July 29. — After a Cabinet council yesterday Mr. Balfour, the Government Leader in the House of Commons, went to Osborne House, Isle of Wight, where the Queen is at present sojourning, to consult with Her Majesty with reference to the Speech from the Throne.

It is Cholera, Sure Enough.

LONDON, July 29.—The Paris correspondent of The London Lancet telegraphs that M. Netter, member of the Hygiene Publique, reports that in 29 out of 49 cases of illness reported as cholera which he has investigated he has found the true cholera bacillus.

HAMILTON April 20th, 1892,

I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affection of the scalp and they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes. Hearing of Anti Dandruff I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years. When half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair dressing Anti-Dandruff has no equal.

Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, Ont., January 13, 1890.
W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.
DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works, and what is the result?—at first only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality.
Yours faithfully,
H. F. ATWELL.

To Country Girls.

If your lives have fallen into some quiet, unpretentious place, do not complain that it is dull and commonplace, and that "there is nothing to live for here," as I have heard so many do. Why, dear heart, there is no place on God's earth so black and barren, so quiet and lonely, so wind-swept and rain-beaten, but that there is a great deal to live for right there, and when you have grown a little older you will see it with clear eyes; and you will, perhaps, look back to the country village and wish—oh, how you will wish!—that you had been happy and content in that simple life. You will know then that it is nobler to live well a humdrum life than to wear out body and mind and soul in a fever of gaiety and frivolity and to stretch out your empty hands always to something you cannot seize. Better to sing babies to sleep in the soft twilights that fold down over a cottage home than to loll in velvet carriages and laugh at the brainless nonsense that men utter in the world whisper into your jeweled ears. And better—far better—to dwell for ever away from the lights, and the roar, and the temptations, and the sins of the city, with a clean heart and a pure soul, than to let the city's passionate unrest creep into your pulses and set them to beating in a mad chase after—death.

Improving Opportunities.

It is narrated of a bright woman to whom the remark had been made, "Your husband is an exceedingly clever man," that she replied: "No, he is not cleverer than many other men. But the difference between him and all other people I ever knew is this—he makes use of all his opportunities." That was, in itself, enough to make him remarkable, for there are few of whom half as much could be truthfully said. Indeed, to one fully equipped with all his powers, it is hardly possible. With those who have been deprived of some faculty the case is different. The wonderful attainments made by the blind, the crippled, or the deaf mutes, illustrate this. Restricted to a few opportunities and making the most of these, their energies are concentrated and effective. All things have their compensations. No one would wish for blindness, but, at least, the blind man does not have his attention distracted as does one who sees. He who hears little, sees and thinks the more. It is essential, however difficult, that we should concentrate attention upon the work in hand, ignoring all opportunities excepting those of value for that one thing.

RIVERS OF MOLTEN ROCK.

The Terrible Volcanic Eruptions on Great Sangir Island.

AMSTERDAM, July 29.—Letters from Cabbes give details of the recent eruption of the volcano Gunona on Great Sangir Island. The eruption commenced at 6 p.m. on a day early in June and was unheralded by the slightest warning. Immense volumes of flame and smoke and masses of stones suddenly burst from the volcano. The stones fell all over the island, killing hundreds of natives, who were busy in the field putting in the rice crops. Streams of lava flowed with frightful rapidity down the slopes of the burning mountain, upon which there were situated numerous farms and villages, which were overwhelmed by these rivers of molten rock. It is estimated that over 1000 persons perished on the slopes of the mountain.

The island is now threatened with famine, all the crops having been destroyed. Cocoa trees are still standing, but their leaves and fruit have been destroyed and their stems left bare.

A FAMILY KILLED.

An Awful Butchery by Robbers Reported from Warsaw, Russia.

WARSAW, Russia, July 29.—A Jewish innkeeper living near Warsaw and his wife and five daughters have been killed by a band of robbers, who entered the house during the night in search of plunder. First they smashed in the head of one of the daughters with an ax and then killed the parents with knives and axes. Afterwards they murdered the three youngest daughters by dashing out their brains against a wall.

Finally the eldest daughter was dragged from a hiding place, and after being forced to confess where the family savings were concealed was stabbed repeatedly in different parts of the body.

Strange to say, this daughter is still alive and able to tell the awful tale.

PLOTS AGAINST BULGARIA.

Fresh Attempts to Kill the Rulers of the Province.

LONDON, July 29.—The Chronicle's Vienna correspondent says: "It is reported there is fresh plotting at Constantinople and Belgrade to overthrow the Bulgarian Government, the Bulgarian representative at Constantinople being especially aimed at. The guards attached to the ministers at Sofia have been increased."

The value of a good name was well exemplified the other day, when a man asked one of our druggists for a bottle of Sarsaparilla. "Whose?" inquired the clerk. "Whose?" Why, Ayer's, of course. Ye don't suppose I'm going to run any risks with Hannah, do ye?"

Cure for Constipation and Headache

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that, when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick-headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50 cents a package. dw

Seven Years' Suffering.

GENTLEMEN,—I have suffered very much from inflammatory rheumatism, which through wrong treatment left ugly running sores on my hands and feet. With these I suffered for seven years, during which time I had neither shoe nor stocking on. I commenced using B. B. B. externally and internally, using the pills also, and I can say now that the sores are entirely cured, and have been for some time. I believe the bitters were the means of saving my life.

UNITED STATES NOTES.

THREATENING NOTICE TO NON-UNION MEN IN HOMESTEAD.

Powderly on the Riots—Victims of the Heat Epidemic—Died in 30 Minutes of a Bee Sting—Trend of Trade—The Belle Isle Disaster—The Confidence Queen.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 30.—The second month of the great Homestead strike opens rather discouragingly so far as the locked-out men are concerned, though they do not in the slighest admit and express as great confidence in ultimate victory as ever. On June 29 2000 men were locked out, 1800 others struck out of sympathy, and only a few watchmen were left around the plant. To-day there are about 725 men in the mills and the firm claims it has a quantity of beams ready for shipment.

The non-union men are beginning to receive an astonishing number of threatening letters. The following is a sample:

HOMESTEAD, July 29.

NOTICE—All non-union men desiring to leave Carnegie's Works will be provided for by the unionmen of Homestead, but all who stay at work will seek their God. All are being spotted. Beware!

All the Plotters About Rounded Up.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 30.—"I think we have practically all the Anarchists who plotted to kill Chairman Frick of the Carnegie Steel Company," said Police Superintendent Roger O'Mara to me last night. "There may be one or two at large, but if they amount to anything we will be able to get them. Everyone suspected of even the remotest part in the scheme is being shadowed."

Powderly on the Riots.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—General Master Workman Powderly of the Knights of Labor appeared before the House Judiciary Committee yesterday and made a broad denial of the statements of the Pinkertons relative to the character of their employes. Referring to the New York Central strike he accused Mr. Depew of deliberately causing the strike and then going to Europe. He said the Pinkertons prevented the settlement of strikes. He was in favor of the protection of property by persons living in its vicinity and opposed to bringing in outside aid.

Carnegie Leases a Shooting Preserve.

LONDON, July 30.—Mr. Andrew Carnegie has leased the shooting privileges of Ranmoch Lodge in Scotland. Red deer, grouse and other game are abundant at this place.

A MOUNTAIN OF CRYSTALS.

Passengers from St. John's Saw Icebergs and Polar Bears.

NEW YORK, July 30.—The steamer Portia of the Red Cross Line sailed from St. John's, Nfld., on Wednesday last. Shortly afterwards she became enveloped in a dense fog and had to slow down to half-speed. An hour later the lookout saw directly ahead an iceberg over 200 feet in height and about 1000 feet long. After clearing the berg the Portia stopped her engines and remained in the vicinity for a half hour at the request of her passengers, who were almost enraptured at the sight. The immense ice-floe extended 150 feet above the masts of the steamer. It resembled a big mountain of crystals that scintillated even from the few lights on the steamer.

After daylight icebergs were to be seen in all directions. Upon one of the large ones were seen two moving objects. It was thought probably they were human beings and the Portia at once headed towards them. Upon nearer approach the objects were found to be polar bears.

TRADE GOSSIP.

Harvest Prospects in the Dominion Remarkably Good—Bank Clearings.

NEW YORK, July 30.—Special tendencies toward an improvement in general trade reported in telegrams to Bradstreet's a week ago remain conspicuous, although the extreme heat for a week has had a depressing influence.

In the Province of Ontario new wheat is being received weighing 60 and 62 pounds to the bushel. Drygoods, groceries and hardware staples move with some freedom.

In the Province of Quebec crop prospects are very good and general trade, while not equalling expectations, is fairly good.

Cattle exporters are said to have been losing money.

Bank clearings at Halifax, Montreal, Toronto and Hamilton aggregate $19,537,000 this week, a decrease of 11 per cent. compared with the week before.

There were 22 business failures in the Canadian Dominion this week, as reported to Bradstreet's, against 22 last week and 20 in the like week a year ago.

Ravachol's Executioner Warned.

PARIS, July 30.—M. Deibler, the headsman of Paris, has received from his landlord notice to leave. Since the execution of Ravachol, Deibler has received many letters threatening his life. On Monday the landlord was warned that Deibler's end was near, and that if the landlord wished to avoid suffering the loss of his property in the wreck he must make the executioner move at once.

Collided in the Clyde.

LONDON, July 30.—While the steamship Peruvian, bound from Glasgow to Montreal, was steaming down the Clyde yesterday she collided with the steamer City of Lisbon. The latter was considerably damaged.

The Confidence Queen.

BOSTON, July 30.—Ellen E. Peck is in jail again, charged with swindling. By certain representations she secured $1200 on the equity of a house in Roxbury-street on which there were two mortgages.

Mrs. Peck is called by the police the "Confidence Queen." She is 57 years old, and has been engaged in crooked transactions for nearly 20 years. Samuel Pingee, a patent medicine man, gave her $2700 for private information concerning stocks from Jay Gould's office. He got some tips and discovered too late that Mr. Gould was selling the stocks he was buying. John D. Grady, a crooked diamond dealer, was the next victim. He cashed a rent receipt for a compartment in a safe deposit vault where she had some phantom diamonds stored.

She kept on swindling diamond dealers and others out of amounts ranging from $100 to $1000 without being convicted until October, 1885. She had been arrested several times but always found a loophole until that time.

90 Fatal Sunstrokes in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 30.—During the five days of unusually hot weather, beginning Sunday morning and closing with the looked-for rain last night, there were 90 deaths in Chicago from sunstroke. Other cases may yet terminate fatally. The number of prostrations was not short of 500.

29 Deaths At Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 30.—Twenty-nine deaths were added to the results of the hot weather yesterday, but relief is now at hand, the temperature having fallen several degrees.

Victims of the Heat Epidemic.

NEW YORK, July 30.—There were 46 deaths from the heat in New York yesterday and 27 in Brooklyn.

Died in 30 Minutes of a Bee Sting.

HILLSBORO, Ill., July 30.—Mrs. Robert Morrell, an old lady living 10 miles north of Hillsboro, was stung on the back of the neck by a bee yesterday and died from the effects in 30 minutes. Mrs. Morrell had been in the best of health previous to the sting.

GREATEST SKIN CURES

Cuticura Cures All Skin Eruptions, Gives a Clear Complexion Free from Pimples.

Too much praise cannot be said of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, as I have used them for the last year and a half or so, and find them to be the greatest skin cures, blood purifiers and humor remedies of the age. I have used a good many so-called toilet soaps, and I find CUTICURA SOAP is the best I have ever used. I find it far superior to all other toilet or medicinal soaps. It cures all Skin eruptions, and gives a clear complexion. As for shampooing I would use no other, and for the face either, as it is a cure for all pimples, blackheads, eczema and all irritations and roughness of the face. For after using the CUTICURA SOAP awhile, it makes the face smooth and cool, and does not give that burning sensation which so many other toilet soaps do. Try the CUTICURA REMEDIES and you will not regret it that you have ever done so.

GREENWAY IS UPHELD.

THE PRIVY COUNCIL DELIVERS JUDGMENT IN THE SCHOOL SUITS.

One School for One Country—In Allowing Appeals the Act is Upheld—A Case Which Brought Forth the Canadian Legal Lights.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—The Privy Council delivered judgment in the Manitoba school cases Saturday. The judgment, or to speak with technical accuracy, the opinion, is dated at Windsor and the appeal in both cases is allowed with costs. The decision upholds the validity of the act abolishing Separate schools in Manitoba. There were two appeals to be decided, that of the City of Winnipeg v. Barrett and the City of Winnipeg v. Logan.

When the Legislature abolished Separate schools a test case was submitted to the Supreme Court at Ottawa. While it was still pending, the city of Winnipeg endeavored to collect taxes for the public schools, but the parties mentioned refused to pay the taxes unless a fair proportion were applied to Separate schools. The hierarchy were the real parties in these test cases and Messrs. S. H. Blake and D'Alton McCarthy were pitted against each other, the latter, of course, representing the city of Winnipeg.

Rejoicing in Manitoba.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 1.—There was great rejoicing in Government circles Saturday upon receipt of information that the Privy Council of England had given a decision favorable to the province in the celebrated Separate School case.

Joseph Martin, who with D'Alton McCarthy appeared for the Government, cabled Premier Greenway as follows: "Strong judgment in our favor. Adopting our arguments, and controverting the Supreme Court on every point. Congratulations on the double event."

Leaders of Government party in their enthusiasm have already set on foot a scheme to give Martin a big reception on his return to Winnipeg.

Commenting on the decision Saturday, The Tribune, the Government organ, says: "There is only one more possible danger to national schools now remaining. Quebec newspapers have already been demanding remedial legislation. It will be well for them to pacify their emotions. The people of Manitoba are free and are determined to remain free. We will never submit to have Sir John Thompson force on us the will of the hierarchy. Further, we do not think that the people of Ontario will endure to have their representatives at Ottawa shirk their duty in such a manner. There is every probability that Sir John Thompson will not dare to attempt the slightest interference with Manitoba. National schools are now safer than ever."

As Viewed in Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Aug. 1.—Sir John Thompson declined to express any opinion upon the decision of the Imperial Privy Council in the Manitoba school case until the full text of the judgment had reached here. The impression prevails that the Dominion Government will ask the Dominion Parliament to provide remedial legislation as provided for in the constitution.

Celebrating the Victory.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 1.—A monster thanksgiving service was held by temperance people here Saturday over the overwhelming testimony in favor of prohibition for this province given at the recent election.

A SERPENT IN THE SKY.

Strange Phenomenon Seen By Captain Thompson of the Trinacria.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—One of the strangest phenomena ever witnessed at sea was described Saturday by Captain Thomson of the Anchor Liner Trinacria. It was in brief an earthquake shock at sea on July 15; followed by the appearance in the sky of a huge fiery serpent, which stretched from the zenith to the horizon.

The boat was in latitude 41 deg. 28 min., longitude 65 degrees south of Cape Sable.

An earthquake shook from the northwest was felt at 7 o'clock in the evening.

The vibration caused the pilot boat to tremble, but the sea remained calm. The shock was unmistakably that of an earthquake.

Hardly had the shock subsided when a streak of light was seen extending from the zenith to the northwest horizon in the form of a huge serpent. The reptile gradually tapered from the head, which appeared to be reared high in the air, to the tail near the horizon. It lasted for more than three-quarters of an hour and then gradually disappeared.

The serpentine form in the sky lasted about an hour and then gradually faded. Capt Thomson said he had never seen anything like it before.

AUSTRALIA WILL RETALIATE.

A Counter Measure to the McKinley Bill Damages San Francisco's Trade.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—A cable despatch from London stating that the Government of Victoria, Australia, had increased the import duty on Oregon pine 6.25 per thousand feet and the duty on canned fruit to 6c a pound or about 15c per tin, has caused much excitement here, as it is regarded as the first gun in the fight against the McKinley Bill. The McKinley Bill entirely barred out Australian wool from this country and the Victoria Government has taken revenge.

If the Australian colonies follow suit it will be a heavy blow to San Francisco merchants as this is the port of entry for all these goods. The blow is particularly severe to fruit growers and canners, as they have been several years in building up a market for California canned goods in Australia.

Must Stand His Trial.

MONTREAL, Aug. 1.—Charles Travers, who is charged with the death of Michael Murphy, was committed for trial on a coroner's warrant, notwithstanding that the coroner's jury returned a verdict to the effect that the prisoner was not responsible for Murphy's death. Travers was a carver on the Passport.

Recount of Votes in Manitoba.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 1.—The recount of votes cast in Cypress at the recent election resulted in the majority of the Government candidate being cut down to three.

Next recount is in Rockwood, and this constituency the Opposition are quite confident of capturing.

Marcus Mason's Body Found.

NIAGARA FALLS, Aug. 1.—The body of Marcus M. Mason, the Boston man who was drowned at the Cave of the Winds last Sunday afternoon, was found Saturday morning floating in the river, a short distance below the American Falls.

UNITED STATES NOTES.

VICTIMS OF THE HEAT NUMBERED BY THOUSANDS.

The Steamer La Tourraine Beats the Record from Havre—Strange Phenomenon Witnessed by the Captain of the Anchor Liner Trinacria off Cape Sable.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The death rate for the week ending Saturday was [illegible], the heaviest since July, 1876, when 1291 deaths were reported for the week ending July 30. The total number of prostrations from the heat yesterday in Brooklyn was 32. Of these 21 resulted fatally.

In Philadelphia for the week ending yesterday 870 death certificates were issued. This is a greater mortality than was ever recorded before. This death rate, as indicated by the 870 certificates, is even greater than when the epidemics of grip or even cholera, smallpox or diptheria scourged the city.

The report of the City Health Officer in Baltimore for the week ending July 30, gives the total number of deaths as 457. Never before in the history of the city have there been so many deaths during the same period of time.

During the past week in Washington there were 262 burial permits issued. Of the deaths reported yesterday 25 were from the heat.

MOVING DAY AT HOMESTEAD.

Many Families Evicted from the Carnegie Property.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Aug. 1.—It looks like an April moving day in Homestead. All the wagons which can be secured are in use transporting the household effects of about 80 families out of the company's houses. In front of each door all morning vans were drawn up and carried away furniture which had not been moved for years, as the tenants were old employes of the company. It was not necessary to use force to evict any of the occupants, as they were ready to move into other quarters in preference to returning to work at the company's terms. There was no hostile demonstration made by any of the strikers, and this was probably due more to the National Guard than to indifference on the part of the Homestead men. The houses are to be occupied by the non-union men as soon as they can be put in good repair.

Malicious Destruction of Property.

The charge is made by the mill people that during the last few days the tenants have broken many windows and doors and otherwise injured property. Treasurer Curry said yesterday that contracts for 35 houses on the new Carnegie extension have been let and they will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible. Meanwhile arrangements have been made to accommodate 2000 men in the works. There are now 873 men in the mills, 63 having arrived this morning from Philadelphia, Cincinnati and St. Louis. The six foremen in the mechanical department who went out last Monday because they said their lives were in danger applied for their positions again to day, but were told they had been filled.

To Bring Out Men at Work.

The Advisory Committee is confident that by the middle of next week it can induce half of the men now working to come out. Hugh O'Donnell's mysterious mission east has not developed yet into any important phase in the struggle, but the people here place great faith in the result.

PICTURED ON THEIR BREASTS.

Negroes Killed by Lightning With Curious Results.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 1.—A severe thunderstorm passed over this city last evening doing great damage. Two negroes named Richardson and Castle were struck by lightning and killed. A white man named Williams, standing a short distance away, was rendered unconscious.

Four houses were struck by lightning at the east end. On the south side several houses were struck by lightning and a number of persons injured.

A curious phenomenon in connection with the deaths of the negroes, William Castle and Solomon Richardson, in Highland Park yesterday from a bolt of lightning was that the foliage of the trees under which they sought shelter was photographed on the breasts of the victims. In the evening the impressions began to fade. There was a curious thing about Castle. When his trousers were removed his lower limbs were found to have turned to an ashen white. They kept this color.

WASHINGTON OBSTRUCTIONISTS.

United States Congressmen Are Paralyzing Business.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Saturday filibustering in the House was still progressing, and no one knows when it will cease. The situation is becoming a dangerous one. Unless the Sundry Civil Bill passes to-day, or a resolution extending the appropriations of last year be agreed to, work at the Government printing office must cease at midnight. It is plain to be seen that the attendance is diminishing and that the dreaded announcement of "no quorum" may come at any time. The World's Fair men profess that they are able to summon enough members here within 24 hours to enable a quorum to be got together in that case, but they do not see yet how that would help them. In the absence of any special rule a dozen filibusters can protract the session and prevent the transaction of any business by simply alternating in motions to adjourn to fixed dates and to recess.

BEFORE HER HUSBAND'S EYES.

Two of Her Former Suitors Outrage a Tennessee Woman.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 1.—Andrew Bealson and John Willis last Wednesday outraged Mrs. William Dilke, near Jacksboro, Campbell County. They first bound and gagged her husband and he witnessed the affair. They were captured yesterday and identified by Dilke. Last night a mob of 100 men took the two fiends from jail and hanged them to a tree. The outrage was committed upon Mrs. Dilke in revenge, she having refused offers of marriage from Bealson and Willis and married Dilke a short time ago.

MONDAY, AUGUST 1, 1892.

SIR OLIVER'S TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY.

October 21st, 1892, will be the twentieth anniversary of Sir Oliver Mowat's accession to the office of premier of Ontario, and the Dundas Banner suggests that some public observance of the occasion should be made in recognition of his twenty years of honourable and faithful services to behalf of this Province. The Hamilton Herald, which is distinctly Tory in its tendencies, but which represents the dwellers in the higher plane of Conservatism, remarks thus upon the subject:

"Twenty years of government with scarce a hint even of scandal of corruption is a record that any man might well be proud of, especially in these days when the very air of government seems tainted. The people not of Ontario alone, but of all Canada, will miss the old man when he is gone and will say nice things about him, but it is surely much better to say these things to him while he is yet alive, so that the glow of affection from human hearts which will surround him may warm the cockles of his own. Sir Oliver is nearing the time when, in the natural course of events, he must resign the reins of office to other and younger hands, and pass into that land of shadows where the bravest and best man the world has ever known have gone with the weakest and the worst. Those of us who are not hidebound partizans will agree that it is fitting that some honour should be paid to the old man, and the date suggested is most appropriate. In such a recognition of his long and useful public career the people of Ontario might well go hand in hand, ignoring party feeling for the time being, seeing that the Ontario Government has represented us all Conservatives and Reformers alike. It is natural to suppose that the Reformers will take the initiative in whatever is done, but Conservatives generally, will do a graceful act by assisting in doing honour to a man who has been an honour to Canada and of whom all Canadians should be proud."

Baseball Jottings.

Galt and Brantford played a game on Tuesday at Brantford. The latter team won in a fine game by a score of 5 to 4. Several members of the Peterborough Canton and band witnessed the match.

The Cobourg base ball club is spoiling for a game. The Post complains of the failure to get games with Galt, Hamilton, or some other towns on the Grand Trunk for Saturday. The Post adds the home club expects to meet the Ediscns, "when a good game may be expected."

Mr. J. R. Coty, of Oakville, a student of St. Michael's College, Toronto, and pitcher for the celebrated baseball nine of that institution, is spending his holidays in town visiting friends. He will leave for Ottawa on Tuesday, and will be joined here by Mr. J. F. Fitzgerald, of Oakville, a brother student, both composing the battery for the 'Varsity nine in their match at the Capital on Wednesday. Messrs. Coty and Fitzgerald are considered the finest baseball battery in the province.

The Cobourg Post says: The Edison base ball club have been administering defeat to all comers and have not met with a single reverse this summer. The Cobourgs have met with the same kind of luck. Now we are glad to learn that the manager of the Cobourgs has invited the Ediscns to visit Cobourg on Saturday next. We trust the ambitious club of Peterborough will accept the invitation. Should they do so our readers may expect to see a good match. Our boys have not been defeated this season, and should the Ediscns succeed in doing the act it would be quite a novelty. We still pin faith in our own local players, and are confident they can defeat all comers.

Lacrosse Notes.

Cobourg Post: Yesterday afternoon a great many of our sports went over to Port Hope to see the lacrosse club of that town do their old trick—play half a dozen outsiders on their team against a visiting club.

The Orillia Lacrosse club met a great defeat in Port Hope yesterday at the hands of the Ontario's. The Orillia's were outplayed and beaten at every turn. She put in her strongest team too, but all to no purpose. The game resulted 4 to 0 in favor of Port Hope. The necessary regulation four straights being taken, it was unnecessary to play out the usual two hours.

The Kingston Lacrosse Club are constantly exemplifying the statement that the EXAMINER made in regard to them some time ago, viz.: that to play any team or anywhere they wanted the earth in regard to expenses. They asked the Central Fair Association of Kingston for $75 to play a game of lacrosse on their grounds during fair week, but at a meeting of the directors held on Thursday night their magnanimous offer was refused, as the directorate thought the sum asked by the club was too blushingly modest to accept.

District Doings Epitomized.

The Sayings of our Contemporaries Censored, Seined and Sorted up.

The storm on Sunday and Monday wrought considerable damage at Cannington. Mr. Richard Blanchard lost a cow and the new barn of Mr. Henry Argue was uncovered. Lightning also struck a telegraph pole on one of the main streets of the village.

Cannington Central Exhibition will be held on August 10th,—soon enough.

At the Cannington Public School during the past year the enrolled attendance was 283, the average 229 and the aggregate 11,967. Mr. M. L Nutting is its efficient principal.

Mr. Thos. L. Gibbs, 14th concession of Brock, is the owner of a gobbler which recently hatched out six young turkeys. Mr. Gobbler made the nest and then induced his better half to lay thirteen eggs. After the eggs had been deposited in the nest Mr. Gobbler took command, and, as above stated, succeeded in bringing out six young turkeys, the other seven eggs having been stolen from him by crows. Mr. Gibbs intends exhibiting this wonderful fowl and his young family at the World's Fair.

Mr. Robert Edwards, of Manilla, intends exhibiting a number of horses at the World's Fair in Chicago.

It is a sad duty to record the death of Mrs. McKay, of Kirkfield, formerly of Cannington. Her death occurred on Thursday. The deceased was well known and highly respected. The remains were interred at Beaverton.

Thos. Cooper, of Argus's, drove to Coboconk on July 20th to consult Dr. Board with regard to the health of his 17-year-old daughter Ada, who had been in failing health for some time. The doctor said that there was danger of heart failure, and to get his daughter home as soon as possible. In about an hour he rushed into the doctor's office with her in his arms. An examination showed that she was dead, having expired as her father entered the office.

The Lakefield and Warsaw Foot Ball Clubs will play on Monday.

There is a rumor to the effect that the Dickson Company, of Peterborough, intend buying the Lumber Co's. mills at Lakefield.

Church services were held on Juniper Island last Sunday, conducted in the morning by Mr. Colville, and in the evening by Rev. Mr. Edwards, of Peterborough. There was a large attendance, the rivermen and campers turning out in large numbers. Services will be held every Sunday during the camping season.

Stony Lake is now admitted by all to be the best summer resort in Canada, and people are flocking from all parts of the country to enjoy the pleasures to be found there.

Mr. Sills, of Meyersburg, made a quick trip with timber down the Trent river last week. Assisted by two men he started from Percy boom at 7 o'clock on Monday evening with a drive of over 100 pine trees averaging over 50 feet in length, and reached Chisholm's Rapids, 13 miles distant, at five o'clock the following evening.

Johnnie, the five year old son of Mr. Michaud, of Lindsay, was drowned in the Scugog last week. He was playing with another companion on the Esturion dock, and it is not known how he fell in the water. His young companion can give no account of how the accident occurred. No outcry was heard by men working near by.

Johnnie McCarty, the 11 year old son of Brakesman McCarty, Lindsay, was returning on excursion train from Jamieson's Point to Lindsay. He was passing through from one car to another when the train was near Marlpoon. He missed his footing and fell off the cars. He was not missed by his parents until they reached home. The father on an engine and van went back over the track the next morning and found the poor fellow in the fence corner. His side was bruised and several contusions were sustained on his head.

It is expected that the Uxbridge team will cross sticks with Lindsay on Friday next, August 5th in Lindsay.

Mr. Henry Laidley, who lives about three miles southwest of Lindsay, met with an unpleasant experience Thursday evening last that caused a suspension of work for a time on the waterworks system. While driving home about half-past five his horses shied while passing over the narrow crossing laid across the waterworks trench west of the collegiate institute, and one of them fell into the yawning cavity; which was about five feet deep. The breaking of the neckyoke saved the other animal from following his mate.

To have "a flea in one's bonnet," according to a good old Scotch saying, may or may not have been unpleasant, but Mr. Fred Pepper of Lindsay, can vouch for the exquisite torture caused by the presence of a bug in one's ear. Wednesday evening Mr. Pepper and household retired early, but about twelve o'clock their slumbers were broken by yells and frenzied exclamations, which on investigation were found to proceed from Mr. Pepper, who was roaring at intervals like one possessed. Mr. Pepper went to a doctor and his actions on the street every few yards would have commanded him to the attention of a constable had one been around. Dr. Clarke on being told of the symptoms concluded that a fly or bug had crawled into the ear, and after probing about for a time in the interior of the organ succeeded in extricating a large black bug of the "fly by night" species.

On Saturday last a committee of the Board of the Directors of the C. N. & P. Railway Co., held a conference with the reeves of Hamilton and Haldimand to consider how the $10 000 of additional bonuses which are required from the municipalities of West Northumberland should be allocated, and after discussion it was agreed that the township of Alnwick should be asked to give a bonus of $2 000, the north half of Haldimand township, $4 000, and the eastern three quarters of Hamilton township, $4,000, and that arrangements should be made for submitting bylaws in the said townships at as early a date as possible.

A few days ago we gave an account of the 94th birthday celebration of our highly respected friend, Mr. Leonard Thompson, of the township of Clarke; to-day it becomes our melancholy duty to announce his death. He died at the family residence Clarke, this forenoon. We have no particulars, nor were we sufficiently intimate with the deceased gentleman to give a sketch of the long and honourable life just closed; but hope to give a more extended notice in a future issue. Mr. Thompson was a life-long, Reformer, and for over sixty-one years has been a subscriber and constant reader of the Guide; in fact, we believe he was the last one of the original subscribers of the Guide.

Capt. H. C. Dennis has resigned his position as Quartermaster of the 40th Battalion, Cobourg. He was greatly liked.

Port Perry has a flourishing lacrosse club and they are going to play Whitby on Thursday next.

Twenty-nine sheep belonging to Mr. H. Sloan, near Barrie, were standing under a tree a few days ago when thirteen of them were killed by lightning.

Messrs. R. W. Large and Fred Milne, both teachers from Queensville, Ont., started out from Barrie on the 11th instant for a journey on foot through North Simcoe. Their object was to collect Indian relics, especially in the vicinity of Penetang and Midland, and to visit the sites of the Hurons occupied in the 17th century. They secured very fine collections of pipes, arrows and spear heads, axes, beads and other relics, which they intend showing at some of the fall fairs. They have some very funny experiences to relate in connection with their travels.

Uric acid in the blood is the cause of nearly all disease, it visits every part of the body and is liable to fasten disease on any organ; the duty of the kidneys is to extract wastes from the blood; a cold will stop this action, a pain in the back follows, and unless relief is obtained, permanent inability of the kidneys to perform their functions follows, which may terminate in liver complaint, dyspepsia, blood disease, dropsy, diabetes or Bright's disease. Dodd's Kidney Pills assist the kidneys to natural work, and cure all complaints and results arising from same. dw

Mysterious Moyer's Cave.

The Belleville Ontario remarks:—Messrs. J. C. Huffman, Paul Peterson and Matt. Scott returned to Napanee from their trip to the back country in search of the celebrated Moyer's cave Owing to the water being dammed back in the lakes they were unable to operate at the spot they have located as the mouth of the cave, but will return in the all to prosecute the search. Mr. Huffman on this trip obtained still further information and evidence that he has the right clue to this Aladin's cave.

An Ashburnham Pump Industry.

Mr. Wm. Neild, of Ashburnham, is a practical mechanic, and has established a factory for building wood and iron pumps, cisterns, tanks, etc. His factory is situated on Driscoll terrace, Ashburnham, near the cricket grounds. Mr. Neild has had a large experience in the manufacture of pumps in Toronto and also in town. His practical experience and his reputation for doing good honest work should secure him a liberal share of public patronage. He is also agent for the Halliday wind engine. The EXAMINER wishes Mr. Neild every success in his new venture.

They Wanted Work.

Friday was a scorcher but there are always ambitious people to be found in the world. Two young men engaged in an argument that one could beat the other in sawing a stick of wood in twain The other doubted it, a wager was laid, a saw horse and buck-saw procured, and the contest started in a hotel yard. Both rivals stripped to the waist and with a desperation goaded to madness at it they went. One fellow finished in short order but the other had the misfortune to bend his saw in his extreme anxiety to beat his opponent and so he lost his bet.

They Have to Bury Them.

The fishing season in Stony Lake is in full swing. They are plentiful, and the residents of the lake of islands endeavour to impress that fact upon you. A party of four gentlemen were visiting a doughty captain of Peterborough's defence forces on Bresse Island on Thursday. As they were wending their way up to the cottage the militia man said to his valet, "Have you buried those fish yet?" One of the party thinking the interrogation a rather unusual one, asked the boy what he meant. The youth replied, "The campers here catch so many fish each day that they cannot eat them all, so they keep me to bury all those they don't want."

Grand Coalition Excursion.

The three societies, the C.M.B.A., the E.B.A., and the C.O.F., have formed a coalition for excursion purposes and will run an excursion to Hastings on Peterborough's Civic Holiday, Aug. 18th. The union of the resources of the three societies must insure a delightful programme of amusement, for those who are wise enough to patronize it on August 18th, including picnic pleasures in Johnson's beautiful grove. A splendid programme of athletic sports will be provided, and $100 in prizes distributed therefor. A first class orchestra for dancing. The excursion train leaves the Grand Trunk station at 9.30 a.m., and returning, leaves Hastings at 6.45. Tickets, adults, 75c., children, 35c.

To Discuss the Sewerage By-Law.

The Board of Trade intend calling a public meeting of citizens for Monday the 8th instant at 8 p.m. in the council chamber, to discuss the best course to adopt with respect to voting on the sewerage by-law on the 12 h instant. Whether or not the by-law will pass is decidedly an open question, and it is very necessary that all citizens, whether members of the Board of Trade or not, attend and express themselves upon the point. For if the general public desire that this by-law should pass, they must organize. Should this by-law be rejected it will throw the matter over for at least three years.

A Junior Baseball Match.

On Saturday afternoon at the P. A. A. A. grounds an interesting juvenile baseball match was played between the Junior Edisons and the Senior Park Nine base ball clubs. In a nine innings game the Parks triumphed by a score of 39 to 12. They proved themselves altogether too strong a team for the Junior Edisons, outbatting and outfielding them at every point. W. Cunningham refereed the match, Meredith on second base and Minorgan pitcher, put up a rattling game for the Park boys. The return match will be played in a few days. —The Committee on Supervision of Police met on Saturday evening and decided to entertain the communication of the police, asking that they each be allowed this year the customary two weeks' holidays as formerly. Only one constable is to enjoy his holidays at once.

—County Magistrate Rimmon heard a juvenile assault case to-day in which Wm. Heel, a young lad from Smith was charged by P. Lavery, a younger boy with committing an assault on him last week. The case was of a trivial nature and the magistrate fined the defendant 50 cents.

—Mr. B. Ostrom writes from Buckhorn saying that the paragraph clipped from the Lindsey Post, and which appeared in the DAILY EXAMINER of Friday last, is incorrect. The "German" was given by Mr. Ostrom's friends from Louisville and took place at Sturgeon Point while Mr. Ostrom was fishing at Buckhorn.

—Fishing at Chemong Park continues to be first class, many of the finny tribe being captured daily. Last week Mr. M. Carson caught a muskinonge weighing 18 pounds. —A blaze occurred under the platform of the Catholic Literary Association rooms on Friday evening at Lindsay. The rooms are situated in the Keenan block in which the Post also has its office. —Street Inspector Pope has a man engaged on George street to-day driving down the huge spikes which project their heads above the boards of the walks. The work is of no material benefit to them.

—An alarm of fire was sounded at 10 minutes to 12 o'clock to-day, but the services of the brigade were not required. Some workmen in Mr. James, marty's tin shop on Hunter street, while melting lead in a benzine stove, the benzine on the outside of the stove began to burn, and as in such a case there is a danger of explosion, the stove was thrown out of a window and lighting in a pile of straw, soon created a blaze.

—An order was obtained before Justice Falconbridge at Osgoode Hall on Friday, by Mr. E. F. Stone, for a habeas corpus and certiorari in the case of Mrs. Allen, of Ashburnham, now serving six months in the county gaol, charged with keeping a house of ill-fame. The order was obtained on the ground that prisoner was sentenced in her absence, she being out on bail at her own recognizance at the time.

Where is James Hickson?

A stable boy named James J. Hickson, in the employ of Dr. Pigeon disappeared mysteriously on Friday at noon, and since that nothing can be learned of his whereabouts. The invisible boy has been working for Dr. Pigeon for about three months, and was a steady, faithful lad. On Friday about noon he started for Hetherington's blacksmith shop to bring home a horse he had taken there to be shod in the morning, and he has not been seen since. He came from Omemee and has worked at several places in town. His one peculiarity was a violent temper. When he went away he left his working coat and vest hanging in the stable, as well as his other clothing and belongings. His disappearance cannot be accounted for. He was a good boy and a member of the Mark street Methodist Sunday School. Any person knowing of his whereabouts, will confer a favour by informing Mr. H. S. Stony Lake Camps.

Camping is one of the pleasures of Stony Lake summer life, and with fairly good weather it is as enjoyable as cottage habitation. The heated weather has given practical impetus to the camping idea and camps are forming rapidly.

Bert Shaw, Jas. Tally, A. Jobs and F. Pakenham The camps will occupy adjacent islands, the ladies living in one and the gentlemen the other.

This morning the advance guard of "Sans Souci" camp, Juniper Island, went up to prepare for the remainder of the party. The party will consist of Miss Edith Clegg, Miss Cook, Miss Montgomery, Miss Mamie Dean, Miss Hesbank, Miss Flint, and Messrs. A. Clegg, John Crane, A. McCallum, Jas. Kidd, H. O Fisk and two or three young gentlemen from Toronto and others who have not yet completed their arrangements. The camp will last two weeks and if the hospitable reputation of 'Sans Souci' camp is kept up it will entertain large numbers of guests from town and elsewhere. A Complete Cure by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

This is from Mr. D. M. Jordan, a retired farmer, and one of the most respected citizens of Otsego Co., N. Y.

"Fourteen years ago I had an attack of the gravel, and have since been troubled with my

Liver and Kidneys

gradually growing worse. Three years ago I got down so low that I could scarcely walk. I looked more like a corpse than a living being. I had no appetite and for five weeks I ate nothing but gruel. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a marble statue. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I thought I would try it. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed that I felt better, suffered less, the inflammation of the bladder had subsided, the color began to return to my face, and I began to feel hungry. After I had taken three bottles I could eat anything without hurting me. Why, I got so hungry that I had to eat 5 times a day. I have now fully recovered, thanks to

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I feel well and sum well. All who know me marvel to see me so well." D. M. JORDAN.

Help for St. John's Newfoundland.

The following pastoral letter from the Bishop of Toronto was read yesterday morning and evening in St. John's church, St. Luke's church, St. John's Mission, and at Chemong Park:—

BISHOP'S ROOM, TORONTO, July 26th, 1892.

To the Reverend Clergy and Lay Members of the Church of England in the Diocese of Toronto:

BELOVED BRETHREN.—Our fellow churchmen in the city of St. John's Newfoundland, are suffering grievously by the destruction, in the recent fire, of their church buildings. The beautiful cathedral, recently completed at a cost of $250,000, which crowned the historic spot where the service of the Church of England was first celebrated in the New World; the house of the Bishop and of the Clergy, the schools, the Synod Hall and the Orphanage—property representing not far short of a million dollars—all have perished, practically without insurance.

The Bishop of Newfoundland, in this distress of his people, appeals to our brotherly sympathy for help, and I invite you to make a ready and generous response in gifts to enable your brethren to repair their overwhelming loss.

Particularly I request that a collection for this object be made in every Church throughout the Diocese on Sunday, the 7th August, and the amount promptly forwarded to the Secretary-Treasurer, who will also receive any special contributions.

I am,
Your faithful Friend and Bishop,
ARTHUR TORONTO

This Pastoral Letter to be read in all the Churches on Sunday, 31st July.

Church Chimes.

Rev. W. M. Loucks, of St. John's, and Mr. Hedley of St. Luke's, exchanged service yesterday evening.

The service at Chemong Park was conducted by Mr. W. D. Parker, licensed lay reader.

Mr. A. B. Lambe, of the Edison Works, has received the Bishop of Toronto's license to act as lay reader and catechist in St. John's Parish.

Rev. Mr. Grant, of Lakefield, preached in the Murray street Baptist church yesterday. The pastor, Rev. J. E. Trotter, is enjoying his holidays at his home in Woodstock.

Mrs. Clyde Green and Miss Annie Fawcett and Messrs Sroore and Davis sang a quartette entitled "The Flower Land" in fine style last evening at the Charlotte street church.

Rev. E. D. Fraser, M.A., of Bowmanville, preached in St. Andrew's church yesterday. At the morning service Miss Sophie Cameron sang in fine voice and with splendid effect "One Sweetly Solemn Thought."

Rev. Mr. Carmichael, of Norwood, preached two impressive sermons in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church yesterday. In the evening a quartette composed of Messrs. Ketcham, Pinkiss, Jones and Tully rendered "I am Wandering Down Life's Shady Path" with fine effect.

A most estimable lady almost destroyed until Dr. Butler's Golden Pills came to the rescue. After their use for a short time she was able to resume her duties, after suffering untold misery from nervous prostration in the ills that attend that most distressing disease. These, if not checked in time, lead to insanity and death. Golden Pills are guaranteed to cure all nervous and blood diseases.

The Edisons Meet Defeat

At Galt by a Score of 12 to 5—Their Opponents put a Strong Game—The Edisons Get Rattled and do Some Wild Playing—A Good Exhibition of the Game.

The Edison Baseball club left Peterborough on Saturday morning for Galt to play the baseball club of that town which is a distinguished nine holding the championship of Western Ontario. The boys put up at the Galt House, and in the afternoon at three o'clock wended their way to the ball field where the Galt nine with about 300 of their friends had assembled to witness the game. The crowd was very partial and cheered their champion team on lustily. The Independent band was also in the grounds. The electricians held their own nobly until the seventh innings when the boys got rattled and went out sly to pieces. Mulhall the Cobourg pitcher who will arrive on Wednesday and take up his permanent abode in Peterborough, pitched a great game as the summary and score will show, but he had poor support. Duckworth short stop, got wild in his throws and Landers, catcher, could not hold Mulhall and allowed too many pass balls by him. However, a fine exhibition of baseball was witnessed and the plucky Edisons are by no means discouraged. They returned home on Saturday night at midnight. They will probably play Cobourg next Saturday. Following is a detailed account of the game, together with the score and summary:—

Galt went to bat first. Thompson hit a grounder to Parks, who fumbled it, scoring first, Cookman hit to centre and Smith made an overthrow to Landers, both men scoring. Powers flew to Smith at centre, Kerr and struck out. The Edisons went to bat, Smith flew to Cookman, Pomfret to Burnett, out at first, Parks struck out. Score, Galt 2, Edison 0.

Elliott struck to r. f. and was caught napping between first and second by Mulhall, Le Page and Fraser. Flemming struck out, Burnett struck out.

Landers hit to Kerr, out at first, Le Page base on balls, stole second, put out at third, Foster struck out. Galt 2, Edison 0.

3rd innings.—Murray base on ball thrown out, stealing second, Thompson base on balls, stole second, Cookman struck out. Power hit safe to centre and Thompson scored. Powers caught at 2nd. For Edison Metherall hit to third base and out at first, Lomas and Duckworth struck out. Galt 3, Edison 0

4th innings—Kerr, Jones and Elliott fanned the breeze. For Edison Smith hit grounder to Burnett, out at first. Pomfret fouled to catcher and parks hit to Kerr who fumbled and was caught at second.

5th innings—Fleming availed nothing at bat, Burnett hit to Duckworth who threw high and batter reached first in safety. Thompson hit to left for two bases bringing Burnett home, stole third and second on pass ball by Landers. Cookman pounded atmosphere three times but Landers failed to hold it, got first, stole second and third on Landers high throw. Powers struck out. For Edison Landers made a safe hit to centre. LePage hit safely to left, advancing Landers. Foster hit safely between short and third, advancing both runners; Mathall struck out, Lomas struck out. Things looked gloomy, for Duckworth had two strikes on him and the bases were full, but he was not to deceive the base runners and pounded the leather for a two base hit, bringing in the three runs. He died at second on Smith's fly to the pitcher. Galt, 5; Edisons, 3

6th innings.—Kerr knocked to 2nd base; Jones struck by pitcher, stole 2nd but expired at this point, as Elliott flew to LePage and Fleming struck out. Pomfret hit to left safely, stole 2nd, thrown out stealing third. Parks hit to short, who fumbled and got 1st. Landers hit safely, advancing Parks. LePage out on four to third baseman. Foster hit safely, bringing Parks and Landers home, reaching 3rd on the throw Mathall struck out, leaving the gallant captain of the Edisons on third bag. Edison 5, Galt 5

7th innings—Burnett struck out, Murray base on balls, stole 2nd, Thompson hit safely to centre, Cookman hit safely to right and Murray scored, Thompson taking third. He scored on Landers' passed ball; Cookman also got third and scored on another passed ball by Landers. Powers hit a live ball to Duckworth and failed at first. Kerr hit to Foster out. For Edison, Lomas was caught by Kerr on foul fly, Duckworth hit batted ball out, Smith struck out. Galt 8, Edison 5.

8th innings—Jones hit liner to Duckworth who made a low throw to first and batter reached second, Burnett made two base hits and Jones scored. Elliott struck out. Smith here took Fleming's place at the bat, as the latter had been pounding the breeze to no material advantage for his town during the game, but Smith went out on foul fly to Duckworth, Burnett thrown out at 3rd. Pomfret hit to left for one base, got second on Murray's error and Parks hit grounder, to Burnett out at 1st, Pomfret getting 3rd, but was thrown out reaching home by poor base running. Landers flew to short stop. Galt 9, Edison 5.

9th.—Last innings, Thompson hit to 3rd, got 1st on first baseman's error, stole 2nd, Kerr hit to second and Thompson scored. Cookman got base on balls, Powers hit to Lomas who fielded nicely, but threw wild to 3rd to catch, Kerr who scored on the throw. Elliott was caught by Lomas in a long running fly, which was a phenomenal play. Cookman scored on a passed ball. Fleming to short, out at 1st. For Edison. LePage hit grounder to short, out at first. Foster hit to 3rd, got 1st, and was thrown out on stealing 2nd, Mulhall struck out. Galt 12, Edison 5.

Well Done for the Shamrocks.

The junior Shamrock Lacrosse Club went to Millbrook on Saturday to play the junior Millbrookers a game, but when they arrived on the Agricultural grounds they found that they had to meet the senior Millbrookers or no team at all. Although the Shamrocks are under 15 years of age, they were compelled to meet men, most of whom wore heavy moustaches and weighed close under 200 pounds The struggle lasted an hour and a half and resulted in a draw, each side taking one game Cleary for Millbrook scored the first game in three quarters of an hour. The Shamrocks scored after fifteen minutes more play, when T. McMahon passed to A. Thompson, who shot the ball between the flags. The young Shamrocks scored again before the game ended, but the referee refused to allow it, saying that the ball did not go between the stakes. The Millbrookers played an entirely defence game, their opponents pushing all the playing. The return match will be played here at an early date.

Unhappy Lies the Head.

LONDON, July 30.—The Vienna correspondent of The News says it is reported that the foreign representative at Sofia unsuccessfully interceded in behalf of the conspirators who were executed on Wednesday. Vienna and Berlin papers uphold the necessity of the executions.

The Svobda of Sofia says the mourning families should curse Russia and her diplomacy, at whose doors the guilt really lies.

French papers have violent articles in defence of Russia. The Intransigeant of Paris advises Bulgarian patriots to shoot or stab Prince Ferdinand and Premier Stambuloff.

The Bulgarian Government maintain that the Russian documents produced at the recent state trial are authentic. They say that Dragomam Jacobssohn of the Russian Embassy in Bucharest fled from that city to Sofia a few days after the murder of Minister Beltcheff and sold the papers to Premier Stambuloff for $6200. Premier Stambuloff has sent proof to Berlin and Vienna.

VIENNA, July 30.—Two tourists climbing the Raxalpeyestotdayslipped on a boulder-strewn slope and fell over a precipice. Their bodies were found, still roped together, at the bottom of the precipice.

Where Witchcraft Was Believed In.

SALEM, Mass., July 30.—The 200th anniversary of the hanging of Rebecca Nurse of Salem Village for witchcraft was yesterday commemorated in Danvers Centre, old Salem Village, by the Nurse Monument Association. The distinct feature of the occasion was the dedication of a granite tablet to commemorate the courage of 40 men and women, who at risk of their lives gave written testimony in favor of Rebecca Nurse in 1692.

A Dentist Dies of Slow Poisoning.

DETROIT, Mich., July 30.—Dr. W. C. Brittan, one of the most popular dentists of Detroit, died on Monday. Yesterday the true cause of his death was learned to be the excessive use of the drug tincture of Sanguinaria, which he administered to himself to cure a cold. He used it in such quantities that it acted as a slow poison.

CHATHAM, Ont., July 30.—Capt. Sutherland, owner of the steam tug Alfred Wilcox, died at St. Joseph's Hospital yesterday, aged 59. The immediate cause of death was heart failure.

ADJUDGED INSANE.

Young Greatrex Escapes the Penalty of Murdering His Father.

LONDON, July 30.—William Ernest Greatrex was tried at Leamington yesterday for murdering his father, a country gentleman of wealth, who lived near Milverton.

The prisoner, the youngest son, was wild and dishonest from early youth. He was sent with ample means to the United States, squandered his fortune in five years and returned penniless.

His father, after settling upon him an allowance of £350, told him he must thereafter shift for himself until he should marry and reform, when he should have enough money to establish him in business.

Young Greatrex went to London and lived extravagantly several years. He wrote to his father last spring for a further allowance, which was denied him.

Then he wrote that he would go to Milverton and shoot his father unless more money were sent. The money was not sent and eight weeks ago young Greatrex went to Milverton, found his father taking a walk with his sister-in-law and deliberately shot him dead.

When arrested the parricide said:

"I had courage to shoot my father, but hadn't courage to shoot myself. Give me some prussic acid and I will take it."

At the trial, when the facts of the killing were put in evidence, several witnesses testified that there was insanity in the family of the prisoner's mother, and that he had been regarded as very eccentric.

The jury then adjudged the prisoner insane, and the judge ordered him detained at the Queen's pleasure.

Is the Gerrymander Constitutional?

Canada has one distinction at least. It is the only country in the world where a legislative rascality like the gerrymander act would be accepted as constitutional and carried into effect. Our neighbors have shown that they will not tolerate an infamy of this sort; and their laws are so much better than ours in this respect that they do not permit it. The Supreme Court have just decided that what is known as the Michigan Gerrymander Bill is unconstitutional. So that the attempt in that state to imitate the cold blooded rascality of Ottawa politicians has been effectually defeated. All honour to the state of Michigan and to the laws of our neighbors. The question of the constitutionality of our gerrymander ought to be tested. It is humiliating to Canadians to see themselves behind their neighbors on the question of law and public morals.—Woodstock Sentinel Review.

A Plethora of Elections.

On the eighth of November next the people of the United States will not only elect a president and vice president of the republic, but also 30 state governors, 30 sets of state officials, 30 legislatures that will elect 30 United States senators, 356 congressmen, with some odd state officials in Ohio and Iowa, a chief justice of the court of appeals in New York and a judge of the supreme court in Nevada. The whole machinery of government is to go to the people, and yet the popular majority may not elect the president.

"August Flower"

I had been troubled five months with Dyspepsia. The doctors told me it was chronic. I had a fulness after eating and a heavy load in the pit of my stomach. I suffered frequently from a Water Brash of clear matter. Sometimes a deathly Sickness at the Stomach would overtake me. Then again I would have the terrible pains of Wind Colic. At such times I would try to belch and could not. I was working then for Thomas McHenry, Druggist, Cor. Irwin and Western Ave., Allegheny City, Pa., in whose employ I had been for seven years. Finally I used August Flower, and after using just one bottle for two weeks, was entirely relieved of all the trouble. I can now eat things I dared not touch before. I would like to refer you to Mr. McHenry, for whom I worked, who knows all about my condition, and from whom I bought the medicine. I live with my wife and family at 39 James St., Allegheny City, Pa. WINZEL MUST DIE.

Detective Joyce's Murderer Pleads Guilty and is Sentenced to Be Hanged.

LONDON, July 30.—John George Wenzel, the young German who murdered Detective Joyce, was sentenced to death for the crime yesterday. Wenzel admitted his guilt.

Officer Joyce, who was one of the oldest officers of the force, having served 22 years, went to arrest Wenzel on a charge of theft. Joyce arrested Wenzel and proceeded to put handcuffs on him. Thereupon Wenzel drew a revolver from under his blouse and shot Joyce fatally.

To Oppose John Morley.

LONDON, July 30.—It is stated that Joseph Cowen, proprietor of The Newcastle Daily and Weekly Chronicles, and noted for his independent action in politics, has agreed to oppose Mr. Morley, should the latter, which is almost certain, be appointed a member of Mr. Gladstone's cabinet, and offer himself for re-election.

When Mr. Cowen was a candidate with Mr. Morley, in 1885, for the two Newcastle seats, Mr. Cowen had a larger majority than Mr. Morley, Mr. Cowen's vote being 10,499 and Mr. Morley's 10,129. Mr. Cowen did not offer himself for re-election when the split arose on the Home Rule question, and his party orthodoxy has been held in doubt by many. The statement that he will oppose Mr. Morley has caused a decided sensation among the parties.

LONDON, July 30.—When the members of the Cabinet separated yesterday it was decided that the Queen's Speech from the Throne at the opening of the new Parliament would be limited to a blank intimation that Parliament had not met for transaction of business.

Lord Salisbury is to visit the Queen on Monday previous to the final Cabinet council for the consideration of the exact form of the Speech from the Throne. Powerful influences will in the interval be brought to bear on the Queen and Cabinet Ministers alike to try to induce Lord Salisbury to adopt a bolder policy. The appeals now being made to him and his colleagues to challenge the Liberals on franchise reform have some Ministerial support, but the majority of the members of the Cabinet appear to rely upon an early break-up of the Gladstone Government through a rupture of the internal forces on which it must rest.

The absence of any declaration of policy in the Speech from the Throne will not deter Liberals from proposing a vote of "no confidence." They will be rather strengthened in denouncing the Government for shirking the avowal of a program.

Conservative whips who were consulted on the question of procedure yesterday stated that it was perfectly competent for Parliament to proceed to the transaction of business without a Speech from the Throne. It is a fact that the House of Commons can dispense with the speech if it so chooses. In order to assert the historic right to do without the Speech from the Throne some bill is always read a first time in each House before the speech is considered. Still the unbroken tradition is that Parliament requires some form of a speech.

The Irish party are not entirely reassured in spite of Liberal declarations that Home Rule will be expedited, and until Mr. Gladstone adds the assurance of an immediate dissolution of Parliament if the House of Lords reject the bill a suspicion will haunt them that they will be used to carry the Newcastle program and then thrown aside. Now having him on the hip they will throw him unless he makes Home Rule his first and final aim. The payment of members will be early proposed. A bill dealing with the matter can pass without the assent of the House of Lords by putting the vote of money on the estimates, which the Lords are powerless to touch.

The Irish-American peace commission has decided to visit London and hold a conference with both Irish parties on the opening of Parliament.

Orkney Goes Liberal.

LONDON, July 30.—The returns from the last of the constituencies, that of the Orkney and Shetland Islands, to elect a member to the new Parliament have been received. They show, as was expected, the election of the Liberal candidate, L. L. Yell, who received 2617 votes, against 1614 cast for his dissident Liberal opponent.

In 1886 a Liberal was elected by 971 majority.

ACROSS THE ATLANTIC.

500 DEATHS DAILY FROM CHOLERA IN RUSSIA.

The Coming Meeting of Parliament—"Stamford Road to Ruin"—Collided in the Clyde—The Insanity Dodge in England—Tourists Fall Over a Precipice.

LONDON, July 30.—The Lancet, in an editorial, says that the cholera is making steady headway in Russia, and that even the incomplete official returns received admit that 550 deaths are daily caused by the scourge in that country. The disease is spreading westward, and the report that it has invaded Roumania, if true, is of serious import to Europe. No proper account, The Lancet says, has yet been issued in regard to the disease in Paris, and little importance can be attached to Dr. Proust's official statement that there is no invading or imported cholera in France.

The Lancet concludes its article as follows:

"When half the people attacked die it matters little what name is given to the cholera in Paris and its suburbs."

Riots arising out of the cholera panic and directed against the medical authorities have occurred in Tashkend. Troops have rigorously suppressed the riots, killing and wounding seven persons.

Confidential reports from St. Petersburg say that the Russian Government is convinced that the recent so-called cholera riots were due to Nihilists. Threatening letters have been scattered broadcast, and citizens in many towns are afraid to ask for police protection. Revolutionary agents assure the poorer classes that they will be killed in the cholera hospitals, while the rich will be spared.

A Roumanian Bulletin.

BUCHAREST, July 30.—The existence of cholera in Roumania is officially denied. The public health is everywhere good.

LABOUCHERE ON TOP.

A Notable Victory Achieved by the Editor of Truth.

LONDON, July 30.—In the Old Bailey Police Court yesterday John James Gardiner who was under indictment for having conspired with Louis Leon Goldstein, alias Roberts, to defraud and assault a number of girls, has been convicted and sentenced to six months imprisonment. This is a great triumph for Mr. Labouchere, the proprietor of Truth and well-known Radical M.P., who first exposed the methods of the prisoner in an article headed "The Stamford-street Road to Ruin." The prisoners thereupon brought a criminal prosecution for libel against Mr. Labouchere, who defended himself so effectively that the police found it incumbent to prosecute his prosecutors.

ORNAMENTED HANDKERCHIEFS.

The Czar Orders Three and a Half Million For His Soldiers.

LONDON, July 30.—An order has been issued by the Russian Minister of War that the private soldiers of the army shall hereafter carry handkerchiefs, and as these articles are unknown luxuries among the lower classes of the empire they will be furnished at the Government's expense.

Each soldier will receive four handkerchiefs; that is, the whole army will require approximately 3,500,000. The handkerchief have been specially designed for the service. Each will have in the middle a representation of the army rifle with its individual pieces of mechanism around it. The border will be ornamented with 12 small pictures representing 12 typical scenes of soldier life in peace; at each corner will be a picture of soldier life in war.

A CROOKED WOMAN.

Bessie Bellwood's Suit Hastens the Duke of Manchester's End.

LONDON, July 30.—George Victor Drogo Montagu, Duke of Manchester, is dying at Tanderage Castle, County of Armagh, Ireland, one of the family seats. His Grace was born on June 17, 1853, and on May 22, 1876, was married to Consuela, daughter of Don Antonio Yznaga Del Valle of Ravenswood, Cuba.

A suit against him to recover money loaned by Bessie Bellwood, the Music hall actress, with whom he associated for some time before he arrived at the Dukedom, has been settled. The painful publicity attendant upon this and other matters has, it is stated, aggravated the physical afflictions to which the Duke has of late been subjected, and his life is now despaired of.

During the dog-day season, the drain of nervous and vital energy may be counteracted by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In purifying the blood, it acts as a superb corrective and tonic, and enables the system to defy malarial and other climatic influences.

Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine is distinctly superior to any other as an appetizing tonic and fortifier. dw

It has an Indicator on the Battery, which generates a mild, continuous current of Electricity (without shocks) and can be regulated to suit the strongest man or the weakest child. It is a CURRENT OF QUANTITY, not merely a sensation current, and the quantity current is the greatest curative. It is a successful treatment for INDIGESTION, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, SCIATICA, LUMBAGO, LIVER AND KIDNEY TROUBLES, WEAK BACK, SPINAL DISEASES, HEART DISEASES, NERVOUS DISEASES, PARALYSIS, VERTIGO, FEMALE COMPLAINTS, IMPOTENCE, SEXUAL DEBILITY and all diseases of the Nervous and Muscular Systems.

Remember that the Dorenwend Electric Belt is the very latest invention in this line, and was invented by a competent electrician, and contains the best in the world; we defy anyone to bring proof to the contrary.

Do not close this Belt with the numberless combinations of leather and metal with which the country is being flooded. If you want to be positive with cheap articles, buy them. But if you want to procure a genuine Electric Belt and one that will be a benefit get a Dorenwend Belt.

"NO, I WILL FIX THAT."

A Long-Haired Recruit Has His Head Fired With Kerosene.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—Corp. Fehr has been retired from the Hungarian army for an act of unparalleled cruelty. Fehr was known throughout the 86th Infantry Regiment as the most brutal of the non-commissioned officers. Frequent complaints of him to Col. Scotti, commander of the regiment, brought no redress. About 10 weeks ago Fehr began drilling a raw recruit. When the recruit had drilled a few minutes Fehr struck him in the face, kicked him and asked him what he meant by entering the army with his hair uncut. The recruit said he would go at once to the barbers. Fehr caught him by the collar and said, "No, I will fix that."

Fehr then had kerosene brought, poured it on the recruit's head and then touched a match to his hair. The recruit ran groaning into the barracks, where a comrade threw water on him and thus saved his life. As it was his hair was burned off and his scalp was so terribly burned that he is still unfit for duty.

Cholera and Galicia.

VIENNA, Aug. 1.—A letter from Count Von Taafe, Austrian Premier and Minister of the Interior addressed to the Government of Galicia, shows that the Government apprehend a speedy outbreak of cholera in Galicia. Count Von Taafe enjoins the Government to take the strictest precautionary measures, but admits that an outbreak of cholera can hardly be avoided owing to the large masses of Russian troops near the frontier. If this territory becomes cholera-infected the disease will be quickly introduced into Hungary and Austria. It has been habitual for the inhabitants of frontier districts, who are apathetic in regard to cholera and will not take the slighest precautions.

Moors Fire On a Spanish Gunboat.

MADRID, Aug. 1.—The Spanish gunboat Pilar, while cruising along the coast of Morocco, was fired on by a party of Moors on shore. Immediately upon the firing of the first shot the commander of the gunboat hoisted the Spanish flag, thinking the attack was the result of a mistake and thinking it would cease as soon as the nationality of his vessel was made known. In this, however, he was disappointed, for no sooner did the Moors see the flag than their firing became more vigorous. Thereupon the commander ordered the fire to be returned, and for a time brisk cannonading was kept up between the vessel and shore. The course was changed so as to bring the vessel nearer shore and the fire more effective. The Moors held their ground until the vessel neared the shore, when they fled precipitately.

Slandering German Sausage.

BERLIN, Aug. 1.—The Cologne Gazette says attempts to create disorder have recently been made in St. Petersburg by agitators who, tried to convince the people that meat sausages sold there were poison. The fact is regarded as significant as all the sausage makers are Germans. The Prefect of Police has issued a proclamation menacing the agitators with heavy punishment.

A Russian Income Tax.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 1.—A bill has been prepared imposing a graduated tax upon incomes. On incomes of 1000 roubles the tax is one per cent. and for every additional thousand roubles the rate increases one-tenth of one per cent. Exemptions are allowed in the cases of members of the Imperial family, assemblies, nobles, the leading clergy, convents, schools and high Government officials.

Changes in Sweden's Tariff.

CHRISTIANIA, Aug. 1.—The Storthing Saturday agreed to the proposed increase in taxation to the amount of 2,930,000 kroner to provide for the reduction recently made in the duty on sugar and the abolition of the duty on petroleum.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Capt. Coulson of the United States revenue cutter Rush, under date of Ounalaska, June 25, reports to the Treasury Department that during a recent cruise from the Island of St. Paul to Ounalaska, he warned 34 American and British schooners against taking seal in Behring Sea.

The Record Beaten From Havre.

QUARANTINE, S. I., Aug. 1.—The steamer La Tourraine arrived Friday evening, beating the record from Havre, in 6 days, 17 hours and 30 minutes. She has has also beaten all previous daily runs of any steamship, having made 628 miles in one day.

Quarantine Raised.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 1.—Quarantine against Victoria, B.C., has been raised by Vancouver, New Westminster and United States ports on Puget Sound, and steamers are now running daily between the island and the mainland.

Rallying Italian Catholics.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—The Chronicle says: The French Cardinals have received a circular written by Cardinal Bonnellied before his death, requesting them to vote the nomination of a Pope favorable to the Dreibund, whose nominee, it is supposed, will be Cardinal Safelic. The circular asks them to push the candidature of Cardinal Pampaollo, and if they find this choice cannot be ratified, then to support Cardinal Gibbons. The circular says Italy will drift into a Republic, with the connivance of the Catholic world.

Turkey Conciliating France.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—A despatch from Fez says: "The Sultan's attitude toward the British Mission continues defiant, but great preparations are being made to give an unprecedented reception to the Count d'Aubuny, the French Minister in September. The occupants of 50 houses will be evicted to make room for the members of the French embassy."

Hungarian Crops.

BUDA PESTH, Aug. 1.—According to an official Hungarian crop report the yield of wheat is estimated at 70,000,000 cwt., and of rye at 22,000,000 to 24,000,000 cwt., while barley and oats will be under the average.

Cotton Swindlers Get 3 and 4 Years.

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 1.—John Wilson and Parry Lunt, who ran a bogus cotton syndicate by which they netted £150,000, have been sentenced to 3 and 4 years' imprisonment respectively.

To Shorten the Atlantic Passage.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—Sir Edward William Watkin, the noted projector and manager of railway and other enterprises, has a letter in The Times yesterday advocating the selection of the head of Galway Bay as a port of arrival for the Atlantic steamships, the vessels to proceed thence by ship canal across Ireland to Liverpool, thus saving 588 miles of distance between New York and Liverpool. Sir Edward enlarges on the scheme, which he claims to be entirely practicable, and he declares that the plan has received eminent indorsement and promise of support in Ireland.

HAYING TIME!

This is haying time, therefore, to make hay while the sun shines is the best of advice at this season of the year.

We are determined that buyers of Dry Goods will find the sun shining to their heart's content, at the Golden Lion, and that an abundant harvest of ripened bargains await all comers to our store.

Our Store Front

will be taken out next week to make further improvements in our premises, and the display of goods in our window will have to be removed. But, customers will find us all alive inside, and better prepared than ever to give them VALUES that cannot be duplicated in any other dry goods store in town.

Although our great midsummer sale has attracted crowds of customers during July, the prices will be hammered down still lower during the alterations of our Store Front and all through the month of August.

A FLAMING DELUGE.

TOWNS AND INHABITANTS BLOTTED OUT OF EXISTENCE.

Earth Yawns and Swallows People by the Hundred—Latest Details of the Eruption of Gunong—Aroo—Ten Thousand Lives Lost, It is Thought, at a Moderate Estimate.

VICTORIA, B.C., Aug. 2.—The steamer Empress of India, just arrived from Japan, brings additional details of the disastrous volcanic eruption on Great Sangir Island.

Without any warning signal, without any sign whatever of impending disturbance, the Gunong Aroo volcano blared forth on June 7, and within 24 hours the whole of the prosperous surrounding country was devastated.

The location of the crater is latitude 3 degrees 39 minutes north, longitude 125 degrees 29 minutes east.

The western coast of Great Sangir Island is washed by the Celebes Sea, with the Molucca passage on the southeast.

The island is one of a chain of islands near the Philippines.

The first report of the eruption was heard about 6 o'clock in the morning, and for four hours there was one continual stream of fire and ashes belching forth.

After a slight relaxation a flood of fire again began, continuing two days, heavy rumblings being heard in the mountains.

Toroana Buried.

The town of Toroana, on the southern side of the island, suffered then. Dwellings and other structures crumbled under their heavy load of dust and ashes, the inhabitants fleeing for safety, while many perished in the ruins.

The cocoanut plantations, which covered the whole mountain side, were completely destroyed. The country west of Toroana was covered with thick mud and ashes.

Terrific thunderstorms had followed each earthquake. Hot streams of mud and lava running down the mountain side rendered traveling unsafe, and those who were overtaken in their flight perished.

Reports from all over the island indicate the most disastrous consequences. Whole villages are submerged and cocoa and nutmeg plantations everywhere are ruined. In the northern part of the island lava streams were running with terrific force.

Among other villages completely obliterated was that of Tckekam, famed for its beauty and wealth.

Frightful Loss of Life.

The loss of life is something frightful, but no accurate estimate of it can yet be made. Some place it as high as 10,000.

The captain of a ship which took assistance to the sufferers says that 10,000 is not too high a figure as an estimate of the number of dead.

A thousand bodies have been picked up on the shore and many were found floating in the sea.

The alarm reached Ternate and the Netherlands warship Zeemtruw was immediately despatched, while from Mendena the British steamer Hecuba was also sent to render assistance and carry supplies.

The whole island is completely devastated, and although the violent eruption has ceased volumes of smoke are arising, accompanied by steam and ashes.

The lower lands and valleys are covered with lava, which is still pouring down, while cracks in the mountain have opened, emptying volleys of steam, stones and mud.

Further outbreaks were feared, and as fast as steamers and vessels could be obtained the inhabitants still alive were fleeing.

Enormous Loss of Property.

Property worth millions upon millions is destroyed forever. For many years the inhabitants of Sangir Island, living within the shadows of a dormant crater, had tilled the soil and prospered, their chief industry being the growing of nutmegs, cocoanuts and grapes, the product being regularly shipped abroad.

Their life was a romantic one, favored by Providence with a climate equalling, if not surpassing, that of Italy, and a soil needing little cultivation to make it profitable.

With no political or national disturbances the semi-savage natives were gradually becoming civilized. The villages and towns were well built, and had schools and churches.

Showers of Flame and Stones.

The awful devastation began at 8 o'clock on the morning of June 7. There was a terrible rumble, a column of ruddy flame shot up from the crater as high in the heavens as the eye could reach, and immediately afterwards hot ashes were falling like snowflakes over the whole country. Dust was flying in all directions, and from the time of the first explosion until 9 o'clock that evening fierce volumes of flame and smoke and showers of large stones were belched forth, followed by rain, which fell in torrents, bringing down with it the clouds of ashes that were flying through the air.

This continued all night and the whole of the next day.

Villages and Inhabitants Swallowed Up.

Earthquakes began June 9. Village after village was engulfed, hundreds of people dropping into the great cracks in the earth.

The whole country is under a layer of mud, ashes and stones. All vegetation is either burned up by the awful heat of the volcanic fires or has been destroyed by dense showers of ashes and dust. The country around Gunong Aroo and the sides of the hills were still steaming and smoking on June 25, numerous volcanic jets throwing up columns of mud and stones which fell in showers over the district, forming into hot streams which, in their downward course, carried everything before them.

The district on the north side of the island is utterly destroyed, nutmeg and cocoa plantations being laid in ruins and in many cases completely buried under the ashes, mud and lava from the crater.

A Scene of Desolation.

Among others who saw the island after the outbreak was Capt. J. Gray of the steamship Norway, which had been sent with a cargo of rice from Mendanao to relieve the sufferers. He says the whole island, viewed from the westward, presented a most forlorn appearance.

There was no sign of life anywhere. Volumes of smoke could be seen issuing from the volcano, accompanied by fine ashes, which spread like a cloud over the island and fell thickly everywhere. Small jets of steam, smoke and stones were pouring out from the mountain sides, completely covering the lower valleys and lands.

The entire topography of the island was changed.

On the night of the outbreak two Norwegian barks, the Primera and the Fashion, were in Toroana Bay, but got to sea without damage. In a pretty harbor on the northeast side of the island the Dutch ships Terleka and Grippa were loading nutmegs. They, too, sustained little injury, fortunately, because there was no tidal wave.

The report of the first explosion was heard at Ternate, Gorontalo and Mandanao, which are respectively 210, 240 and 216 miles distant.

The lava streams were confined to the northern slopes of the mountain.

In the Toboekan district not a single village remains, while thousands of the inhabitants were killed in the overflow.

ARBITRATION PROPOSED.

Peace in Sight in the Troubled Iron Districts of the Country.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 2.—Peace will yet reign in the trobled iron districts of the country. The Amalgamated Association is now actively engaged in furthering the manufacturers' proposition for arbitration. The association is determined to have the matter decided by vote, and the different lodges throughout the country are being notified that a prompt response on the arbitration question will benefit all. The lodges are requested to vote as to whether the differences shall be settled by arbitration or by the wage conferences. The manufacturers have decided to wait until Aug. 9 for an answer, but it will certainly take a month to decide the question.

Meanwhile the manufacturers ask the men to go to work at once under the old scale. It is hardly believed the Amalgamated Association will agree to this proposition. The men are now out on strike with their ranks firmly cemented, the officials say, and should they be ordered back to work it is a question whether they can be called out again in as good shape as they now stand.

22,000 NEEDLE PUNCTURES.

"Tom" Haydon Undergoes an Extraordinary Surgical Treatment.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—"Tom" Haydon, the blind actor, who lives in Brooklyn, has been undergoing a most extraordinary surgical treatment in the hope that his sight will be restored.

Several weeks ago a man named August Theiss of No. 115 West Fifty-second-street, this city, called on Mr. Haydon and told him he had heard of his affliction and had come to treat him for the restoration of his sight.

Mr. Haydon disrobed, and Theiss began to puncture his skin with an instrument shaped like a brush, and in which there were 33 needle-like steel bristles. These were inserted an eighth of an inch at each puncture. When he finished Haydon had 14,000 tiny punctures on his body, from which blood was pouring freely. Then he was rubbed with oil from head to foot.

Several days later he submitted to a second operation, and a total of 22,011 punctures were on his suffering frame when it was over. Theiss assured Haydon that he will restore his sight in one year.

THE CANADIAN BUDGET.

SESSION OF THE ROYAL COMMISSION IN HALIFAX.

An Old Man's Death Caused by a Practical Joke—A Moncton Policeman Shot Dead—Toronto Distillers in Ottawa—Her Life for the Babe.

HALIFAX, N.S., Aug. 2.—At the session of the Royal Commission on the Liquor Traffic yesterday J. R. Lithgrow, treasurer Glace Bay Milling Company, said he opposed prohibition on Scriptural grounds. The Israelites were under Divine law and they dealt in strong liquor, and such law should be sufficient for the people of Nova Scotia.

James W. Fleming, superintendent Halifax Poor Asylum, testified that the asylum at present has 270 inmates, one-third in the asylum directly from liquor and one-third indirectly from drinking habit parents.

Rev. J. S. Coffin of Windsor, ex president of the Wesleyan Conference, Nova Scotia, stated that he had taken part in many Scott Act complaints. He favored prohibition and declared its enforcement possible. The license law worked satisfactorily for a time in Cape Breton, but the expense attending litigation and appeals discouraged temperance workers. In Shelburne County at Lockeport, Barrington and elsewhere the Scott Act was successful. Wherever it failed it was owing to inadequate machinery. If the power of the Federal Government were behind it and the Dominion officers enforcing it success would be assured.

A. M. Bell said that the license law had never been carried out in Halifax. He was president of the Law and Order League, which had attempted to enforce the law, but the members had been prosecuted for conspiracy and sued for damages, and though they were successful in appeal, the expenses were larger, and they had done nothing since, though they knew the law was violated in Halifax. He was in favor of a Dominion prohibitory law.

Thomas Milsom, city medical officer of Dartmouth, said he was opposed to a prohibitory law as being impracticable.

Robert Murray, editor of The Presbyterian Witness, stated that the local license law was in advance of the public sentiment of Halifax, though not of other parts of Nova Scotia. He was in favor of a federal prohibition act carried out by proper officers.

James Naylor, secretary of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty, thought that prohibition could to-day be carried in Nova Scotia by a large majority.

Alderman Pickering declared that prohibition was impracticable, and if carried the trade should receive compensation. He had visited Bangor, where the Maine law was in force, but liquor was openly sold and bars in full operation.

The commission was then closed as far as Halifax is concerned, and will meet in Truro to-morrow.

HE WAS SHOT DEAD.

A Moncton Policeman Killed While Attempting an Arrest.

MONCTON, N.B., Aug. 9.—Shortly after 9 o'clock last night while police were attempting the arrest of two supposed burglars, Policeman J.E. Steadman was shot dead.

The police had been warned to be on the lookout for the burglars who committed the burglary at Newcastle on Thursday night last. Marshal Foster got word of his men being at the Donnelly House in Vulcan-street, and the whole police force, consisting of four men, repaired to the place to make the arrest.

When Marshal Foster entered the house one of the girls sang out, "Here comes Foster." The two burglars immediately made a dart for a back door. The first man to come out was faced by Officer Steadman, when the burglars at once pulled shooting irons and began firing. Other officers hurried to scene and found Steadman engaged in struggling with one of the burglars. He had been shot, but managed to hold his man until officer Scott arrived, when the ruffian was knocked down and handcuffed. Steadman then ran about 100 yards, threw up his hands and said, "My God, boys, I am murdered," and sank to the ground, expiring about five minutes after being shot. The bullet took effect in his left breast over the heart. The burglar arrested was shot in the leg, supposed to have been done by Steadman in self-defence.

MAY GO TO WORK.

Hamilton Moulders Are Beginning to See the Dawn of Better Days.

HAMILTON, Aug. 2.—After their long struggle with the foundrymen here the striking iron moulders are beginning to see light at the end of their somewhat rocky pathway, more particularly as the result of the developments of the past few days. For some time past the A. Laidlaw Manufacturing Company has been negotiating for a change in the management of the moulding shop, which has been in operation for some weeks with a staff of non-union men and apprentices, and about Friday last an arrangement is said to have been entered into with Mr. Hugh Sweeney, the foreman of the shop, for the turning over to him of the management of the shop, he contracting to do the moulding for the foundry at a certain figure per ton. Under this contract there are said to be no restrictions on Mr. Sweeney as to the kind of men he will employ, and as he is known to be a strong adherent of the union this augurs well for the employment of the old union moulders. The shop was to have started up under these new conditions yesterday, but the re-opening is delayed until to-day.

An Old Man's Death Laid at the Door of Practical Jokers.

QUEBEC, Aug. 2—An old man of 70 named Fortin, employed by Mr. C. Gagneau, carter of Levis, was found dead in bed yesterday. It is stated the poor old man had been made the victim of severe practical jokes on Saturday night. The deceased had been made to drink several liquors mixed up together. The police are looking up the case.

The Manitoba Schools Case.

A Brief History of Its Travels Through the Courts.

The decisions given by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council on Saturday amount to a declaration that in the Province of Manitoba neither the Roman Catholics nor church of England have a right to the maintenance of a system of separate schools, and that the Legislature had the power to pass the acts which it passed in the year 1890, abolishing the denominational system, which till then existed.

The question of the constitutionality of these acts was first raised by Mr. J. K. Barrett, a Roman Catholic ratepayer, of Winnipeg, who applied to the Manitoba Court of Queen's Bench to quash two city by-laws imposing a rate of taxation upon Protestants and Catholics alike for the maintenance of the public schools, his contention being that the old law was still in force, and that the amounts of the school estimates should have been levied separately upon Protestant and Roman Catholic ratepayers.

The contention of Mr. Barrett and those whom he represented was that denominational schools, including those of the Roman Catholics, did "in practice" exist up to the time that Manitoba became a Province of the Dominion, and were, therefore, entitled to the protection given by the section we have quoted. Mr. Justice Killam, in a long and elaborate judgment, refused the application, and upheld the validity of the bylaws and of the acts creating a common system of national schools for the Province. The decision was upheld by the Manitoba Court of Queen's Bench. An appeal was then taken to the Supreme Court of Canada; and while this appeal was pending, the Ministers at Ottawa were urged to advise the disallowance of the acts. The Ministers, finding themselves in peril of offending either their Protestant or their Catholic supporters, did not use the power of disallowance, but undertook that the appeal should be prosecuted at the public expense; and the Minister of Justice, in a report to the Governor-General hinted in obscure language at a remedy which would be open to the Roman Catholic minority in case of a legal decision adverse to the maintenance of separate schools. The next event in the history was the judgment of the Supreme Court of Canada, which reversed the decision of the Manitoba Court, declared the acts of the Legislature unconstitutional, and upheld the right of the Catholics to the maintenance of their denominational schools.

After the decision of the Supreme Court became known certain members of the church of England resolved to assert their right to Separate schools, and on their behalf a Mr. Logan took action similar to that taken by Mr. Barrett for the Roman Catholics, and applied for the quashing of an assessment by-law, on the ground that it levied taxation for public schools upon members of the Church of England, who had parochial schools of their own before the union. In deference to the decision of the Supreme Court the application was granted, and leave was given to appeal from this judgment to the Privy Council direct, so that the two cases, one involving the right of Roman Catholics, and the other the right of Episcopalians to separate schools, might be argued together before the highest court in the empire. That court has decided both appeals in such a way as to deny the right of any class of citizens to the maintenance of any other than the public schools.

A Grateful Mother.

Her Child is Saved by Lactated Food!

A child's life saved! A mother's heart filled with joy and thankfulness! She is anxious that other mothers should know something about the agent that saved her child from the dark grave. She is aware of the fact that thousands of little babies in Canada are hovering between life and death, and that they urgently require the same life-giving food that brought new life and vitality to her own little one.

Mrs. Thomas Caven, of Whittington, Ont., writes:—

"I think it is my duty to let you know that your Lactated Food was the means of saving my baby's life. When he was a few weeks old he got very sick. We did all we could for him, but he cried night and day. I took him to our doctor, who said that baby was suffering from bowel consumption, and he thought it could not live, and he advised me strongly to try Lactated Food.

"All my friends who had seen the child at that time, said it could not live. I procured a package of your Food, and took it home with me, and commenced to feed it to my baby, and very soon I could see a decided change in him for the better. He was four years old last June, and is now a bright, smart and strong boy, and the picture of health. I would strongly recommend Lactated Food to all mothers for their babies."

Why allow your little ones to waste and pine away, after reading this strong testimony of Mrs. Caven? Why continue with the common and poorly prepared foods which are now so numerous?

Your child's life is too precious to allow any trifling or procrastination. Go to your druggist at once, and ask him for Lactated Food, that can sustain, fortify and build up the weakest infant.

THE TRAP IN THE FLOOR.

[The adventures of travellers in strange lands have often been remarkable, and the favorite story-teller is always furnished with accounts of one or more of them. We are willing to match the tale which follows, with any of the kind which have appeared before it, for thrilling and absorbing interest.]

On the 29th of December, 1845, I was travelling through the southwestern part of Virginia, and, owing to the violence of a sudden snow-storm, was belated and forced to pass the night at a little wayside tavern remote from ordinary routes of travel.

I don't mind confessing that I was then a good-looking bachelor on the sunny side of forty, nor that I was what I call a travelling merchant, but most folks denominate a peddlar. Now, I am only a superannuated old man, fit for nothing but to tell tales of what happened to him in his younger days.

That was before a network of railroads covered the country, and we "commercial gents" who could afford it travelled in light, covered wagons, carrying our goods with us. I had been making a longish stay in Norfolk, laying in my stock, and, when my business there was finished, I started west, intending to visit some of the inland villages and plantations. As I said before, I had got belated and bewildered by the storm, and stumbling on this little lonely house of entertainment, determined to put up there for the night.

I can't say I was much pleased with the looks of things, for a more lonesome and desolate place I never beheld; nor were the countenances of mine host and his wife more prepossessing. I had some valuable goods in my wagon and a good horse, besides some money, so I was worth robbing and perhaps murdering. It was Hobson's choice, however, so I decided to make the best of it; and, after a supper of fried bacon and eggs and corn bread, I asked to be shown to my room.

It was a truly wretched affair, that room, being nothing more than a shed attached to the rough, boarded cabin dignified by the title of tavern, with a single unglazed window closed by a heavy shutter. It was as cold as the dickens, and after having all my packs placed in the room and seeing the door and window securely fastened, I tumbled into bed, not examining the condition of the sheets too closely, but praying there might be cover enough to keep me from freezing.

I soon fell asleep, for I was dead beat with driving so far in the cold, and over the vilest roads that ever mortal travelled. I must have slept for some time, for when I awoke all the lights in the house were out, and everything was profoundly quiet. What had awakened me I could not tell, but all of a sudden I found myself sitting up in bed, with my eyes staring wildly at the blank darkness, and my hair stirring and lifting on my head. A strange feeling possessed me that something uncanny, something dreadful, perhaps deadly, was near me, but I could neither see nor hear anything.

After waiting for some moments in that state of intense suspense which follows a sudden shock from sleep, I regained sufficient self-possession to remember that I had a box of matches in my pocket, and I reached out my hand for my clothes which I had left lying on a chair by the bedside. Something moist and warm touched it, licking it like the tongue of a dog.

I felt immensely relieved. Of course it was a dog; a dog which had been sleeping under the bed and had crawled out to make acquaintance with the new inmate. I lay down, drew the bedclothes over me, and tried to sleep again; but I could not. The strange, eerie feeling grew stronger every moment. I could not persuade myself it was really a dog in the room. A dog would have made some noise; I should have heard it scratching or moving about, but everything was deadly still.

While I lay vainly trying to reason myself into going to sleep, a soft, warm touch passed rapidly over my face. What on earth was it? What could it be? Nothing human, I was sure. Now, I really must strike a light and see what was in the room.

With desperate determination I grabbed my clothes, got the matches and struck one. As it blazed, I cast a furtive, frightened glance around. What I expected to see I can't say, but something horrible. The match lasted such a short time, it was necessarily a brief and imperfect survey, and I struck another and another, but could see nothing.

There was an end of tallow candle on the unpainted wooden table which did duty for a washstand. But that was at the other side of the room, and to save my life I could not summon courage to get out of bed. I am ashamed to confess it, but an absolutely paralyzing terror had mastered me. I literally could not stir. I lay still, with closed eyes, trying desperately hard to go to sleep, but try as hard as I might that touch roused me again and again.

"What was it?" I asked over and over. I could not be dreaming. I knew I was not asleep. I was broad awake and every nerve in me was twitching and quivering with excitement. And now, as I opened my eyes and looked fearfully at the corners of the room, trying to pierce the shadows as people will do when badly scared in the dark, a strange thing happened, which I don't suppose anyone will believe, but its as true as that I'm living.

The room, as I have said, was intensely dark, but as I looked towards the outside wall, it seemed to me it was not quite so dark there as elsewhere. A faint, luminous haze seemed to grow out of the darkness, and as I gazed at it breathlessly, it gradually took form and substance, and grew into the pale likeness of a human being, with something, but I could not see what, crouching at its feet. I rubbed my eyes hard and stared at these strange appearances until I seemed dimly to perceive that the thing crouching on the floor was the shadowy presentment of a dog. At the moment I fancied I had made this discovery, a long, low, mournful howl sounded through the room—the most doleful and lugubrious wail I ever heard. At the same instant, a shadowy hand from the human figure seemed to point to a spot on the floor over which it hovered. Then the apparations vanished and all was darkness.

As will sometimes happen, extremity of fear now gave me courage. With a desperate determination to fathom these mysteries, if possible, I leaped from the bed, huddled on my clothes, and, lighting the candle, I approached the spot where I had seen, or fancied I had seen, these strange appearances. After as close a scrutiny as the wretched light would allow, I found something that looked suspicious.

In the floor, close by the outer wall, a space had been sawed, large enough to admit the body of a man, and the planks fitted in again closely enough to avoid attracting notice, yet so as to be easily raised from beneath. Locks and bars were useless with such a means of ingress as this, and my late supernatural terrors were now succeeded by more reasonable bodily fears. I recalled the villainous countenance of my landlord, the still more repulsive look of his wife, thought of my valuable possessions, and decided I was fairly trapped in a murderous den, where, probably, many an unfortunate traveller had perished before me. Just as I made this pleasing discovery, the remnant of candle expired and I was left in total darkness.

I am not a coward, though I don't set up for a hero, and, like many others who find themselves in a strait from which nothing but courage and presence of mind can deliver them, I suddenly developed hitherto unknown reserves of those admirable qualities. I resolved that, if I must be robbed and murdered, I would at least die hard.

Among the goods purchased in Norfolk was a hunting knife bought on commission for a planter near Staunton. It was a splendid weapon, with richly carved handle and sheath, and a short, strong blade, sharp and true as Toledo steel. Luckily, I had not packed it in my bales, but had placed it in the valise which contained my clothes. I stole like a shadow across the room, trembling lest the creaking of a plank in the crazy floor should betray me, opened the bag and seized the knife. With this in my hand, I did not feel entirely defenceless, and with renewed hope and confidence I took my stand close by the trap, determined if my room was entered, to do my best in defence of my life and property, and devoutly hoping the number of my assailants might be limited to the landlord and his wife.

THE FACT

That AYER'S Sarsaparilla CURES OTHERS of Scrofulous Diseases, Eruptions, Boils, Eczema, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, and Catarrh should be convincing that the same course of treatment WILL CURE YOU. All that has been said of the wonderful cures effected by the use of

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

during the past fifty years, truthfully applies to-day. It is, in every sense, The Superior Medicine. Its curative properties, strength, effect, and flavor are always the same; and for whatever blood diseases AYER'S Sarsaparilla is taken, they yield to this treatment. When you ask for

don't be induced to purchase any of the worthless substitutes, which are mostly mixtures of the cheapest ingredients, contain no sarsaparilla, have no uniform standard of appearance, flavor, or effect, are blood-purifiers in name only, and are offered to you because there is more profit in selling them. It is the cheapest one leaving town that day and it is to Jubilee Point, per steamer "Golden Eye" and palace barge, "City of Peterborough." The return fare is 50c adults, and 25c for children. Comes up for Trial

Wm. Scriver, charged with stealing a cone from Dr. McClelland, of Harwood, on June 23rd last, and who was committed for trial by Police Magistrate Dumble, came up for trial before the County Judge this forenoon. Mr. R. E. Wood appeared for the crown and Mr. E. A. Peck for the prisoner. The evidence of the prosecution and part of the defence was taken and the case enlarged until Friday.

The Horse Recovered.

John Carr, of Lot 19, con. 4, Murray township, had stolen a four year old brown mare on July 24th. The thief, as after developments show, traded the horse with Robert Ferguson, of the 2nd con. of Dummer, on the 25th ult., getting $5 to boot. Mr. Ferguson saw the bills describing the horse and knew at once he had the stolen horse. He located his own horse near Trenton and recovered it last week. Chief of Police Rorke was notified and has telegraphed to Trenton ordering the thief's arrest. It appears that the man who committed the deed is a neighbour of Mr. Carr's who resides near Wooler, that he stole the horse, traded it, and then drove home with his new earned $5 in his pocket.

Grand Coalition Excursion.

The three societies, the C.M.B.A., the E.B.A., and the C.O.F., have formed a coalition for excursion purposes and will run an excursion to Hastings on Peterborough's Civic Holiday, Aug. 1st. A splendid programme of athletic sports will be provided, and $100 in prizes distributed therefor. A first class orchestra for dancing. The excursion train leaves the Grand Trunk station at 9.30 a.m., and returning, leaves Hastings at 6.45. Tickets, adults, 75c., children, 35c.

This will be the trip of the holiday, and carries the excursionists through beautiful scenery. The fare is exceedingly low, only $1.50 for return trip, good for two days. Children half fare. 1d

Another Midnight Fire Extinguished.

Precisely at 15 minutes to midnight last night an alarm of fire disturbed the slumbers of our populace. The firemen were quick to respond, the location being the corner of Rubidge and Sherbrooke streets, where, had it not been for the speedy arrival of the fire fighters, the large two-story brick house which is owned by Mr. John Kelly and unoccupied at the time, and the frame butcher shop adjoining, owned by him but leased by Mr. Charles Howson, butcher, might have been swept out of existence. The blaze originated in the rear end of the butcher shop. Mr. Howson was looking over his books and writing a letter in the rear of the shop when he left a lamp sitting on a stand to put away his paper and writing materials. No sooner had he stepped out of the room when the kerosene vessel went off with a terrific explosion. Several meat cloths and other inflammable articles at hand proved a ready prey for the flames which shot up in one leaping mass soon encircling the frame structure. Mr. Wm. Thompson, a neighbor, noticed the blaze and sounded an alarm. The flames communicated with the brick house which the butcher shop abuts and wrought considerable damage assisted by the smoke and water. The upstairs of Mr. Kelly's house is badly gutted and the roof burned in several places. The shop occupied by Mr. Howson is entirely wrecked. He lost all his stock of meats amounting to $100 or more. It was uninsured. Mr. Kelly's loss will reach $200 or $300, insured.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

All accounts due me will have to be paid to my lawyers after the 1st of August next, as I shall place my books in their hands at that date. THOMAS KELLY. d

Mrs. Mary E. O'Fallon, a very intelligent lady of Piqua, Ohio, was poisoned while assisting physicians at an autopsy 5 years ago, and soon terrible ulcers broke out on her head, arms, tongue and throat. Her hair all came out. She weighed but 78 lbs., and saw no prospect of help. At last she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and at once improved; could soon get out of bed and walk. She says: "I became perfectly cured by

TOWN COUNCIL MEETING.

The Town Now Borrows Money at 5 Per Cent,

Committee Reports Adopted after Much Discussion—Mr. Young Upholds His Position on Charity Committee—New Market Building Commenced—Inspector to be Engaged to Inspect our Electric Lights—Three Commissioners to Superintend Sewerage System—Many Communications and other Matters of Importance.

A regular meeting of the town council was held in the council chamber last evening. There were present, Councillors, Cahill, Bell, Winch, Young, Bradburn, Dawson, Ferguson, McIlwain, Mulhern and Dennistoun. The Mayor being absent, and the city fathers having no one to preside over their momentous proceedings, on motion Mr. Winch took the chair, but hardly had set led himself down with easy grace in the chief magistrate's throne, before His Worship, Mayor Kendry, made his appearance, Mr. Winch modestly making way for the Mayor. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed and the following communications were presented and read:—

From Miss Bessie Cumming, tax collector, asking for a few weeks holidays.

Mr. Young asked if the year's taxes were all collected and if a substitute had been arranged for in the collector's absence.

The Mayor said that there were no taxes to collect at this time of the year, except the usual number of unpaid taxes on certain lots.

Mr. Dennistoun thought that the request should be granted. A return of the assessment rolls could be submitted to the council later on and discussed.—The request was granted.

THE TOWN'S CONSOLIDATED DEBT.

To the Mayor and Council of the Town of Peterborough;

Gentlemen,—In compliance with the terms of the statute consolidating the debt of this town, I am instructed by the Commissioners of the Town Trust to enclose you a statement of the amount required to pay the current year's interest on the consolidated town debt together with 10 per cent. sinking fund for the payment of the debentures issued under the authority of the several bylaws of the town authorizing the same.

I have the honour to be
Your obedient servant,
E Pearse,
Secretary Town Trust.

The total amount required to be raised is $13,050.00, of which there is required for school debts and sinking fund, $3 707 00; for miscellaneous debentures—debts exclusive of school debts $9,052.50; required for sundry sinking funds, exclusive of school debts sinking funds, $2,790.50; less estimated net revenue on market buildings, $2,102.75; minus expenditure of $602 75 for insurance, sundries and secretary, leaving $1,500 00.—Referred to Finance Committee.

From Wm. Collins, township clerk of North Monaghan, asking to be furnished with a plan or profile of proposed main sewer from Lansdowne street south to the river, and also any other information the council might have that would throw light on the matter coming before the arbitrators.

Mr. Cahill thought that he had access to the plan or profile in the clerk's office, and that was all the town was supposed to provide.

Mr. Dennistoun moved that the matter be referred to the town solicitor for his opinion. This was done.

From Grace Elliott, janitor of the town buildings, asking that her salary be raised to $5 per week for her services. Referred to Finance Committee.

From Robert Pope calling attention to the flooring on the Hunter street, Ashburnham, bridge. The county engineer has orders from the county council to floor their portion of the bridge and he asks the town to make arrangements to have their portion floored at the same time—Referred to Street and Bridge Committee.

RIGHT TO PURCHASE WATERWORKS.

July 21st, 1892.

J. B. Cobb, Town Clerk, Peterborough:

Dear Sir,—In accordance with the instructions of the committee of the council transmitted to me by you I have obtained the opinion of counsel with respect to the town's right to arbitrate and the latest date when it can first arbitrate after Oct. 31st, 1892, under bylaw No. 427, and the covenant of the Peterborough Water Company with the town of Peterborough, I subjoin a copy of the opinion as received from Chas. Moss, Q.C.

"I have considered this matter as requested and I have not felt much difficulty in arriving at the same conclusion as you have with regard to the effect of sub section "Q" of section 2 of the bylaw. I think it is plain almost beyond argument that the corporation are not obliged to exercise their right to purchase immediately after 10 years from the 1st of Oct. 1882.

The obligation of the company is to sell out to the corporation at a value at any time after the 10 years and this obligation is enforceable by the corporation at any time after the 10 years that they see fit to enforce it. But the company cannot at any time require the corporation to exercise the right.

The corporation may, I think, postpone the exercise of their right as they see fit.

The only case in which a limitation arises is in the event of the corporation electing to exercise their right and holding an arbitration and then declining to purchase at the valuation determined upon by the arbitrators. In that event they cannot again exercise the right until after the lapse of 10 years from their right to be bound by the award. I do not think it is open to the company to contend that if the town does not immediately exercise its powers on or after the 31st of October next it cannot do so until 5 years later." I return you herewith the bylaw, etc.

Yours, etc.,
E B. Edwards,
Town Solicitor.

The communication was received.

From the Peterborough Light and Power Company; in reply to a request from the clerk as to lamps being out during the last quarter, they beg to state that during the whole time their lamps were not burning did not average one per cent, of the total number of lights, a percentage considered quite within the limit of reasonable care, and even these lamps were out during the early part of the quarter when both the lamps and trimmers were new, a trouble beyond their control and incidental to every new circuit.—Received.

From Robert Pope stating that he had made an inspection and enquired into the proposed building of the Wm. English Canoe Company, and would report that such a building as proposed cannot be built without the council dealing specially with the matter, as it is within the limits, and he had no jurisdiction in the matter other than to follow strictly the terms of the bylaw. The building proposed, were it not in the fire limits would be a good one and it seemed hard that this one could not be built as it would be constructed on a stream, and the kind of building proposed would be the best one to be erected there.

Mr. Young said that the request should be referred to the Fire, Water and Light Committee. He thought that this addition to their premises should be made, owing to the Wm. English Canoe Co., being a prominent factory in the town.

Mayor Kendry, Messrs. Mulhern and Dennistoun thought that the building being within the fire limits, the company should not have the privilege of erecting such a building. If in the present case the by-law was broken by allowing this request to be granted, others would seek like privileges.

Mr. Bradburn thought that some satisfactory arrangement should be arrived at between the town and the company.

Mr. Young moved that the report be referred to the Fire, Water and Light Committee to report to the council.

Mr. Winch thought that the company's request, which was reasonable since the building was to be sheeted with iron and the shingles laid in mortar and being built so handy to water, should be granted.

He was in favour of helping such importans industries to the town as the Wm. English Canoe Company. He seconded Mr. Young's motion.

Mr. Dawson was not in favor of breaking the by-law. If the building was to be built of sheet iron, the danger of fire lay from the inflammable material inside the building.

Mr. Mulhern moved, seconded by Mr. Dawson, that the matter be left again in the hands of the building inspector.

Mr. Young's motion carried.

From Henry Dance and others, asking that two hydrants be placed on George street between Smith and Argyle streets, for fire protection, which was badly needed in that quarter.—Referred to Fire, Water and Light Committee,

From Geo. A. Cox and fifty nine others praying that certain lands on Park street be drained.—Received.

From Messrs. Badden and Bell, town auditors, submitting their reports of the town's account proper but not presenting the report of police court, town trust, school board and Nicholls Hospital accounts.

Mr. Young moved that the report be read. It was necessary that the council should know the state of the town's accounts proper.

After some discussion Mr. Dennistoun moved, seconded by Mr. Cahill that the report of the auditors as soon as completed be handed over to the printing committee and that they be empowered to have 500 copies of the same printed, to be distributed. The report could be perused by the councillors and discussed at a later date. The motion carried.

Your committee would recommend that the offer of the Bell Telephone Company for the supply of instruments in the police station, Chief of Police's residence, and town clerk's office, for the sum of $60 per annum (being a reduction of $5 per instrument from the regular rate) be accepted.

Your committee has made an arrangement with the Ontario Bank whereby the town will be supplied with money during the balance of the current year at 5 per cent., and would recommend that the committee's action in this matter be confirmed.

With reference to the application of John R. Cobb, asking that his salary as town clerk, clerk of the police court and secretary of the Board of Health be increased to the sum of $1,025 per annum (exclusive of the statutory fees to which he is entitled) your committee recommend that his request be granted, $1,000 to be in full for his duties as town clerk and clerk of the police court; and in full for the portion of treasurer's work at present performed by him; in full for past extra services rendered and all assistance that may be required during the present year, the sum of $25 to be for services as Secretary of the Board of Health.

Your committee would further recommend the payment of the sum of $280 to R. Sheehy and John Corkery for lots 6 and 21 on plan 85 for Peterborough, purchased for the purpose of a street between Sherbrooke and Bolivar streets, and for the line of the proposed sewer in that section of the town.

Your committee according to the resolution passed at the last meeting of the council purchased from Messrs Hilliard & Peplow one hundred barrels of flour at a cost of $370, and shipped the same to the Mayor of St. John's. The G T R. carried the flour free of charge, and Messrs. Cox & Davis provided free insurance.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

R Max Dennistoun,
Chairman.

THE TOWN'S RATE OF INTEREST.

Mr. Mulhern objected to the clause in the report where the committee had made arrangements with the Ontario Bank to obtain money during the current year at 5 per cent. He did not think the other banks had been fairly treated in the matter. He understood that the chairman had asked all the banks to tender towards supplying the town with money, and that the committee had met before the tenders were in and made an arrangement with Mr. McGill to borrow money for the town at 5½ per cent. Some letters had appeared in the papers from time to time referring to borrowing money at a lesser rate of interest than 6 per cent., which they had been paying Continuing Mr. Mulhern said he understood the other banks, after the arrangement with Mr. McGill had been made, had been informed not to tender. If the rate obtained from the Ontario Bank was as low as could be obtained in any other institution he had no objection giving it the preference, but they should borrow from the bank giving them the lowest interest.

Mr. Dennistoun said Mr. Mulhern was slightly misinformed. He had waited on all the managers of all the banks but had not asked any of them to tender. The only question he had asked them was would they tender if tenders were called for and they answered that they were prepared to tender in such a case. None of the banks had been treated slightingly in the matter at all. The committee took the course it did at its meeting at which Mr. McGill was present. It made arrangement with him to borrow money at 5½ per cent. for the current year which the committee had quietly accepted but since then the mayor, as the chief executive officer of the town and himself as chairman of the Finance Committee, had waited upon Mr. McGill and succeeded in making the low rate of 5 per cent with the Ontario Bank. The rate could not be beaten in any town in Canada and he thought it ought to be satisfactory to all.

Mr. Mulhern said he understood the banks were asked to tender; at least if they were not they should be afforded an opportunity to do so. If they could get money at 4½ per cent. there was no use of paying the rate of 5.

Mayor Kendry thought that the committee had obtained as low a rate as was possible. He and Mr. Dennistoun had had the rate reduced from 5½ to 5 per cent. which the committee accepted, by waiting upon Mr. McGill and that was as reasonable as any town or city in Canada borrowed money.

Mr. Young asked what authority the chairman of the Finance Committee had to approach the managers of the several banks, thereby giving them intimation that the town's bank account was open to acceptances. It was no secret, but a great many like himself thought that the town banker and town treasurer should not be one and the same party. He could not understand why Mr. Dennistoun went around to the several banks unless it meant a tender. It was absurd for the chairman of the Finance Committee to do this, and the Mayor had even gone with him when he waited upon Mr. McGill.

The Mayor said as chief executive officer of the town he had the power to do so and to get the best rates to be had.

Mr. Young said no other bank manager had met the committee but Mr. McGill. The committee should advertise for tenders. If they could get the money at 4 per cent. by so doing, instead of 5, it would be much better.

Mr. Mulhern still thought that tenders should be asked for by the committee.

THE BEST RATE POSSIBLE.

Mayor Kendry said the town borrowed its money from day to day from the Ontario Bank and that they were on as good a footing as any corporation. The council did not discount, as they are compelled to do in other cities, losing considerable thereby, but ran an open account with the bank, and only paying interest on what they used.

Mr. Dawson explained that Mr. McGill was not present by invitation at the Finance Committee's meeting as Mr. Young had said.

He was there on other business at the time, and was leaving when requested by the committee to remain.

Mr. Young asked if the committee had no idea of better arrangements with other other banks, why then were they waited upon? Why did not the committee go to the Ontario Bank only?

Mr. Bradburn objected to questions being asked.

Mr. Cahill said the chairman of the Finance Committee had not asked other banks to tender or what they would take.

Mr. Dennistoun said that that the town last year had made an overdraw of its bank account of some $40,000, and if they did it this year, which however he hoped would not be the case, it would at five per cent. be a saving to the town of $400.

The Mayor said that the best arrangements were effected that was possible. The town paid 4½ per cent. interest on its debentures and when they were getting an open bank account at five per cent., they were doing splendidly.

Mr. Bell thought that the report should be adopted.

Mr. Ferguson said Mr. Young had not objected in the slightest to the arrangement of 5½ per cent. made with Mr. McGill at the committee when Mr. Young was present, too. Since then a better arrangement of a half per cent. had been made, and now in the face of all this he was violently opposing accepting the report.

On motion of Mr. Dennistoun, seconded by Mr. Winch, that the report be adopted,

Mr. Ferguson asked Mr. Young why he did not urge the objections before the committee which he raised during the evening.

Mr. Young said that in view of the dissatisfaction that had arisen among the ratepayers owing to a knowledge of the facts, he felt it his duty to inquire why, after the banks had been waited upon, they were subsequently ignored.

FIRE, WATER AND LIGHT REPORT.

Mr. Best in the absence of Chairman Meldrum, presented the Fire, Water and Light report.

To the Mayor and Members of the Town Council of Peterborough:

Gentlemen,—Your Fire, Water and Light Committee beg leave to report that owing to numerous complaints that are being made with reference to the supply of electric light as given by the Peterborough Light and Power Company under contract with the town and believing that there is good ground for complaint have decided to recommend to you that this committee be empowered to employ a competent person to make tests at various times throughout the year in order to ascertain whether or not the company is supplying light of the required candle power as called for under their contract.

Your committee would further recommend that the citizens be requested to communicate with the town clerk as to any lights that are not lit or are giving a defective light in order that the company may be enabled to take such steps as they may be advised to cause the contract to be properly carried out or rescinded.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

W. H. Meldrum,
Chairman.

Mr. Bradburn asked the clerk if he had received numerous complaints about the lights.

Mr. Cobb said that he received some.

Mr. Best said he had heard complaints from many people.

Mr. Ferguson thought the lights were poor, and the town not getting 2,000 candle power.

Mr. Best moved, seconded by Mr. Young, that the report be adopted.—Carried.

THE CHARITY COMMITTE'S REPORT.

Mr. Winch presented the report of the charity committee for the past month:

To his Worship the Mayor and Council of the town of Peterborough:

Gentlemen,—Your Charity Committee beg leave to report that the amount of relief distributed during the month of July amounted to the sum of $128.80, divided as follows: Ward No. 1, $15 50; Ward No. 2, $81.45; Ward No. 3, $18.63; Ward No. 4, $12 26.

The persons receiving relief and the amount thereof appear by the statements herewith annexed.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

H. C. Winch,
Chairman.

Mr. Winch—"I can not account for No. 1 Ward being so small, unless the applicants are at present away on their summer holidays." (Laughter.)

Mr. Young said he had a detailed statement of the expenditure of No. 2 Ward for charity, on which committee he was a member, and which report he desired to read. He as the member of the charity committee for No. 2 Ward, had been charged with undue lavishness and unwarranted expenditure in the matter of charity. He had done the best he could in finding out those who were worthy and as the amount from his ward, was said to be large, dispensing more charity than the other wards, he asked as a privilege due to the ratepayers and the councils, that he be allowed to read the report from his ward for the past month and if any in the list was found to be unworthy, he would strike those parties off, and if the council thought that he had not exercised due judgment in the matter he would gladly resign his arduous position on the committee to some one else, but did not want to be abused by false charges.

Mr. Dawson thought that as a good deal of censure had been attributed to the charity committee, that Mr. Young should be allowed to read the names of those in his ward receiving charity. If the names of those receiving it were published it would decrease the number of applicants, besides giving outside persons an opportunity to help worthy ones.

Mr. McIlwaine said the names should be published. Those who honestly took charity should not be ashamed of it. The Charity Committee should not be abused.

Mr. Young still thought he should be relieved of the abuse heaped upon him in the eyes of the ratepayers. At the last meeting of the council the Mayor had accused him of undue generosity in the matter of No. 2 Ward charity.

The Mayor said as the highest executive officer of the town, he desired to keep down expenses and that was the reason he had found fault with the amounts expended for charity, which up to date were higher than ever. Charity was often given to impostors.

Mr. Young was allowed to read the names from his ward receiving charity. He had been guided by Messrs. Kelly and Bradburn's old list. If right in the dispensation of same, he asked the council to condemn him, if right, to support him.

By request of Mr. Young the names were not taken, no fault being found with the list of names read and the amounts attached thereto.

Mr. Best moved, seconded by Mr. Young, that the report of the charity committee be adopted—Carried.

THE MARKET BUILDING

Mr. Winch presented the report of the market committee as follows:—

To His Worship the Mayor and Council of the Town of Peterborough:—

Gentlemen,—Your Market Committee beg leave to report that they have, pursuant to instructions given them, advertised for tenders for the erection of a market clerk's office, shed and weighing scales in accordance with the plans and specifications thereof prepared by John E Belcher, Esq., Town Engineer, the result being that five tenders were received, the lowest being that of Henry Carveth at and for the price and sum of $485, the same being in excess of the amount of the appropriation for this purpose made by the council. Your committee would therefore recommend that the tender of Henry Carveth be accepted at the price stated and that the town solicitor be instructed to prepare the usual contract and bond for the faithful performance of the work.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

H. C. Winch,
Chairman.

Mr. Winch moved, seconded by Mr. Young, that the report be adopted.

Mr. Dawson asked the chairman if he had Mr. Carveth, who had begun the work already, sign the usual contract and bond for the faithful discharge of duty.

Mr. Winch said Mr. Carveth was desirous of going on with the work, and he thought it was all right. He would attend to the matter at once.

Mr. Young asked Mr. Winch if he was willing to give his bond for the performance of work until the contract was signed.

Mr. Winch replied in the affirmative.

Mr. Dawson moved, seconded by Mr. McIlwain, that the report be received. This would relieve the town of all responsibility, if any.—Carried.

PETITION FOR DRAINAGE.

Mr. Cahill moved, seconded by Mr. Best, that the petition of George A. Cox and fifty-nine others praying for the drainage of the property therein mentioned, be received, and that John E. Belcher, town engineer, be instructed to make an examination of the locality to be drained, and to make plans and estimates of the same and make an assessment of the real property to be benefitted by such work, stating as nearly as may be in the opinion of such engineer, the proportion of benefit to be derived therefrom by every road and lot or parcel of lot, and that the town clerk be instructed to ascertain whether the said petition is sufficiently signed and report to the council.

Mr. Young said drainage was badly needed in No. 1 and 2 Wards and that portions of the town where asked for. The town was being rapidly built up in those portions, and drainage was absolutely necessary.

Mr. McIlwain said that he heard half of those signing the petition for drainage did not know what they were signing. It had been thrust upon them.

On motion Mr. Wm. Fitzgerald was heard. He supported the petition. All who had signed it were badly in need of drainage and would pay their share towards receiving the benefit of having surface water removed and a thorough system of drainage put in. He thought the council should build a new sidewalk in front of his four new houses on Aylmer street, where a walk was badly needed. This should be built and drain covered. Mr. Cahill's motion without further discussion was carried.

THREE COMMISSIONERS TO BE APPOINTED.

Mr. Cahill gave notice of motion that in the event of the sewerage by-law now before the electors receiving a majority of the votes in its favor, he would at the next meeting of the council introduce a by-law to appoint three or more commissioners to superintend and carry out such system of sewerage independently of the council, under such terms and stipulations as may be provided for in such proposed by-law.

Mr. Cahill moved, seconded by Mr. Winch, that complaint of Mr. Fitzgerald be laid before the Street and Bridge Committee with power to act.—Carried.

Mr. W. H. Watson asked what the council were going to do in reference to the Edison drain. The offal of forty men was passing his door every day and the stench arising therefrom was disgusting. The council must at once take action or his only resource would be to the courts to redress the grievance.

The Mayor explained the council were doing all in their power. It was their intention if the sewerage bylaw carried on the 12th inst to connect the drain with the general system. If the bylaw did not carry the council were going to put in tile at once. Tenders were ordered to be advertised for and Mr. MacDougall was preparing the plans.

INQUIRIES AND ATTENTIONS.

Mr. Dawson complained of the stench arising from the water flowing down the drain at the corner of George and Hunter streets. He thought the drain should be connected with tile to the George street sewer.

Mr. McIlwaine drew attention to the unfairness of the street at the corner of George and Smith street. Some land should be purchased from Mr. Deane and the street widened.

Mr. Young said 40 tons of coal were required for the heating of the town buildings during the winter. He thought that the property committee should be empowered to purchase it directly off the cars at once, at a saving from 25 to 50 cents per ton.

Mr. Ferguson asked that tenders be advertised for.

Mr. Dennistoun thought that there was no need of going to that expense. The work was instructed to write the various dealers, asking them to tender.

Council adjourned at 10 40 o'clock.

THE TRAP IN THE FLOOR.

I waited minute after minute, until my blood, so lately stirred by a sense of extreme peril, grew chill in my veins from the excessive cold. Suddenly I heard what seemed a stealthy step crunching the snow without. Directly after, the trap was very slowly and softly raised; a long bony hand, holding a tallow candle, protruded through the opening, and a gray, withered face appeared below, with widely staring eyes following the light of the candle around the room.

I shrank as close to the wall as I could, but I knew I could not remain long undiscovered, and as the light and the eyes approached me, I started forward and struck with all my force on the wrist that upheld the candle.

The keen blade cut through bone and muscle, and hand and candle fell with a sickening thud on the floor, while a single shrill, agonized scream told that my victim was a woman. I shivered through all my body, and, breathless with horror, waited in the darkness for an instant attack. I heard nothing, however, except a stifled moaning, which gradually died away.

I waited and waited, half-frozen with cold and fear. Nothing happened. At last, I could stand it no longer, and determined to get in bed at all hazards. Groping about in the dark, I managed to pile my heaviest bales on the trap, so that it could not be opened without noise; then, crouching on the bed, I wrapped the blankets around me to keep from freezing, and made up my mind to watch till morning.

I thought that night of horror would never end, but, at last, gray streaks of dawn shone through the cracks in the window-shutters, and I devoutly thanked God it was over and that I had lived to see daylight again.

As soon as I could see clearly, I got up and cautiously moved my bales, shuddering in anticipation of finding the hand I had cut off last night. But what was my astonishment to find neither hand nor candle, nor even a stain of blood on the floor; nothing, actually nothing, to tell of last night's horror. Had it then really been only a dreadful dream?

Ah, the knife! I eagerly snatched it up. Yes, there was the red witness plain enough, still wet, and crimsoning the blade from point to handle. Yet on turning again to the floor there was no stain there, and on close inspection it looked solid plank from end to end.

"Well!" thought I, "of all the queer places I ever heard of, this one takes the lead. But for this knife I should be tempted to believe the events of last night only a vivid dream. This, however, is indisputable evidence of what happened, and of one thing I am very certain—the sooner I get away from here, the better for my health."

I wiped the knife on the skirt of my coat, and placed it in my bosom, taking very good care to have the handle convenient for laying hold of. I then opened the door, not without many inward misgivings, and called to the landlord to bring out my wagon.

He soon appeared, sullen an dogged as ever, but I saw no change in him since last night. He offered me breakfast, which I at once refused; not for worlds would I have eaten or drunk in that house. I was in a fever of impatience to be off, and after paying his bill in the smallest change I had, and without any unnecessary display of wealth, I stood by and watched him replace my packages in the wagon, and harness the horse. I did not offer to assist him; I was too much afraid of being taken at a disadvantage. I kept my hand on my trusty weapon, and never took my eyes off the surly villain. His amiable helpmate did not make her appearance, and I thought I could give a shrewd guess at the reason. I made no inquiries after her health, but jumped in my wagon and drove off.

To this day I cannot account for my escape. The fellow must have seen that I suspected him, and must have guessed at the witness to his attempted crime which I carried with me, yet he made no effort to stop me. I can only suppose he was an arrant coward with all his brutality, and dared not attack me, knowing me to be armed and on my guard; especially after his accomplice was disabled.

It was nearly two years afterward that I was travelling the same road again, and passed by the scene of my memorable adventure. I had, I assure you, no intention of calling, but I found the appearance of the place so changed that I made sure it no longer belonged to my former friends, and curiosity tempted me to stop and ask what had become of them.

Everything about now wore a thrifty and cheerful look, and so did the comely dame who answered my knock. Upon inquiring after the former occupants, I heard, without surprise or regret, that they had at last received the punishment they so richly deserved. The disappearance of a traveller, who was known and expected in the neighboring town, led to suspicion, and suspicion to search.

"And would you believe, sir," continued the good woman, "they found a trap-door in that shed-room there with a false floor, and under it was a deep hole with the traveller's body in it, and the skeletons of another man and a dog, poor thing! They killed him, I suppose, for trying to defend his master. And the wicked wretches was put in jail and hung, and we bought the place dirt cheap because it had such a bad name. Some folks says it's haunted, but laws! I ain't never seed nothing, and I ain't scared of ghosts nohow."

I did not disturb her comfortable skepticism by relating my experiences in that house, but I believed then, as I believe now, that a supernatural warning saved my life on that night of terror.

Jumped Overboard and was Drowned.

BUFFALO, Aug. 1.—A little pleasure party was ended sadly yesterday morning by the drowning of Robert Campbell, aged 11 years. The party consisted of little Robert, Miss Anna Nicklas, and a lady friend. The party started out in a rowboat from the foot of Porter-avenue, and was crossing the harbor when the tug Stevenson with a scow bore down on them. The boy, who was rowing, got his head and rowed in between the tug and scow. The danger of his position frightened him so that he jumped overboard and was drowned. The excitement played so heavily on the nerves of Anna Nicklas that about noon, an hour after the accident, she became despondent and attempted to drown herself.

For Impoverished Blood.

Uric acid in the blood is the cause of nearly all disease, it visits every part of the body and is liable to fasten disease upon any organ; the duty of the kidneys is to extract wastes from the blood; a cold will stop this action, a pain in the back follows, and unless relief is obtained, permanent inability of the kidneys to perform their functions follows, which may terminate in liver complaint, dyspepsia, blood disease, dropsy, diabetes or Bright's disease. Dodd's Kidney Pills assist the kidneys to natural work, and cure all complaints and results arising from same. dw

"German Syrup"

A Throat and Lung Specialty.

Those who have not used Boschee's German Syrup for some severe and chronic trouble of the Throat and Lungs can hardly appreciate what a truly wonderful medicine it is. The delicious sensations of healing, easing, clearing, strength-gathering and recovering are unknown joys. For German Syrup we do not ask easy cases. Sugar and water may smooth a throat or stop a tickling—for a while. This is as far as the ordinary cough medicine goes. Boschee's German Syrup is a discovery, a great Throat and Lung Specialty. Where for years there have been sensitiveness, pain, coughing, spitting, hemorrhage, voice failure, weakness, slipping down hill, where doctors and medicine and advice have been swallowed and followed to the gulf of despair, where there is the sickening conviction that all is over and the end is inevitable, there we place German Syrup. It cures. You are a live man yet if you take it.

Plot to Remove the Japanese Progressist Leader.

DISSENTIENTS IN A DILEMMA.

Joe Chamberlain's Reply to Mr. Gladstone's Challenge.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—G. W. Smalley cables to The N.Y. Tribune: There is not the slightest doubt but that Home Rule will be the first measure introduced by Mr. Gladstone, but bills dealing with the improvement in the Franchise Act, with the establishment of parish councils and possibly with the payment of members, will be brought in at the earliest opportunity in the new session and will be proceeded with in the intervals of time necessarily left by the progress of the Home Rule Bill through successive stages.

It is already perceived that the putting forth of such a program will be a matter of some embarrassment to Mr. Chamberlain and his friends. They still declare that they are Liberals, even Radicals, as loyal as they were in 1885. Their only point of difference with the bulk of the Liberal party is in respect of Home Rule. But the measures do not directly touch Home Rule, and are themselves essentially Liberal. How can professed Liberals, even though anti-Home Rulers, stand against them! Mr. Gladstone's quick eye early discovered this dilemma, and he made the opportunity at a roadside station.

Speaking at Birmingham last night, Mr. Chamberlain promptly and boldly took up the challenge. In vain, he tells his old chief, is the net spread in the sight of any bird. Mr. Gladstone admits the impossibility of the Dissentient Liberals voting for Home Rule, but on these other questions he expects that they will vote in accordance with their professions and convictions. Mr. Chamberlain sees clearly enough whither this tends. With the register put on a reasonable business basis and the principle of one man one vote embodied in legislation, the Liberal candidates would sweep the country and carry Home Rule triumphantly. As Mr. Chamberlain tersely and picturesquely puts it, "Mr. Gladstone will give us his ax to grind in order that he may afterward cut off our heads with it." Not for Joe, is in effect his reply to this invitation. Mr. Gladstone probably did not expect any other, but the dilemma of the Dissentient Liberals remained. The reason was a certain amount of reasonableness in their opposition to Liberal measures, when it was their main business to keep in office a Government that barred the way to Home Rule. Now that this Government is washed away they cannot go on opposing Liberal measures without finally losing their claim to rank as Liberals.

Gladstone Better.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—In response to inquiries concerning Mr. Gladstone's condition, Mrs. Gladstone said that her husband was better, that he had in fact improved so much that she could safely say that he was now in his usual state of health. Mrs. Gladstone further said that her husband would probably issue a circular to his supporters Monday.

No Autumn Session.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—The Daily News says: There is no foundation for the rumors that there will be an autumn session of Parliament, and declares that nothing is more improbable.

Lord Lansdowne's Daughter Married.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—Victor C Cavendish nephew of the Duke of Devonshire and heir to the Dukedom, was married on Saturday in St. Margaret's Church, Westminster, to Lady Evelyn Montrose, eldest daughter of the Marquis of Lansdowne. The ceremony was witnessed by a large and fashionable assemblage, many members of the aristocracy having returned to London expressly to attend the wedding. The gifts to the bride were numerous and costly jewels from the Duke of Devonshire, the Marquis of Lansdowne, the Duke of Westminster and many others. Among the most costly gifts were a watch and a bracelet set with diamonds and rubies from ex-Empress Eugenie.

During the dog-day season, the drain of nervous and vital energy may be counteracted by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In purifying the blood, it acts as a superb corrective and tonic, and enables the system to defy malarial and other climatic influence.

PIGS AS A CASUS BELLI

The Loss of a Litter Came Near Stirring Up War in Samoa.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—A cow kicked herself into undying fame at the Chicago fire in 1871, and if civil war breaks out anew in Samoa, which, according to dispatches from New South Wales, the foreign residents at Samoa apprehend, a litter of pigs will have been the innocent cause of all the carnage and horror that may ensue.

Ever since the outbreak or the island several years ago, when the governments of Germany, Great Britain and the United States espoused the cause of Malietoa and relegated Mataafe to obscurity, the latter has been walking in the woods at Malie, six or seven miles from Apia. He has been in a chronic state of rebellion, not overt, but just rebellious. He wouldn't play with Malietoa's crowd. Occasionally there would be a brush between small parties of the two factions of natives, but nothing serious occurred.

A few months ago, however, a German resident missed a litter of pigs, and suspecting that they had been carried off by some of Mataafe's followers, invoked the strong arm of the law to recover his piggies. Chief Justice Cedarkrantz, sympathizing with his countryman in the loss of the animals, issued a warrant for the arrest of the suspected parties, and gave it to a constable to serve. When the minion of the law approached Mataafe's camp he was met by a crowd of 200 or 300 armed with sticks. They suggested mildly but firmly that he was laboring under a misapprehension, that he didn't really want to serve the warrant, that he was proceeding as he was in order merely to satisfy his superiors and not to gain glory unto himself by effecting an arrest.

This actually seemed to be the constable's purpose, for he returned to Apia without either pigs or prisoner. Naturally the owner of the animals was wroth and demanded that the full power of the army and navy be enforced against Mataafe's camp, that personal rights and the majesty of the law might be vindicated. Chief Justice Cedarkrantz was inclined to insist upon his countryman's demand, but the loss of a few pigs, even if it were more or less mixed up with the abandonment of a principle, was not deemed of sufficient importance to precipitate active hostilities. Latest advices state that the matter was dropped and the indications were that trouble between the factions would be entirely avoided. But how the German is to be solaced for the loss of the pigs does not appear.

THE IRON HALL.

An Application for a Receivership Alarms Its Members.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—The members of the Order of the Iron Hall in this city are greatly exercised over the announcement that an application was made on Friday in the Superior Court, Indianapolis, for the appointment of a receiver, on the ground that the organization is insolvent.

The feature of the application that caused most apprehension was the one making serious charges of irregularity against Freeman Somerby of Philadelphia, who is supreme justice and apparently the executive head of the organization.

He is charged with a wilful misappropriation of the funds, with altering the books, and with taking at least $50,000 a year for his private traveling expenses.

He is also charged with failing to call a meeting of the Supreme Council for some years past, and with forcing an increase of his salary from $5000 to $10,000.

No Other Sarsaparilla possesses the Combination, Proportion, and Process which make Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar to itself

DR. L. A. SMITH & CO.:

DEAR SIRS,—Anti-Dandruff is evidently giving satisfaction. I have sold about half of the gross I bought from you on the 23rd of January last. I use it in my own family and like it well. Can recommend it to all who are troubled with dandruff.

Makes Flesh and Blood

When the system is all run down and there seems to be no hope of obtaining nourishment for the body by the ordinary process of food supply and digestion, when the body is shaking fast, then is the time to use Miller's Emulsion of pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil. It always works wonders, because it is a flesh and blood maker, and contains all the constituents for nourishment found in wheat, in fact Miller's Emulsion is a perfect "staff of life" and has saved and cured thousands. In big bottles, 50c. and $1, at Peterborough drug stores. dw

As a healing, soothing application for cuts, wounds, bruises and sores, there is nothing better than Victoria Carbolic Salve. dw

Stick to the Right.

Right actions spring from right principles. In cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, cramps, colic, summer complaint, cholera morbus, etc. the right remedy is Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry—an unfailing cure—made on the principle that nature's remedies are best. Never travel without it. dw

Worms derange the whole system. Mother Graves Worm Exterminator deranges worms and gives rest to the sufferer. It only costs twenty-five cents to try it and be convinced. w31

Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine is distinctly superior to any other as an appetizing tonic and fortifier. dw

If you had taken two of Carter's Little Liver Pills before retiring you would not have had that coated tongue or bad taste in the mouth this morning. Keep a vial with you for occasional use. dw

Freeman's Worm Powders destroy and remove worms without injury to adult or infant. dw

Suddenly Prostrated.

GENTLEMEN,—I was suddenly prostrated while at work with a severe attack of cholera morbus. We sent at once for a doctor, but he seemed unable to help. An evacuation about every forty minutes was fast wearing me out, when we sent for a bottle of Wild Strawberry, which saved my life.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give bottles free to those who call for it, a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and a dollar. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption. dw

PETITION AGAINST BALFOUR'S RETURN FOR EAST MANCHESTER.

Cholera Has Broken Out in Burmah—Riots in the Cholera-Smitten Districts o Russia—Princess Beatrice's Narrow Escape From Death by Fire.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—A petition has been grafted against the return of the Right Hon. Arthur James Balfour, First Lord of the Treasury, and Conservative leader in the House of Commons, as member of Parliament for East Manchester, on the ground that his election was obtained by bribery and illegal voting, by the wholesale treating of voters and the hiring of vehicles to carry them to the polls. Mr. Balfour was declared elected by 5147 votes to 4747 for Prof. J. F. C. Monroe, Liberal. In 1886 Mr. Balfour was elected by 4160 votes to 3316 for J. H. Crosfield, Liberal, and when Mr. Balfour accepted office he was returned without opposition.

A CASTLE ON FIRE.

Princess Beatrice Saved Her Life But Lost Her Jewels and Wardrobe.

BERLIN, Aug. 2.—Princess Beatrice had a narrow escape from death from fire in the castle at Heiligenberg Saturday morning.

Her maid carrying a candle approached too near a mosquito net covering the bedstead, setting fire to the net.

Princess Beatrice, who was in the bed, had no time to dress, but ran out of the room and alarmed the household.

The hose fixture near the bedroom would not work and a whole wing of the castle was destroyed before the firemen arrived.

The Princess lost all her jewels and wardrobe. Her husband, who was sleeping in a hunting-box in the neighboring woods, hastened to the castle as soon as he learned of the fire. Two firemen were injured.

FOUR MEN KILLED.

Fatal Result of the Collision of Two Drags Near Paris.

PARIS, Aug. 2.—Two closely-packed drags collided yesterday on their way home from the Maison Taffite races. The horses became unmanageable and threw the drags down an embankment into the gutter.

All the occupants of the drags were thrown out and two horses rolled down the embankment with them. Four men were killed and several men and two women were severely injured.

Riots in the Cholera Districts.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 2.—From letters received here it is learned that the natives, believing that doctors were poisoning patients who were suffering from cholera, became greatly excited and determined to put an end to the murderous practices. Five thousand of the natives suddenly invaded the Russian quarters of the town of Tashkend and attacked and wrecked the residence of Deputy-Governor Poutinstseff, who was killed by the mob. A body of troops was hurried to the scene of the attack and opened fire on the natives, killing several of them.

The character of the struggle may be imagined when it is known that 60 of the natives were killed and that hundreds of them were wounded, many of them most grievously. The soldiers, too, suffered heavily, 15 being killed and many wounded.

It is feared that there may be a renewal of the troubles. The troops are being reinforced, and everything is being done to put a summary and effectual end to further uprising on the part of the natives.

Cholera in Burmah.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The Times announces that cholera has broken out in Toungo, Burmah. The outbreak was due to the filthy condition of the town.

Sent a Message to Mother.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—Princess Beatrice has telegraphed to the Queen from Castle Heiligenberg, Germany, saying that she is quite well, and that, personally, she in no wise suffered from the midnight alarm of Friday last when part of the castle was destroyed by fire.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—A man who is confined in prison in Glasgow has confessed that he was implicated in the murders of Lord Leitrim, Lord Mountmorris and James Carey, the informer. The authorities refuse to divulge the prisoner's name.

Lord Bathurst Dead.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—Allen Alexander Bathurst is dead. He was born Oct. 19, 1832. He represented Cirencester in Parliament from 1857 to 1878, when he entered the House of Peers. He was a lieutenant-colonel of the North Gloucestershire militia and a member of several clubs.

A MOLLY MAGUIRE MURDER.

A Traitor Followed for Years and Finally Killed in Denver.

DENVER, Col., Aug. 2.—Several weeks ago Ottilia Augusta, an Italian, stabbed Harry Sullivan, a railroad switchman. Last night Sullivan died.

Several moments before his death Sullivan gave his real name as being D. C. McClannighan, and said Augusta had committed the crime on account of his (McClannighan) having betrayed some secrets of the Molly Maguires in Pennsylvania years ago.

An Old Man Murdered by a Woman.

UTICA, N.Y., Aug. 2.—One of the most cold-blooded murders ever committed in Oneida County occurred at Verona Station 23 miles west of here, yesterday. The victim was Carl Brauer, a harmless old German, and the murderess was Mary Houlihan, a married woman, who lived about 20 rods from Brauer's home. There were no witnesses of the act, although it happened about noon. The woman said she was chopping wood, when Brauer approached her and tried to drag her into an outhouse and assault her. She picked up an ax and struck him several times on the head and then poured scalding hot water over the body, causing the flesh to peel off. The woman was placed under arrest and taken to the Rome jail. The neighbors think that Brauer went to Houlihan's to try and collect $30—money borrowed to buy whisky and pay taxes—and that, receiving no money, he became abusive and was killed. The woman has frequently threatened the lives of people, and her neighbors give her a bad name. An inquest will be held to-morrow.

HAYING TIME!

This is haying time, therefore, to make hay while the sun shines is the best of advice at this season of the year.

We are determined that buyers of Dry Goods will find the sun shining to their heart's content, at the Golden Lion, and that an abundant harvest of ripened bargains await all comers to our store.

Our Store Front

will be taken out next week to make further improvements in our premises, and the display of goods in our window will have to be removed. But, customers will find us all alive inside, and better prepared than ever to give them VALUES that cannot be duplicated in any other dry goods store in town;

Although our great midsummer sale has attracted crowds of customers during July, the prices will be hammered down still lower during the alterations of our Store Front and all through the month of August.

RACE WIRES TAPPED.

Harlem Pool Room Keepers Mulcted on the Saratoga and Gloucester Events.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—One of the boldest wire-tapping schemes which has been attempted in several years was successfully put through by a gang of young men on Saturday in this city. As usual pool room keepers were the sufferers.

One of the principal race department circuits of the Western Union Company was "tapped," returns were delayed until bets were made by those in the scheme and then the result was sent by the operators who were at the "tap." Two pool rooms lost so heavily that they appealed to the telegraph company for relief. Just how much the gang made is not known, but one of the persons on the inside says the amount is not less than $2500 and may be $3000.

The men in the scheme included a Brooklyn sporting character, two linemen, Englishman with some money and the live men with a thorough knowledge of telegraphy. It had been arranged to hold back the returns on seven races, and it was thought if nothing went wrong from $2000 to $5000 would be divided.

It is customary for the Western Union Company to send out "flash" messages when a horse is heavily played at the track just before the racers are started. It was by this means that the men who were to lay the money at the pool rooms were to be advised by the men who were "tapping" the wires as to which horse won.

The men at the "tap" held back the start and a description of the race, and when they received the name of the winner in cipher they sent a "flash" message over the wire to the pool rooms. Four or five minutes later they sent the description of the race.

The operators at the "tap" held back the result in the seven races agreed upon by the members of the gang. These races were the third at Saratoga, won by Miss Belle; the second and fourth at Monmouth Park, won respectively by Sir Walter and Chesapeake; and the second, third, fifth and sixth at Gloucester, won by Richard T., Genevieve, Crocus and Baby.

RAISED OVER 100 FEET.

The City of Owen Sound Raised From the Bottom of Georgian Bay.

DETROIT, Aug. 3.—The successful raising of the Canadian steamer City of Owen Sound from the bottom of Georgian Bay, where the water is 110 feet deep, has caused great interest among marine men. The City of Owen Sound was lost in October, 1887, with a cargo of grain. When it was found that the wreck was in over 100 feet of water it was given up as a total loss. Such it was with all the ordinary appliances of wrecking, but since that time iron pontoons have been invented by William Leslie of Kingston. These pontoons are 46 feet in length and about 10 feet in diameter, being round with cigar-shaped ends. They are divided into three compartments by water-tight bulkheads and are built of heavy steel plates strengthened with longitudinal and cross braces. To prevent undue rolling the pontoons are built with bilge keels and have a well at each end through which chains are brought up and effectively held by cogglas. The lifting capacity of each pontoon is 100 tons.

Dozens of good lake boats lie within 100 feet of the surface on the lakes, and if the new invention is the success claimed for it all these craft will be afloat again. Among these wrecks is the large steel steamer Brunswick, which lies in about 90 ft. of water off Dunkirk, N.Y. The wooden steamer Smith Moore is in less than 100 feet of water near Marquette. These are but a few of the valuable boats which can now be raised. The underwriters are the owners of most of these wrecks, but they doubtless will be willing to sell out cheaply, particularly as the boats have been given up for lost these many years.

ELLEN LOMIS' DEATH.

Examination of Mr. Maclean at Goderich To-morrow—Interest in the Case.

GODERICH, Aug. 3.—Writs for criminal libel were issued yesterday at the instance of M. C. Cameron against W. F. Maclean of The Toronto World, Robert J. K. Gore, ex-gardener in Mr. Cameron's employ, and Laura Gordon, formerly a housemaid in his employ. The writs arise out of an article published in The World on Friday, July 29 last, in which affidavits of Gore and Gordon were published together with the statement of Mr. Cameron with a view of inducing the authorities to investigate all the facts leading to the death of Ellen Lomis.

The examination of Laura Gordon takes place to-day in connection with the suit instituted against James Mitchell, proprietor of The Star. J. T. Garrow will appear as counsel for Mr. Cameron, and Mr. Campion for the defendant will have associated with him, it is understood, Mr. Nicholas Murphy, Q.C., of Toronto, who was connected with the former cases.

The preliminary examination in the suits instituted against Messrs. Maclean and Gore and Miss Gordon will take place on Thursday. W. W. Fox, The World reporter who wrote the article of the 29th, has been subpœnaed as a witness in this case.

Nothing has caused such widespread interest and excitement in the town as this case for many a long day, and it is safe to predict that the town hall will be unable to accommodate the throng which will seek admittance at the preliminary examination.

Richard Ten Broeck Dead.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 3.—News reached here last night of the death of Richard Ten Broeck at Menlo Park, Col. He gained his earliest racing experiences from Colonel Johnson of Virginia, remembered by sporting men as the Napoleon of the turf, in conjunction with whom he made many ventures. He established a stable of race horses in Havana and later on in Canada, where his horses started nine times without ever once being beaten.

Modjeska's Ranch Keeper Murdered.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 3.—A Mexican boy brought the news yesterday to Santa Anna of the murder of a man named McKelvy, who was taking care of Mme. Modjeska's ranch in San Diego Canyon. McKelvy was alone and there are no details. Modjeska generally spends her summer vacation on this ranch, which is beautifully fitted up.

Smoked On a Keg of Powder.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Michael Petaso, 25 years old, employed on the construction of the new piers for the Staten Island Rapid Transit Company at St. George, S.I., sat smoking on a keg of powder in a shanty at that place Sunday night. A spark from his pipe set fire to the powder. Petaso was terribly burned about the head and face.

HEMMED IN BY FLAMES.

GIRLS INJURED JUMPING FROM A BURNING BUILDING.

The Strathroy Knitting Company's Factory Catches Fire, a Panic Ensues and Scores Leap From the Roof—The Loss Will Reach $100,000.

STRATHROY, Aug. 3.—The most serious loss ever experienced by this town visited us yesterday in the total destruction by fire of the Strathroy Knitting Company's factory, storehouses and boilerhouse, together with the Catholic church which stood immediately opposite in the same street.

The building was a large four-story structure about 200 feet long and employing between 200 and 250 hands.

The Fire Appliances Powerless.

The fire started in the picker, a rapidly revolving steel pointed cylinder, and spread through the inflammable material by which it was surrounded with such rapidity that within 15 minutes of the first alarm dense volumes of smoke were issuing from every one of the many open windows that pierced the walls in every side. These smoke escaping avenues were so many exhausts that they fanned the flames with fury and rendered the fire appliances in the building powerless to contend against the headway made by the fire.

Caused a Panic.

The picker was situated in the lower west floor, and the ascending smoke carried a panic into the upper stories where most of the female help was employed. Many of the girls imagined that escape was cut off and made for the windows of the mansard roof, throwing themselves from these and sustaining severe injuries.

The prevailing opinion is that had the panic not set in all the employes could have escaped without injury.

Roman Catholic Church Destroyed.

From the factory building the flames soon spread to the Roman Catholic Church, which faced it on the south side of the street.

From the first the chances of saving this structure were few, as the intense heat from the burning factory rendered the efforts of the firemen of comparatively little effect.

At one time the large flouring mill adjacent to the factory, Mr. Richard Pincombe's house, Mr. John Banghart's hotel, the Roman Catholic parsonage and all the buildings within a radius of 500 feet of the burning structure were looked upon as doomed, but fortunately the direction of the wind favored the escape of these buildings or the loss would have been much larger than it was.

The insurance on the factory is between $65,000 and $70,000 and the loss will approach $100,000.

The church is completely wrecked and the loss to the parishioners will not be replaced by an expenditure of less than $8000. There is about $3500 insurance on the buildings.

The Injured.

The injured as far as reported are:

RUTH DAVIDSON, hurt internally and burned badly.

HANNA DELL, hip injured and bruised about the head.

MAGGIE HEAD, both legs broken and badly bruised.

MAGGIE BOYLE, injured spine and badly bruised.

LIZZIE HEAD, leg broken and badly crushed.

A large number of girls were injured in their efforts to escape.

Clinton Carriage Works Burned.

CLINTON, Ont., Aug. 3.—The brick building on the corner of Albert and Princess-streets, owned by Henry Cantelon, was destroyed by fire early yesterday. The building was occupied by J. Hayward, carriage builder, and C. Copp, blacksmith. Mr. Hayward's loss is about $1000, with insurance of $500. Mr. Copp's loss is $300; no insurance.

A CURE FOR "LUMPY JAW."

Secretary Rusk Will Make Some Wholesale Experiments.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—Secretary Rusk is here and will make 200 tests upon cattle suffering with "lumpy jaw." He will experiment with a new treatment of potash and expects to develop a remedy for this disastrous disease among cattle. The Secretary will also experiment in microscopic inspecton of pork.

Canadian Discrimination Against the United States Discussed.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—At yesterday's Cabinet meeting the question of Canadian discrimination against the United States was discussed, so it is said, but so far as can be learned no action was taken.

Collided with a Trolley Car.

PASSAIC, N.J., Aug. 3.—A fatal accident occurred on the Paterson & Passaic Electric Road at Garfield, a trolley colliding with a freight train on the Erie Railroad. John Hackett, the conductor of the electric car, was so badly injured that he died a few hours later. Several others were badly hurt, being bruised and cut by broken glass from car windows.

Must Pay or Won't Preach.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The Rev. W. H. Harris, pastor of the First Christian Church, Irvington, N.J., astonished his congregation Sunday night after his sermon by tendering his resignation, to take effect immediately.

He gave as his reason the failure of the church to meet its obligations. Mr. Harris said the laborer was worthy of his hire, and unless the church should be able to meet its indebtedness his voice would not again be heard among them.

Fell From the Wharf.

QUEBEC, Aug. 3.—Yesterday afternoon the 9-year-old son of Louis Vincent, laborer, of Little Champlain-street, fell over the Napoleon Wharf pontoon and was drowned. He never rose after falling into the water. The body has not yet been found, but is being grappled for.

DON'T WANT PROHIBITION.

It Would Take an Army to Enforce Such a Law in Truro.

TRURO, N.S., Aug. 3.—The Royal Commission met here and sat throughout yesterday, much evidence being presented.

David J. Thomas, Mayor of Truro, stated that the town was now under prohibition law. No licenses are issued, but liquor is illicitly sold in seven hotels and half a dozen shops.

Gardner Clisp, President of Board of Trade, considered drinking was usually greater under each act tried. He opposed prohibition and recommended the license system strictly enforced, which would reduce illicit sales.

William Craig, hat manufacturer, a resident of Truro for 22 years, said the sale of liquor under prohibition was about the same as under license, though not so open. He believed it would take an army to enforce a prohibition law if such were enacted.

Rev. D. S. Fraser of Stewiacke, Convener of the Temperance Committee of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, declared that he believed the selling of liquor was as great a sin as theft. He compared the drinking of wine to the reading of an obscene book, but refused to answer a question as to whether they were equally sinful.

James E. Bigelow, manufacturer of assorted waters and syrups, said that the liquor question was not effectually dealt with by license system. He was opposed to general prohibition, but was not altogether disinterested, on account of his hotel connections.

Dr. J. H. McKay favored use of strong wines as in France and light beers such as lager in the United States. Prohibition of whisky, brandy and rum would have more effect than total prohibition, because as many people demanded liquor wines and beers should be allowed as being not injurious.

Harvey Graham, iron manufacturer, Ferona, swore that in country districts in Pictou, where the Scott Act is officially enforced, he found, when connected with Nova Scotia glass works, that the use of lager by all Americans and Hungarians and wine by Bohemian workmen was as injurious as strong liquors, and made them drunk longer. Some so-called temperance beers also caused drunkenness.

Commission adjourned to meet in Yarmouth on Thursday.

CANADA'S CHARLIE ROSS.

A Montreal Boy Recovered After Eight Years of Absence.

MONTREAL, Aug. 3.—After eight years of absence from home young Willie Dallas returned to the city yesterday from Bellows Falls. On June 24, 1884, St. Jean Baptiste Day, during the celebration, he was in the crowd in St. Lawrence Main-street, St. Jean Baptiste village, near his own door, when two French-Canadians came along, and one of them picking him up carried him to a vehicle. He was taken to Bellows Falls and placed in the primary school, where he remained for four years. After that the men made him work on the farm for three years, and by this time he had almost forgotten Montreal. About a year ago he was sent to work in a hotel in Keene County, N.H., and then it dawned upon him that he would write and try to find his parents. The letter was addressed to St. Jean Baptiste postmaster, and it being about the time of the annexation the missive was lost for a time, as no one assumed to have the right to open it. When it was finally read the lad referred to the fact that he remembered St. Lawrence-street and wanted to know about Mr. Dallas and if he still lived there. There was no difficulty in finding Dallas, senior, and the hearts of the parents were gladdened when tidings came of their son. The youth says he was always well treated and was given a fair education during his four years' schooling.

An Unmarried Resident of Vienna Commits Suicide.

ST. THOMAS, Ont., Aug. 3.—Peter Parrott, an unmarried resident of the village of Vienna, in this county, committed suicide by taking a dose of paris green yesterday.

Boy Killed in the Hayfield.

PICKERING, Ont., Aug. 3.—Yesterday afternoon, while Thomas Wilson and his two sons, who live in the Base-line south of this place, were loading hay, his eldest son, who was loading, slipped and fell behind the horses' heels, causing them to run away. Benjamin, a younger son, 13 years of age, who was working some distance ahead, attempted to stop the team and in so doing was knocked down, stepped on and the wheels passed over his body. He died this morning.

The Incline Railway a Great Success.

HAMILTON, Aug. 3.—Much to the surprise of everyone but the promoters the incline railway up the mountain is likely to turn out a great success. For the first month the company's receipts were $1011 and expenses $250. This upon a capital of $50,000 and the concern only in its infancy augurs well for the shareholders.

No Moulders at Work.

HAMILTON, Aug. 3.—Yesterday the Moulders' Union considered the proposition made by Hugh Sweeney to employ 16 union men at the Laidlaw foundry. There are some provisions which are not satisfactory to the moulders and they have not returned to work. It is likely the stumbling block is that Mr. Laidlaw wants to control the shop and have non-union men employed if he sees fit.

Death of a Young Doctor.

CLINTON, Aug. 3.—The death by inflammation of the bowels after a few days' illness of Dr. A. Williams in Belgrave yesterday was one of the saddest that occurred in this vicinity. The deceased was a son of Dr. Williams of Brampton, and just completed his final examination. He was in his 21st year and only located in Belgrave a few weeks ago.

Fourteen-Year-Old Hero.

WINDSOR, Aug. 3.—Gerald, the 6-year-old son of Andrew Anderson of Amherstburg, fell in the river in 12 feet of water. Stanley McDonald, 14 years old, jumped in and rescued him as he was going down the third time. Only a short time ago this young hero saved another child from drowning.

Opening of the Northwest Legislature.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 3.—The Northwest Legislative Assembly opened at Regina yesterday. The Speech from the Throne referred to the great influx of immigration and consequent necessity of opening up and improving the great arteries of travel in the country, and also of the importance of having the Northwest properly represented at the Columbian Exposition.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, it is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it, a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and a dollar. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption. dw

For the Baby!

An Agent of Health and Strength!

Mothers naturally become alarmed when baby is attacked with diarrhœa in summer time. During the heated term the trouble often has fatal results.

Let us impress upon mothers the fact that the first element of a cure for diarrhœa of infants is to carefully examine as to the quality and quantity of its food and care, and to see that these give no occasion for the difficulty.

Thousands of infants are attacked with diarrhœa owing to improper dieting. These are usually fed with half sour and stale cow's milk, or poorly prepared artificial foods.

Mothers of Canada are strongly urged to make use of Lactated Food when baby cannot be fed from the breast. This wonderful Lactated Food is, to-day, the only reliable and trustworthy food on the market, and is highly spoken of by doctors everywhere. From medical evidence and experience we can truthfully say to every mother, "If you wish to see your baby strong and healthy, commence at once with Lactated Food; it is a treasure where there is a baby to bring up."

A Former Lakefielder's Marriage.

Mr. James D. Graham Brilliantly Becomes a Benedict.

The Pasadena (California) Evening Star contains the following report of the wedding of Mr. James D Graham son of Mr. Robert Graham, Lakefield, and a former principal of the Lakefield public school :—

One of the most notable social events that has occurred in Pasadena for some time was the wedding last evening of Mr. Jas. D. Graham, Supervising Principal of our public schools, and Miss Elizabeth E Rust, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Rust, of South Pasadena. The invitations issued for the affair brought to the First Congregationalist church about three hundred friends of the interested parties, and the wedding was celebrated amidst surroundings that made it both a brilliant and an imposing ceremony. The floral decorations in the church were arranged under the direction of Mrs. Geo. B. Post and were unusually beautiful and elaborate. The pulpit platform was entirely filled with palms and a mass of flowering plants—fuchsias, begonias and the white blossoms of azalea and oleander. A bank of hydrangea was placed around the foot of the platform and in the choir loft palms were used in profusion.

The church was filled at an early hour and during the time previous to the arrival of the bridal party Mr. Nelson played some fine selections of bridal music, an opening prelude and the bridal song by Jensen. The bridal party, entering to the stately music of the wedding chorus from Lohengrin, was led by Messrs. C. W. Hodson and L. B. Brown, followed by Messrs. Will S Munro and R I. Rogers, Miss Nettleton and Miss Edith Gardner, the bridesmaids, walking together, preceded Miss Gardner, the maid of honour. Lastly came the bride on the arm of her father. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Alfred Cooper, of Los Angeles, and Rev. D. D. Hill. After the short but impressive ceremony performed by Mr. Hill, the party left the church to the strains of a grand wedding march by Petzl.

The bride wore a gown of heavy, lustrous white silk, cut with a court train and designed with effective simplicity. The bodice was outlined with orange blossoms, which, with a neck garniture of lace, formed the only ornamentation. A long veil of white tulle fell to the foot of the dress all around, and was fastened on the head with orange blossoms. She carried a large bunch of long-stemmed white carnations. The maid of honour and the bridesmaids wore white organdie gowns and carried bunches of colored carnations.

Following the wedding, a small reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Rust, in South Pasadena, only the bridal party, relatives and a few friends being present. The large grounds were dotted with lights from Japanese lanterns, while the inside of the house was profusely decorated with a variety of choice flowers. After the the dainty supper, Mr. and Mrs. Graham started on a wedding journey, followed by the good wishes of their friends. They will be at home on Palmetto drive after August 17th.

A most estimable lady almost destroyed until Dr. Butler's Golden Pills came to the rescue. After their use for a short time she was able to resume her duties, after suffering untold misery from nervous prostration and the ills that attend that most distressing disease. These, if not checked in time, lead to insanity and death. Golden Pills are guaranteed to cure all nervous and blood diseases.

Makes Flesh and Blood

When the system is all run down and there seems to be no hope of obtaining nourishment for the body by the ordinary process of food supply and digestion, when the body is sinking fast, then is the time to use Miller's Emulsion of pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil. It always works wonders, because it is a flesh and blood maker, and contains all the constituents for nourishment found in wheat, in fact Miller's Emulsion is a perfect "staff of life" and has saved and cured thousands. In big bottles, 50c. and $1, at Peterborough drug stores. dw

Are free from all crude and irritating matter. Concentrated medicine only. Carter's Little Liver Pills. Very small; very easy to take; no pain; no griping; no purging. Try them. dw

A Close Call.

After suffering for three weeks from cholera infantum, so that I was not expected to live, and, at the time, would even have been glad had death called me, so great was my suffering. A friend recommended Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, which acted like magic on my system. But for this I would not be alive now.

JOHN W. BRADSHAW,
203 St. Paul street, Montreal, P.Q. dw

Stick to the Right.

Right actions spring from right principles. In cases of diarrhœa, dysentery, cramps, colic, summer complaint, cholera morbus, etc. the right remedy is Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry—an unfailing cure—made on the principle that nature's remedies are best. Never travel without it. dw

Worms derange the whole system. Mother Graves Worm Exterminator deranges worms and gives rest to the sufferer. It only costs twenty-five cents to try it and be convinced. c 31

Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine is distinctly superior to any other as an appetizing tonic and furtifier. dw

A Hybrid.

Uncle Jake—And what do you think of my bull pup?

City Niece—A bull pup? Will he have horns when he grows up, Uncle?

He Wanted to Get Even.

He looked like a man who would sell his vote, and when he applied to a lawyer for legal advice the lawyer did not enter into the case with undue enthusiasm. "What's the matter?" he asked.

"Well, I want to sue a man for damages," said the aggrieved one.

"State the case," commanded the attorney curtly.

"This man bought my vote for half a gallon of liquor."

"You ought to be ashamed of yourself."

"I am, and that's why I want to git even," he confessed, unblushingly. "I offered to sell out fer $2, and he said he'd give me half a gallon of $4 liquor."

"Did he give you the liquor?"

"'Course he did. He had to er I wouldn't voted his way."

"Then how are you damaged?"

"It wasn't four-dollar liquor. It wasn't nothin' but dollar and a half red-eye and I want to know if I can't sue him for the dollar and a quarter he beat me out of."

The lawyer declined to take the case.

All He Needed.

"I am trying to raise five dollars to send to my sick family," said a ragged-looking specimen to a man waiting for a Jefferson avenue car, "and if you can help me a little I shall be greatly obliged."

"You don't want me to give you the entire five, do you?" asked the man.

"No, sir; only enough to make out the five. I've got a start, sir."

"How much money do you need?"

The seedy one put his hand in his pocket a moment.

"Only $4.99, sir," he said, meekly, and the man broke for the car.

The Red Star.

Our neighbor planet Mars, whose orbit lies next beyond that of the earth, is at present playing the most important part in planetary annals. As a great red star he may now be noticed, due south at midnight, in the constellation Capricornus, almost in a line between the well known stars Altair, in Aquila and Fomalhaut, in Pisces Australis. Mars will appear nearest the earth on the night and morning of August 3rd and 4th.

Retaliation.

This subject is before the people to-day and is causing no little commotion among all classes. But that is not the subject that is agitating the inhabitants of Peterborough. They have before them a holiday, and have a great many ways laid open to him to enjoy it. But none meets with so much favour as a day out with the Sons of England (Lansdowne Lodge) to Sturgeon Point, on Civic Holiday, Aug. 18th, per G. T. Were you Ever Round

From Chemong to Lakefield? This route offers special attractions to all lovers of the beautiful, the grand and the sublime in nature, also to the sport-loving of the community, as two hours will be spent at Buckhorn, the best black bass and lunge fishing grounds in Ontario, and one hour at Burleigh Falls. Train leaves the G. T. R. station at 7 a.m., connecting with the steamer "Golden City" at Chemong on morning of Aug. 18th, Civic Holiday. Fare from Peterborough, 85c.; children, 40c. The committee in charge promise special attractions in the way of entertainment.

Canada's National Game.

The lacrosse match here on Saturday afternoon next between the Senior Toronto Lacrosse club and the Peterborough's will prove a rare treat and fine exhibition to lovers of Canada's national game.

An arrangement is being made by the Peterborough Lacrosse club to play an outside team on August 15th, the day of Toronto's civic holiday, when hundreds of the Canadian Order of Foresters will be present on their excursion to Peterborough.

The local lacrosse club will play some team out of town on Civic Holiday, August 18th. They have two or three trips in view.

The Senior Shamrocks and Junior Peterborough's will cross sticks on the P.A.A.A. grounds again on Friday evening.

The Junior Peterborough's are anxiously awaiting to hear from Campbellford club on whom they desire to administer defeat and win more laurels to their successful career this season.

Bankrupt Stock still in the ring. Everything goes at T. Dolan & Co.'s store at your own price.

TO THE BUYING PUBLIC.

People of Peterborough, buy no goods after six o'clock to encourage the early closing movement and give the boys a chance to get a mouthful of fresh air; as I am aware you never give them anything but lots of lip If this is not carried out clubs will have to be used.

Respectfully yours,

J. DOLAN.

Down the Bay of Quinte.

The Oddfellows' excursion on civic holiday to Belleville, Glenora and Picton should be the attraction for the many. It stands out as the cheapest and best trip of the day, and is over an entirely new route. The sail down the Bay of Quinte will be a delightful one, and any person who has not enjoyed this sail should not miss it or fail to see the sights at picturesque Glenora and the Sand Banks.

Enticed from Home.

Last Monday, August 1st, Master Edward Potvin, aged 14 years, left his home, 313 Wolfe street, it is supposed in company with an older lad, who persuaded him to the unfortunate step. As the time of leaving the lad Potvin wore a black soft felt hat, short coat and striped pants. He is fair, tall and slender. Naturally his parents are exceedingly anxious on his account and they will be deeply grateful to any person who will give information of his whereabouts, and will use his good offices to persuade the misguided lad to return home, where he will be made heartily welcome. He can return home with the greatest confidence, and need be in no fear of punishment. If this should meet the eye of Edward Potvin he will assuredly be eager to at once relieve his mother's anxiety.

Another Incipient Blaze.

An alarm of fire rang out at noon to-day, and the firemen responded with their accustomed alacrity. The blaze proved to be in a two story double house on Chambers street owned by Mr. T. Bradburn. Both apartments in the structure were untenanted. The fire originated in the hall of the house recently occupied by Mr. Cornelius Wall. The damage done was slight, principally by smoke and water. The building was insured. The cause of the fire can be attributed undoubtedly to a clear case of incendiarism as the fire first caught in a closet under the stairway, and had it not been discovered in time, might have wrought serious damage. This is the fifth time within a week and the fourth time within forty-eight hours that the brigade have been called out to extinguish incipient blazes.

Another Excursion to be Held.

Court Langton, No. 314, C.O.F. held a regular meeting with a large attendance last evening. Propositions for membership were received. It was decided to hold a joint excursion with Court Peterborough, No. 29, C.O.F. on August 25th. The trip will be a fine one, going by way of Chemong, where the steamer Sunbeam will be taken for a trip to Buckhorn, Burleigh, Lovesick, thence to Lakefield home, making the circuit of the lakes in one day. Last evening Bros. F. J. Jameson, of the High Court executive, R. Mulligan, C.R. Court Little John, Wm. Robinson, C.R., Court Peterborough, H. Nesbitt, D.D.H.C.R., were present and made spirited remarks in favour of the excursion. The local courts will give the 13 Canadian courts of Toronto a hearty reception here on the 15th inst. The executive will meet the visiting brethren.

One of the Old Timers in Sight.

One of the old time picnics, excursions and social gatherings will be held in Johnston's far famed grove on the river Trent at Hastings, on Aug. 18th, Peterborough's Civic Holiday. This is the day set apart for the citizens to enjoy themselves and have a days refreshing outing. Then hurrah with the grand union excursion under the management of the C.M.B.A., E.B.A. and C.O.F. Societies. This is going to be the excursion of the day. Sports of all kind, dancing for every one, finest fishing points in Ontario. Hot water provided for those with baskets. The committee has left nothing out; everything for the comfort, convenience, amusement, enjoyment and pleasure of those attending. If you miss this you will miss the best day's enjoyment this season and don't forget it. The price is only a trifle and you depart and arrive home at a most reasonable time. Then be sure to make arrangements to take it in. See the posters for full particulars.

A Successful Lawn Social.

Another of those popular lawn socials which are so delightful to attend on these cool midsummer evenings was held at the large residence and handsome grounds of Mr. George Edmison, Rubidge street, last evening. About 200 persons were present. The festival was given under the auspices of the Young People's Christian Endeavour Society of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church and proved a complete success. The grounds were prettily decorated with Chinese lanterns strung hither and thither all over the lawn, brilliantly lighting up the surroundings and presenting a beautiful appearance. On the north west corner was the ice cream stand and here half a dozen of St. Andrew's most useful and prettiest served up the delicious beverage in fine style Tables were provided for the consumers. On the south side of the lawn was the lemonade and candy stand. This too was a popular resort for those present. During the evening an impromptu programme was carried out in an informal way. Miss Harris sang a solo in fine voice, and Mr. Corbin was a general favorite of the evening. He rendered a splendid autoharp and mouth organ solo, which was loudly applauded. His other selections on different instruments also did not fail to please. A novel experiment was introduced at the close, when the remaining cakes were auctioned off and sold for what they would bring. The admission to the event was free, and this, no doubt, accounts for its great success.

The ill condition of a single organ, the liver for instance, may bring on the gravest disorders, which would surely have been obviated by the use of Dr. Sey't Remedy.

Death of an Old Resident.

Mrs. Margaret Dunlop, wife of Mr. John Dunlop, died yesterday afternoon. Deceased lady was much respected for her kindness and good nature. She was in her fiftieth year and leaves a husband and two children to mourn her loss. The funeral will take place to morrow afternoon from the late residence, corner of George and Shrubrooke streets.

They are to Have a Moonlight.

No. 6 Company of the 57th Battalion have decided to hold their outing down the river on Thursday evening of next week. It will be the first moonlight excursion of the season and the destination is Victoria Park. Music will be provided for dancing An energetic committee consisting of Colour-Sergt. Hall and Privates J. F. Brenton and A. Hodgett have the matter in hand and will make it a success in every particular.

At Rest.

In the usual place will be found a notice of the death of Miss Florence Pearson, third daughter of Mr. Wm. Pearson, Park street. The deceased young lady has been suffering for the past two years from a painful disease on the ankle which defied the best medical skill obtainable and led to death this morning. Miss Pearson's amiability made her a great favorite among her many friends who will join with her relatives in mourning the sad and early close of a promising life. Funeral from the family residence on Friday at 3 o'clock.

Yesterday Afternoon's Fire.

The fire which broke out in Mr. Murty's rough cast block on Hunter street yesterday afternoon was speedily extinguished by the firemen. Mr. D. Doig loses about $150 worth by smoke and water which seriously effected his stock of tinware. He was insured in the Agricultural. Mr. P. J. Hickey's loss is slight. The damage done to the block is confined principally to the roof and the rooms in the upper storey which were occupied by Mrs. Hartley, who succeeded in saving most of her household effects. Mr. Murty estimates his loss at $600 or $700, insured.

Last Sad Rites.

The funeral of Mrs. Thos. E. Pope, who died in Chicago, and whose remains arrived in Peterborough at midnight last night, took place this morning from the residence of her brother-in-law, Mr. M. J. Halpin, corner of Perry and George streets, to St. Peter's Cathedral, where high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Whibbe, thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery, where the remains were interred in their last long resting place. The bearers were: Messrs. M. H. LeHane, S. Anglyse, W. Collins, J. Corkery, J. Picard and M. Halpin. Deceased leaves a husband and two children to mourn her loss.

Another Sunday School.

A new Sunday School is being built in Crawford's Grove to accommodate children for whom the distance to town Sunday Schools is so great that they cannot attend. The new building is non sectarian in denomination, and will fill a long felt want in that neighbourhood. Mr. Crawford has generously donated the plot of land on which to erect the school, and the residents in that locality have commenced the erection of the school with such a vim that it will be rapidly pushed forward to completion. A fine entertainment in the interests of the new school will be held on Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock The admission, including refreshments, is only 15 cents. All should attend and support in this worthy cause for which the entertainment is given.

A Wild Ox.

Some time since a rampant steer, belonging to Mr. Geo. Webber, North Monaghan, escaped from its enclosure, and after visiting the fields of farmers in the vicinity, took refuge in a jungle near Capt. Wallis' grove. He is as wild as a boarding school girl and only leaves his haunts at evening. A town butcher who bought him from Mr. Webber, organized a party yesterday, but the wild ox still has his liberty. A certain local nimrod posted himself at the animal's "run way" and had a splendid shot at him, but not being certain of the identity of the beast, fought shy of the risk of killing the wrong steer and withheld his hand from the trigger till it was too late. Any one acquainted with the nature of the woods where the wild ox has his lair, knows how impossible it is for a man to pass through it. The steer is safe so long as he lies low and keeps shady.

Worst Case of Scrofula the Doctors Ever Saw

Completely Cured by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

"When I was 4 or 5 years old I had a scrofulous sore on the middle finger of my left hand, which got so bad that the doctors cut the finger off, and later took off more than half my hand. Then the sore broke out on my arm, came out on my neck and face on both sides, nearly destroying the sight of one eye, also on my right arm. Doctors said it was the

A Public Nuisance.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—Some time ago there were several letters and items in the town papers regarding waggons, etc., left standing on the side of the road all day and at night time, but they did not have the desired effect of stopping this nuisance which is carried on to a great extent in town. The other evening I was driving a lady friend around town, and twice I very nearly lost a wheel by carts standing on the roadside. If I am not mistaken there is a bylaw in town prohibiting this nuisance, and why don't the police stop it? It is a very dangerous practice, besides a very ugly one, leaving an old cart on the street all the time. Hoping Mr. Editor that the police will attend to this in time to allow the large crowd of people to drive safely to the Sons of Canada excursion on Civic Holiday, which leaves the wharf at eight o'clock, and for which the fare is 50 cents, per steamer Golden Eye. I remain,

Yours very truly,
A SON OF CANADA.

MARRIAGE OF A GHOST.

[Nothing can exceed the literary ingenuity of the French. This is the reason, combined with their wonderful knack at expression, and their delicious sense of humor, that they lead the world in the matter of short stories. One of the most brilliant and amusing conceptions characteristic of this gifted race, is embodied in the following tale by Mary Summer.]

The stage-coach which ran between Paris and Marseilles had just reached Grenoble, when the young Baron de Saint-Andre climbed up to the front seat.

Here he found a good-looking fellow of his own age, and straightway the two became great friends. At the end of an hour, they began exchanging confidences, after the manner of youth.

The scion of noble stock was on his way to Paris, to buy an officer's brevet, so as to serve his country, as his ancestors had done before him; the other, who was the son of a rich tradesman, was also bound for Paris, for the purpose, however, of marrying an heiress, the daughter of an old friend of his father.

"It is an even thing!" cried the young baron, laughingly. "A mere money-matter for each of us. The little god Cupid has no more concern in your business than in mine!"

"There you mistake," returned the other. "I have never seen Sylvia, but I fell in love with her, once and forever, the first time I laid eyes upon her portrait. Judge for yourself."

He opened a tortoise-shell case and Saint-Andre exclaimed admiringly:

"What an angel! Indeed, my dear fellow, you are very fortunate to have that charming, dainty creature picked out for you."

"I do not complain," said the bridegroom-elect, "and now I am going to sleep if this miserable, jolting concern will allow me. I am expected to breakfast at my future father-in-law's as soon as I reach Paris, and as I shall then be presented to my betrothed I want to look as well as possible."

At the end of three days and two nights the heavy stage coach lumbered into the metropolis, and the two travellers went to the nearest hotel and engaged two rooms, intending to take a little rest. Saint-Andre had just thrown himself upon the bed, when he heard deep groans in the next room, and on rushing in, found his late companion rolling on the floor in agonies of pain. The servants were summoned, a physician was brought in, and the latter declared that the patient was suffering from acute colic, which had probably been contracted before he left home and had been aggravated by the fatigue of the journey. He pronounced the malady a very serious one, and so it proved, for, in spite of every care, the youth expired at the end of an hour.

Saint-Andre was overwhelmed by the catastrophe, and when he found that he could do nothing more for his friend, he stood gazing sadly at the lifeless clay which lay on the narrow bed in the bare hotel-room. Poor fellow! So young, so gay, looking forward to a bright future, and now snatched away without warning! What would the fair bride-elect say when she heard of this tragedy?

Saint-Andre dreaded the bearing of the sad news to the family, but there was no one else to perform the errand, and so he set off, carrying with him the dead youth's satchel.

When he reached the stately mansion, the front door flew open, and two footmen in livery came to meet him. One relieved him of his satchel, the other took his hat and cloak, and a voice was heard exclaiming joyfully:

"Monsieur, here is your son-in-law at last!"

"Dear fellow!" cried a little, fat, white-haired man, rushing into the hall, "let me embrace you!" and he clasped the newcomer rapturously to his heart,

As soon as he could get his breath Saint-Andre said hurriedly:

"Pardon me, sir, but——"

"I pardon you for being late," interrupted the other. "Look, it is twelve o'clock and breakfast is growing cold. Come in and see my daughter. The little puss has been watching the clock for hours, and is all impatience to meet you."

He pulled the young man into the breakfast room as he spoke, and without pausing an instant added, "My wife, Uncle Dorival, Aunt Dolarice, here is the son-in-law at last; Sylvia, my child, bid him welcome——"

"I beg pardon, sir," cried Saint-Andre, but again his host interrupted him.

"Don't tell me you wish to draw back at the last moment, my dear fellow! Everything has been arranged by my esteemed friend, your father, but if you have any objection to urge I will hear it later; bad news can always keep. Now, let us sit down to breakfast at once and be merry. Sit by me, son-in-law, and give me your opinion of this pigeon-bisque."

The visitor was young and very hungry, having fasted since midnight. The shock of his companion's sudden death had unnerved him somewhat, and so, for the time being, he yielded to the force of circumstances.

"Come what will," he said to himself, "I cannot bear to put a dampener upon the joy of these good people; at least, not until they have had their breakfast."

He joined therefore in the general merriment, smiled sweetly upon blushing Sylvia, the bride-elect, and replied unhesitatingly to his supposed future father-in-law's inquiries.

"How is your Aunt Armande, my son?" asked the old man suddenly. "I remember her as a charming young woman; when I was twenty, I came near falling in love with her! We must keep in her good graces, for she will leave a snug little fortune to her nephew."

"Dear Aunt!" exclaimed the youth in a tone of deep affection, "I hope she will enjoy life for many, many years longer," and his pious wish was rewarded with a tender glance from Sylvia's dark eyes. Aunt Dolarice also listened to him with delight.

"He has the instinct as well as the bearing of a born gentleman," she whispered to her brother. "Who would think that his ancestors had always sold cinnamon and nutmegs!"

Uncle Dorival, who read cyclopedias and was thought very learned, retorted quickly:

"And why should he not have as fine sentiments as a nobleman? Away with your absurd notions, sister! All men are equal!"

The clock struck two, and Saint-Andre suddenly felt a pang of remorse for the part he was playing, as he recollected that he had to arrange for his friend's burial and would be expected at the hotel. He therefore rose from the table, and announcing that he had important business to attend to, prepared to leave. His host protested in vain, Sylvia looked up in blank amazement, and everyone entreated him to remain.

"I do not understand," began the old man, following his visitor to the front door. The young man interrupted him, saying solemnly:

"I will explain. At eleven o'clock this morning I died, after a short and sudden attack of colic, and I gave the hotel proprietor my word of honor that my body should be removed this afternoon. You see, therefore, that if I were to absent myself any longer, it would be very awkward." With these words, he disappeared, leaving the old father overwhelmed with amazement.

When the rest of the family heard what had been said, they declared that the youth was joking.

"He has humor," said Uncle Dorival. "I shall congratulate him the next time I see him. He will be here in time for supper."

But supper-time came and passed, and there was no sign of the son-in-law. The family became anxious and alarmed, and toward eight o'clock they sent a messenger to the hotel to inquire for a passenger who had arrived their, by coach, that morning. The proprietor sent back word that the gentleman named had died at eleven o'clock of colic, and that the body had been taken away for burial in the afternoon. This news was received with unbounded astonishment, and little Sylvia burst into tears as she declared that she would wear mourning as if she were a widow.

"It was his ghost that came here," said the girl's mother in a tone of awe, but Uncle Dorival shrugged his shoulders.

"Do ghosts eat and drink as he did?" he asked, "That fellow was merely some young scapegrace, who wanted to play a trick on us, and get a good meal at the same time." Nevertheless, the ghost story went the rounds of the servants' hall, and the footman boasted of having seen a spirit in broad daylight. The tale spread, until it became a subject of wonder in boudoirs and drawing-rooms, and the fair young widow who had never been married wore a black gown and veil, and shed passionate tears for the affianced husband whom she had seen but once.

Two weeks later, she was, in the garden one evening, listening sadly to the songs of the nightingales. The stars were shining brilliantly, but the sight of their beauty only served to increase her sorrow.

"Alas!" she sighed, "if he were but here to stroll with me along these pathways!"

As she spoke, a cracking of boughs near her made her start with terror, and in another instant a man broke through the flowering shrubs and knelt at her feet. The stars were shining to some purpose then, for by their light she recognized the face for which she had been longing, and, in a voice which betokened mingled joy and dread, she cried:

"Then you are not dead!"

"No indeed, sweetheart," he answered softly, "I am alive, and I hope to live and love you for many a long day yet."

When the two young people entered the drawing-room, the family were playing backgammon. A look of amazement greeted the appearance of Saint-Andre, and everyone being dumfounded, the young baron had no difficulty in telling his story, which he concluded by asking for Sylvia's hand.

The marriage took place as soon as the proper period of mourning had elapsed, and Aunt Dolarice was triumphant.

"Did I not tell you he had the bearing of a nobleman!" she cried.

"All's well that ends well, and a baron is as good as a grocer," said Uncle Dorival.

Uric acid in the blood is the cause of nearly all disease, it visits every part of the body and is liable to fasten disease on any organ; the duty of the kidneys is to filter uric acid from the blood; a cold will stop this action, a pain in the back follows, and unless relief is obtained, permanent inability of the kidneys to perform their functions follows, which may terminate in liver complaint, dyspepsia, blood disease, dropsy, diabetes or Bright's disease. "August Flower"

Biliousness, Constipation, Stomach Pains.

"I have been afflicted with biliousness and constipation for fifteen years; first one and then another preparation was suggested to me and tried but to no purpose. At last a friend recommended August Flower. I took it according to directions and its effects were wonderful, relieving me of those disagreeable stomach pains which I had been troubled with so long. Words cannot describe the admiration in which I hold your August Flower—it has given me a new lease of life, which before was a burden. Such a medicine is a benefaction to humanity, and its good qualities and wonderful merits should be made known to everyone suffering with dyspepsia or biliousness

DRIVEN DEEP IN THE MUD

Peculiar and Fatal Accident to Balloonist Hope.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 2.—Professor Edward Hope, the balloonist, was killed Saturday afternoon at Inver Grove in a peculiar manner. After his balloon had gone up about a mile it began to drift rapidly toward the Mississippi before a west wind.

Becoming alarmed, Hope cut away his parachute and began to descend. The machine worked badly, however, and he fell into a slough, and was driven 12 feet into the soft mud, it requiring nearly one hour to dig his body out.

Accident at a Balloon Ascension.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Lake Quinsigamond, near Worcester, was the scene of a balloon accident Saturday night, which, however, ended in a miraculous escape. During the preparations for a balloon ascension and parachute leap, a storm came up and the balloon escaped. On its upward flight it surged into the crowd, and Benjamin Long was caught by the right foot in a loop of rope and carried skyward, head down. From the start Long made efforts to save himself. His mother, who was among the spectators, was almost paralyzed with fright. When well up in the air, Long managed to seize the cut-off rope on the parachute and dropped like a shot for 50 feet, then, as the big umbrella filled, he sailed out on the lake, struck the water, disentangled his feet and swam ashore and was at once the hero of the crowd. This is the second accident that has happened at these balloon ascensions at this lake. It is probable that they will be given up.

A Mysterious Letter.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 2.—Chief of Police Gaster yesterday received a letter from what is supposed to be the Mafia. The letter was inclosed in an old envelope, with a skull and crossbones on it. It was sent from the New Orleans postoffice, and an air of mystery hangs about it. The writer is not known, but investigations will be set on foot to find him, and the matter will be pushed until he is discovered. Nunnez, the writer, appears to live in this city, and to have connections in St. Louis. Following is the letter:

NEW ORLEANS, July 29, 1892.

To Chief of Police Gaster:

We have in our possession Judge Marr. Will deliver him in your hands for $500 or will liberate him for $100. We will send you his old clothes, etc., such as we found on his person, but bear in mind for one bad break authorized by you his body will be riddled with shot, then sent you for a present. This money must reach us before 20 days, unless you will have his right ear for further information.

Address General Delivery Postoffice, Chicago, St. Louis or New Orleans.

Respectfully, P. J. NUNNEZ.

It will be remembered that Judge Marr, of the Criminal District Court in this city, mysteriously disappeared last April. He was old and feeble, and was last seen walking along the levee. The impression of his friends was that he had fallen into the river and was drowned, and that impression still prevails.

Suspected of Parricide.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 2.—John Fell, aged 55, was found dead Monday evening. The police believe that he was a victim of violence. Frederick Fell, a son of the dead man, has been arrested, and it is said that William Miller, a son-in-law, will also be arrested Killed at 70 Years of Age.

THAMESFORD, Ont., Aug. 2.—Mr. Bartindale, while assisting his son-in-law, Mr. George Bott, to draw in hay was thrown from the load by the horses starting suddenly and killed. He was about 70 years of age, one of East Nissouri's oldest settlers and highly esteemed.

PAPA'S BABY BOY.

An Explanation for the Premature Grayness of Many Fathers?

Charming as is the merry prattle of innocent childhood, it is not particularly agreeable at about 1 o'clock in the morning, when you are dead for sleep. There are young and talkative children who have no more regard for your feelings, or for the proprieties of life, than to open their peepers with a snap at 1 or 2 a.m. and seek to engage you in enlivening dialogues of this sort:

"Papa!"

You think you will pay no heed to the imperative little voice, hoping that silence on your part will keep the youngster quiet; but again the boy of 3 pipes out sharply:

"Papa!"

"Well?" you say.

"You 'wake, papa?"

"Yes."

"So's me."

"Yes, I hear that you are," you say with cold sarcasm. "What do you want?"

"Oh, nuffin!"

"Well, lie still and go to sleep, then."

"I isn't sleepy, papa."

"Well, I am, young man."

"Is you! I isn't—not a bit. I say, papa, papa!"

"Well?"

"If you was rich what would you buy me?"

"I don't know—go to sleep."

"Wouldn't you buy me nuffin?"

"I fancy so; now you——"

"What, papa?"

"Well, a steam engine, maybe; now you go to sleep."

"With a whistle that would sound, papa?"

"Yes, yes; now you——"

"And would the wheels go round, papa?"

"Oh, yes (yawning). Shut your eyes, now."

"I say, papa."

No answer.

"Papa!"

"Well, what now?"

"Is you 'fraid of the dark?"

"No" (drowsily).

"I want a jink."

"No, you don't."

"I do, papa."

Experience has taught you that there will be no peace until you have brought the "jink," and you scurry out to the bathroom in the dark for it, knocking your shins against everything in the room as you go.

"Now, I don't want to hear another word from you to-night," you say, as he gulps down a mouthful of the water he didn't want. Two minutes later he says:

"Papa!"

"Look here, laddie, papa will have to punish you if—"

"I can spell 'dog,' papa."

"Well, nobody wants to hear you spell it at 2 o'clock in the morning."

"B-o-g—dog; is that right?"

"Yes, yes; now you lie down, and go to sleep, instantly!"

"Then I shall be a good boy, won't I, papa?"

"Yes! You'll be the best boy on earth. Good night, dearie."

"Papa!"

"Well, well! What now?"

"Is I your little boy?"

"Yes, yes; of course."

"Some mans haven't got any little boys; but you have, haven't you?"

"Yes."

"Don't you wish you had two, free, nine, 'leven, twenty-six, ninety-ten, free hundred little boys?"

The mere possibility of such a remote and contingent calamity so paralyzes you that you lie speechless for 10 minutes, during which you hear a yawn or two in the little bed by your side, a little figure rolls over two or three times, a pair of heels fly into the air once or twice, a warm, moist little hand reaches out and touches your face to make sure you are there, and the boy is asleep, with his heels where his head ought to be.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

A Bad Thing for Alabama.

Thought It Was Poison.

A thrilling incident in New Jersey is recorded in the New York Herald. The clerk in a drug store had drawn what was supposed to be soda water for some men, when a party of women entered and ordered soda, requesting the clerk to hurry. He handed the concoction to an assistant, who by mistake handed it to the women. Each as she tasted it exclaimed that she had been poisoned. The frightened clerk then explained the mistake, and admitted that he had put whiskey in the drink for the men. One woman refuses to believe that the mixture she drank was not poison. She does not want to believe that she drank whiskey, as she is a strong prohibitionist. The clerk is looking for a new position, and is pondering over the words of the poet:

Oh, what a tangled webb we weave
When first we practice to deceive.

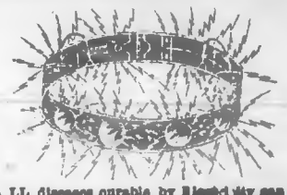
THE WORLD'S BEST.



ALL diseases curable by Electricity can be treated at home by the Dorenwend Appliance. The Dorenwend is the only legitimate Electric Belt made which fulfils the requirements of Electro-medical science. It is a complete BODY BATTERY. It has an independent battery, which generates a mild, continuous current of Electricity (without shocks) and can be regulated to suit the strongest man or the weakest child. It is a CURRENT OF QUANTITY, not merely a sensation current, and the quantity or power is the greatest curative. It is a successful treatment for INDIGESTION, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, SCIATICA, LUMBAGO, LIVER AND KIDNEY TROUBLES, WEAK BACK, SPINAL DISEASE, HEART DISEASE, NERVOUS DEBILITY, PARALYSIS, VERTIGO, FEMALE COMPLAINTS, IMPOTENCY, SEXUAL DECLINE and all diseases of the Nervous and Muscular Systems.

Remember that the DORENWEND BELT is the very latest invention in this line, and was invented by a competent electrician, and ranks as the best in the world; we defy anyone to bring proof to the contrary.

Do not class this Belt with the humbug combinations of leather and metal with which the country is being flooded. If you wish to experiment with cheap articles, buy them, but if you want to procure a genuine Electric Belt and one that will be a benefit get a Dorenwend Belt.

OUR WHEAT SURPLUS.

TWENTY-TWO MILLION BUSHELS FOR EXPORT THIS YEAR.

Discrimination in Freight Rates Alleged —Millers Ask to Be Placed on the Same Basis as Exporters of Grain as Far as Freight Rates Are Concerned.

TORONTO, Aug. 3.—The Dominion Millers met yesterday in the Board of Trade building in very fair force. President Edward Peplow of Peterboro in the chair.

The secretary's report was encouraging. There are now, the report stated, 212 members, an increase of 26 over last year's membership. The passing of the Act of Incorporation was noted with satisfaction, as was the happy termination of the Newfoundland difficulty. The appointment of Mr. D. Plowes as representative in Britain was reported, and the estimate of the wheat crop for the coming year given. It is judged, according to the report, that the surplus for exportation will be over 22,000,000 bushels.

The treasurer's statement showed a surplus of $151, the receipts being $14,660. Since the closing of the books additional expense had been caused by the passing of the Incorporation Act.

The Executive Committee brought in a brief report stating the committee's course with regard to the inspection of wheat and to Mr. D. Plowes' presence at the London Chamberof Commerce and his support of Sir Charles Tupper's resolution.

Discrimination Against Railways.

The Freight Committee brought in a report, in which grave discrimination by the railways against the millers was pointed out and complained of. It was shown that the rate from Port Arthur to Liverpool is 13 cents a bushel, from Port Arthur to London, Ont., eight cents; while wheat that is taken from Port Arthur to Montreal for six cents has to pay eight cents for transference to London. The gist of the report is contained in the following extract:

Millers should be placed on the same basis as exporters of grain as far as railway freights are concerned, that is, they should be given the same rates plus the terminals, and they should receive the same public notice of those rates as the grain men do.

The report of Mr. Watts, the Central Wheat Buyer, was also read. He reported that 163 millers have patronised the office, and that it has led to a large increase in the association. In the past seven months 910 carloads have been purchased through the office, including 419 cars of Ontario wheat, 466 cars of Manitoba wheat and 25 cars of sundries. In all 2206 carloads have been purchased since the office was first opened. The total earnings have been $6103.64, the total expenses $5089.08, leaving a balance of $1013.56. This will enable the office, if the millers continue their patronage, to reduce the rates by 50 cents per carload.

The Act of Incorporation was read and agreed to, and then the bylaws were agreed to after a long discussion. The meeting then adjourned till the evening.

President Peplow Predicts.

"The first thing," said the President on opening the evening session, "is a matter not down on the program." That thing was the president's address, and the worthy official drew from his bosom a manuscript which embodied his valedictory. It was an historical sketch that the president gave, for he reviewed the increase of the flour duty and the resultant benefits, the buying of wheat by standard and the reconciliation of the farmers to a measure at first bitterly opposed, the institution of the Central Grain Buyer and the advantages gained thereby.

"I mention these things," said Mr. Peplow, looking up over his tilted eyeglasses, "to show how everything the Dominion Millers' Association has tackled has turned out an unqualified success," and great was the applause thereat.

"I think I cannot be accused of egotism," continued the President, returning to his manuscript, "in stating that the Dominion Millers' Association was the means of organizing the great deputation of boards of trade and chambers of commerce that waited upon the Dominion Government urging them to a modus vivendi with the Newfoundland Government, and succeeded in getting the differential duties against Canadian produce removed."

The rest of the report spoke in terms of satisfaction of the Act of Incorporation, and gave a forecast of the future work of the association. The proper adjustment of the duties and railway rates so as to admit of the whole output of wheat being ground in this country was mentioned as a proper subject for agitation and the establishment of an experimental mill suggested.

Who Are the Government?

Then came the election of officers. Mr. McLaughlin of Toronto was unanimously elected president. The other officers are: First vice-president, A. H. Baird, Paris; second vice-president, E. S. Edmondson, Oshawa; treasurer, William Galbraith, Toronto; secretary, Charles B. Watts, Toronto; Executive Committee, J. L. Spink, Toronto; James Goldie, Guelph; J. D. Saunby, London; J. D. Flavelle, Lindsay; I. Warcup, Oakville; W. H. Mulhern, Peterboro; W. Snider, Waterloo; Arbitration Committee, W. H. Meldrum, Peterboro; D. Goldie, Ayr; T. O. Kemp, Seaforth; J. Stark, Paisley; N. Wanger, Ayton; J. C. Vanstone, Bowmanville; R. Noble, Norval.

Mr Larke on the World's Fair.

While the ballots were being counted, Mr. J. S. Larke gave a brief but clear and concise address regarding the show to be made by millers at the World's Fair. He admitted that the unfriendliness of the United States inclined Canadians to be indisposed to trouble themselves to exhibit; but he pointed out that the Fair cannot be boycotted by Canada, that business men from America, Europe and Asia will be present, and that if Canadian millers fail to make a show the American millers will be greatly pleased and benefited. A display of raw products alone will strengthen the false idea entertained regarding Canada by outsiders. Canadian mills and grain-growing are so numerous that export is needed. Which shall be exported, wheat or flour? A good exhibit of flour will greatly assist in finding a foreign market. It is quality and not quantity, Mr. Larke reminded his hearers, that will tell there, and he gave some hints as to how the exhibit could be made attractive in appearance. Much interest was manifested in the address, which was vigorously applauded.

More Scientific Knowledge Needed.

Mr. T. O. Kemp then read a paper on "How to Arrive at the Milling Value of Wheat." Mr. Kemp first pointed out the necessity of being able to discriminate and estimate the various qualities necessary to a good article. Millers as a rule depend upon experience alone, which is a rough and unscientific way of working. This makes the introduction of a new variety of wheat a very slow and difficult operation. To improve matters in this respect, it was suggested that the experimental farms and agricultural colleges be enabled to make the necessary analysis. In the remainder of the paper Mr. Kemp referred to the necessity of the co-operation of the farmer and the miller, and recommended the attention of the millers to the state of ripeness at which the grain is cut.

This ended the program of the evening, and the Association adjourned till 9 o'clock this morning.

SEVERN BRIDGE, Ont., Aug. 3.—A drowning accident occurred on the Severn River this afternoon. AGONIZING ECZEMA

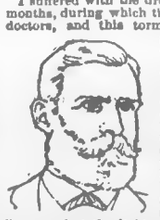
Awful Suffering. Driven Almost Insane by Doctors. Tried Cuticura. Relief Immediate. Entirely Cured in 4 Months.



I suffered with the dreadful eczema for over six months, during which time I had consulted three doctors, and this tormenting skin disease had grown worse and worse on me in spite of all medical treatment. My condition was unbearable. My legs were swollen, my arms were raw, my face and neck full of eruption, which made me scratch until my whiskers were soaked and pasted with the sickly fluid. I could hardly bear my clothing. When night came I was afraid to go to bed, no sleep would come to relieve me but the itching would increase. During day time I had no rest, I was all broken up, nervous to the highest degree, and nearly driven to despair. At that time I read about the CUTICURA REMEDIES, intended to try them, and dropped the doctors. After applying CUTICURA I had the first night's rest for several weeks. Using the CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, with proper judgment, my condition improved slowly but surely day by day, until after three to four months' use of them I was cured. Our minister, Rev. J. G. Perrault, in Mandan, knows me and knows how I suffered. Any one may write to him and he will certify to the truth of this testimonial.

"RED STAR OF WAR."

PLANET MARS NOW WATCHED BY ASTRONOMERS.

The Mammoth Lick Telescope Brings the Red Planet Within a Range of 50,000 Miles—Under Constant Observation For Over Three Weeks

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4.—Are the people on the planet Mars trying to signal the earth?

That is the question which the work of the Great Lick telescope during the past few days has aroused, as Mars has approached nearer and nearer to the big California instrument, which will to-morrow night have opportunities for observation such as were never known before in the history of astronomy.

The present great stir about Mars is easily explained. To-night he will be in opposition—i.e., the earth will come directly between the ruddy planet and the sun, thus affording an unusually favorable and long coveted opportunity for telescopists to scan his features, to watch his two tiny moons, to detect his ice caps and perhaps to determine whether his so-called "canals" really bear any trace of the workmanship of animated inhabitants.

The path of Mars in his journey around the sun is not a regular curve. So great is its eccentricity that when near perihelion the planet is about 12,000,000 miles nearer the central luminary of our system than when it approaches aphelion. To-night Mars will be near perihelion, and it is only about 35,000,000 miles from the earth—a very short distance for even an ordinary telescope to span.

But the mammoth Lick telescope, magnifying 700 times, brings the red planet to within a range of 50,000 miles, or but a little more than one-fifth of the distance of our own silvery moon.

Moreover, at this period Mars is at one side of the earth, while the sun is at the opposite side, a fact which contributes very considerably to favorable observations of the planet. No equally favorable opportunity for studying Mars will recur till the year 1909.

It will be remembered that Mars only became a subject of extreme importance 15 years ago, when it last approached Earth. At that time not only were its two moons discovered by an American, but wise men in the great observatory at Milan were enabled to map its surface so as to show almost conclusively that human life existed on the planet. The strides which telescope-making has taken during the intervening years have produced the Lick telescope, and this has not only justified the expectations of its makers, but has already added some startling facts to what was already known about the red orb.

Mars has been under constant observation for more than three weeks past at the Lick Observatory. It has grown larger and larger each evening, and to-morrow night a little over an hour after midnight it will reach its maximum size and then begin to again slowly recede for another 15 years.

It is admitted by all astronomers that the physical conditions of the planet as they have become known through the new and improved telescopes of the past 20 years more closely resemble those of the earth than any of the other heavenly bodies. Indeed, there is hardly another planet even remotely resembling the earth in regard to the heat and atmospheric conditions here prevailing. Mars has not only a well-recognized atmosphere of its own, but four seasons of the year, which follow each other as those of the earth, a degree of warmth closely approximating what is known here, a day of a little over 24 hours, north and south poles with ice and snow and every natural condition apparently which should conduce to the existence of animal life.

That is as far as the astronomers will go. Astronomers form one of the most conservative classes of people, and will never admit what has not been proved to exist. To their exact mathematical minds reasoning by analogy and induction are foreign, while all professors of other branches of science reach their broadest and truest conclusions in this manner.

Other scientists, therefore, have taken up the definition of Mars where astronomers lay it down. Scientifically it has been demonstrated in the most conclusive and absolute manner that animal life exists on Mars in a high degree of development. Whether or not the process of natural selection has there advanced so far as Darwin said it has upon the earth, is a question about which some of the most eminent scientists are divided. They have no doubt, however, that the conditions of life on Mars are very closely allied to those of the earth.

With the known age of the planet, its physical formation and the solar advantages it enjoys, as discovered by the astronomers, scientists could not deny that it was inhabited without upsetting to a large degree the foundation upon which their own elaborate story of the creation rests. At this point the work of Schnaparelli, the eminent Milan astronomer, plays a most important part in the observations now being made at the Lick Observatory. After long and careful observation during the last opposition of Mars, 15 years ago, he was enabled to map its surface in a way which went far to strengthen the contention of those scientists who maintained that it was inhabited by a highly civilized race.

His work was in effect to show that the surface of the planet had been transformed in a manner unknown in any of the other heavenly bodies. There were configurations, as he demonstrated, which, if they were the work of nature, have been repeated nowhere else, not even on the earth, which Mars so closely resembles. Here again the scientists, drawing facts from all sources, putting this and that together, and reasoning by analogy and induction, reached the conclusive belief that the surface of the planet had been altered by human hands.

It followed as a matter of course that the race capable of accomplishing such gigantic results must have reached a stage of civilization in some respects at least superior to that prevailing on earth. The conclusion has thus been arrived at by many of the most eminent men of science that the people of Mars in all probability have perfected the making of telescopes and long ago discovered the exact science of astronomy, and that many conditions of life prevailing upon the earth are known to them.

Such an opportunity as the present one when, as it would present itself to their minds, the earth would be approaching close to their own planet, would be the very chance they would await to try to open communication with the people of the earth.

This may be the explanation of the strange phenomena observed this week at the Lick Observatory. The results thus far obtained have already been so extraordinary as to have made a profound impression upon the practical minds of the astronomers there assembled. Three great lights forming a triangle have been seen in the southwestern limb of the planet. They had never been seen before in any observation.

There was no mistake about these lights. They were seen for four nights in succession, so that it was impossible that they could have been produced by conditions of the Martian atmosphere or have been optical delusions of any kind. When first seen at the Lick Observatory these lights in a triangle so astonished the astronomers that they believed them to be the effect of light unconnected with the planet. They therefore, with true astronomical caution, waited until the following night before devoting much thought to the lights. On the second night, however, which was even more clear and brilliant than the first, the lights were seen to be there when the great polished lens was turned upon the orb which had stepped to its place in the sky.

For two succeeding evenings after that these lights were observed, burning steadily, brilliantly and effulgently, as if from three mountain tops. It was evident that the lights were placed upon either mountains in Mars or artificial projections or elevations of some kind.

The appearance of three brilliant lights in a triangle upon one of the planets in a manner they are unable to explain raises a presumption at which their minds recoil. A scientist would, when thoroughly convinced of the existence of these lights under such conditions as are known to prevail in Mars, easily glide to the almost irresistible conclusion that they were the work of the men on Mars.

Observed at any other time, there would be apparently no other means of explaining these lights in a way to satisfy common sense. Observed at the present time, when eminent men in science have reached the conclusion that the people on Mars would seize the opportunity to try again to attract the attention of the people on the earth, the three lights of Mars are as significant as the moving lights in the distance were to Columbus on the caravel.

But the three strange lights which have looked down the 36-inch tube of the Lick telescope for four successive nights and astounded the astronomers at the other end are not the only unusual appearances upon the surface of the planet which the great piece of flint glass has revealed. That glass, which cost over $50,000 and took years to select, grind and polish until perfection was attained, has revealed things which other observatories have not noticed during the present opposition.

One huge projection upon the surface of the planet was long ago observed. It was not a mountain, and could not be explained by the astronomers in any ordinary manner and so they called it Fons Juventutis, or Fountain of Youth, although how they could see a fountain at a distance of 35,000,000 miles they did not state. Now, however, as observed through the great Lick telescope, there are on Mars close together two Fountains of Youth. The astronomers have not offered any explanation of this, and they are evidently puzzled, for one Fountain of Youth of the size described by them would be quite enough for that part of the country.

The scientific mind has, however, taken this phenomenon in conjunction with the three strange lights and asks whether it does not seem probable that the Fountain of Youth may itself be a signal to the people of the earth. The people of Mars being able to bring this globe which we call Earth so close to them that they can see forests, fields and cities if, indeed, they cannot actually see people walking in the streets, would be eager to establish communication with us. They may have tried to do this for centuries at each recurring opposition of Mars, or opposition of the Earth, as they would call it, and repeated failures would only stir them to greater efforts.

GREATER THAN SOLOMON.

A Justice Who Gives a Bigamist Time to Get a Divorce.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Aug. 4.—A new precedent in bigamy cases has been laid down by Justice Moses of Deposit. William A. Brown was charged with abduction and bigamy. The accused admitted having another legal wife and child, but said he had not lived with them for some time, that he had good grounds for divorce, and intended to make application for one. Justice Moses kindly adjourned the examination for three months to enable Brown to get a divorce.

SAYS THE FIGHT IS OVER.

A Pittsburg Mill Official Who Claims Victory for the Iron King.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 4.—Supt. Dillon at the Upper Union mills said Tuesday there was no doubt the trouble was at an end so far as the Carnegie firms are concerned. As fast as new men deserted others took their places.

The committees of the locked-out men are still active. Mr. Richard Johnson, the sturdy sentinel at the valley tracks, said yesterday that they were as hopeful as ever.

A Winter in Exile.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 4.—The closing of Behring Sea against sealers has doomed three white men to a winter in exile far up in the Arctic and possibly to death. A year ago the Mattie Dyer, a sealing schooner from San Francisco, landed three of its crew, Frederick Burns, Jack Posford and a man called Frenchy, on St. Matthew's Island in the most northern part of Behring Sea. A cabin was built for them and they were given stores and fuel enough for nearly a year, and 70 pounds of powder. They were to hunt blue foxes and polar bears, and the Dyer was to take them off in May of this year. The Dyer sailed into port on Sunday, and yesterday Capt. Charles Mocklar declared that by reason of the blockade he had been unable to reach the exiles. It would be too expensive an undertaking, he said, to send a vessel especially to relieve the men. No arrangements have been made for their rescue. Three Indian hunters, who were left on St. Matthew's Island in a similar way a few seasons ago, were devoured by Polar bears.

Struck by a Fender.

OWEN SOUND, Ont., Aug. 4.—A painful accident occurred yesterday at the Poole-street dock. As the steamer Baltic was landing one of the fenders became loose at the top, causing it to fly outwards. It struck a young man named Carl Lynde, who was on the dock, on the head, inflicting a wound which may prove fatal. Lynde had come with an excursion from Meaford, near which place he has been working. He formerly lived in Spadina-avenue, Toronto.

THE DOMINION MILLERS.

TESTIMONIALS EXCHANGED AS TO CROP PROSPECTS.

They Object to Railroad Discrimination in the Rates on Wheat and Flour Respectively—Canadian Grains and Their Products at the World's Fair.

TORONTO, Aug. 4.—Yesterday's meeting of the Dominion Millers was a busy one. The routine work was over and the morning was spent in the earnest discussion of various technical points. It was all through by noon, and the assemblage broke up with lively expressions of satisfaction.

Mr. T. O. Kemp's paper of Tuesday night was fully discussed, and it was unanimously agreed that the work of estimating the milling value of a new variety of wheat is very difficult as matters stand, and that a scientific estimate would materially improve matters. The following resolution resulted from the discussion:

"That the association memorialize the Dominion and Ontario Governments at an early day drawing their attention to the advantages to farmers and millers that would result from some system of testing wheat in sample lots as to their milling and productive qualities, which tests the Government may be able to carry out in connection with the agricultural colleges and experimental farms."

How Much Does It Cost?

Mr. J. L. Spink then took up the tale and discussed the question of the exact cost of the production of flour, and of the losses frequently sustained through a rough-and-ready style of work amongst millers. He gave a minute estimate of the cost, citing many interesting figures and showing very careful study and preparation. Two resolutions were passed: the first, moved by Mr. J. L. Spink and seconded by Mr. E. Peplow, that in the opinion of the meeting both the quantity of wheat needed for a barrel of flour and the cost of manufacturing it have hitherto been underestimated by millers.

This was supplemented by a motion moved by Mr. W. H. Meidrum and seconded by Mr. E. Mackenzie, to the effect that it takes 4 bushels and 40 pounds of wheat to make a barrel of straight roller flour, and that the manufacture costs not less than 35 cents, exclusive of the cost of the barrel and the packing.

They Object to Discrimination.

The meeting then turned to the discussion of the railroads' discrimination against millers in their rates on wheat and flour respectively, and the question was turned over in all its bearings. The great discrimination made by the railroads, the injustice of it, the claims of the millers and the benefits they could confer on the railroads were dwelt upon with fulness and clearness.

Finally a motion was passed empowering the Executive Committee to take the question up, and to, if necessary, call a special meeting of the association to apply to the Government for redress, and to take action to obtain better marine insurance for members.

Mr. J. S. Larke was gratified by a resolution pledging the association's help in sending a good exhibit of Canadian grains and their products to the World's Fair.

Good Crop Prospects.

The proceedings were then brought to a close. The new president, Mr. McLaughlin, gave a short address, in which he told of his visit to the British Millers' Association in Northampton, England, and of the good time enjoyed there. Then some testimonies were exchanged as to crop prospects, man after man giving good reports from their own particular districts. The usual votes of thanks were passed and the association adjourned.

THE LOUISE SUNK.

There Were Thirteen Passengers on Board, But No Lives Lost.

DESERONTO, Aug. 4.—Last night about 9.30 while the tug Rescue was towing down the bay the passenger steamer Princess Louise ran into her, the effect being that the hull of the passenger steamer was stove in, and she barely succeeded in reaching the shore before she sank. The engine of the Rescue was reversing full steam when the boats came together. There were about 13 passengers on board, and all were brought to Deseronto by the Rescue.

Among the passengers was Miss Cassels of Toronto. There was no loss of life.

A STOCK OF STOLEN JEWELS.

Ignatius Wieder Set up a Fine Shop in Piccadilly.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Ignatius Wieder, 28 years old, formerly a prosperous jeweler of No. 1 Piccadilly, London, was arrested and locked up in Police headquarters yesterday, charged with having defrauded London wholesale jewelers out of nearly $25,000 worth of diamonds and pearls.

The arrest was made by the police of this city on a cable message received by Inspector Jarvis of Scotland Yard from the London authorities.

Came a Long Way to Grind an Organ.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Catharine Pallizeo, an old gray-haired Moravian, was landed at Ellis Island yesterday from the steamship Elbe, accompanied by her son Joseph, aged 26, and her daughter Cecelia, aged 23. The old lady carried a highly ornamented hand-organ and is on her way to Canada. She proposes to travel on foot, and will then go to the Western States to make money by grinding the organ. She has been in this country several times before, and is said to have made considerable money.

Mr. Maclean Arrested.

TORONTO, Aug. 4.—Constable Gundry of Huron County came down from Goderich yesterday with a warrant charging W. F. Maclean of The Toronto World with criminally libeling M. C. Cameron. The prosecution had wired Hugh Miller, J.P., to be on hand at the City Hall, and he put in an appearance and backed the warrant, which was subsequently executed.

Slow Strangulation.

BUFFALO, Aug. 4.—A most deliberate suicide was committed yesterday at 113 Hampshire-street. Mrs. Mary Neukamm, aged 50, hanged herself by tying a pocket handkerchief around her neck, attaching it to the bedpost in her room and slowly strangling herself to death.

Carnegie Officials Arrested.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 4.—The threatened suits against the Carnegie officials and the Pinkertons, charging them with murder, were begun yesterday and warrants issued for the arrest of the defendants.

Did Not Attempt Suicide.

TORONTO, Aug. 4.—Dr. R. A. Pyne, one of the physicians who attended Alexander Mitchell reported to have attempted suicide on Sunday night, states that he believes Mitchell took the poison by mistake, as he had been sick all week and had evidently taken the poison thinking it was a bottle of medicine which had been prescribed for him.

Has Peterborough's Aquatic Glory Departed Forever?

Are the springs of interest in aquatic matters in Peterborough dried up? It looks like it. A party of gentlemen were driving down George street the other day when a stranger, a member of the company, remarked upon the beauty of Little Lake and the fortunate possession it was for lovers of aquatic sport.

"Yes," said a townsman, "it's a beautiful sheet of water, close to the town, and used to witness some lively scenes."

"Indeed it did," said Charley, "the regattas they used to have then were far different from what you see over there,—just beyond that pier—a man panting for sunken sawlogs and driftwood. Why, a few years ago in the evening the water would be black with boats, but now——" and the French phrase which Charley with consistent bad taste persists in using seemed to be simply an echo of the words of the Canadian Frenchman who was hunting for drift wood over by the pier—"but now, nous avons change tout cela."

Indeed the scene has changed, and Peterborough is now to be characterized as much for her apathy in canoeing and general aquatics, as she was noted for her leading position in these sports ten years ago. The following paragraph extracted from an article on "Canoeing and Canoe Construction," printed in the EXAMINER of June 13th, 1883, was true at the time and as far as it went, correctly described the situation.

"In Peterborough canoeing is found in its 'native haunts.' Here the science is carried to its greatest perfection; here the sport is most generally followed; here is the first and largest canoe Association founded or existing in Canada; here is to be held this summer the grandest canoe congress that has ever been held in the world, and here are made the best canoes in the world. Peterborough canoes are known in all quarters of the globe where keel is launched or paddle plied."

An old time sportsman chatting with a reporter of the EXAMINER, in bewailing the decadence of aquatic sports, drifted into reminiscences of departed days:—
